OWNERSHIP & ADMINISTRATION

BRYAN GLAZER
OWNER/CO-CHAIRMAN

Owner/Co-Chairman Bryan Glazer enters his 31st year with the Buccaneers, working tirelessly to support the Buccaneers franchise and brand. Possessing an acute business sense, Glazer oversees many of the day-to-day operations of the club and has shaped the Buccaneers into one of the most recognizable and successful franchises in the National Football League. Over the three decades, he has also evolved into one of Tampa Bay's top community leaders through his dedicated commitment to a variety of philanthropic endeavors.

The Glazer family's signing of six-time Super Bowl champion Tom Brady, along with the acquisition of other high-profile free agents during the 2020 offseason, set the stage for the franchise's historic run to its second world championship. The Buccaneers finished the regular season with an 11-5 record and posted a franchise-record eight-game winning streak which culminated with an appearance and eventual victory in Super Bowl LV.

On February 7, 2020, the Buccaneers defeated the Kansas City Chiefs 31-9 at Raymond James Stadium, earning the distinction as the first team in NFL history to win a Super Bowl in its home stadium. Under the Glazer family's leadership, the Buccaneers have totaled eight division titles, two conference championships, and are just the 15th NFL franchise to win multiple Super Bowls. In the time since the family's purchase of the team in 1995, only three other ownership groups have claimed multiple Super Bowl victories. Prior to the Glazer family's ownership, the team advanced to the postseason just three times from 1976-94.

On January 26, 2003, in just their eighth year of ownership, the Glazer family was on hand in San Diego, California for the franchise's first world championship as Tampa Bay claimed its first NFL title with a 48-21 victory over Oakland in Super Bowl XXXVII. The Buccaneers, who were making their first appearance in the NFL's championship game, also claimed the first-ever NFC South title in 2002, then the fourth division crown in team history. In addition to the 1999 NFC Central Division title, Tampa Bay has also won the NFC South in 2005, 2007, 2021, 2022, 2023 and 2024.

An instrumental figure in his family's purchase of the Buccaneers in 1995, Glazer has been a driving force in improving every aspect of the club's influence, both nationally and in the Tampa Bay region.

His dedication to the Bay area was also highlighted by his leadership in the construction of Raymond James Stadium, which successfully hosted Super Bowl XXXV in 2001, Super Bowl XLIII in 2009, and Super Bowl LV in 2020. Glazer played an integral role in helping to lure the 2009 game to Tampa Bay, speaking to NFL owners on behalf of the team and the community at the NFL League meetings in May 2005. During the 2017 offseason, Glazer once again played a major part in positioning Tampa Bay as the top option to host Super Bowl LV in 2021, when it was decided that Los Angeles would not be able to meet the criteria for hosting the game due to stadium construction delays. Tampa Bay has hosted three Super Bowls since the family's purchase of the team and Glazer remains committed to pursuing future Super Bowls for the area. Glazer also serves on the NFL's Media Owned and Operated Committee, and in August of 2024, he joined the Board of Directors for the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio.

Prior to the 2022 season, Glazer played a pivotal role in the decision to name Todd Bowles as the team's new head coach following the retirement of Bruce Arians. Bowles has gone on to lead the Buccaneers to three consecutive NFC South division titles, becoming the first head coach in franchise history to accomplish that feat.

Glazer's innovative approach to business and penchant for thinking outside the box has resulted in many new developments for the club, including the creation of the Pewter Partners program, which rewards the Buccaneers' corporate partners with superior advertising packages and unprecedented customer service.

Glazer has also distinguished himself as one of Tampa Bay's top philanthropists and, in the spring of 2016, was honored with induction into the Tampa Bay Business Hall of Fame in recognition of his business achievements and community leadership in and around the region.

In 2010, the Glazer Children's Museum opened in downtown Tampa thanks in large part to a $5 million donation from the Glazer Family Foundation. Glazer is on the Board of Directors for the award-winning museum which has served the children of Tampa Bay through educational programming. Glazer is also a member of the Moffitt Cancer Center National Board of Advisors and has served as chairman of the American Heart Association's annual Heart Ball.

He also serves as a Board Member for the Glazer Vision Foundation which has performed more than 200,000 free eye screenings and provided more than 20,000 free prescription eyeglasses to children in need.

Glazer has also played a large role in the redevelopment of West Tampa through a $4 million donation that led to the construction of the Shanna and Bryan Glazer JCC. The Center, which opened in December of 2016, has provided a wide array of community programming and serves as a key anchor for the area.

The Glazer family has also offered support and resources during challenging times in the Tampa Bay region. In the days following Hurricane Helene in September of 2024, the Glazer family donated $1 million to support local relief efforts. After the area suffered additional devastation from the effects of Hurricane Milton just two weeks later, the family created the Glazer Family Small Business Fund which made an additional $1 million available to hundreds of small businesses in the Tampa Bay and West Central Florida areas. During the COVID-19 pandemic, the Glazer family provided 5 million meals through a donation to Feeding Tampa Bay, which was the largest single donation of meals to the program at the time. The family also pledged $100,000 to the One Tampa: Relief Now, Rise Together Fund and another $100,000 to the City of St. Petersburgh's Fighting Chance Fund.

In 2024, Shanna and Bryan Glazer donated $2 million to Berkeley Preparatory School's endowment for teachers in an effort to ensure the adequate compensation necessary to attract and retain high-quality teachers who foster a more effective learning environment.

Glazer also serves on the Board of Manchester United, which has captured five Premier League titles (2007, 2008, 2009, 2011 and 2013), as well as the 2008 Champions League title during his tenure.

Glazer earned his bachelor's degree in broadcast communications from American University in 1986, prior to completing his law degree from Whittier College School of Law in 1989. He resides in Tampa with his wife, Shanna, and their two children.

JOEL GLAZER
OWNER/CO-CHAIRMAN

Owner/Co-Chairman Joel Glazer is entering his 31st season overseeing the day-to-day operations of the franchise, along with other members of the Glazer family.

After working alongside his father Malcolm to successfully acquire the Tampa Bay Buccaneers franchise in 1995, Glazer worked tirelessly in conjunction with his brother, Bryan, to build a community consensus for local approval of what would become Raymond James Stadium. The Glazers set out to design a stadium deemed worthy of a first-class organization, thereby creating a winning environment and revolutionizing fan experience and comfort.

Since assuming his current role with the club, the Buccaneers have made 12 playoff appearances, including a stretch from 1999-2002 in which Tampa Bay was the only team in the league to appear in the postseason all four years. Under the Glazer family's leadership, the Buccaneers have won eight division titles, two NFC Championships and two Super Bowls.

Prior to the 2020 season, Glazer helped engineer the boldest free agent signing in franchise history with the acquisition of six-time Super Bowl champion quarterback Tom Brady. The signing, along with the addition of a number of other key players, immediately transformed the Buccaneers into title contenders and set the stage for the team's historic victory in Super Bowl LV. When the Buccaneers defeated the Kansas City Chiefs 31-9 on February 7, 2021, at Raymond James Stadium, it marked the first time in NFL history that a team had won a Super Bowl on its home field. Previous to that, the franchise's other signature historical moment occurred at the conclusion of the 2002 season when Tampa Bay claimed its first NFL title with a 48-21 victory over the Oakland Raiders in Super Bowl XXXVII on January 26, 2003, in San Diego. The Buccaneers, who were making their first appearance in the NFL's championship game, also claimed the first-ever NFC South title in 2002, then the fourth division crown in team history. Tampa Bay also took the NFC South in 2005, 2007, 2021, 2022, 2023 and 2024.

On January 8, 2019, the Glazer family hired two-time Associated Press NFL Coach of the Year Bruce Arians as the team's head coach. During three memorable seasons at the helm in Tampa Bay, Arians finished his time with the Buccaneers as the franchise leader in winning percentage (.633) by a head coach, surpassing Tony Dungy. After Arians transitioned into a front office role, Glazer was then part of the decision-making process that elevated Todd Bowles from defensive coordinator to head coach ahead of the 2022 NFL season. In each of Bowles' first three seasons at the helm, the Buccaneers captured the NFL South title. Bowles and General Manager Jason Licht were rewarded with contract extensions during the 2025 offseason, securing the leadership tandem behind the Buccaneers' NFC-high five consecutive playoff appearances and four straight division championships.

Glazer represents the franchise at all league meetings and is very active in a wide range of NFL matters. He currently serves as Chairman of the NFL International Committee, as well as being a member of the following other NFL committees: Finance Committee, Media Committee, NFL Management Council Executive Committee, and Legalized Sports Betting Committee.

Glazer also played an integral role in Tampa's selection to host Super Bowl XXXV in 2001, Super Bowl XLIII in 2009 and Super Bowl LV in 2021.

Glazer has been very active in the Tampa Bay community through the Glazer Family Foundation, which is dedicated to supporting underserved segments of the Tampa Bay community. The Foundation donated $5 million toward the construction of the Glazer Children's Museum which opened in downtown Tampa in 2010. In 2020, the Foundation provided the lead gift for the Glazer Family Playground at the St. Petersburg Pier, a district that has become a destination amenity for thousands of children and families. For its wide-reaching charitable efforts, the Tampa Bay Sports Commission named the Glazer Family Foundation the Foundation of the Year at the inaugural Sneaker Soiree held in 2011.

During times of crisis, the Glazer family has also regularly stepped up to assist the Tampa Bay community. At the outset of the COVID-19 pandemic, the Glazer family provided 5 million meals through a donation to Feeding Tampa Bay. In 2024, they donated a total of $2 million for local hurricane relief efforts and created the Glazer Family Small Business Funds which provided financial grants to hundreds of local businesses in the Tampa Bay and West Central Florida areas.

Glazer also serves as Co-Chairman of Manchester United, which has captured five Premier League titles (2007, 2008, 2009, 2011 and 2013), one Champions League title (2008), four League Cups (2006, 2009, 2010, 2017), two FA Cups (2016, 2024), and one Europa League Championship (2017) during his tenure. His work with the club led to his naming as one of the Top 10 most influential Americans in the United Kingdom by The Telegraph.

Glazer earned his bachelor's degree in interdisciplinary studies from American University in 1989. The Rochester, New York, native is married to Angela, and the couple has two children.

EDWARD GLAZER
OWNER/CO-CHAIRMAN

Entering his 31st season with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 2025, Owner and Co-Chairman Edward Glazer plays an active role in the team's day-to-day business operations. Glazer has been instrumental in shaping the organization's fan-first philosophy and has led numerous initiatives that have significantly enhanced the Buccaneers' brand, fan experience, and business operations.

Under Glazer's leadership, the Buccaneers have consistently ranked at the top of the NFL's annual Voice of the Fan survey. Over the past 13 seasons, the team has earned the No. 1 spot in overall customer satisfaction 11 times – more than any other franchise – reflecting an unwavering commitment to fan engagement.

As the Buccaneers prepared to celebrate their 50th season, Glazer spearheaded a year-long campaign honoring the franchise's storied history. He produced a multi-part documentary series featuring more than 100 interviews with players, coaches, and team legends, as well as a commemorative OPUS book chronicling the team's rich legacy.

Glazer has led the design and rollout of all recent Buccaneers uniform launches, including the return of the original pewter look from 1997, the acclaimed return of the team's iconic Creamsicle throwbacks in 2024, and the all-white, 1976-era throwback uniforms which debuted in 2025. These efforts have thoughtfully bridged the team's historic identity with its modern era, resonating deeply with fans across generations.

Glazer also leads oversight of all revenue-generating operations at Raymond James Stadium, including ticketing, premium seating, and concessions. Under his direction, the organization has implemented innovative pricing strategies, expanded premium inventory, and enhanced the guest experience – positioning the Buccaneers among the league's leaders in stadium fan satisfaction.

Along with his siblings, his strategic leadership was pivotal during the 2020 offseason, when the Buccaneers signed quarterback Tom Brady in what became one of the most impactful free-agent acquisitions in NFL history. That move, along with other key signings, led to the team's historic victory in Super Bowl LV – the first time an NFL team won the championship on its home field. The Glazer family has now delivered two Super Bowl titles, eight division championships, 12 playoff appearances, and two NFC Championships since acquiring the team.

Glazer also played a central role in the $160 million renovation of Raymond James Stadium, modernizing the facility with cutting-edge video displays, premium seating clubs, a full-service sports bar (Bar 76), and a flagship retail store. These upgrades enhanced the in-stadium experience and transformed the venue into one of the league's premier game-day environments. Additionally, the Glazer family constructed a state-of-the-art, climate-controlled indoor practice facility with seating for over 3,000 fans.

Beyond football, Glazer and his family have made a lasting impact on the Tampa Bay community. Their philanthropic initiatives include the Glazer Children's Museum, recognized as one of the top children's museums in the country, and the Glazer Family Playground at the St. Petersburg Pier. The family has also contributed millions of dollars to hurricane relief efforts, in addition to donating over five million meals through Feeding Tampa Bay during the COVID-19 pandemic. Their support included the creation of the Glazer Family Small Business Fund in 2024, which benefited hundreds of local businesses throughout the Tampa Bay and West Central Florida region.

Through the Edward and Shari Glazer Charitable Trust, Glazer and his wife, Shari, support a wide range of causes, including the Elton John AIDS Foundation, the Braille Institute, the Crohn's and Colitis Foundation, and the Los Angeles Museum of Contemporary Art. They also created the B.F.F. Bear Program, which has donated tens of thousands of teddy bears to children in pediatric hospitals.

Outside of the NFL, Glazer serves on the board of Manchester United, one of the most globally recognized sports franchises. He is also the founder and CEO of both US Auto Trust, a luxury automotive group with dealership holdings across California, and US Property Trust, a national real estate investment company.

A proud graduate of Ithaca College, Glazer supported the construction of the Edward and Shari Glazer Arena, a centerpiece of the college's athletics and events complex.

DARCIE GLAZER KASSEWITZ

TAMPA BAY BUCCANEERS OWNER / CHAIRMAN, TAMPA BAY BUCCANEERS FOUNDATION / CHAIRMAN, GLAZER VISION FOUNDATION / CHAIRMAN, GLAZER FAMILY FOUNDATION

Darcie Glazer Kassewitz is a leader and driving force behind the Tampa Bay Buccaneers' commitment to innovation, forward-thinking fan engagement and community impact. Overseeing the day-to-day operations in this work, she has galvanized the Tampa Bay Buccaneers to become nationally recognized leaders in expanding opportunities for women in football and for expanding pathways for coaches striving to break into the NFL.

Empowering Women in Sports

Through her dedication to innovative programming, Kassewitz launched "She is Football" in 2025, an annual campaign celebrating female fans and raising funds to help keep girls in sports. The inaugural "She is Football weekend" was a sold-out success attracting thousands featuring a women's career summit, girls flag football tournament, 5K run, walk & stroll, and a marketplace spotlighting female owned businesses.

Since 2015, Kassewitz has been leading efforts to deepen the Buccaneers connection with their fan base. She launched Women of Red, a pioneering program focused on enhancing the fan experience for women. Women of Red was deemed "the tipping point for a genuine connection to fans," attracting thousands of women and providing exclusive access to players, alumni, and executives. Under her stewardship, she has continued to expand the teams programming for women and girls including:

- The Women's Summit for Careers in Football
- The She is Football Collegiate Scholarship, the first academic college scholarship for girls who play football
- Girls Flag Football Preseason Classic, the largest event of its kind in the U.S. featuring over 109 teams and 2,100 athletes annually
- @BuccaneersFlag Instagram dedicated to thousands of flag football athletes in the region

Creating Pathways for Coaches

Kassewitz launched the Tampa Bay Buccaneers National Coaching Academy in 2024, a groundbreaking program to create new pathways and entry points for coaches seeking their first opportunity to work in the NFL. The ambitious and pioneering academy held at the Buccaneers training facility delivers candidates an intensive curriculum with full participation in Buccaneers rookie minicamp. Out of thousands of global applicants, 25 finalists were awarded full scholarships to participate. Five standout finalists were selected upon completion to advance into training camp and preseason to work alongside coaches and scouts.

Civic and Cultural Contributions

The Glazer family's long-standing commitment to children and families led to not only the opening of both the Glazer Children's Museum in 2010, named one of the the Top 10 museums in the country and now a cornerstone institution in downtown Tampa but also in 2020, the Glazer Family Playground at the St. Petersburg Pier, a signature 26 acre waterfront destination with over 2.5 million visitors each year.

Youth, Education and Community Impact

In times of crisis, the Glazer family has been a steadfast supporter of the community. To assist in the Covid-19 pandemic, the Glazer family provided 5 million meals through a donation to Feeding Tampa Bay, the largest donation of meals at the time. Following Hurricanes Helene and Milton, the Glazers donated millions to support local relief efforts.

Due to the family's longstanding belief in the small business community, Kassewitz spearheaded the creation of the Glazer Family Small Business Fund, a grant program supporting nearly 300 small businesses in Tampa Bay and West Central Florida.

In 2018, in support of Buccaneers players, the Glazer Family Player Matching Fund was created to honor and support players charitable donations and to invest in their charitable organizations throughout the region.

In 2024, the Glazers continued their commitment to children via the Tampa Bay Buccaneers Foundation by partnering with Hillsborough County Public Schools to install 135 outdoor shade covers and covered courts at all elementary schools. Through the Jr. Bucs School Program, nearly 200,000 students in 300 elementary and middle schools across the Tampa Bay receive access to wellness resources and fitness programming. On game-days, through the Krewe Student Athletes program, access to academic incentives were created for over 24,000 students who have been hosted at Buccaneers games.

Health and Vision Care

As Chair of the Glazer Vision Foundation, Kassewitz has helped ensure access to essential eye care for underserved children. Through the Mobile Vision Clinic, the Foundation has performed more than 200,000 free eye screenings and distributed over 20,000 pairs of prescription eyeglasses.

In 2025, the Foundation launched "Lets See!", an interactive bilingual exhibit at the Glazer Children's Museum that immerses children in the science of sight while highlighting the importance of vision health.

Her broader efforts to support families include leadership in the Glazer Family Foundation's investment in affordable housing, food insecurity and closing disparities in education. Through a multi-million-dollar gift to the AdventHealth Foundation, the family is also helping to improve healthcare in Tampa Bay.

Kassewitz's influence on the design of many of the signature spaces enjoyed by Buccaneers fans and players helped elevate the team's business headquarters and training facility. She helped spearhead the interior design of the AdventHealth Training Center which features in-depth exhibits that tell the story of the franchise, including an original sculpture titled "The Moment of Victory" which depicts the moment the team won its first World Championship in Super Bowl XXXVII. Additionally instrumental in the planning and design of the Buccaneers' 100,000-square-foot indoor practice facility it features more than 3,000 seats for fans to enjoy training camp practices and was debuted in 2018.

Under nearly three decades of the Glazer family's stewardship, the Buccaneers have logged 11 playoff appearances, seven division titles, two NFC Championships and are two time Super Bowl champions in both Super Bowl XXXVII (2002), and Super Bowl LV (2020).

Kassewitz is a member of the NFL's Diversity, Equity and Inclusion Committee and the NFL's Future of Football Committee. She is on the Board of Trustees of the Women's Sports Foundation, established in 1974 by Billie Jean King that has invested over $100 million to expand access and opportunities for girls and women in sports and has served as Co-Chairwoman of the Make-A-Wish Foundation.

Kassewitz serves on the Board of the Manchester United Soccer Club, which has captured six titles since the Glazer family took over the club: five Premier League titles (2007, 2008, 2009 and 2011 and 2013), as well as the 2008 Champions League title.

Kassewitz graduated cum laude with a Bachelor of Science in Psychology from American University in 1990 and earned her Juris Doctorate from Suffolk Law School in 1993. Kassewitz and her husband, Joel, reside in Tampa.

OWNER

REMEMBERING MALCOLM GLAZER

AS OWNER OF THE BUCCANEERS, HE REINVENTED A FRANCHISE AND REINVIGORATED A COMMUNITY.

