MG Lim Kim Choon Handing Over the Command Symbol of the RSAF to BG Ng Chee Khern

The Republic of Singapore Air Force (RSAF) welcomed its new Chief of Air Force this afternoon. Major-General (MG) Lim Kim Choon handed over the Air Force command symbol to Brigadier-General (BG) Ng Chee Khern in a Change of Command Parade held at Tengah Air Base (TAB). The parade was witnessed by the Chief of Defence Force, Lieutenant-General (LG) Ng Yat Chung.

MG Lim reviewed the parade with a Guard-of-Honour formed by airmen from the Field Defence Squadrons of Changi Air Base, Paya Lebar Air Base, Sembawang Air Base, and Tengah Air Base. The parade included seven marching contingents from various formations and commands from the RSAF. MG Lim also reviewed a military mobile column displaying equipment from the Air Defence Systems Division, and a static display consisting of all aircraft types in the RSAF.

The Change of Command is part of the SAF's leadership renewal. MG Lim Kim Choon will join the Civil Aviation Authority of Singapore on 2 May 06.