The path that brought Malcolm Glazer to purchase the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 1995 originated in his father's watch-parts business in Rochester, N.Y., where the younger Glazer started working when he was 15. It is no surprise then, that upon taking over the Buccaneers, he wanted to know exactly what made the organization tick.

Malcolm Glazer passed away on May 28, 2014 at the age of 85. During his nearly two decades as owner and president of the Buccaneers, virtually every facet of the team was closely examined and, where necessary, rebuilt. The result was a stunning turnaround for what had been one of the NFL's long-struggling franchises.

Glazer inherited a team with a .300 winning percentage during its first 19 years of existence, one with just two division titles, a single playoff win and, of course, no championship trophies. In just two years, with a new coach on the sideline and bold new uniforms on the players, a 16-year playoff drought was over. The team would move into a gorgeous new stadium the following year, and win a division title and advance to the conference championship game the year after that. By January 2003, Glazer was triumphantly holding the Lombardi Trophy over his head, grinning from ear to ear while surrounded by a team that had just defeated the Oakland Raiders in Super Bowl XXXVII.

Positive changes continued without interruption. The Buccaneers moved into a new state-of-the-art training facility and headquarters in 2006, the most advanced NFL home in the league. They won three division titles in a seven-year span. In 1997, they started a string of consecutive game sellouts at Raymond James Stadium that would last a dozen years, an unprecedented run in franchise history. Glazer also landed Super Bowls XXXV and XLIII for Tampa, the third and fourth to be played in the city. Through it all, community outreach and customer service became central organizational goals.

But Glazer's desire to understand the Buccaneers' inner gears – and have them work with maximum efficiency – went beyond new buildings and organizational charts. He was keenly interested in the people of the organization as well. He took great pleasure in greeting each player in the locker room with a handshake before and after games. He fostered a family atmosphere at team headquarters, according to a source no less credible than Hall of Famer Derrick Brooks. Brooks was one of many long-time Buccaneers who considered Mr. Glazer not just the team's owner but a personal friend.

"I'm proud to say – and I'm glad – that he's the only owner I ever played for," said Brooks, who was a first-round draft pick in 1995, the same year Glazer arrived.

Despite the team's decade-and-a-half of struggles, Glazer immediately realized that a passionate fan base existed. The area's obsession with the Buccaneers was ready to be rekindled if the team could show an unwavering commitment to winning.

Glazer and his family did exactly that, and they did it by being pioneers in the industry, creating innovative solutions for issues at all levels of the organization. They also did it by aggressively pursuing the right people to lead the team, and then providing them with the assets they needed to succeed.

And while Glazer restored the community's belief in its team, he also reached out to those who needed help within that community. This was of such importance to him that in 1999 he established the Glazer Family Foundation, which has since donated millions and reached countless thousands in need. A new stadium and a striking new team facility now grace the region's skyline, but a third building in downtown Tampa is just as much a part of Malcolm Glazer's legacy: The Glazer Children's Museum, which opened its doors in 2010.

Malcolm Glazer left behind his wife, Linda, in addition to six children and 14 grandchildren. His children will continue to own and operate the franchise as they have throughout the family's ownership. They will do so by following the blueprint of a visionary man and a caring leader, a man who gave the franchise a new era of enormous success by caring about how the little details worked.

BRIAN FORD
CHIEF OPERATING OFFICER

Brian A. Ford, Jr. enters his 19th year with the organization after joining the Buccaneers in 2006, and in his role, oversees all aspects of the organization's day-to-day business operations and community involvement. He works directly with team ownership to ensure that Buccaneers fans, season pass members and corporate sponsors receive a first-in-class experience. Under Ford's leadership, the Buccaneers have consistently earned top marks among NFL teams for customer service experience, ranking No. 1 in the league's annual Voice of the Fan report in 11 of the past 13 seasons, including the last eight consecutive years.

Prior to joining the Buccaneers, Ford was part of the team that opened Raymond James Stadium as the district manager with Fine Host Corporation in 1998. He remained in that capacity until 2006, when he began his career with the Buccaneers.

An active participant in and around the Tampa Bay area serving on the boards of Ronald McDonald House Charities of Tampa Bay, American Cancer Society CEOs Against Cancer – Florida Chapter, National Pediatric Cancer Foundation, Tampa Bay Area Chiefs of Police Foundation, and the Dedman School of Hospitality Florida State University Director Council. In addition, he was also appointed as a member of the Board of Directors for the 2022 Special Olympics USA Games which was hosted in Orlando, Florida in June of 2022. JASON LICHT
GENERAL MANAGER

Jason Licht was named the fifth general manager in franchise history on January 21, 2014, and enters his 12th season at the helm, making him the fifth-longest tenured traditional general manager in the NFL. Licht owns more than two decades of scouting and player personnel experience with six organizations. In 29 NFL seasons, including one as a coach, the clubs that Licht has worked for have amassed a 250-221 (.531) record, 14 playoff appearances, 12 division championships, five conference championships and two Super Bowl titles.

Since Licht took over the general manager role in Tampa Bay in 2014, the Buccaneers lead the NFL in most snaps played (132,091) and most games started (1,873) by a team's own first through fifth round draft picks during that span, exhibiting his sustained success through the NFL Draft over his tenure. All 38 of Licht's first through sixth round draft picks from 2019-24 were on an NFL roster during the 2024 season, and the Buccaneers are the only team to have every such pick remain in the NFL over that span. Additionally, 40 of the 50 different players who have started a game for Tampa Bay from 2023-24 were homegrown players that were either drafted or originally acquired by Licht in undrafted free agency. The Buccaneers currently own the NFC's longest streaks of consecutive playoff appearances (five) and consecutive division titles (four), while tying for the conference's second-most total wins dating back to the start of the 2020 season (57). Tampa Bay is 1-of-3 NFL teams to have reached the playoffs in each of the past five seasons – alongside the Buffalo Bills and Kansas City Chiefs – and the team's 57 wins during that span are tied for the fourth-most across the NFL.

The 2025 offseason saw key re-signings from Licht and his staff in guard Ben Bredeson, linebacker Lavonte David and wide receiver Chris Godwin. With the re-signings of Bredeson and Godwin, Tampa Bay returned all 11 primary offensive starters from its 2024 roster. Bredeson – originally acquired by Licht as a free agent in 2024 – started all 17 games in his first season with the Buccaneers helping contribute to the NFL's third-ranked offense (399.6 total yards per game). Licht also bolstered the team's pass rush with the addition of two-time Pro Bowl outside linebacker Haason Reddick, who amassed four double-digit sack seasons over the five years prior to signing with Tampa Bay.

Following his extension during the 2024 offseason, Baker Mayfield became the first quarterback in franchise history with multiple Pro Bowl selections and he was accompanied in Orlando by a trio of former Licht draft picks in Mike Evans, Vita Vea and Tristan Wirfs. Wirfs also earned Associated Press first-team All-Pro honors, becoming the first player in league history to receive that distinction as both a right tackle and a left tackle. Evans surpassed 1,000 receiving yards for the 11th consecutive season, matching Jerry Rice's record for the most consecutive 1,000-yard receiving seasons in league annals.

Tampa Bay's 2024 draft class was one of Licht's most impactful from the start, producing four total starters: center Graham Barton, running back Bucky Irving, wide receiver Jalen McMillan and defensive back Tykee Smith. Barton became 1-of-3 rookie centers since 2000 to start 16+ games for a team that finished top five in rushing yards per game. Irving, a fourth-round pick, led the 2024 rookie class in yards from scrimmage (1,514), rushing yards (1,122) and rushing touchdowns (eight), earning a spot on the PFWA All-Rookie team – the 11th All-Rookie selection of Licht's tenure. Jalen McMillan tied for second among all rookies in receiving touchdowns (eight), which were highlighted a streak of five consecutive games with 50+ receiving yards and a receiving touchdown – the second-longest such streak in league history by a rookie, trailing only Randy Moss. Fellow third-round selection Tykee Smith was 1-of-4 players across the NFL in 2024 with three-plus forced fumbles, five-plus passes defensed and multiple interceptions, accompanied by a trio of Pro Bowl veterans.

In 2024, Licht locked in key 2023 free agent acquisition, quarterback Baker Mayfield, to a long-term contract extension following a season in which Mayfield was named to his first Pro Bowl and earned the PFWA Most Improved Player award. He was 1-of-2 players with 28+ passing touchdowns and 10-or-fewer interceptions in 2023, leading the Buccaneers to an NFC South division title and a spot in the NFC Divisional Round. Mayfield joined Tom Brady as the only players in team history to throw for 4,000+ yards, 25+ touchdowns and 10-or-fewer interceptions in a single season and capped off his first year with the Buccaneers by recording back-to-back postseason games with 300+ passing yards and three touchdowns. In addition to stabilizing the quarterback position, Licht re-signed franchise cornerstones linebacker Lavonte David, wide receiver Mike Evans and safety Antoine Winfield Jr., while bringing back fourth-round success story in safety Jordan Whitehead, who Licht originally drafted in 2018 and who became a starter on Tampa Bay's Super Bowl LV championship team.

With their performances during the 2023 season, Licht's 2014 and 2020 first-round draft picks – Evans and Wirfs – each earned Pro Bowl selections in 2023, in addition to 2020 second-round selection, Winfield Jr., earning AP first-team All-Pro accolades and Evans earning second-team All-Pro recognition. Evans notched his 10th consecutive season with 1,000 yards receiving and tied for the league lead in touchdown receptions (13). Winfield Jr. held a share of the league lead in both forced fumbles (six) and fumble recoveries (four), and became the first player since data became available in 1999 with 100+ tackles, three-plus interceptions, three-plus forced fumbles, three-plus fumble recoveries and 3.0+ sacks in a single season.

Throughout the 2023 offseason, Licht was tasked with navigating a complicated salary cap situation and finding a successor to Tom Brady following the quarterback's retirement, all while retooling a roster in search of its third consecutive NFC South division title. Through a series of extensions for inside linebacker Lavonte David, cornerback Jamel Dean and outside linebacker Anthony Nelson, plus value free agent signings in quarterback Baker Mayfield, running back Chase Edmonds, defensive lineman Greg Gaines and kicker Chase McLaughlin, Licht was able to successfully address team needs while abiding by league cap restrictions. McLaughlin was named first-team All-Pro by Pro Football Focus after setting a new single-season franchise record for field goal percentage (93.5%), converting 29-of-31 field goal opportunities in 2023.

The team's 2023 draft class produced seven players who played at least 13 games for Tampa Bay during their rookie season, providing the most total snaps by a 2023 NFL rookie class (5,560). First-round defensive lineman Calijah Kancey and third-round outside linebacker Yaya Diaby combined for 59 pressures, 22 tackles for loss, 20 quarterback hits and 11.5 sacks. Diaby led all rookies in tackles for loss in 2023, with 12, and tied for first in fumble recoveries (two), in addition to leading the Buccaneers in sacks. Meanwhile, Kancey was named the NFL Defensive Rookie of the Month for November, finishing his rookie campaign tied for second among rookies in tackles for loss (10), tied for fourth in quarterback hits (12) and sixth in quarterback pressures (33). Second-round guard Cody Mauch started all 17 games for Tampa Bay in his rookie season, while sixth-round cornerback Josh Hayes led all NFL players in special teams tackles in 2023 (14).

Tampa Bay's 2022 season saw the Buccaneers earn their second consecutive NFC South division title, marking the first time in franchise history that the organization garnered back-to-back division championships. The 2022 campaign signaled the final season of Tom Brady's career, concluding a three-year span with Tampa Bay that saw him lead the Buccaneers to 32 regular season wins, five postseason wins, two division titles and one Super Bowl Championship after he was signed by Licht as a free agent during the 2020 offseason. Brady finished his time in Tampa Bay as the organization's all-time leader in passer rating (98.1) and completion percentage (66.7%), while ranking second in passing touchdowns (108), pass completions (1,376) and yards per attempt (7.10), and third in pass attempts (2,062) and passing yards (14,643). The 2022 season also saw 2020 draftee Tristan Wirfs named to his second Pro Bowl, while garnering second-team All-Pro honors.

Licht navigated the 2022 offseason swiftly despite the retirement announcement of two offensive mainstays in tight end Rob Gronkowski and guard Ali Marpet. The first move came in March when the Buccaneers announced a trade with the New England Patriots for guard Shaq Mason. Following the trade came several re-signings of foundational pieces Licht either drafted or acquired through free agency. Pro Bowl center Ryan Jensen was the first to re-sign with the team, followed by cornerback Carlton Davis III and running back Leonard Fournette. Licht also secured one of the league's best wide receivers when he reached a multi-year extension with his 2017 third-round pick Chris Godwin.

In 2021, quarterback Tom Brady helped lead the Buccaneers to a 13-4 record while recording the best statistical season of his 22-year career, leading the league in both yards (5,316) and touchdowns (43). Brady was protected by three Pro Bowlers in center Ryan Jensen, guard Ali Marpet, and tackle Tristan Wirfs. The trio combined for 3,369 snaps and only allowed five sacks. Adding to the No. 1-ranked passing offense, Mike Evans set a career-high in touchdown catches (14), finishing second in the NFL. Evans' historic year was highlighted by an eighth consecutive 1,000-yard receiving season and his fourth Pro Bowl selection.

Defensively, Licht constructed a unit with Pro Bowlers at every level, with Shaquil Barrett receiving his second selection as a Buccaneer and Vita Vea, Devin White, and Antoine Winfield Jr. all receiving their first honor. In his third season, White led the team in total tackles (128) and tied for 10th in the NFL in solo tackles (87). Winfield Jr. led the league in fumble recoveries with three. Before wrapping up the regular season, Licht signed Vea to a contract extension, rewarding the nose tackle who bolstered the Buccaneers run defense to a top-three finish in three consecutive seasons from 2019-21.

During the 2021 offseason, Licht led the effort to retain all 22 starters from the Buccaneers' Super Bowl LV championship team, the first reigning champion to accomplish this feat in the salary cap era. This led to a franchise-record 13 regular-season wins and two home playoff games, including a Divisional Round appearance. Nine of those 22 starters were named to the Pro Bowl, tying a franchise record.

In 2020, the Tampa Bay Buccaneers defeated the Kansas City Chiefs, 31-9, at Raymond James Stadium in Super Bowl LV. Twelve of Tampa Bay's 22 starters in the Super Bowl were drafted by Licht, including all five members of the team's starting defensive backfield. All but two of the players on the team's championship roster were acquired by Licht. Brady, the game's most valuable player, was the most notable of many key acquisitions Licht made last offseason, propelling the Buccaneers to the second championship in franchise history.

In the 2020 regular season, Brady helped guide the team to an 11-5 record, while setting the franchise single-season record for touchdown passes, with 40. Brady also oversaw an offense that established franchise records for points scored (492) and total touchdowns (59).

Of the team's 14 postseason touchdowns, nine were scored by players acquired by Licht during the 2019 offseason, including all four touchdowns scored in Super Bowl LV. On the defensive side of the ball, outside linebackers Shaquil Barrett and Jason Pierre-Paul formed one of the league's most dominant pass-rushing duos, combining for the second-most sacks (45.5) by any NFL teammates from 2019-20.

Entering the 2020 season, Licht was able to make significant changes to the roster, despite offseason challenges brought on by the COVID-19 pandemic. Licht spearheaded the Buccaneers' first-ever virtual draft by selecting seven players, including offensive tackle Tristan Wirfs at No. 13 overall. Wirfs was selected to the PFWA All-Rookie Team in 2020 alongside second-round pick Antoine Winfield Jr. The Buccaneers were the only team in the NFL to have multiple draft picks selected to the All-Rookie Team in consecutive seasons from 2019-20. Licht was able to keep the defensive front seven together by placing the franchise tag on outside linebacker Shaquil Barrett and re-signing defensive tackle Ndamukong Suh and outside linebacker Jason Pierre-Paul. Pierre-Paul went on to earn a Pro Bowl selection in 2020. The most significant change came in March after signing six-time Super Bowl-winning quarterback Tom Brady in free agency and conducting a trade with New England to bring five-time Pro Bowl tight end Rob Gronkowski out of retirement. The 2020 season saw Evans – Licht's first ever draft selection as general manager – become the first player in NFL history to record 1,000+ receiving yards in each of their first seven seasons.

In 2019, Evans' fellow receiver Chris Godwin posted his first career 1,000-yard season and earned AP's second-team All-Pro honors. That season, the duo became the first pair of receiver teammates voted to the Pro Bowl since Arizona's Larry Fitzgerald and Anquan Boldin in 2009.

On the defensive side of the ball in 2019, outside linebacker Shaquil Barrett was named second team All-Pro and earned a Pro Bowl selection after setting a franchise record for single-season sacks with 19.5. Linebacker Devin White – the fifth overall pick in the 2019 NFL draft – was named Defensive Rookie of the Month in both November and December, in addition to making the PFWA All-Rookie Team alongside cornerback Sean Murphy-Bunting. Rookie cornerback Jamel Dean recorded 17 passes defensed, tied for the fourth-most in the NFL, while second-year cornerback Carlton Davis recorded 19 passes defensed, the second-most in the NFL.

During the 2019 offseason, Licht made a handful of changes to the team's defense, most notably adding free agent defensive lineman Ndamukong Suh, a five-time All-Pro and Pro Bowl selection. Suh – alongside 2018 first-round draft pick Vita Vea – helped anchor a Buccaneers defensive line that held opponents to the fewest rushing yards per game in 2019 (73.8 rush yards allowed per game). Licht also brought in outside linebacker Shaquil Barrett while spending the team's first five draft picks on the defensive side of the ball, including linebacker Devin White, selected with the fifth overall pick.

In 2019 offseason, Licht signed left tackle Donovan Smith to a contract extension, after having done the same with left guard Ali Marpet during the 2018 season. Marpet (61st overall) and Smith (34th overall) entered the league as second-round picks in the 2015 NFL Draft and went on to start 101 and 124 games, respectively for the Buccaneers in their careers.

In 2018, Mike Evans ranked third in the NFL in receiving yards and set a franchise single season record (1,524) one the way to earning his second career Pro Bowl selection. Prior to the 2018 season, Evans was rewarded with a contract extension.

In the 2018 offseason, Licht transformed the team's defensive line with the addition of Jason Pierre-Paul, Carl Nassib and Vita Vea. Pierre-Paul went on to lead the team in sacks with 12.5 – then the most by any Buccaneers player since 2005 (Simeon Rice, 14.0). Acquired through waivers from Cleveland, Nassib finished the season ranked second on the team in sacks, with 6.5. Five players from Licht's 2018 draft class were primary starters during the team's 2020 Super Bowl LV Championship season, including Vea (first round), cornerback Carlton Davis III (second round), running back Ronald Jones II (second round), guad Alex Cappa (third round) and safety Jordan Whitehead (fourth round).

In the 2017 NFL Draft, Licht selected three players who stepped into starting roles as rookies. The Buccaneers first-round pick, tight end O.J. Howard, started all 14 games he played in, tying for the team lead with six touchdown receptions – tied for the second-most among NFL rookies and the fourth-most ever by a Buccaneers rookie. The Buccaneers also got contributions from wide receiver Chris Godwin, who capped off his rookie season by earning NFC Offensive Player of the Week honors in Week 17 before becoming a full-time starter in 2018 and having putting forth his breakout season in 2019.

The Buccaneers finished the 2016 season at 9-7. Mike Evans earned his first career Pro Bowl selection after finishing the year with 96 catches for 1,321 yards and 12 touchdowns. His 12 touchdown catches tied his own franchise record (set in 2014) and were tied for the second-most in the NFL in 2016. His 96 catches were then the second-most in Buccaneers history and the sixth-most in the league that season, while his 1,321 yards were then the third-most ever by a Buccaneers player and ranked fourth in the NFL.

Another major contributor to the team's offense in 2016 was tight end Cameron Brate, who originally joined the team as a college free agent out of Harvard in 2014. Brate became an integral part of the Buccaneers offense over the course of his career, finishing with 273 receptions for 2,857 yards and 33 touchdowns in 126 games played for Tampa Bay. His 33 career touchdown receptions stand as the fourth-most in franchise history.

In 2015, Licht drafted quarterback Jameis Winston with the No. 1 overall pick. During Winston's five seasons with the team, he set franchise records for pass attempts (2,548), completions (1,563), passing yards (19,737) and passing touchdowns (121).

Licht joined the Buccaneers in 2014, on the heels of two seasons with Arizona as the vice president of player personnel, working under general manager Steve Keim, who earned NFL Executive of the Year honors from both Pro Football Talk and Sporting News. Licht's first draft pick with Tampa Bay, wide receiver Mike Evans, was selected seventh overall in the 2014 NFL Draft and went on to have a stellar rookie season, finishing with 68 receptions for 1,051 yards and 12 touchdowns and being named to the PFWA, NFL.com, ESPN.com and SI.com All-Rookie Teams.

Licht first worked for the Cardinals in 2008 as a personnel executive, before leaving to spend three seasons as director of pro personnel with New England. He returned to Arizona in 2012 as director of player personnel before being promoted to the vice president position.

In addition, Licht's career has intersected with some of the NFL's greatest head coaches, including Don Shula, Jimmy Johnson, Bill Belichick and Andy Reid. In all, Licht has worked alongside seven head coaches who have led a team to a Super Bowl (Shula, Johnson, Belichick, Reid, Bruce Arians, Pete Carroll, Lovie Smith, Ken Whisenhunt) and seven who have won AP Coach of the Year honors in their careers (Shula, Johnson, Belichick, Reid, Smith, Arians and Dom Capers).

While with Arizona, Licht worked directly with the head coach and general manager on player acquisition and contract negotiations, as well as leading the club's scouting efforts as he oversaw both the college and pro scouting departments. The 2013 season saw the Cardinals improve to 10-6 from a 5-11 campaign the previous year.

In 2008 Arizona won the NFC West and advanced to the Super Bowl. Licht then spent three seasons (2009-11) as director of pro personnel with the New England Patriots, where he was responsible for monitoring every NFL roster with an emphasis on scouting talent of upcoming pro free agents, while also maintaining depth on New England's roster. The Patriots were AFC East champions in each of those three seasons and advanced to the Super Bowl following the 2011 campaign.

Licht spent five years with the Philadelphia Eagles (2003-07), first serving as the club's assistant director of player personnel before being promoted to vice president of player personnel for his final two seasons. The team won three NFC East titles during that span and earned a berth in Super Bowl XXXIX.

Prior to joining Philadelphia, Licht enjoyed his first stint in New England, serving as a scout and assistant director of player personnel from 1999-2002, a stretch that included a victory in Super Bowl XXXVI. He was part of a front office that drafted core pieces of the team that won three Super Bowls in four seasons, such as Damien Woody, Kevin Faulk, Tom Brady, Richard Seymour, Matt Light, and Deion Branch.

Licht began his NFL career with the Miami Dolphins in 1995, where he worked as a scouting department assistant before spending the 1996 season as an offensive assistant/quality control coach. In 1997, he worked for National Football Scouting, a college football scouting service, before joining the Carolina Panthers' scouting staff in 1998.

Licht played linebacker and guard at the University of Nebraska from 1989-91 before transferring to Nebraska-Wesleyan, where he was an all-conference defensive tackle. He and his wife, Blair, have three children: Charlie, Zoe and Theo.

TODD BOWLES
HEAD COACH

Todd Bowles enters his fourth season as head coach of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers following his three seasons as the team's defensive coordinator from 2019-21.

Bowles has accomplished a feat that no one else has through their first three years as Buccaneers head coach, leading the team to three consecutive playoff appearances and three consecutive NFC South division titles. He became just the seventh head coach in the Super Bowl era to win their division each of their first three seasons leading a team. Bowles' 27 regular season wins are the second-most by a Tampa Bay coach through three seasons, trailing only his predecessor, Bruce Arians (31). Over the past two seasons, Bowles' team owns an NFL-best 10-2 record (.833) in regular season games played in December and January.

The 2024 Buccaneers finished 10-7, marking consecutive seasons with an increased win total over the year prior. Each of the past two offensive coordinators hired by Bowles have gone on to become NFL head coaches in Dave Canales and Liam Coen, but despite the shuffling on the offensive side of the ball, Bowles has been the constant who has solidified Tampa Bay as an annual playoff team – the only NFC team to have clinched a playoff berth in each of the past five seasons. In 2024, Tampa Bay ranked sixth in the NFL in point differential (+117) and fifth in average yardage differential per game (+57.8).

Tampa Bay's offense was among the most formidable in the NFL in 2024, establishing franchise records in completion percentage (71.5%), passer rating (106.8), rushing yards (2,536), yards per rush (5.3) and third-down conversion rate (50.9%). The Buccaneers became the first team in NFL history to complete at least 70% of their passes and average at least five yards per rush in the same season, and were the only team in the NFL in 2024 to rank in the top five in points per game (29.5), passing yards per game (250.4) and rushing yards per game (149.2). Tampa Bay led the NFL in third-down conversion rate and yards after contact per rush (3.78), while ranking second in pass completion rate, passing touchdowns (41), passing first downs per game (23.2) and quarterback pressure rate allowed (25.6%).

Bowles' defense in 2024 hit its stride following the team's bye and ranked as the second-best in the NFL in Weeks 12-18, limiting opponents to 273.9 yards per game during that span and helping vault the Buccaneers to a 6-1 record to finish the season. Tampa Bay held opponents to just 26 total second-half points and just two second-half opponent offensive touchdowns over the final seven weeks of the season – each the fewest in the NFL. Meanwhile, the team out-scored its opponents by 104 points and out-gained the opposition by 180.1 yards per game from Weeks 12-18.

Since joining the Buccaneers in 2019, Bowles' defenses have set the standard for rush defense, leading the league in both fewest rushing yards per game allowed (93.8) and fewest rush yards per attempt allowed (4.0), while limiting opponents to the third-fewest rushing touchdowns (68). He has led an opportunistic defense that ranks first in opponent fumble recoveries (68), first in strip sacks (46), first in quarterback hits (646), second in sacks (281), second in forced fumbles (98), third in tackles for loss (520), fifth in red zone efficiency (53.8%), sixth in fewest yards per play allowed (5.2), sixth in goal-to-go efficiency (68.1%), seventh in takeaways (145), ninth in fewest net passing yards allowed per attempt (6.4), ninth in lowest third-down conversion rate against (38.1%) and 10th in passes defensed (421).

In his five seasons with Tampa Bay, Bowles has coached eight different Buccaneers to Pro Bowl selections as either defensive coordinator or head coach: Shaquil Barrett (2019, 2021), Mike Evans (2023, 2024), Baker Mayfield (2023, 2024), Jason Pierre-Paul (2020), Vita Vea (2021, 2024), Devin White (2021), Antoine Winfield Jr. (2021) and Tristan Wirfs (2022, 2023, 2024).

In 2023, Bowles guided the NFL's eighth-youngest roster to an appearance in the NFC Divisional round, earning his first career playoff win as a head coach in a commanding 32-9 victory over the Philadelphia Eagles in the Super Wild Card Round. He inspired a 5-1 finish in the final six weeks of the regular season to secure Tampa Bay's spot in the playoffs.

A former defensive back himself, Bowles oversaw a breakout season for safety Antoine Winfield Jr. in 2023, earning him first-team All-Pro recognition from the Associated Press and Pro Football Focus. Since data is available dating back to 1999, Winfield Jr. is the lone player with 100+ tackles, three-or-more interceptions, three-or-more forced fumbles, three-or-more fumble recoveries and 3.0+ sacks in a single season. The defense as a whole finished top five in run defense for the fourth time in five seasons under Bowles and ranked seventh in scoring defense, limiting opponents to just 19.1 points per game in 2023.

On the offensive side of the ball, newly-signed quarterback Baker Mayfield had the best season of his NFL career, earning the 2023 Pro Football Writers of America Most Improved Player award and Pro Bowl honors after setting career highs in completions (364), completion percentage (63.4%), passing yards (4,044) and passing touchdowns (28). Mike Evans earned his fifth career Pro Bowl nod and continued his run as the NFL's most consistent receiver, recording his 10th consecutive season with 1,000+ receiving yards – the longest-such streak to begin a career and the second-longest streak overall in NFL history. Despite shifting from right tackle to left tackle, Tristan Wirfs earned his third Pro Bowl selection in just his fourth year in the NFL becoming just the second offensive lineman in franchise history with three consecutive Pro Bowl trips.

In 2022, Bowles led the Buccaneers to the NFC South title in his first year as the head coach in Tampa Bay, joining Jon Gruden as the only coaches in franchise history to accomplish that feat in year one. He was the play caller for a defense that finished top 10 in the NFL in total yards per game (324.3 opponent yards/game), yards per play (5.14 avg.), pass defense (203.5 passing yards allowed/game), net yards per attempt (6.1), sacks (45.0) and tackles for loss (89), while limiting opponents to the fifth-fewest first downs per game (18.5) and the sixth-lowest third down conversion percentage (36.9 percent).

On the other side of the ball, Tristan Wirfs made his second Pro Bowl as part of an offensive line unit that led the league in fewest sacks allowed/pass attempt (2.8%). In addition, Tampa Bay ranked second in the NFL in passing offense (279.8 yards/game) and boasted a pair of 1,000-yard receivers in Mike Evans and Chris Godwin. Godwin finished eighth in the NFL with his 104 receptions – the second-most in a single season in Buccaneers franchise history.

In his three seasons as defensive coordinator from 2019-2021, he transformed the unit into one of the most productive defenses in the NFL. Tampa Bay ranked third in the league in takeaways (82) and third in sacks (142), joining the Pittsburgh Steelers as the only teams to place in the top five of both categories. In addition to the sacks and takeaways under Bowles' guidance as defensive coordinator, the Buccaneers ranked first in rushing yards allowed per game (82.5), first in rushing yards per attempt (3.72), first in quarterback hits (352), first in defensive fumble recoveries (37), first in passes defensed (241), second in strip sacks (26), third in tackles for loss (262), fourth in forced fumbles (52), tied for fourth in defensive touchdowns (nine), fifth in fewest yards per play allowed (5.13), fifth in passing yards per attempt allowed (6.78), sixth in red zone defense efficiency (54.7%), seventh in lowest third-down conversion rate allowed (37.6%), ninth in total defense (334.1 yards allowed per game) and ninth in goal-to-go efficiency (68.6%).

From 2020-21, the Buccaneers allowed the sixth-fewest points per game (21.5) and the fifth-fewest yards per game (329.4). In six postseason contests during that span, Tampa Bay tallied 16 takeaways – seven more than any other team. Bowles was the architect behind a historic defensive performance that catapulted the Buccaneers to a Super Bowl LV victory. His unit held the explosive Kansas City Chiefs' offense to nine points and without a touchdown for the first time in 54 games with Patrick Mahomes as the starting quarterback.

In 2021 alone, Bowles led a defense that finished first in the NFL in quarterback hits (123), third in rush defense (92.5 ypg), fifth in fewest points per game allowed (20.8), tied for fifth in takeaways (29), seventh in sacks (47.0), seventh in fewest yards per play allowed (5.16), eighth in tackles for loss (81), tied for eighth in interceptions (17) and tied for eighth in forced fumbles (16). Four Buccaneers defensive players earned Pro Bowl honors in 2021: outside linebacker Shaquil Barrett, nose tackle Vita Vea, linebacker Devin White and safety Antoine Winfield Jr. – the most in a single season on the defensive side of the ball since 2002.

In Tampa Bay's championship season in 2020, Bowles directed a defense that led the NFL in quarterback hits (142), tackles for loss (107) and takeaways (34), while tying for the league lead in sacks (58.0) between the regular season and postseason combined. During the regular season alone, the Buccaneers' defense ranked first in rushing yards allowed per game (80.6), tied for second in quarterback hits (116), tied for second in tackles for loss (91), tied for fourth in sacks (48.0), sixth in total yards allowed per game (327.1) and eighth in points allowed per game (22.2). Additionally, the Buccaneers defense allowed the fifth-fewest first downs (19.9) and tallied the seventh-most sacks per pass attempt (7.78%).

In just his first two seasons, Bowles helped elevate a Buccaneers defense that ranked 27th in the NFL in yards per game allowed prior to his arrival to a team that finished sixth in that category in 2020. In the Super Bowl, Tampa Bay held the Kansas City Chiefs to just nine points – keeping a team that ranked sixth during the regular season in touchdowns out of the end zone. The nine points given up by the Buccaneers tied for the 10th-fewest in Super Bowl history.

Bowles helped mentor Winfield Jr. into PFWA All-Rookie team honors in 2020 and coached outside linebacker Jason Pierre-Paul to his third career Pro Bowl selection.

In his first season in Tampa Bay in 2019, Bowles quickly put an emphasis on stopping the run as he transformed the Buccaneers from the 24th-ranked run defense in 2018 (123.9 rush yards allowed per game) to the top run defense in the NFL in 2019, holding opponents to just 73.8 rushing yards per game and just 3.26 average yards per rush. The 1,181 rushing yards allowed by Tampa Bay in 2019 were the 11th-fewest all-time in a 16-game season. The front seven showed a knack for getting into the opposing backfield, tying for fifth in the NFL in tackles for loss.

The Buccaneers also led the NFL with 96 passes defensed in 2019, tied for the league lead with six defensive touchdowns, ranked third with 21 forced fumbles and finished fifth with 28 takeaways.

In the secondary, Bowles guided a group of predominantly first and second-year players to a notable second-half turnaround in which the defense reduced its passing yards allowed per game from 293.5 in Games 1-8 to 246.8 in Games 9-16, while lowering its total yards allowed per game mark from 371.6 to 316.3 in that same span. The 316.3 total yards allowed per game was the sixth-best mark of any defense over its final eight games of the season.

Bowles' 2019 defense featured three players who took home end-of-season honors, led by Pro Bowl and AP second-team All-Pro outside linebacker Shaquil Barrett. Barrett set a team record with his league-leading 19.5 sacks in 2019, breaking Pro Football Hall of Famer Warren Sapp's team record of 16.5 set in 2000. The defense also featured two AP All-Rookie Team members: Sean Murphy-Bunting and Devin White. White led all rookies with 7.0 tackles per game and Sean Murphy-Bunting tied for the most interceptions by a rookie with three.

Bowles joined the Buccaneers after spending the previous four seasons as the head coach of the New York Jets (2015-18). Under Bowles, the Jets posted one of the best run defenses in the NFL, holding teams to just 4.00 yards per carry, the sixth-lowest figure in the NFL during that span, and allowing only 44 rushing touchdowns, tied for the eighth-least in that timeframe. Bowles' Jets defense also allowed opposing offenses to convert only 36.0 percent of third downs, the fourth-lowest mark in the league. Opposing passers completed just 60.6 percent of their passes against the Jets under Bowles, the third-lowest mark in the NFL.

Four different defensive players earned Pro Bowl berths under Bowles in New York, with cornerback Darrelle Revis and defensive lineman Muhammad Wilkerson being selected in 2015, defensive lineman Leonard Williams being nominated in 2016 and safety Jamal Adams voted to the game in 2018. The 2018 season also saw Jets return specialist Andre Roberts earn Pro Bowl distinction, along with being named first-team AP All-Pro as a kick returner.

Prior to serving as the head coach of the Jets, Bowles spent two seasons as the defensive coordinator of the Arizona Cardinals (2013-14), including winning Assistant Coach of the Year honors from the Pro Football Writers of America and the Associated Press in 2014. During Bowles' time in Arizona, the Cardinals' defense allowed the third-fewest rushing touchdowns (14), the fifth-fewest points per game (19.5) and the fifth-fewest rushing yards per game (96.6). Bowles' defenses in Arizona also showed a knack for taking the ball away, recording the fifth-most interceptions in the NFL (38) and the most defensive touchdowns in the league, with nine.

While Bowles led the Cardinals' defense, he saw cornerback Patrick Peterson earn first-team AP All-Pro honors in 2013 and earn Pro Bowl honors both years (2013-14). Defensive end John Abraham (2013), cornerback Antonio Cromartie (2014) and defensive end Calais Campbell (2014) each also earned Pro Bowl selections.

Bowles spent one year with the Philadelphia Eagles (2012), serving as the team's secondary coach before being named interim defensive coordinator for the final 10 games of the season. Philadelphia finished ninth in passing yards allowed (216.9 per game) that season.

Before joining the Eagles, Bowles worked as the assistant head coach/secondary coach for the Miami Dolphins for four seasons (2008–11). In the 2011 season, he was named interim head coach for the final three games of the year, going 2–1. Under Bowles' tutelage, Miami's secondary held opposing quarterbacks to a 58.1 completion percentage over that span, the seventh-lowest mark in the NFL.

Prior to his time in Miami, Bowles worked as the defensive backs coach for the Dallas Cowboys (2005–07), coaching three different players to the Pro Bowl (safety Ken Hamlin, cornerback Terence Newman and safety Roy Williams).

His NFL coaching career began in 2000 as the defensive backs coach of the New York Jets, coaching a unit that allowed just 18.3 passing yards per game, the sixth-lowest in the NFL. Following his season in New York, Bowles spent four years with the Cleveland Browns, working as the team's defensive nickel package coach (2001–03) and secondary coach (2004). In 2001, the team set a franchise record with 33 interceptions and in 2004, the Browns allowed the fifth-fewest passing yards in the NFL (181.3 per game).

Before coaching in the NFL, Bowles spent one season as the defensive coordinator at Morehouse College (1997) and two seasons as the defensive coordinator at Grambling State (1998–99).

Bowles played collegiately at Temple and, despite going undrafted in the 1986 NFL Draft, played eight years in the NFL, with the Washington Redskins (1986–90; 1992–93) and the San Francisco 49ers (1991). He was a starter on the 1987 Redskins team that won Super Bowl XXII. Following his retirement as a player, Bowles spent two seasons (1995–96) with the Green Bay Packers player personnel department.

A native of New Jersey, Bowles and his wife, Taneka, have three sons, Todd Jr., Troy and Tyson. Todd Jr. currently plays collegiate football at Long Island, while Troy plays his collegiate football career at Michigan. The Bowles family is actively involved in the Tampa Bay community supporting organizations including Autism Speaks, The Spring of Tampa Bay, Big Brothers Big Sisters of Tampa Bay, and the Tampa Bay Buccaneers Foundation. In 2024, Bowles was appointed to the NFL's Competition Committee, becoming 1-of-4 active head coaches on the panel.

KEVIN CARBERRY
RUN GAME COORDINATOR/OFFENSIVE LINE

Kevin Carberry enters his first season as run game coordinator/offensive line coach in 2025 after being promoted following one season as offensive line coach with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 2024.

In his first season in Tampa Bay, Carberry coached a unit that paved the way for the NFL's only offense that ranked top five in each yards per rush average (third – 5.3), passing yards per game (third – 250.4), total yards per game (third – 399.6), rushing yards per game (149.2 – fourth) and points scored per game (fourth – 29.5). Under Carberry's instruction, left tackle Tristan Wirfs collected his fourth Pro Bowl selection – the most selections by an offensive lineman in franchise history. According to Pro Football Focus, Wirfs finished first in the league with a 93.7 pass block grade and zero sacks allowed on his way to earning Associated Press First-Team All-Pro honors, becoming the first player in NFL history to earn this recognition at both left tackle and right tackle. Rookie center Graham Barton finished tied for fourth among all centers in fewest sacks allowed (2.0). The Buccaneers run game finished the 2024 season setting franchise records in yards per rush (5.3), total rush yards (2,536) and rushing first downs (137).

Carberry joined the Buccaneers after spending the 2023 season with the New Orleans Saints as the team's assistant offensive line coach. The Saints, led by Pro Bowl center Erik McCoy, tied for the fifth-fewest quarterback hits allowed in the NFL in 2023 (76), while limiting opponents to the eighth-fewest sacks (35).

Prior to his season in New Orleans, Carberry spent two seasons as the offensive line coach for the Los Angeles Rams during which he helped guide the Rams to a Super Bowl LVI victory to cap off the 2021 season. That season, Carberry's unit limited opposing defenses to the fourth-fewest quarterback hits (74) and tied for the sixth-fewest sacks allowed (31), in addition to ranking seventh in fewest sacks allowed per pass attempt (4.9%). In the 2021 playoffs, the Rams averaged 388.5 yards per game on the way to their Super Bowl title.

Carberry made his NFL coaching debut as an offensive assistant with the Dallas Cowboys in 2014. That season, he assisted an offensive unit that helped propel running back DeMarco Murray to a league-leading 1,845 rushing yards, in addition to winning the NFC East division title. Following his stint in Dallas (2014-15), Carberry joined Bill Callahan in Washington, where he spent two seasons as the assistant offensive line coach. In Washington in 2016, the team limited opponents to the fourth-fewest sacks (23) and boasted the NFL's third-ranked offense that season, averaging 403.4 yards per game. Brandon Scherff and Trent Williams each earned Pro Bowl trips under Carberry's tutelage.

In the collegiate ranks, Carberry has held coaching roles at Stanford (2018-20), Stephen F. Austin (2012-13) and Kansas (2009-11). As the offensive line coach at Stanford, Carberry coached four players to All-Pac-12 honors. The Cardinal finished 9-4 in 2018, winning the Sun Bowl. During the shortened 2020 season, Stanford went 4-2, ranking third in the Pac-12 with 420.0 yards of offense per game. He began his coaching career as a varsity assistant at his alma mater, St. Rita High School (Chicago), coaching them to an Illinois state title in 2006. He later coached two seasons at St. Ignatius College Prep (Chicago) while also playing in the AFL for the New York Dragons (2007) and Philadelphia Soul (2008), winning a 2008 Arena Bowl Championship in his lone year in Philadelphia.

Carberry competed in his first NFL training camp with the Cleveland Browns in 2005 before spending the season on the Detroit Lions practice squad. He later spent the 2006 training camp with the Carolina Panthers prior to landing with the Berlin Thunder of NFL Europe in the spring of 2006.

Carberry is a native of Oak Lawn, Illinois, and was a four-year player at Ohio University (2002-05), earning All-MAC honors as a senior. He later earned his Master's of Sport Administration degree from the University of Kansas. He and his wife, Emily, have one son, Frank, and one daughter, Elizabeth.

GEORGE EDWARDS
PASS GAME COORDINATOR

Edwards begins his third season with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, and his first season as pass game coordinator in 2025, following two seasons as outside linebackers coach. The 2025 season marks Edwards' 28th season of NFL coaching experience and his 36th overall.

In 2024, Edwards aided the continued development of outside linebacker Yaya Diaby, who totaled 92 tackles (25 for loss), 83 quarterback pressures, 28 quarterback hits, 12.0 sacks, three fumble recoveries and two forced fumbles over his first two career seasons. His 25 tackles for loss rank second among all members of the 2023 draft class through two seasons, in addition to ranking sixth in pressures, tied for sixth in sacks and eighth in quarterback hits. Diaby also earned NFC Defensive Player of the Week in Week 18 after he became the second player in franchise history to record four-or-more quarterback hits and tackles for loss in a single game. The outside linebackers group finished with 12.0 sacks, 23 tackles for loss, and four forced fumbles in 2024, assisting a fourth-ranked rush defense that allowed just 97.8 yards per game.

In his first year with the Buccaneers, Edwards mentored rookie third-round outside linebacker Yaya Diaby to a team-high 7.5 sacks in 2023. Edwards' unit utilized a committee approach that proved effective as six different players at the outside linebacker position recorded a sack, including four with 3.0+ sacks. His position group totaled 22.0 sacks and six forced fumbles in 2023, while contributing to a defense that finished fifth in the NFL in rush defense by limiting opponents to just 95.3 rushing yards per contest.

Prior to arriving in Tampa Bay, Edwards spent the previous three seasons with the Dallas Cowboys (2020-22) as the club's senior defensive assistant, helping guide a defensive unit that ranked second in interceptions (52), fourth in opponent completion percentage (61.9), sixth in opponent passer rating (86.5) and eighth in sacks (126) over that span. He worked most closely with the team's linebackers, mentoring Cowboys linebacker Micah Parsons to two Pro Bowl selections, two Associated Press first-team All-Pro recognitions and 2021 AP Defensive Rookie of the Year honors.

Prior to joining the Cowboys, Edwards spent six seasons as the defensive coordinator of the Minnesota Vikings (2014-19). After inheriting a defense that ranked 31st overall in total defense in 2013, Edwards propelled the Vikings into a consistent top five defense. From 2014-19, the Vikings ranked first in lowest opponent third-down conversion percentage (35.2%), second in fewest yards per play allowed (5.12), third in total defense (321.8 yards allowed per game), third in pass defense (214.7 yards per game) and third in sacks (260.0). Edwards' 2017 defense led the NFL in both total defense (275.9) and fewest points per game allowed (15.8), sparking the Vikings run to an NFC Championship game berth. It was Minnesota's first No. 1 defense since the 1993 season.

Previously, Edwards held roles as the linebackers coach for the Miami Dolphins (2005-09, 2012-13), defensive coordinator for the Buffalo Bills (2010-11), linebackers coach for the Cleveland Browns (2004), assistant defensive coordinator and linebackers coach for Washington (2002-03), and linebackers coach for the Cowboys (1998-2001). Edwards has also held assistant positions at the collegiate level, including at the University of Georgia (1997), Duke University (1996), Appalachian State University (1992-95) and the University of Florida (1990-91).

A four-year letterman at Duke University, Edwards was a two-time special teams captain and earned 1989 All-ACC honorable mention recognition at linebacker. Edwards is a native of Siler City, North Carolina. He and his wife, Jami, have one son, Bryan.

LARRY FOOTE
RUN GAME COORDINATOR/OUTSIDE LINEBACKERS

Larry Foote enters his seventh season with the Buccaneers in 2025, and his first as run game coordinator/outside linebackers coach, after spending the past three seasons as pass game coordinator/inside linebackers coach. He previously spent three seasons as teams outside linebackers coach from 2019-21.

In his third season with the inside linebackers group, Foote guided 34-year-old veteran Lavonte David in becoming the lone player in 2024 with 100+ tackles, 5.0 sacks, and three or more forced fumbles. David led the team with 122 tackles, recording his 11th season with 100+ tackles, the third-most since tackles became regularly tracked in 1994. The Buccaneers rush defense limited teams to 97.8 yards per game, the fourth lowest in the NFL.

Foote played a vital role in Tampa Bay's defensive turnaround during the second half of the season as the Buccaneers ranked as the second-best overall defense in the NFL from Weeks 12-18, limiting opponents to 273.9 yards per game during that span and helping vault the Buccaneers to a 6-1 record to finish the season. Tampa Bay held opponents to just 26 total second-half points and just two second-half opponent offensive touchdowns over the final seven weeks of the season – each the fewest in the NFL.

In 2023, David was the lone NFL player with 100+ tackles, 15+ tackles for loss and 3.0+ sacks and he collected his tenth 100-tackle season, leading the Buccaneers in total tackles (133), solo tackles (86) and tackles for loss (17). His 17 tackles for loss tied for seventh in the NFL in 2023 and first among non-edge rushers. In two seasons with Foote as his position coach (2022-23), David ranks tied for 10th in solo tackles (166) and 11th in total tackles (258) among all players, while generating the second-most tackles for loss (27) among inside linebackers during that span. As a unit, the Buccaneers 2023 defense ranked seventh in scoring defense, limiting opponents to just 19.1 points per game in 2023.

In his first season as pass game coordinator in 2022, Tampa Bay's pass defense (203.6 opponent passing yards/game) finished ninth in the NFL, posting the team's first season with a top 10 pass defense since 2010. The Buccaneers limited opponents to just 6.65 yards per pass attempt, which was the sixth-best mark in the league.

Additionally, during Foote's first season working with the inside linebackers in 2022, both David and Devin White surpassed the 100-tackle mark, finishing tied for the team lead with 124 tackles each. David led the team with 10 tackles for loss, while White led the team with 16 quarterback hits and three fumble recoveries. White was named NFC Defensive Player of the Month for September and later tacked on NFC Defensive Player of the Week accolades for his multi-sack performance in Week 10.

In 2021, outside linebacker Shaquil Barrett earned a Pro Bowl selection for the second time after recording 10.0 sacks and becoming one of four players in Buccaneers history with multiple 10.0-sack seasons – both of which came under Foote for Barrett.

In Barrett's three seasons with Foote as his position coach from 2019-21, Barrett ranked second in the NFL in strip sacks (11), fourth in sacks (37.5), fourth in tackles for loss (41), tied for fourth in forced fumbles (11) and fifth in quarterback hits (75), joining 2021 Defensive Player of the Year T.J. Watt as the only two players to rank in the top five in each of those five categories during that span.

Over his first two seasons after taking over in Tampa from 2020-21, Foote's starting outside linebacker tandem of Barrett and Jason Pierre-Paul ranked second among all pass-rushing duos in sacks with 45.5. During the 2020 regular season alone, the pairing combined for 112 tackles (18 tackles for loss), 30 quarterback hits, 17.5 sacks, nine passes defensed, six forced fumbles, two fumble recoveries and two interceptions. Pierre-Paul earned his first Pro Bowl nod as a member of the Buccaneers in the 2020 season.

During the 2020 regular season, the Buccaneers' defense ranked first in rushing yards allowed per game (80.6), tied for second in quarterback hits (116), tied for second in tackles for loss (91), tied for fourth in sacks (48.0), sixth in total yards allowed per game (327.1) and eighth in points allowed per game (22.2).

Foote's outside linebackers unit continued to thrive during Tampa Bay's four-game playoff run to a Super Bowl LV victory, including a 5.0-sack performance in the NFC Championship Game victory over Green Bay. In that game, Barrett tied the single-game playoff franchise record with 3.0 sacks, while Pierre-Paul's 2.0 sacks tied for the third-most in team history. Barrett stands tied for third all-time in career playoff sacks by a Buccaneers player with his 4.0 from 2020, while Pierre-Paul is tied for fifth with 2.0.

In Foote's first season in charge of the Buccaneers outside linebacker corps, the position group combined for 35 of the team's 47 sacks. Those 47 takedowns were then the second-most by a Tampa Bay unit since sacks became an official statistic in 1982.

Barrett secured his first Pro Bowl appearance in 2019 after registering 19.5 sacks to surpass Warren Sapp (16.5 in 2000) for the single-season franchise record. While Barrett led the league in sacks in his first season under Foote's guidance, Jason Pierre-Paul tacked on 8.5 sacks in just 10 games played.

Prior to arriving in Tampa Bay, Foote spent the previous four seasons coaching with the Arizona Cardinals (2015-18), first working as the team's inside linebackers coach (2015-17) before being elevated to linebackers coach in 2018. Foote helped oversee the conversion of Deone Bucannon from a college safety to a linebacker, with Bucannon leading the team in tackles in 2015, while adding three sacks and three forced fumbles. The Cardinals defense finished in the top 10 of the NFL in yards allowed for three straight seasons (2015-17) while Foote was a part of the staff.

Before beginning his coaching career, Foote spent 13 years playing in the NFL (2002-14), including 11 seasons with the Pittsburgh Steelers (2002-08, 2010-13). During his time with the Steelers, Foote was a part of two Super Bowl Championships (XL, XLIII). Foote spent his first seven seasons in Pittsburgh, before playing for his hometown Detroit Lions for one season (2009). He then returned to the Steelers for four seasons before finishing his career with the Cardinals in 2014. In his 13 seasons, Foote played in 187 games, with 912 tackles, 25 sacks, 10 forced fumbles, six fumble recoveries and four interceptions. He also played in 17 postseason games.

A Detroit native, Foote played collegiately at Michigan, earning All-American honors as a senior.

JOSH GRIZZARD
OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR

Josh Grizzard enters his second season with the Buccaneers in 2025 and first as offensive coordinator, after spending one season as pass game coordinator.

In his first year in Tampa Bay, Grizzard oversaw a passing attack that finished second in completion percentage (71.5%), tied for second in passing touchdowns (41), third in passing yards per game (250.4), third in passing first downs (224), fourth in passer rating (106.8) and fifth in net yards per pass attempt (7.5). Quarterback Baker Mayfield, left tackle Tristan Wirfs and wide receiver Mike Evans all earned Pro Bowl honors in 2024 under the mentorship of Grizzard. Mayfield set career highs in completions (407), passing yards (4,500), passing touchdowns (41), completion percentage (71.4%) and passer rating (106.8), ranking second in the NFL in touchdown passes, tied for second in completions, third in total touchdowns (44), third in completion percentage, fourth in passer rating and seventh in yards per attempt (7.9). He became just the fourth player in NFL history to record a season with 4,000+ passing yards, 40+ touchdowns, and a 70+ completion percentage, joining Drew Brees (2011), Joe Burrow (2024) and Aaron Rodgers (2020).

Grizzard brought 12 years of coaching experience to Tampa Bay, including seven years at the professional level – all with the Miami Dolphins. During his time with the Dolphins, Grizzard served as a quality control coach (2017-19, 2022-23) and wide receivers coach (2020-21). He was a part of four consecutive winning seasons with the Dolphins – accomplishing the feat for the first time since the club did so in seven straight seasons from 1997-2003.

Grizzard contributed to an offense that finished the 2023 season ranked first in yards per game (401.3), passing yards per game (265.5), and yards per carry (5.1), while ranking second in yards per play (6.5), net yards per pass attempt (8.0), and points scored per game (29.2). During his time as Miami's wide receivers coach, Grizzard worked closely with Jaylen Waddle, who established the NFL's then-rookie-reception record in 2021 with 104 receptions for a club-rookie-record 1,015 receiving yards.

Prior to his time with the Dolphins, Grizzard worked as a graduate assistant/quality control coach for Duke University (2013-16) where he coached current New York Giants quarterback Daniel Jones. Grizzard helped the Blue Devils to their best three-year stretch (2013-15) in school history, earning 27 wins an ACC Coastal division title and three consecutive bowl appearances.

Grizzard played football collegiately at Yale (2008-11), playing defensive back, before shifting into a student coaching assistant role in 2012. He is a native of Zebulon, North Carolina.

KEFENSE HYNSON
PASS GAME COORDINATOR

Kefense Hynson enters his first season with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 2025 as pass game coordinator.

Hynson came to Tampa Bay from Oregon State, where he spent the previous seven seasons as pass game coordinator/wide receivers coach (2018-24), including a brief stint as interim head coach for the final game of the 2023 season. With his guidance, Oregon State receivers earned All-Pac-12 honors six times.

Prior to Oregon State, Hynson held roles at Hawaii (2016-17), Norfolk State (2015), Montana (2012-14), Yale (2009-11), Western Washington (2006-08), Minnesota-Mankato (2005), Boise State (2004) and Willamette (2003). Hynson was the co-offensive coordinator/wide receivers coach at Yale while Buccaneers Offensive Coordinator Josh Grizzard was a member of the team.

A native of Oakland, California, Hynson played defensive back at Willamette University (1999-2002).

THOMAS MCGAUGHEY
SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR

Thomas McGaughey enters his second season as special teams coordinator with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 2025.

In his first year leading the Tampa Bay special teams unit, McGaughey coached kicker Chase McLaughlin to the Buccaneers' single season points scored record (144), finishing with the second-most extra points made (54) and the fourth-most field goals made (30) in any season in franchise history. McLaughlin also reset his own franchise record for single season field goal percentage, finishing with a 93.8% (30-of-32) clip in 2024. McGaughey's 2024 group was also the first Buccaneers team to record at least one opponent field goal block and one opponent punt block in the same season since 2009, and marked 1-of-4 occurrences in the team's history. The team's punt block was returned for a touchdown, marking Tampa Bay's first special teams touchdown since 2017.

McGaughey joined Tampa Bay with 17 years of NFL coaching experience, including nine as a special teams coordinator for the New York Giants (2018-23), Carolina Panthers (2016-17), San Francisco 49ers (2015) and New York Jets (2014). He held previous roles in the NFL as an assistant special teams coach with the Giants (2007-10), Denver Broncos (2005-06) and Kansas City Chiefs (2002). In addition, McGaughey spent six total seasons coaching in the collegiate ranks at Louisiana State University (2011-13) and the University of Houston (1997, 2003-04).

Over the past six seasons with the Giants, McGaughey has found success working with the kicker position as New York ranked sixth from 2018-23 in team field goal percentage (87.1%). From 50 yards or more, the Giants converted 29-of-38 field goal attempts during that span, ranking second in 50+-yard field goal percentage (76.3%) and fourth in total 50+-yard field goals made. In 2022 alone, Graham Gano set a new single-season franchise record with eight 50+-yard field goals made, while in 2018, McGaughey coached Aldrick Rosas to a franchise record for single-season field goal percentage (97.0%), earning him his first Pro Bowl selection. Former NFL safety Michael Thomas also reached the Pro Bowl in 2018 under McGaughey's guidance, leading the team with nine special teams tackles.

From 2018-23, McGaughey's special teams group also ranked fifth in the NFL in fewest opponent yards per kick return (21.2) and ninth in fewest opponent yards per punt return (7.8).

McGaughey was a member of the coaching staff for the Super Bowl XLII championship team in 2007 during his initial stint with the Giants. The following year, all three specialists earned Pro Bowl recognition under McGaughey: kicker John Carney, punter/holder Jeff Feagles and long snapper Zak DeOssie.

In his playing career, McGaughey spent time with the Cincinnati Bengals and Philadelphia Eagles in 1996 prior to landing with the Barcelona Dragons of NFL Europe in 1997, winning the World Bowl that season.

McGaughey was a two-sport athlete at the University of Houston (1991-95), competing in both football and track and field. He was named a special teams captain on the football team in his senior season. Following his playing career, McGaughey returned to Houston as a graduate assistant in 1997 before taking a job as the defensive backs and special teams coach at Willowridge High School (Houston) from 1998-2001.

McGaughey has two sons, Thomas (Trey) and Trenton, and one daughter, Taylor.

TIM ATKINS
ASSISTANT SECONDARY

Tim Atkins begins his seventh season with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 2025, and his fourth as assistant secondary coach. He spent his first three seasons with Tampa Bay working as the team's defensive quality control coach.

In a season in which 10 different players started a game in Tampa Bay's secondary in 2024, Atkins helped steady a unit that limited its opponents to the second-fewest points per game (17.0), second-fewest yards per game (273.9), third-fewest yards per pass attempt (5.9) and the sixth-lowest opponent passer rating (87.2) in the NFL from Weeks 12-18 following the team's Bye Week. In addition, Buccaneers defensive backs combined to tie for the fourth-most forced fumbles (six) and fourth-most fumble recoveries (four) in the NFL in 2024.

In 2023, Atkins was a member of a secondary staff that oversaw a first-team All-Pro season from safety Antoine Winfield Jr., in which he amassed 122 tackles (six for loss), 12 passes defensed, eight quarterback hits, 6.0 sacks, six forced fumbles, four fumble recoveries and three interceptions. Tampa Bay's defense finished the year ranked seventh in scoring defense (19.1), while allowing the sixth-fewest opponent touchdowns (34).

During Atkins' first season as the assistant secondary coach for the Buccaneers in 2022, Tampa Bay finished sixth in the NFL in fewest passing yards allowed per attempt (6.65) and 10th in fewest total passing yards allowed (3,461). The 2022 opponent total marked the fewest passing yards allowed by the Buccaneers since the 2010 season when they allowed 3,216 yards. In addition, the Buccaneers defense combined for a total of 58 passes defensed, 10 interceptions, and held opponent quarterbacks to a 63.9 completion percentage. Antoine Winfield Jr. tied for second in the NFL among safeties in both sacks (4.0) and tackles for loss (seven).

In Atkins' final season in charge of quality control efforts for the Buccaneers in 2021, Tampa Bay finished third in the NFL in fewest rushing yards allowed per game (92.5), seventh in fewest yards per play allowed (5.16), fifth in goal-to-go efficiency (62.1 percent) and 10th in red zone efficiency (52.5 percent). In addition, the Buccaneers led the NFL in quarterback hits (123), ranked tied for fifth in takeaways (29), seventh in sacks (47.0), eighth in tackles for loss (81) and tied for eighth in forced fumbles (16).

During Tampa Bay's 2020 title season, Atkins contributed to a defense that led the league in rush defense (80.6 rush yards allowed per game) for the second-consecutive season, while also ranking sixth in total yards allowed per game (327.1) and eighth in points allowed per game (22.2). Additionally, the Buccaneers defense allowed the fifth-fewest first downs (19.9) and tallied the seventh-most sacks per pass attempt (7.78%).

In his first year in Tampa Bay, Atkins led quality control efforts for a defense that finished first against the run and fifth in takeaways. In addition, Tampa Bay's defense made a noticeable second-half turnaround as it lowered its yards per game allowed average from 371.6 yards per game through the first eight games to 316.3 over the final eight games, which ranked eighth in the NFL from Weeks 9-17.

Atkins followed Buccaneers Head Coach Todd Bowles to Tampa Bay, who he worked under for three seasons (2016-18) as defensive quality control coach for the New York Jets. Prior to his time with the Jets, Atkins charted games for the Cleveland Browns for two seasons (2014-15) and served as a Buffalo Bills defensive assistant from 2011-12. That followed a one-season stint with the UFL's Florida Tuskers (2010).

Atkins broke into the NFL as a defensive assistant for the Miami Dolphins from 2006-08 before becoming a defensive graduate assistant at Florida Atlantic University (2008-09). He also coached on the collegiate level for Whittier College as wide receivers coach (2005) and safeties coach (2004).

CORY BICHEY
ASSISTANT STRENGTH & CONDITIONING

Cory Bichey begins his sixth season as assistant strength and conditioning coach with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 2025. He was a member of the coaching staff for Tampa Bay's Super Bowl LV victory in his first season with the team.

Bichey joined the team following two years (2018-2019) at Mississippi State. He began his time with the Bulldogs football program as the assistant strength and conditioning coach under current Buccaneers Head Strength & Conditioning Coach Anthony Piroli in 2018, before being elevated to head strength and conditioning coach for Mississippi State football in 2019, following Piroli's departure to Tampa Bay. Previously, Bichey worked on the strength and conditioning staff at Arkansas from 2013-17, after spending a year as a graduate assistant for Cincinnati (2012-13).

Bichey graduated from Indiana State University with a bachelor's degree in exercise science and minor in strength and conditioning (2012). He was a four-year letterwinner as an offensive lineman for Indiana State from 2008-12.

MIKE CALDWELL
INSIDE LINEBACKERS

Caldwell enters the first season of his second stint with Tampa Bay in 2025, marking his fourth total season as inside linebackers coach for the Buccaneers.

Caldwell most recently worked as the run game coordinator/linebackers coach for the Las Vegas Raiders in 2024, following a two-year stint with the Jacksonville Jaguars as defensive coordinator (2022-23). In 2022, the Jaguars defense finished first in the NFL in passes defensed (95) and tied for fourth in takeaways (27) under Caldwell's guidance.

Prior to Jacksonville, Caldwell spent the previous three seasons with the Buccaneers (2019-21) as inside linebackers coach, where he coached Lavonte David to second-team All-Pro recognition and Devin White to both Pro Bowl and second-team All-Pro honors during that span. During his three seasons in this role, Caldwell instructed a linebacker group that played a key part in the NFL's top rush defense over that span, allowing only 82.5 rushing yards per game and 3.72 yards per carry. In 2020, Caldwell coached David and White to a Super Bowl LV title, finishing the season with an 11-5 record and leading the league in rush defense (80.6 rush yards allowed per game) for the second consecutive season. David averaged 112.3 tackles per season with Caldwell as his position coach and contributed 27 tackles for loss, 16 passes defensed, eight forced fumbles, 4.5 sacks, four fumble recoveries and two interceptions in that timeframe.

Before his first stint with the Buccaneers, he held defensive roles with the New York Jets (2015-18), Arizona Cardinals (2013-14) and Philadelphia Eagles (2008-2012). Caldwell began his coaching career as a training camp intern for the Philadelphia Eagles in 2007 before holding multiple roles on their staff from 2008-12.

An 11-year NFL veteran, Caldwell played with the Cleveland Browns (1993-95), Baltimore Ravens (1996), Arizona Cardinals (1997), Philadelphia Eagles (1998-2001), Chicago Bears (2002) and Carolina Panthers (2003).

He and his wife, Sue, have three children – two daughters, Sydnei and Saniah, and a son, Simeon. His daughter Sydnei played collegiate basketball at the University of Pennsylvania, where Saniah actively plays for the Quakers.

SARAH EVANS
SENIOR MANAGER OF COACHING OPERATIONS

Sarah Evans enters her third season as senior manager of coaching operations for the Buccaneers in 2025 and her ninth year with the organization overall.

In her current role, Evans works directly with head coach Todd Bowles on all aspects of day-to-day operations, facilitating structure, communication, and strategy within the coaching department.

Evans joined Tampa Bay as an events and entertainment intern in 2016 before being promoted full-time and spending seven years in the community impact department (2016-19, 2020-22), elevating to Senior Player Relations Manager. During her time in the community impact department, Evans collaborated with players, coaches, and staff on a variety of projects. She joined forces with the Social Justice Player Board on the creation of a first-of-its kind Youth Leadership Program that brought staff and players together to mentor Tampa Bay youth. She served as liaison for all player community programs and appearances. She also focused on the implementation of gender equality initiatives that foster the development of girls and women in football, including the Girls in Football Scholarship, the Women's Summit for Careers in Football, and Women of Red. Throughout her execution of the league's 'My Cause, My Cleats' program, she worked with artists and players to create over 250 pairs of custom cleats that supported charitable causes.

In addition to her experience with the Buccaneers organization, Evans has also held roles with Florida State Basketball, the Miami Marlins, the Miami Dolphins, and Roc Nation.

A native of Miami, Evans is a graduate of Florida State University, where she earned a Bachelor's degree in sport management.

JOEY FITZGERALD
DEFENSIVE QUALITY CONTROL

Joey Fitzgerald enters his fourth season with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 2025 as defensive quality control coach.

Fitzgerald assisted a top five rush defense for the second year in a row in 2024, as Tampa Bay limited its opponents to the fourth-fewest rushing yards per game (97.8). He handled quality control efforts for a defense that regrouped over its Bye Week to finish second in opponent yards per game (273.9), second in defensive third down conversion percentage (30.1%) and second in points allowed per game (17.0) from Weeks 12-18, propelling the Buccaneers to a 6-1 record over the final seven weeks.

Alongside then Defensive Line Coach Kacy Rodgers, Fitzgerald oversaw a Pro Bowl campaign for nose tackle Vita Vea, in which Vea set career highs in sacks (7.0), tackles for loss (10) and quarterback pressures (47), and matched his career high in quarterback hits (13). Despite missing six games due to injury, second-year defensive lineman Calijah Kancey also took strides forward under Fitzgerald's mentorship, finishing with a team-high and career-best 7.5 sacks in 2024, in addition to also establishing career marks in quarterback hits (17), quarterback pressures (37) and tackles for loss (11). Kancey and Vea finished as 1-of-3 interior defensive tackle duos with 5.0+ sacks each in 2024. With defensive lineman Logan Hall finishing tied for third on the team with a career high 5.5 sacks, all three primary defensive line starters finished with career highs in sacks under Fitzgerald's leadership in 2024.

In 2023, the Buccaneers defense finished fifth in the NFL in rush defense (95.3), seventh in scoring defense (19.1) and tied for seventh in sacks (48.0). Fitzgerald assisted Rodgers in overseeing the development of rookie defensive lineman Calijah Kancey, who finished the season with 26 tackles (10 for loss), 12 quarterback hits and 4.0 sacks. Kancey's 10 tackles for loss tied for second among all rookies, trailing only teammate Yaya Diaby.

In Fitzgerald's first season in 2022, Tampa Bay finished tied for fifth in fewest opponent first downs per game (18.5), sixth in lowest third-down conversion rate (36.9%), tied for seventh in sacks (45.0), ninth in fewest passing yards allowed per game (203.6), tied for ninth in fewest total yards allowed per game (324.3) and 10th in fewest yards allowed per play (5.14).

Most recently, Fitzgerald worked as the quarterbacks coach at Northwestern State (2021) following a two-year stint as wide receivers coach at the University of Louisiana Monroe (2019-20). The Fort Lauderdale native previously served as recruiting specialist at the University of Florida in 2018 – a program that went 10-3 on its way to a Peach Bowl victory that season.

He has also previously held offensive roles at Southeastern Louisiana (2017), University of Virginia's College at Wise (2016) and Eastern Kentucky (2015).

While in graduate school, Fitzgerald began his coaching career as a defensive intern and graduate assistant at Florida Atlantic from 2009-12, working with the defensive backs and linebackers, prior to spending two years at Mississippi State (2013-14) as a graduate assistant and offensive quality control coach. Fitzgerald played quarterback at Hampden-Sydney College from 2005-08, during which his team claimed the 2007 Old Dominion Athletic Conference Championship.

A native of Fort Lauderdale, Florida, Fitzgerald graduated from Hampden-Sydney College with a bachelor's degree in psychology. He later earned a master's degree in education from Florida Atlantic in 2012 and a master's degree in teaching from Mississippi State in 2014. He and his wife, Lori, have two sons, Jaxon and Brady, and one daughter, Riley.

MARAL JAVADIFAR
DIRECTOR OF REHABILITATION/ PERFORMANCE COACH

Maral Javadifar enters her seventh season with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 2025, and her fourth as the team's director of rehabilitation/performance coach.

In her current role, Javadifar leads the rehabilitation of injured players, while continuing to focus on the Buccaneers' collaborative efforts to maximize athlete performance.

Skilled in the interplay between rehabilitation and training, she believes in an athlete-centered model that is focused on maximizing the potential of each player. She has a background in different forms of manual medicine, load management, physical assessments and motor learning. As a member of the Buccaneers Super Bowl-winning team in 2020, she joined Assistant Defensive Line Coach Lori Locust as the first women on an NFL coaching staff to win a Super Bowl.

Since arriving in Tampa, Javadifar has supported the annual NFL Women's Careers in Football Forum, helping to connect and inspire female candidates currently working in college football roles with coaches and executives at NFL clubs. She has also encouraged participation in the Buccaneers Girls Flag Football Preseason Classic – the largest girls flag football tournament in the country.

Javadifar completed her sports physical therapy residency at Virginia Commonwealth University. Prior to her time at VCU, Javadifar worked as a performance physical therapist in the Virginia/DC area.

A native of Queens, New York, Javadifar played college basketball at Pace University in New York. After receiving a bachelor of science degree in molecular biology from Pace, Javadifar then earned her doctor of physical therapy degree from New York Medical College.

RASHAD JOHNSON

Rashad Johnson enters his fourth season with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 2025 as an assistant secondary coach.

Under Johnson's mentorship in 2024, defensive backs Christian Izien and Tykee Smith solidified the nickel corner position, combining for 125 tackles (eight for loss), 10 passes defensed, four forced fumbles and three interceptions. In just his rookie season, Smith played 13 games and was 1-of-4 players across the NFL to record three-or-more forced fumbles, five-or-more passes defensed and two-plus interceptions, joining Jessie Bates III, Zaire Franklin and Fred Warner. Smith was the first rookie to record those marks in a season since 2018. Outside corner Zyon McCollum established career highs in games started (17), defensive snaps (1,007), passes defensed (17) and interceptions (two). His 17 passes defensed tied for the third-most in the NFL.

In 2023, Johnson worked primarily with the cornerbacks, while taking the lead on the nickel corner position and mentoring undrafted defensive back Christian Izien to a share of the team lead with two interceptions in 2023. Izien became just the fourth undrafted player since 1967 with an interception in each of his first two career games. Cornerback Zyon McCollum also started a career high nine games in 2023 under Johnson's coaching, ranking second on the team with nine passes defensed.

Johnson broke into coaching as a Bill Walsh Coaching Fellow with the Buccaneers during the 2022 offseason and was hired full-time as a defensive assistant following the conclusion of training camp. He contributed to a 2022 Tampa Bay defense that finished ninth in the NFL in pass defense, limiting opponents to 203.6 passing yards per game, and sixth in the league in fewest passing yards allowed per attempt (6.65). It marked the team's first season with a top 10 pass defense since 2010.

After entering the league as a third-round selection by the Arizona Cardinals in the 2009 NFL Draft, Johnson enjoyed an eight-year playing career as a defensive back for the Cardinals (2009-15) and Tennessee Titans (2016). He played in 114 career games, tallying 340 tackles, 15 interceptions, four fumble recoveries, three defensive touchdowns and two forced fumbles.

Johnson played collegiately at Alabama (2004-08), earning back-to-back first-team All-SEC honors in his final two seasons, in addition to an All-America selection his senior year. He later returned to his alma mater in 2018 as a sideline analyst for the Alabama radio network, while also serving as the director of player development (2018-20).

He is a native of Sulligent, Alabama, and resides in Tampa with his wife, Chelsea, and three kids: Hunter, Taylor and Jordan. He lives his life with a heart to inspire others through faith to become the best versions of themselves.

JEFF KASTL
ASSISTANT TIGHT ENDS

Jeff Kastl enters his fourth season with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 2025 and his first as the assistant tight ends coach.

In his final season as the season leading offensive quality control efforts in 2024, Kastl assisted one of the NFL's most efficient offenses. Tampa Bay's offense established a number of single-season franchise records, including: completion percentage (71.5%), passer rating (106.8), yards per rush (5.3), rushing yards (2,536) and third-down conversion rate (50.9%). Kastl contributed to a complete overhaul of the team's rushing attack, improving the NFL's 32nd-ranked rush offense in 2022 and 2023 to a ground game that finished third in yards per rush and fourth in rush yards per game in 2024. The Buccaneers became the first team in NFL history to complete 70% of their passes and average over 5.0 yards per carry throughout an entire season, in addition to becoming just the second team in league history with 40+ passing touchdowns and 5.0+ yards per rush in a single season. Tampa Bay's 2024 offense was 1-of-3 across the league to throw for 4,000+ yards and rush for 2,000+ yards this season, alongside the Baltimore Ravens and Detroit Lions.

Easing the transition with a new offensive coordinator and a new quarterback in 2023, Kastl assisted a staff that guided Baker Mayfield to career highs in completions (364), completion percentage (64.3%), passing yards (4,044) and passing touchdowns (28). Mayfield finished top 10 in the league in passing yards, passing touchdowns and touchdown-to-interception ratio (2.8). As a group, Tampa Bay's offense ranked second in 2023 in fourth-down conversion percentage (66.7%) and 10th in third-down conversion percentage (41.5%).

In Kastl's first season in charge of offense quality control efforts for the Buccaneers in 2022, Tampa Bay led the league with the fewest number of sacks allowed (22.0), ranked third in lowest interception rate per pass attempt (1.3 percent), seventh in fourth down conversion rate (55.6 percent) and tied ninth for fewest fumbles (17). Additionally, the Buccaneers offense led the league in total receptions (499), ranked second in passing yards per game (269.8), and third in total passing first downs (240).

Kastl comes to Tampa Bay as offensive quality control coach following two seasons as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Indiana State University (2020-21). He previously spent four seasons at the University of Texas-San Antonio where he began his career as the wide receivers coach in 2016, prior to adding pass game coordinator duties in 2018, and later being promoted to offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach in 2019. His receivers broke 10 school records during his three seasons mentoring the position group.

A former University of Michigan quarterback (2002-06), Kastl spent four seasons coaching in the Power Five conferences, working as an offensive assistant at LSU (2015), defensive analyst at his alma mater (2013-14), and as a graduate assistant at Auburn in 2012. Following a pair of Big Ten titles during his playing career at Michigan (2002-06), Kastl began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Central Michigan (2007-08) before spending three years at Ashland University (2009-11).

A native of Clinton Township, Michigan, Kastl graduated from the University of Michigan with a bachelor's degree in sports management and communications, as well as a master's degree in sports management. He and his wife, Kate, have three daughters, Maeve, Hannah and Murphy.

THADDEUS LEWIS QUARTERBACKS

Thaddeus Lewis enters his third season as quarterbacks coach with the Buccaneers in 2025, after spending the prior two seasons as the team's assistant wide receivers coach.

In 2024, Lewis aided Buccaneers quarterback Baker Mayfield in establishing career highs for the second season in a row, in completions (407), passing yards (4,500), passing touchdowns (41), completion percentage (71.4%) and passer rating (106.8). He became the first quarterback in franchise history to be selected to multiple Pro Bowls (2023, 2024), while also earning NFC Offensive Player of the Week honors in Weeks 15 and 17, and Fedex Air Player of the Week in Week 1. He finished second in the NFL in passing touchdowns, tied for second in completions, third in total touchdowns (44), third in completion percentage, fourth in passer rating and seventh in yards per attempt (7.9). Mayfield became the fourth player in NFL history to record a season with 4,000+ passing yards, 40+ touchdowns, and a 70+ completion percentage, joining Drew Brees (2011), Joe Burrow (2024) and Aaron Rodgers (2020). In two seasons with Lewis as his position coach (2023-24), Mayfield ranks in the top 10 among all quarterbacks in passing touchdowns (first – 69), passing yards (second – 8,544), total touchdowns (third – 73), completions (third – 771), completion percentage (eighth – 67.9%), and yards per attempt (ninth – 7.5). Through two seasons with the Buccaneers, Mayfield holds the franchise's career playoff records for passer rating (114.8), touchdown-to-interception ratio (4.0), yards per pass attempt (9.2) and completion percentage (66.3%). He also ranks second in both passing touchdowns (8) and third in yards (871).

In year one as Tampa Bay's quarterbacks coach, Lewis oversaw a Pro Bowl campaign for first-year Buccaneers quarterback Baker Mayfield, in which he recorded 364 completions, 4,044 passing yards, 28 passing touchdowns, and a completion percentage of 63.4% on his way to the 2023 Pro Football Writers of America Most Improved Player award. Mayfield finished seventh in the NFL in passing touchdowns, tied for eighth in passing first downs (188), ninth in passing yards, 10th in completions (364) and 10th in touchdown-to-interception ratio (2.8). With Lewis' instruction, Mayfield was 1-of-2 quarterbacks – alongside Dak Prescott of the Dallas Cowboys – to put forth 4,000+ passing yards and 25+ passing touchdowns while throwing for 10-or-fewer interceptions in 2023. In the 2023 playoffs, Mayfield posted a 106.5 passer rating – the highest career postseason passer rating by any player in franchise history. Mayfield became the only quarterback in club history to throw for 300-or-more yards and three-or-more passing touchdowns in a postseason contest, and he did so in each of the team's playoff contests.

Lewis' final year working with the wide receivers saw both Mike Evans (1,124) and Chris Godwin (1,023) surpass the 1,000-yard mark for the second consecutive season. That duo is one of just three pairs of teammates across the NFL to have put forth back-to-back 1,000-yard receiving seasons from 2020-21. In his return from ACL and MCL tears late in the 2021 season, Godwin set a career high with 104 receptions in 2022 – the second-most receptions in a single season in Buccaneers' team history. As a group, Tampa Bay wide receivers led the NFL in receptions (299) and ranked third among all wide receiver corps in yards (3,252) and first downs (166) for the league's second-ranked passing offense (269.8 pass yards per game).

In his first season as assistant wide receivers coach in 2021, Lewis worked alongside former wide receivers coach Kevin Garver to instruct the NFL's most-productive receiving corps, with Tampa Bay leading the league in receptions (492), receiving yards (5,383), receiving touchdowns (43) and receiving first downs (273). The Buccaneers had a pair of 1,000-yard receivers in Mike Evans (1,035) and Chris Godwin (1,103). In 14 games played, Godwin finished second in team history with his 98 receptions, while Evans secured a Pro Bowl selection after setting a franchise record with 14 receiving touchdowns.

Lewis began his NFL coaching career in Tampa Bay during the 2020 season as a representative of the Bill Walsh coaching fellow program, during which he worked as an assistant to the offense during the Buccaneers Super Bowl LV championship season.

Prior to arriving in Tampa Bay, Lewis began his coaching career by spending two years as an offensive analyst at UCLA under Chip Kelly from 2018-19.

Lewis was a four-year starter at quarterback for Duke (2006-09), where he set school records for career passing yards (10,065) and passing touchdowns (67) and added nine rushing touchdowns. He also set Duke's program record for most consecutive pass attempts without an interception at 206. He was a finalist for the Davey O'Brien Award – presented to the nation's top quarterback – in his senior season in 2009. Lewis then went on to spend parts of eight seasons in the NFL (2010-17) with the St. Louis Rams, Cleveland Browns, Detroit Lions, Buffalo Bills, Houston Texans, Philadelphia Eagles, San Francisco 49ers and Baltimore Ravens. He played in seven career games, making six starts, recording 115 completions for 1,296 passing yards and five passing touchdowns, adding one rushing touchdown.

BRYAN McCLENDON
WIDE RECEIVERS

Bryan McClendon begins his second season as wide receivers coach with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 2025.

In his first year with the Buccaneers in 2024, McClendon led a wide receiver unit that combined to finish second in the league in receiving touchdowns (28) and tied for fifth in receiving first downs (144), while contributing to an offense that ranked third in passing yards per game (250.4) and third in total yards per game (399.6). Despite missing three games, Buccaneers wide receiver Mike Evans tied for fourth in the NFL with 11 receiving touchdowns and recorded 74 receptions for 1,004 yards. Following his 2024 Pro-Bowl campaign, Evans is now tied with Jerry Rice for most consecutive 1,000-yard seasons in NFL history (11). Buccaneers wideout Chris Godwin led the NFL in Weeks 1-7 in receptions (50) and receiving first downs (33), and ranked second in receiving yards (576) and tied for third in receiving touchdowns (five) prior to suffering a season-ending injury. Under McClendon's guidance, wide receiver Jalen McMillan finished the season tied for second among all rookies with eight receiving touchdowns – the third-most by a rookie in franchise history. He recorded five consecutive games with 50+ receiving yards and a receiving touchdown – the second-longest such streak by a rookie in NFL history, trailing only Randy Moss, who accomplished this in seven consecutive games. McClendon helped the receiver unit overcome the injuries to its top two receivers, Mike Evans and Chris Godwin, with seven different receivers playing 200-or-more snaps.

McClendon joined Tampa Bay with 17 years of coaching experience, all at the collegiate level. He comes to the Buccaneers from his second stint at the University of Georgia, where he won a national championship in 2022 while serving as the team's pass game coordinator and wide receivers coach (2022-23).

During his most recent time with the Bulldogs, McClendon oversaw an offense that ranked second among Power Five schools in yards per game (498.9), third in points per game (40.6), fourth in yards per carry (5.4), sixth in passer rating (165.0), seventh in passing yards per game (300.4), and 10th in rushing yards per game (198.5).

Before his return to Georgia, McClendon was the pass game coordinator and wide receivers coach at the University of Oregon (2020-21), where he also served as the team's interim head coach during the 2021 season. Prior to joining Oregon, McClendon coached at the University of South Carolina (2016-19), working as the team's offensive coordinator and wide receivers coach.

McClendon started his coaching career at Georgia, where he held multiple titles, including graduate assistant (2007-08), running backs coach (2009-14), assistant head coach, wide receivers coach and pass game coordinator (2015) and interim head coach (2015). In 2014, McClendon was named National Recruiter of the Year by 247Sports following his recruitment of both Nick Chubb and Sony Michel in the same class.

He played collegiately for the Bulldogs (2002-05), appearing in 46 games as a wide receiver and bringing in 56 receptions for 830 yards and six touchdowns. During his time at Georgia, McClendon was a part of two SEC championship teams and played in four bowl games. His father, Willie McClendon, also played collegiately at Georgia, earning 1978 SEC Player of the Year honors and later going on to play four seasons for the Chicago Bears (1979-82).

McClendon and his wife, Amber, have three children: Bryan, Brooke and Brayden.

TOM MOORE
SENIOR OFFENSIVE ASSISTANT

Tom Moore enters his seventh season with the Buccaneers in 2025 and his 47th NFL season overall.

In 2024, Moore aided Pro Bowl quarterback Baker Mayfield to earning career highs for the second season in a row, in completions (407), passing yards (4,500), passing touchdowns (41) completion percentage (71.4%) and passer rating (106.8), which marks the highest passer rating in a single season in team history. Mayfield finished second in the NFL in passing touchdowns, tied for second in completions, third in total touchdowns (44), third in completion percentage and fourth in passer rating, seventh in yards per attempt (7.9). In his first two seasons with the Buccaneers under Moore's instruction, Mayfield earned back-to-back Pro Bowl honors, becoming the first quarterback in franchise history to be selected to multiple Pro Bowls (2023, 2024).

Moore instructed yet another quarterback to a Pro Bowl selection in 2023, as first-year Buccaneers quarterback Baker Mayfield finished with 364 completions, 4,044 passing yards, 28 passing touchdowns and a completion percentage of 63.4%, earning the Pro Football Writers of America Most Improved Player award. Mayfield finished seventh in the NFL in passing touchdowns, tied for eighth in passing first downs (188), ninth in passing yards, 10th in completions (364) and 10th in touchdown-to-interception ratio (2.8). Mayfield joined Tom Brady (2022) as the only players in Tampa Bay's franchise history to put forth a season with 4,000+ passing yards, 25+ touchdown passes and 10-or-fewer interceptions – both seasons came under the mentorship of Moore.

During the 2023 offseason, Moore was recognized by the Pro Football Hall of Fame with an Award of Excellence for his contributions as an assistant coach in the league for over four decades.

Moore helped instruct quarterback Tom Brady in his final NFL season in 2022 – a season in which Brady finished third in the NFL with 4,694 passing yards, in addition to throwing 25 touchdown passes compared to just nine interceptions. In his three seasons working with Moore from 2020-22, Brady ranked second in passing yards (14,643), tied for third in passing touchdowns (108) and third in touchdown-to-interception ratio (3.27). He was one of just three quarterbacks to record 4,500+ passing yards and 25-or-more touchdowns in each of the past three seasons, joining Patrick Mahomes and Justin Herbert.

In 2021, Moore helped mentor Brady on his way to joining Drew Brees (2008) and Peyton Manning (2013) as the only players since 1991 to lead the league in passing yards, passing touchdowns, completions and attempts in a single season. Moore has overseen the league's passing leader four different times over the course of his NFL coaching career.

Moore has coached some of the NFL's best quarterbacks over his prolific career and 2020 was no different as Moore helped coach Brady to his NFL-record seventh Super Bowl title. Brady finished his first season in Tampa Bay ranked second in the league in completions (401), tied for second in touchdown passes (40), third in passing yards (4,633), sixth in passing touchdown percentage (6.6) and seventh in touchdown-to-interception ratio (3.33). Brady's 40 passing touchdowns set a new franchise record and were the most by a player in his first season with a team in NFL history. The Buccaneers ranked third in the NFL in points scored per game (30.8), fourth in passing yards per game (298.5) and seventh in total offense (384.1).

In his first season in Tampa Bay, Moore worked with a Buccaneers offense that led the league in passing yards and ranked third in total offense. Quarterback Jameis Winston threw for 5,109 yards in 2019, marking the third time a quarterback had led the league in passing yards under Moore's guidance.

Moore's coaching career dates to 1961 when he accepted his first coaching position at his alma mater, the University of Iowa. Following 13 seasons at the collegiate level and one year in the World Football League, Moore made the jump to the NFL as a wide receivers coach for the Pittsburgh Steelers in 1977. Over his 39 seasons in the NFL, his teams have earned 24 postseason appearances, 15 division titles and five Super Bowl appearances (four wins). He has coached a multitude of Hall of Fame players including Peyton Manning, Lynn Swann, John Stallworth, Terry Bradshaw, Franco Harris, Mike Webster, Barry Sanders, Marshall Faulk, Randall McDaniel, Cris Carter, Marvin Harrison and Edgerrin James. Moore has coached alongside three Super Bowl-winning head coaches – Chuck Noll, Mike Ditka, and Tony Dungy – all of whom are enshrined in Canton.

Moore also spent 13 seasons coaching NFL legend Peyton Manning from 1998-2010, during which Manning posted franchise records with 54,828 passing yards, 399 touchdowns, and 4,682 completions. Additionally, Manning won four of his five NFL MVP Awards (2003-04, 2008-09) under Moore's tutelage.

After earning All-American honors as a quarterback at Rochester (Minn.) High School, Moore played at Iowa (1957-60), winning a Rose Bowl and Big 10 title in 1958, and earning a share of another conference title in 1960. He earned a bachelor's degree in history at Iowa and a master's degree in guidance counseling at Dayton. In 2005, Moore was inducted into the Rochester, Minnesota, Sports Hall of Fame and in 2014, he was inducted into the Pennsylvania Sports Hall of Fame (Western Chapter) in recognition for his 13 seasons as an assistant coach with the Pittsburgh Steelers. In 2015, Moore was honored with the Pro Football Writers of America Paul "Dr. Z" Zimmerman Award for lifetime achievement as assistant coach in the NFL.

Moore and his wife, Emily, have two children, daughter, Terry, and son, Dan.

JUSTIN PEELLE
TIGHT ENDS

Justin Peelle (pronounced 'peel') enters his second season with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 2025 as tight ends coach.

In Peelle's first season with the Buccaneers, Tampa Bay's tight end group was led by Cade Otton, who totaled 59 receptions – the fifth-most by a tight end in a single season in franchise history – and established career highs in receptions, yards (600), yards per reception (10.2) and receiving first downs (31). He also matched his career high in receiving touchdowns (four). From Weeks 7-9, Otton became the first tight end in franchise history with eight-or-more receptions in three consecutive games, while tying the second-longest streak of games by a tight end with 8+ receptions and 75+ receiving yards in NFL history. During that span – following injuries to the team's top two pass catchers – Otton led the team in receptions (25) and receiving yards (258). He recorded a career-high eight receptions for a career-high 100 yards in Week 7 vs. Baltimore. In Weeks 16-18, tight ends Payne Durham and rookie Devin Culp stepped up and totaled 169 yards on 14 catches, stepping in after Otton suffered an injury that kept him out the final three weeks of the regular season.

Peelle came to Tampa Bay with 11 years of prior NFL coaching experience. He most recently served as tight ends coach for the Atlanta Falcons (2021-23), where he coached Kyle Pitts to a Falcons single-season rookie receiving yards record (1,026 yards) and a Pro Bowl selection in his first season. Pitts' 2021 season paired him with Pro Football Hall of Famer Mike Ditka (1,067 in 1961) as the only rookie tight ends to eclipse 1,000 receiving yards in NFL history.

In 2023, Peelle's unit collectively led the league in receiving yards by a tight ends group (1,380), while ranking fifth in receptions (114) and tying for ninth as a group in touchdown receptions (seven).

Prior to his time in Atlanta, Peelle spent the previous six seasons as tight ends coach for the Philadelphia Eagles (2015-20) after beginning his NFL coaching career as an assistant tight ends coach with the Eagles from 2013-14. In Philadelphia, Peelle played a vital role in the development of three-time Pro Bowl tight end Zach Ertz. Peelle guided Ertz through his first eight NFL seasons, highlighted by a Super Bowl LII championship, in which Ertz hauled in the game-winning touchdown. In 2018, Ertz claimed the NFL record for single-season receptions by a tight end (116), a record that still stands to this day.

Coaching one of the NFL's best tight end duos from 2018-20 – Ertz and Dallas Goedert – Peele's unit in Philadelphia led the league in both receptions (417) and receiving yards (4,388) during that span, in addition to ranking third in touchdown receptions (31).

Prior to entering the coaching ranks, Peelle enjoyed a 10-year NFL career of his own, appearing in 151 career games. He entered the league as a fourth-round selection (No. 103 overall) by the San Diego Chargers in the 2002 NFL Draft, where he played for four seasons (2002-05) before going on to play for the Miami Dolphins (2006-07), Falcons (2008-10) and San Francisco 49ers (2011).

Peelle played collegiately at Oregon (1998-2001), earning first-team All-Pac-10 honors as a senior. He and his wife, Sara, have two sons, Morris and Thompson, and one daughter, Ada.

SKIP PEETE RUNNING BACKS

Peete begins his third season as running backs coach with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 2025.

In 2024, under Peete's guidance, the Buccaneers rush offense improved from a league-worst 3.4 yards per rush to a third-best 5.3 yards per rush, setting franchise records in both yards per attempt as well as total rushing yards (2,536). Tampa Bay's offense rushed for 100+ yards in 14-of-17 (82.4%) of games in 2024, after doing so in 9-of-34 (26.5%) games over the previous two seasons, averaging 149.2 yards per game – the fourth-highest mark in the NFL. Rookie running back Bucky Irving led the NFL rookie class in scrimmage yards (1,514), rushing yards (1,122) and rushing touchdowns (eight), on his way to a 2024 PFWA All-Rookie Team selection. Irving led the league in missed tackle percentage (37.1%) and finished fifth with 76 missed tackles, according to NextGen Stats. With Peete as his position coach, Irving recorded 5.4 yards per rush, which is a franchise record and the third-highest mark in NFL history among rookies with 200+ rush attempts in a single season, trailing only Adrian Peterson (5.6 in 2007) and Clinton Portis (5.5 in 2002). Irving became 1-of-7 running backs to record 1,500-or-more scrimmage yards, 1,000-or-more rushing yards, 5.0-or-more yards per rush and 8-or-more rushing touchdowns in their rookie season.

The Buccaneers running back room of Irving, Rachaad White and Sean Tucker, combined to finish in the top five among all teams in yards after catch (first – 1,149), catch percentage (first – 88.4%), scrimmage yards (second – 2,937), receiving touchdowns (second – 7), receiving yards (second – 894), receptions (second – 107), yards per touch (second – 5.8), first downs (third – 144), touches (third – 508), receiving first downs (third – 40), yards per rush (third – 5.1), rushing yards (2,043) and scrimmage touchdowns (fifth – 20). White put forth his second consecutive season with 1,000+ yards from scrimmage, making Irving and White 1-of-2 duos in the league in 2024 with 1,000 yards from scrimmage each, alongside Jahmyr Gibbs and David Montgomery of the Detroit Lions. Tucker earned NFC Offensive Player of the Week in Week 6, following his breakout game at New Orleans, where he recorded 192 scrimmage yards, 136 rushing yards on 14 carries, 56 receiving yards on three receptions and two touchdowns.

In his first year with the Buccaneers in 2023, Peete coached second-year running back Rachaad White to a breakout season in which he recorded the fourth-most scrimmage yards among running backs (1,539) and tied for the seventh-most among all players, contributing 990 yards rushing and 549 yards receiving. White was 1-of-6 players to finish the season with 1,500+ scrimmage yards and nine-or-more touchdowns, joining Breece Hall, Tyreek Hill, CeeDee Lamb, Christian McCaffrey and Amon-Ra St. Brown. Among all running backs, White not only finished fourth in scrimmage yards, but also ranked first in catch percentage (91.4%), second in yards after catch (611), third in receiving yards and fourth in receptions (64). He also tied for the fourth-most 100-yard scrimmage games among running backs in 2023.

Prior to arriving in Tampa Bay, Peete spent the previous three seasons with the Dallas Cowboys (2020-22) as the team's running backs coach, leading a rushing attack that ranked fifth in yards after contact per rush (3.31), ninth in rushing touchdowns (53), 10th in rushing yards (6,205) and 11th in rushing yards per game (124.1).

In the 2022 campaign, the Cowboys ranked second in the NFL in rushing touchdowns (24) and eighth in rushing yards (2,298), while converting 63.9% of the team's third-down rush attempts –the fourth-highest rate in the league. The Cowboys were one of two teams whose running backs did not commit a fumble during the 2022 regular season, despite recording the sixth-most carries in the league.

Prior to joining the Cowboys, Peete served as the running backs coach for the Los Angeles Rams (2016-19), coaching Todd Gurley to two Pro Bowl selections, two first-team All-Pro selections and 2017 Associated Press Offensive Player of the Year honors. During his four seasons with Peete as his position coach, Gurley ranked first in the NFL in rushing touchdowns (48) and second in rushing yards (4,298).

In his two seasons as the running backs coach for the Chicago Bears (2013-14), Peete's top back, Matt Forte, led the NFL in scrimmage yards (3,779) and ranked fourth in rushing yards (2,377). Forte also set a record in 2014 for the most receptions by a running back in a single season (102).

Peete broke into the NFL coaching ranks as the running backs coach for the Oakland Raiders (1998-2006) before beginning his first stint in the same position with the Cowboys (2007-12). He also held collegiate positions as the running backs coach at UCLA (1996-97), wide receivers coach at Rutgers University (1995), wide receivers coach at Michigan State University (1993-94), running backs coach at the University of Pittsburgh (1991-92) and wide receivers coach at the University of Pittsburgh (1988-90).

Peete is a native of Phoenix, Arizona. He and his wife, Rebeca, have twins, Gisele and Reeco. He is the son of Willie Peete, who spent three seasons with the Buccaneers as the team's running backs coach (1992-94). His brother, Rodney, played 16 seasons in the NFL at quarterback for the Detroit Lions, Dallas Cowboys, Philadelphia Eagles, Washington, Oakland Raiders and Carolina Panthers.

BRIAN PICUCCI
OFFENSIVE LINE

Brian Picucci enters his second season with the Buccaneers in 2025 and his first as offensive line coach after being promoted from assistant offensive line coach.

In 2024, Picucci assisted a Tampa Bay offense that behind its offensive line finished in the top five in points scored (29.5 per game), total yards (399.6), passing yards (250.4), rushing yards (149.2), first downs (23.2) and third down conversion percentage (50.9%). The offensive line finished tied for fifth in highest opponent average time to sack at 5.0 seconds. Left tackle Tristan Wirfs received AP First-Team All-Pro honors as well as his fourth Pro Bowl selection – the most of any offensive linemen in franchise history.

Picucci came to Tampa Bay in 2024 with 29 years of coaching experience, including two years at the professional level. Most recently, Picucci spent time at the University of Kentucky, where he served as a quality control coach and worked closely with Buccaneers offensive coordinator Liam Coen.

Prior to his time with the Wildcats, Picucci served as the offensive coordinator and tight ends coach with the NFL Alumni Academy (2022) and as the wide receivers coach at Florida International University (2021). His last NFL coaching experience came with the Detroit Lions during the 2018–19 seasons, where he was the assistant tight ends coach and an offensive assistant under Matt Patricia.

Other stops on Picucci's coaching history include the University of Maine (2016–17), Becker College (2015), Widener University (2014), Central Connecticut State University (2013), the University of Massachusetts (1998-99, 2004–12), Northeastern University (2000–03), and Southern Connecticut State (1994–98). During his time at Massachusetts, Picucci was part of an offensive coaching staff that guided Coen to an All-American collegiate career, which included a trip to the 2006 Division I-AA National Championship Game.

Picucci played collegiately at Syracuse University (1989–93), playing fullback and tight end.

ANTHONY PIROLI
HEAD STRENGTH & CONDITIONING

Anthony Piroli enters his seventh season as head strength & conditioning coach with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 2025. He was a member of the coaching staff for the Buccaneers Super Bowl LV championship season.

In his first season at the NFL level in 2019, Piroli directed the strength and conditioning aspects of the athlete performance overhaul that took place when the new coaching regime under then Head Coach Bruce Arians. Piroli and his staff created and implemented a comprehensive virtual workout program, involving two-way communication, which was used during the 2020 offseason, creating individualized workouts based on equipment availability and positional requirements.

Prior to arriving in Tampa Bay, Piroli spent the 2018 season working as the Head Strength & Conditioning Coach at Mississippi State, after having served as an assistant strength & conditioning coach for the Bulldogs in the 2014 season. Between his stints at Mississippi State, Piroli spent three seasons (2015-17) working as an assistant strength and conditioning coach for the Arizona Cardinals. A native of Aliquippa, Pennsylvania, Piroli began his coaching career at his alma mater, Indiana University of Pennsylvania, in 2007. From there he spent time at the University of Pittsburgh (2008-09) and working in the private sector in Pittsburgh (2009-11). Piroli was the co-owner and Director of Sports Performance at Evolution Sports Institute in Pittsburgh from 2011-14, before joining Mississippi State. He also served as a volunteer strength coach for Ohio State in the summer of 2013.

Piroli resides in Tampa with his wife, Justine, and their son Augustus Bruno.

SAFETIES

Nick Rapone begins his seventh season as safeties coach with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 2025.

Rapone guided his 2024 safeties unit through an influx of adversity, in which he was without starting safeties Jordan Whitehead and Antoine Winfield Jr. for a combined 14 games due to injury, forcing Rapone to navigate through the season with seven different starting safety pairings. Tampa Bay closed the regular season with a 6-1 finish despite using six different starting safety combinations during that seven week stretch alone, and during that span, the Buccaneers defense managed to rank second in the NFL in fewest opponent yards per game (273.9). Christian Izien – who entered the league as an undrafted free agent in 2023 – started a career best 10 games in 2024, including six at safety, finishing with career highs in tackles (75), tackles for loss (four) and passes defensed (three). With Rapone's influence, Izien and Winfield Jr. share the team lead in interceptions over the past two seasons (three). Fellow 2023 undrafted safety Kaevon Merriweather started a career high six games in 2024, including playoffs, recording his first career sack and fumble recovery in 2024.

With Rapone's coaching, Antoine Winfield Jr. put forth an Associated Press first-team All-Pro season in 2023, which also included first-team All-Pro accolades from Pro Football Focus, an NFC Defensive Player of the Month honor (December/January) and Good Morning Football's 'Undisputed Best Defensive Back in the League' distinction. In his fourth season, Winfield Jr. amassed 122 tackles (six for loss), 12 passes defensed, eight quarterback hits, 6.0 sacks, six forced fumbles four fumble recoveries and three interceptions. He finished the year with a share of the league lead in both forced fumbles and fumble recoveries, joining Haason Reddick (2022) as the only players to accomplish that feat since at least 2000. Among defensive backs in 2023, Winfield Jr. finished first in sacks, first in forced fumbles, first in fumble recoveries, tied for third in takeaways (seven) and third in quarterback hits. He earned a 91.2 grade from Pro Football Focus, putting him as the league's highest-graded safety in 2023.

In 2022, Winfield Jr. finished tied for second in the NFL among defensive backs with 4.0 sacks, bringing his career total to 9.0, which stands as the most career sacks by a safety in Buccaneers history. In addition to applying pressure to the quarterback, three of Tampa Bay's top six tackle-getters were safeties: Mike Edwards (82), Winfield Jr. (80) and Keanu Neal (61). Rapone's group contributed to a defense that finished sixth in the NFL in fewest yards allowed per pass attempt (6.65) and ninth in pass defense (203.6 opponent passing yards per game).

With Rapone as his position coach, Winfield Jr. joined Pro Football Hall of Famer Troy Polamalu as the only defensive backs since at least 2000 with 200+ tackles, 5.0-or-more sacks, four-plus interceptions and a Pro Bowl selection in their first three career seasons.

With Rapone leading the unit in 2021, the Buccaneers safeties combined to contribute seven interceptions, four forced fumbles and three fumble recoveries for a defense that ranked tied for fifth in the NFL in takeaways. The team's leader in takeaways, Winfield Jr. (three fumble recoveries, two interceptions), earned his first Pro Bowl selection in 2021 in just his second NFL season. Winfield Jr. became the first Buccaneers defensive back to be named to the Pro Bowl since Darrelle Revis in 2013.

The Buccaneers safety group became a reliable unit for Tampa Bay's defense under Rapone's guidance during the 2020 season, as stating safeties Jordan Whitehead and Winfield Jr. both started all 16 games for the Buccaneers. Rapone helped oversee the development of Winfield Jr. as he earned PFWA All-Rookie honors in his first season in Tampa Bay, while also being named the NFL's Defensive Rookie of the Month in September of 2020.

Winfield and Whitehead finished third and fourth, respectively, on the team in tackles during the 2020 regular season, contributing a combined 165 tackles (10 for loss), 10 passes defensed, seven quarterback hits, 5.0 sacks, three interceptions, three forced fumbles and two fumble recoveries. Winfield joined Jamal Adams as the only NFL defensive backs with 75-or-more tackles and 3.0+ sacks in 2020.

The safeties continued to make an impact during Tampa Bay's four-game playoff run to a Super Bowl LV victory, as Mike Edwards, Whitehead and Winfield combined for three forced fumbles and two interceptions in the postseason for a defense that led the NFL with nine postseason takeaways.

In 2019, Rapone tutored a safety unit that overcame a slew of injuries to help Tampa Bay's defense shift from the 23rd-ranked defense through eight games to the eighth-best in the NFL over the final eight games (Weeks 10-17). Second-year safety Jordan Whitehead ranked tied for second on the team in run tackles with 25 on the year, helping to lead the NFL's top-ranked run defense.

Rapone was the defensive backs coach for the Arizona Cardinals from 2013-17. While in Arizona, Rapone worked with cornerback Patrick Peterson, a five-time Pro Bowl choice and a two-time first-team AP All-Pro selection (2013, 2015). Rapone also coached safety Tyrann Mathieu, who earned Pro Bowl and first-team AP All-Pro distinction in 2015.

During Rapone's time with Arizona, the team's pass defense was among the best in the NFL, holding opponents to a 61.0 completion percentage, the ninth-lowest mark in the league, and an 83.2 passer rating, the sixth-lowest in the NFL. The Cardinals were also one of the best teams in the NFL at intercepting passes, with the team's 86 interceptions ranking third during that span and their 14 interceptions returned for touchdowns tying for the league best.

Prior to joining the Cardinals, Rapone spent over 30 years as an assistant coach at the collegiate level. From 2006-12, he worked as the defensive coordinator and defensive backs coach at Delaware, earning the 2010 FootballScoop NCAA Division I FCS Coordinator of the Year after the Blue Hens led the FCS in scoring defense and ranking fifth in total defense.

A native of New Castle, Pennsylvania, Rapone played collegiately at Virginia Tech (1974-77). While with the Hokies, he played with Buccaneers Head Coach Bruce Arians in 1974, when Rapone was a freshman and Arians was a senior. Arians then worked as a graduate assistant (1975-76) and running backs coach (1977) while Rapone played.

Rapone began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at the University of Pittsburgh (1979-80), before going on to East Tennessee State (1981-82). Rapone reunited with Arians at Temple, coaching the Owls' secondary for six seasons (1983-88), while also serving as the team's defensive coordinator (1985-88). Following his time under Arians at Temple, Rapone returned to Pittsburgh (1989-92), then spent two seasons at New Castle (Pa.) High School (1993-94), before four seasons at Connecticut (1995-98). Rapone returned to Temple for a second stint in 1999, working as the school's secondary coach until his tenure at Delaware.

KEVIN ROSS
CORNERBACKS COACH

Kevin Ross begins his seventh season as cornerbacks coach with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 2025.

Ross oversaw the continued growth of former 2022 fifth-round cornerback Zyon McCollum into a full-time starter in 2024. McCollum established career highs in games started (17), defensive snaps (1,007), passes defensed (17) and interceptions (two). His 17 passes defensed tied for the third-most in the NFL. Despite being the third-most targeted cornerback in the NFL in 2024 (101 defensive targets), according to NextGen Stats, McCollum ranked fifth in lowest completion percentage when targeted (58.4%) and ninth in lowest opponent passer rating allowed (85.7). Ross' unit limited a number of the NFL's best to under 50 yards receiving, including Mark Andrews (41 yards), Zay Flowers (11 yards), Sam LaPorta (13 yards), Drake London (34 yards in Week 8) and Terry McLaurin (17 yards).

With Ross' coaching in 2023, McCollum stepped up to set then career highs in games played (17), games started (nine), passes defensed (nine) and forced fumbles (two) for a defense that lost nine starts due to injury from its starting cornerbacks.

In 2022, Ross' cornerback unit held a pair of Pro Bowl receivers in DeAndre Hopkins (four receiving yards) and CeeDee Lamb (29 yards) to season-low performances, in addition to limiting a number of notable pass-catchers across the league to under 50 yards receiving including: George Kittle (28 yards), Tee Higgins (33 yards), Tyler Lockett (42 yards) and Deebo Samuel (43 yards). In addition, Ross helped the continued development of cornerback Jamel Dean as he solidified his role as a full-time starter in 2022, starting a career-high 15 games on his way to earning a second contract in Tampa Bay. As a team, Tampa Bay finished ninth in the NFL in pass defense (203.6 opponent passing yards per game) and sixth in fewest yards allowed per pass attempt (6.65).

Due to injuries, the Buccaneers were forced to use 10 different players at the cornerback position in 2021 and went through 14 different starting lineup combinations among defensive backs in 17 games. Despite the constant changes in rotation, with Ross' coaching, five different primary cornerbacks were able to record at least one interception in 2021 for a team that finished eighth in the NFL in that category with 18. Tampa Bay's defense also limited opponents to 6.39 yards per attempt and 5.16 yards per play in 2021 – the third-best and fifth-best marks, respectively, in the league.

In 2020, Ross led one of the NFL's youngest cornerback units to a Super Bowl LV championship as corners Carlton Davis III, Jamel Dean and Sean Murphy-Bunting all made significant strides over the course of the 2020 season. The trio helped the Buccaneers to rank eighth in the league in yards allowed per pass play (6.39) – a statistic the team ranked 31st in prior to the arrival of Ross and the new coaching staff in 2019.

Davis registered new career highs with his four interceptions and 68 tackles during the 2020 regular season, in addition to his team-high 18 passes defensed. Dean played in a career-high 14 games, starting seven, while tallying 59 tackles (two for loss), seven passes defensed and an interception, which he returned for a touchdown. Murphy-Bunting played a critical role in the team's success during its four-game playoff run to a Super Bowl LV victory, as he collected an interception in each of Tampa Bay's first three postseason games. He joined Pro Football Hall of Famers Aeneas Williams (four-consecutive games) and Ed Reed, as well as Jason Sehorn, as the only four players in the Super Bowl era with an interception in each of their first three career postseason games. His three postseason interceptions are tied for the most in team history, while Tampa Bay's nine takeaways in the postseason led all teams.

Mentoring a young cornerback unit in 2019, Ross helped guide Murphy-Bunting to a PFWA All-Rookie selection after leading the team with three interceptions (returned for 88 yards and one touchdown), adding eight passes defensed, one forced fumble, 1.0 sack and one tackle for loss. His cornerback counterparts, Carlton Davis and Jamel Dean, ranked second and tied for fourth in the league with 19 and 17 passes defensed, respectively. As a team, the Buccaneers defense led the NFL with 96 passes defensed in 2019.

Ross worked most recently with the Arizona Cardinals (2013-17), serving as the team's cornerbacks coach. During his tenure with the Cardinals, Ross worked with All-Pro cornerback Patrick Peterson, who earned a Pro Bowl berth in all five years under Ross, as well as two first-team AP All-Pro selections (2013, 2015). Ross also coached cornerback Antonio Cromartie to a Pro Bowl berth in 2014.

During Ross' time with Arizona, the team's pass defense was among the best in the NFL, holding opponents to a 61.0 completion percentage, the ninth-lowest mark in the league, and an 83.2 passer rating, the sixth-lowest in the NFL. The Cardinals were also one of the best teams in the NFL at intercepting passes, with the team's 86 interceptions ranking third during that span and their 14 interceptions returned for touchdowns tying for the league best.

Prior to joining Arizona, Ross coached safeties with the Oakland Raiders (2010-11), with safety Tyvon Branch leading the team in tackles both seasons. His time with Oakland followed one season as an assistant for the New York Sentinels of the United Football League (2009). From 2007-08, Ross was an assistant secondary/quality control coach with the San Diego Chargers. In 2007, San Diego led the NFL in interceptions for the first time in franchise history.

Ross began his NFL coaching career with the Minnesota Vikings in 2002 as part of the Bill Walsh NFL Minority Coaching Fellowship. From 2003-05, he worked as the Vikings' assistant secondary coach.

A 14-year NFL veteran and two-time Pro Bowl selection, Ross was a seventh-round (173rd overall) selection of the Kansas City Chiefs in the 1984 NFL Draft. He spent 11 seasons with Kansas City (1984-93, 1997), along with two seasons in Atlanta (1994-95) and one in San Diego (1996). He was inducted into the Chiefs Hall of Fame in 2011.

After his playing career concluded, Ross coached high school football at Camden High School (1999-2000) and Woodrow Wilson High (2001-02) in his native Camden, N.J. A standout at Paulsboro High School (Paulsboro, N.J.), Ross went on to play collegiately at Temple.

JORDAN SOMERVILLE
PASS GAME SPECIALIST/ASSISTANT QUARTERBACKS

Jordan Somerville begins his third season in the NFL with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 2025 as assistant quarterbacks coach.

Somerville contributed to a second consecutive Pro Bowl trip for quarterback Baker Mayfield, and a season in which Mayfield set career highs in completions (407), passing yards (4,500), passing touchdowns (41), completion percentage (71.4%) and passer rating (106.8). He finished second in the NFL in passing touchdowns, tied for second in completions, third in total touchdowns (44), third in completion percentage, fourth in passer rating and seventh in yards per attempt (7.9), and became the fourth player in NFL history to record a season with 4,000+ passing yards, 40+ touchdowns, and a 70+ completion percentage, joining Drew Brees (2011), Joe Burrow (2024) and Aaron Rodgers (2020).

In his first season coaching at the NFL level in 2023, Somerville assisted Quarterbacks Coach Thad Lewis in putting together a Pro Bowl campaign for Mayfield during his debut season in Tampa Bay. Mayfield set career highs in completions (364), completion percentage (63.4%), passing yards (4,044) and passing touchdowns (28) on his way to the 2023 Pro Football Writers of America Most Improved Player award.

In 2022, Somerville was an offensive analyst at the University of Oregon, assisting an offense that ranked sixth among Power 5 programs in scrimmage yards per game (500.5) and 10th in points per game (38.8). With Somerville working alongside the quarterback unit, Oregon starter Bo Nix finished fourth among all Power 5 quarterbacks in passer rating (165.7), while also finishing top 10 in passing yards (3,593), passing yards per attempt (8.78) and passing touchdowns (29).

Prior to his season in Eugene, Somerville served as running backs coach and recruiting coordinator at the University of New Mexico for two seasons (2020-21). He began his coaching career as the run game coordinator/offensive line coach at the American Leadership Academy (2016) in Queen Creek, Arizona, before spending three seasons at Arizona State as a student assistant (2017-18) and graduate assistant (2019).

The Tempe, Arizona, native graduated from Arizona State in 2019, and resides with his wife, Makenzie and daughter, Jaedyn.

BLAINE STEWART
OFFENSIVE QUALITY CONTROL

Blaine Stewart enters his first season with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 2025.

Stewart brings seven years of prior coaching experience to Tampa Bay, including five at the NFL level. Most recently Stewart spent two seasons as tight ends coach at West Virginia University (2023-24), coaching Kole Taylor – who signed with the Cincinnati Bengals during the 2025 offseason as an undrafted free agent – to All-Big 12 honors in each of his two seasons working with Stewart. Taylor was the Mountaineers leading receiver in 2023, before tallying the second-most single season receptions by a tight end in program history in 2024 (43). West Virgina boasted a top 10 Power Four rush offense in each of Stewart's two seasons with the program, including a No. 1 Power Four finish in 2023.

During his first stint in the NFL, Stewart spent five seasons with the Pittsburgh Steelers, beginning his career as a coaching assistant (2018-19) before being promoted to assistant wide receivers coach (2020-22). Over that span, the Steelers earned a pair of playoff berths, including a 2020 AFC North division title, and three different Steelers wide receivers were named to the Pro Bowl: Antonio Brown (2018), JuJu Smith-Schuster (2018) and Diontae Johnson (2021). Stewart also coached Chase Claypool to the rookie lead in receiving touchdowns in 2020 (nine), while finishing fourth in both receptions (62) and receiving yards (873) in a stacked wide receiver class.

In 2020, Stewart was the West quarterbacks coach in the East West Shrine Bowl, alongside two other members of the current Buccaneers coaching staff in Offensive Coordinator Josh Grizzard and Inside Linebackers Coach Mike Caldwell.

A native of Morgantown, West Virginia, Stewart played collegiately at James Madison (2013-15) and the University of Charleston (2016-17). He won the CAA Conference Championship with JMU in 2015 and was twice named CAA Academic All-Conference (2014, 2015), in addition to earning the CAA Commissioner's Academic Award in 2013. Stewart received his bachelor's degree from James Madison and his master's degree from Charleston. He is the son of late West Virginia head football coach Bill Stewart, who led the Mountaineers to a 28-12 (.700) three-year record from 2008-10.

CHARLIE STRONG
DEFENSIVE LINE

Charlie Strong enters his first season with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 2025 as defensive line coach.

Strong brings 41 years of college coaching experience to Tampa Bay, highlighted by stints as the head coach at Louisville (2010-2013), Texas (2014-2016), and South Florida (2017-2019). He was twice named Big East Coach of the Year during his time at Louisville in 2010 and 2012 and has been a part of three national championship teams between Florida (2006, 2008) and Alabama (2020). Strong served as the defensive coordinator for both national championships with Florida, holding that title from 2003-09 and leading one of college football's most dominant units during that span. In that stretch, Strong coached 13 All-Americans, a National Defensive Player of the Year, a Jack Tatum Award winner, two SEC Defensive Freshmen of the Year, two Thorpe Award finalists, two Nagurski Trophy finalists and the 2008 Chevrolet Defensive Player of the Year. He also developed seven first-round NFL Draft picks and 18 players that were selected in the third round or higher.

In his 10 years as a collegiate head coach, Strong's teams earned trips to seven bowl games, winning four, including the 2012 Sugar Bowl with Louisville.

He has one year of prior experience at the NFL level, working as assistant head coach/inside linebackers coach for the Jacksonville Jaguars in 2021. Other stops for Strong included: Texas A&M (1985), Southern Illinois (1986-87), Ole Miss (1990), Notre Dame (1995-98), South Carolina (1999-2002), and Miami (2022). Strong has been a trusted assistant for a number of Hall of Fame coaches, including Lou Holtz, Urban Meyer and Nick Saban.

The 2025 season will mark the 21st in which Strong has coached in the state of Florida out of his 42 overall years of coaching.

Before his coaching career, the Batesville, Arkansas native was a three-year letter winner at Central Arkansas (1979-81) and was inducted into the Central Arkansas Sports Hall of Fame in 2009. In addition to being a three-time all-conference safety at Central Arkansas, Strong also was a two-time all-conference performer in track and field. Strong and his wife, Vicki, have a son, Tory, and two daughters, Hailee and Hope.

KEITH TANDY
DEFENSIVE/SPECIAL TEAMS ASSISTANT

Keith Tandy begins his sixth season as defensive/special teams assistant with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 2025.

In 2024, Tandy coached an opportunistic special teams unit that recorded the team's first special teams touchdown since 2017, and the franchise's first season with each an opponent field goal block and an opponent punt block since 2009. In his two years working with Tandy, kicker Chase McLaughlin owns the two best seasons by a Tampa Bay placekicker in terms of field goal percentage: 93.5% in 2023 (29-of-31) and 93.8% in 2024 (30-of-32). In addition, McLaughlin set Tampa Bay's single season points record with 144 in 2024, topping Ryan Succop's previous record of 136 during the Buccaneers Super Bowl season in 2020. Adding five special teams tackles in 2024, defensive back Josh Hayes ranks tied for eighth in the NFL in special teams tackles (19) since entering the league in 2023.

Tandy coached Hayes, as a rookie, to a league-leading 14 special teams tackles in 2023, the most by any Tampa Bay player in a single season since 2014. Hayes also became the first Buccaneer to lead the league in special teams tackles since Dwight Smith tied for the league lead in 2001. Additionally, Tandy guided new Buccaneers kicker Chase McLaughlin to a franchise single-season record for field goal percentage (93.5%) and punter Jake Camarda to a team single-season record for yards per punt (50.1). Camarda led the league in punts of 60+ yards with 18, while McLaughlin ranked tied for seventh in field goal percentage on the year, converting 29-of-31 field goals attempted and all 33 extra-points attempted.

During the 2022 season, Tandy helped develop a number of rookies into core special teams players, with Buccaneers rookies leading all NFL rookie classes in total special teams tackles (44) and finishing with the fifth-most special teams snaps as a class (1,506). Individually, rookie tight end Ko Kieft recorded 11 special teams tackles, which tied for the third-most among all rookies in 2022. Tandy also helped to mold a punt return unit that finished second in the NFL in total return yards (391) and 10th in punt return average (10.3 yards per return).

In 2021, Tandy helped develop and mentor rookie wide receiver Jaelon Darden into becoming the team's leader in both kick returning (359) and punt returning (142). His 359 kickoff return yards were the most by a Buccaneers' returner since Bobby Rainey in 2015. Darden's 43-yard punt return in Week 7 was the eighth-longest punt return by any player during the 2021 NFL season.

Tandy was a member of the coaching staff for Tampa Bay's Super Bowl LV championship season in his first year with the team in 2020. During the team's playoff run, Tandy assisted with a special teams unit that helped Jaydon Mickens set a franchise record for the most kickoff return yards in a single postseason, with 222. Mickens' 121 kick return yards in the NFC Championship Game vs. Green Bay also set a single-game franchise playoff record. In Week 3 of the regular season, Patrick O'Connor blocked a Denver Broncos' punt, marking the team's first punt block since December 27, 2015.

Prior to arriving in Tampa Bay, Tandy most recently worked at his alma mater, West Virginia, as an intern with the football program, after beginning his coaching career at Bishop McLaughlin Catholic High School in Spring Hill, Florida in 2019.

Prior to entering the coaching ranks, Tandy enjoyed a seven-year NFL career as a safety with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers (2012-17) and Atlanta Falcons (2018). Over 90 career games, including 15 starts, Tandy amassed 179 tackles, 14 passes defensed, eight interceptions, two fumble recoveries, one forced fumble and 1.0 sack. Tandy was also played a key role on special teams throughout his career, recording multiple special teams tackles in each of his six seasons with the Buccaneers.

Tandy entered the NFL as a sixth-round pick (174th overall), following his collegiate career as defensive back for West Virginia, in which he recorded 188 tackles (eight for loss), 13 interceptions, 37 passes defensed, one forced fumble and one fumble recovery over 45 career games (2008-11) on his way to two first team All-Big East selections. He graduated from West Virginia in 2011 with a bachelor's degree in Biology.

A native of Hopkinsville, Ky., and the youngest of four, Tandy was a three-sport athlete at Christian County High School, playing football, basketball and baseball. He threw a single-season record 32 touchdown passes as a senior in 2007.

He and his wife, Melissa, have three children, Julian, Penelope and Gianna.

CHAD WADE
ASSISTANT STRENGTH & CONDITIONING

Chad Wade begins his 12th season as assistant strength & conditioning coach with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 2025. He was a member of the coaching staff for the Buccaneers Super Bowl LV Championship season in 2020.

Wade joined the team following 18 years (1996-2013) at the University of Nebraska. During that time Wade served as the assistant strength coach and strength coach for the men's and women's basketball teams, as well as helped coordinate workouts for the football team.

Wade graduated from Nebraska Wesleyan University with a bachelor's degree in sports management and minor in psychology (1996). He also was a member of the football team for two years (1992-94). Wade earned the designation of Master Strength and Conditioning Coach from the Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches Association in 2013. Wade is married to Amber and the couple has three children, Burgess, William and Jet.

MIKE GREENBERG
ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER

Mike Greenberg enters his 16th season with the Buccaneers and third as Assistant General Manager. Prior to his promotion, Greenberg spent two seasons as the vice president of football administration after eight seasons as director of football administration and two seasons as the coordinator of football administration. He originally joined the club as player personnel assistant in 2010.

Greenberg works directly with General Manager Jason Licht on all aspects of the salary cap, contract negotiations, compliance with the NFL's Collective Bargaining Agreement, as well as the club's financial and strategic planning. He also oversees budgeting for all football operations, including the coaching, scouting, video, athletic training, equipment, groundskeeping, strength and conditioning and player development departments.

During the 2025 offseason, the Buccaneers once again placed an emphasis on retaining their own. Greenberg took the lead in the contract negotiations that led to new deals with guard Ben Bredeson and linebacker Lavonte David, while also aiding in the re-signing of wide receiver Chris Godwin, as well as the additions of free agent outside linebacker Haason Reddick and free agent punter Riley Dixon. David's contract was the sixth he has signed with Tampa Bay, all with Greenberg, as David enters his 14th season with the Buccaneers. In 2025, David will tie Derrick Brooks for the second-most seasons played in franchise history (15), trailing only Rondé Barber.

Working in tandem with Vice President of Football Research Jacqueline Davidson, Greenberg and his staff pieced together yet another noteworthy free agency haul in 2024, re-signing four of the NFL's top free agents in linebacker Lavonte David, wide receiver Mike Evans, quarterback Baker Mayfield and safety Antoine Winfield Jr., in addition to bringing back safety Jordan Whitehead, who was formerly a starter on the team's Super Bowl LV championship team. After managing to keep the team's core in place following its run to the NFC Divisional Round in 2023, Greenberg also helped add a number of value free agents including cornerback Bryce Hall, offensive lineman Ben Bredeson and wide receiver Sterling Shepard.

Greenberg received critical acclaim for his work this offseason, helping the Buccaneers navigate a challenging salary cap situation while re-signing key members of the team and retooling the club's roster through a series of value signings. Despite financial restraints, Greenberg orchestrated the extension of outside linebacker Anthony Nelson, plus the re-signing of cornerback Jamel Dean and linebacker Lavonte David, two of the NFL's top available free agents heading into the 2023 offseason. In addition, Greenberg advised on negotiations in the signings of free agent quarterback Baker Mayfield, defensive lineman Greg Gaines and kicker Chase McLaughlin.

In the 2022 offseason, Greenberg worked to sign several free agents, including wide receiver Russell Gage and defensive lineman Akiem Hicks. Greenberg also played a key role in negotiating contracts to re-sign cornerback Carlton Davis III, Pro Bowl receiver Chris Godwin, and Pro Bowl center Ryan Jensen.

The 2021 offseason resulted in the Buccaneers becoming the first team in the Super Bowl era to return all 22 starters after winning the Super Bowl. Greenberg played a crucial part in re-signing outside linebacker Shaquil Barrett, linebacker Lavonte David, tight end Rob Gronkowski, defensive lineman Ndamukong Suh, running back Leonard Fournette, while also extending Super Bowl LV MVP Tom Brady. Offensive lineman Donovan Smith also signed his second contract extension with the team in March.

In addition, Greenberg was able to negotiate a contract extension with nose tackle Vita Vea in Week 18 of the 2021 season.

During the 2020 offseason, Greenberg was vital in negotiating quarterback Tom Brady's two-year contract. He also oversaw the re-signings of former Pro Bowlers Jason Pierre-Paul and Ndamukong Suh, two key veteran presences on the Buccaneers defense. Greenberg was named a 2020 Tampa Bay Business Journal 40 under 40 honoree, in addition to also being listed on The Athletic's "NFL 40 Under 40: The rising stars shaping the direction of the NFL."

In his role as Director of Football Administration, Greenberg oversaw long-term contract extensions for linebacker Lavonte David and wide receiver Mike Evans, each of whom have earned Pro Bowl honors during their time with Tampa Bay. Greenberg also worked on extensions for offensive linemen Ali Marpet and Donovan Smith.

Before joining the Buccaneers, Greenberg worked with the New York Jets as a football administration intern in 2008 and 2009. He also spent time working as a law clerk for the National Football League's Management Council and as a summer associate at Jaspan Schlesinger LLP.

Greenberg graduated with honors from Cornell University in 2007 with a Bachelor of Science degree in policy analysis and management, and earned a Juris Doctor from Hofstra University School of Law on a full academic scholarship in 2010. He also was the research editor for the Hofstra Law Review. Greenberg is licensed to practice law in New York.

Prior to enrolling at Cornell, Greenberg spent one year at Binghamton University (2003), where he was a member of the Bearcats soccer program that advanced to the second round of the NCAA tournament that year and finished top 25 in the nation. Greenberg was also named to the America East All-Academic team. In 2023, the 2003 men's soccer team was inducted into the Binghamton Hall of Fame.

In 2017, Greenberg was inducted into the John F. Kennedy (Bellmore, New York) High School Hall of Fame. He and his wife, Ilana, have three sons, Hank, Harry, and Gus. They reside in Tampa.

ROB McCARTNEY
ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER

Rob McCartney enters his 15th season with the Buccaneers and first as assistant general manager.

He works closely with Buccaneers General Manager Jason Licht regarding the NFL Draft, key free-agent acquisitions and all other personnel decisions. Additionally, McCartney oversees the day-to-day operations of the college and pro scouting departments for Tampa Bay.

McCartney was promoted to his current role in 2025 after spending the previous three seasons as director of player personnel. Previously, he served as director of pro scouting from 2015-21 and oversaw the Buccaneers pro personnel staff and advance reports, along with the evaluation of opponents, pro leagues, free agents, and trade prospects.

Throughout his tenure, McCartney has contributed to a front office that has drafted and retained talent as well as any team in the league, contributing to five consecutive playoff berths (2020-24), four consecutive NFC South division titles (2021-24) and a Super Bowl LV championship. From 2023-24, 40 of the 50 different players to have started a game for Tampa Bay were homegrown players that were either drafted or originally signed as undrafted free agents by the Buccaneers. In addition, all 38 players drafted by Tampa Bay in rounds one through six from 2019-24 were on a roster during the 2024 season – a feat that only the Buccaneers can claim during that span.

The Buccaneers, with McCartney's guidance, used the 2025 offseason to retain key franchise cornerstones on both sides of the ball in Lavonte David and Chris Godwin, in addition to re-signing guard Ben Bredeson. Through free agency, Tampa Bay added a veteran pass-rushing presence in Haason Reddick and veteran punter Riley Dixon, who ranks inside the top 10 from 2016-24 in punting yards (first – 30,687), net punting yards (first – 27,718), punts inside of the 20-yard line (third – 231) and punts inside of the 10-yard line (tied for fourth – 82).

McCartney also helped deliver four starters in the 2024 draft class in center Graham Barton, running back Bucky Irving, wide receiver Jalen McMillan and defensive back Tykee Smith. Irving – Tampa Bay's 2024 fourth-round pick – earned a PFWA All-Rookie selection after leading the rookie class in yards from scrimmage (1,514), rushing yards (1,122) and rushing touchdowns (eight). He was the first running back drafted in the fourth round or later to lead a draft class in scrimmage yards since 2000. Irving and Barton also helped catapult the Buccaneers rushing attack from 32nd in the NFL in 2022 and 2023 to fourth in 2024, averaging 149.2 yards per game and a franchise-record 5.3 yards per rush. Meanwhile, Irving and McMillan became the first rookie running back/wide receiver duo with eight-plus scrimmage touchdowns each since Reggie Bush and Marques Colston in 2006.

Tampa Bay's 2024 offseason focused primarily on retaining four of the NFL's top free agents on the market – Lavonte David, Mike Evans, Baker Mayfield and Antoine Winfield Jr. – but McCartney played an instrumental role in maximizing the remaining salary cap space to sign a number of outside free agents headlined by the signing of safety Jordan Whitehead, who started on Tampa Bay's Super Bowl LV championship team. In addition, the team signed a number of value free agents, including guard Ben Bredeson, cornerback Bryce Hall, guard Sua Opeta and wide receiver Sterling Shepard.

In 2023, McCartney contributed to a series of value signings as Tampa Bay navigated challenging salary cap restraints. He assisted in the team's acquisitions of free agent quarterback Baker Mayfield, defensive lineman Greg Gaines, and kicker Chase McLaughlin. Over his first two seasons with the team, Mayfield earned consecutive Pro Bowl selections – becoming the first player in franchise history to accomplish that feat – and the 2023 PFWA Most Improved Player award, while ranking first in passing touchdowns (69), second in passing yards (8,544) and seventh in passer rating (100.7) across the NFL from 2023-24. Meanwhile, McLaughlin reset the single season franchise record for field goal percentage in each of his first two seasons, converting on 93.5% of his attempts in 2023 (29-of-31) and 93.8% of his attempts in 2024 (30-of-32) to rank second in the NFL in field goal percentage across that span.

Additionally in 2023, the Buccaneers relied heavily on their draft class to reach the NFC Divisional Round in 2023, during which it provided the most total snaps by a rookie class in the NFL that season (5,560). Seven members of the eight-person class played in at least 13 games for Tampa Bay as the collective group combined for 106 games played and 48 games started. First-round defensive lineman Calijah Kancey and third-round outside linebacker Yaya Diaby have combined for 153 pressures, 46 tackles for loss, 57 quarterback hits and 23.5 sacks over their first two seasons. Diaby led all rookies in tackles for loss in 2023, with 12, and tied for first in fumble recoveries (two), in addition to leading the Buccaneers in sacks. Meanwhile, Kancey was named the NFL Defensive Rookie of the Month for November, finishing his rookie campaign tied for second among rookies in tackles for loss (10), tied for fourth in quarterback hits (12) and sixth in quarterback pressures (33). Second-round guard Cody Mauch started all 17 games for Tampa Bay in his rookie season, while sixth-round cornerback Josh Hayes led all NFL players in special teams tackles in 2023 (14).

In the 2022 offseason, McCartney played a key role in acquiring several free agents, including wide receivers Russell Gage and Julio Jones and defensive lineman Akiem Hicks. McCartney also evaluated guard Shaq Mason, who the Buccaneers acquired via trade from the New England Patriots.

During the 2020 offseason, McCartney was involved in bringing in quarterback Tom Brady and tight end Rob Gronkowski. Other veteran players to join the Buccaneers during the 2020 season were running back Leonard Fournette and kicker Ryan Succop. Despite a global pandemic, Tom Brady would lead the team to an 11-5 record and a Super Bowl victory. Brown, Fournette and Gronkowski would each go on to score touchdowns in Super Bowl LV, while Succop set a regular season franchise record for the most points in a single season (136).

During the 2019 offseason, he scouted outside linebacker Shaquil Barrett and defensive lineman

Ndamukong Suh. Barrett went on to have a Pro Bowl year, setting the franchise sack record with an NFL-best 19.5, while Suh started all 16 games for Tampa Bay, helping the team register the No. 1 rush defense in the NFL. The pair continued their success into the 2020 season, starting all 20 games, including four playoff games. Barrett and Suh helped the Buccaneers finish as the No. 1 rush defense for the second consecutive season.

In 2018, McCartney contributed to the signing of free agent center Ryan Jensen and the acquisition of outside linebacker Jason Pierre-Paul from the New York Giants. Jensen went on to start 65 games for the Buccaneers and was an integral part of the club's Super Bowl LV Championship team. He earned his first career Pro Bowl nod in 2021. In three seasons with the Buccaneers, Pierre-Paul averaged 0.73 sacks per game – eighth-most in the NFL during that stretch. Pierre-Paul earned a Pro Bowl berth in 2020 after posting a team-high 9.5 sacks and a career-best four forced fumbles.

McCartney spent the 2014 season as a national scout, following two seasons as a pro scout, a title he earned after being elevated from a pro personnel assistant.

While working as a national scout, McCartney was responsible for scouting top college prospects east of the Mississippi River, contributing to the selections of Jameis Winston, Donovan Smith, Ali Marpet and Kwon Alexander in 2015. Alexander, Winston and Marpet each went on to earn Pro Bowl selections with Tampa Bay.

McCartney came to Tampa Bay after working as a player personnel intern for the Pittsburgh Steelers organization from 2009-10 and as a summer intern in the player personnel department from 2006-08.

In 2021, McCartney was named to the Tampa Bay Business Journal's 40 under 40 list, celebrating individuals under the age of 40 who have achieved notable success, demonstrated exceptional leadership, and made significant contributions in their respective fields.

His father, Bob McCartney, has spent 52 seasons with the Pittsburgh Steelers and was recognized by the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 2024 with an Award of Excellence for his contributions as a long-time film/video director.

McCartney graduated from the University of South Carolina in 2009 with a Bachelor of Science degree in sport and entertainment management. Rob and his wife Kristi reside in Tampa, along with their three daughters, Madison, Charlotte and Zoe.

MIKE BIEHL
VICE PRESIDENT OF PLAYER PERSONNEL

Mike Biehl enters his 12th season with Tampa Bay and first as vice president of player personnel after being promoted from director of player personnel (2022-24). Biehl began his time with the Buccaneers as director of college scouting – a role he held from 2014-21.

In his current role, Biehl directs both the college and pro personnel departments, in addition to overseeing the evaluation process for all draft-eligible players. He holds an essential role in the team's player acquisition strategy and contributes to key decisions in both the NFL Draft and free agency. Biehl's ability as a talent evaluator has been vital to putting the Buccaneers among the league's best in terms of success through the NFL Draft. All 38 of Tampa Bay's first through sixth round picks from 2019-24 were on an NFL roster during the 2024 season, and the Buccaneers are the only team to have every such pick remain in the league during that span.

In the team's 2025 free agency efforts, Biehl aided in the decision to sign two-time Pro Bowl outside linebacker Haason Reddick to enhance the team's pass rush, in addition to the key re-signings of guard Ben Bredeson, linebacker Lavonte David and wide receiver Chris Godwin.

The 2024 class continued Tampa Bay's run of success in the NFL Draft, producing four starters in center Graham Barton, running back Bucky Irving, wide receiver Jalen McMillan and defensive back Tykee Smith. The Buccaneers were one of only three teams in 2024 to have three-or-more players drafted in the third round or later play 500+ snaps in their rookie campaign. Irving, the team's fourth-round selection, earned a PFWA selection after leading the rookie class in yards from scrimmage (1,514), rushing yards (1,122) and rushing touchdowns (eight). Irving and Barton helped revamp the team's rush offense, which finished fourth in the NFL in rushing yards per game (149.2) and third in yards per rush attempt (5.3).

On the path to an appearance in the NFC Divisional Round in 2023, the Buccaneers relied heavily on their draft class, which provided the most total snaps by a rookie class in the NFL that season (5,560). Seven members of the eight-person class played in at least 13 games for Tampa Bay as the collective group combined for 106 games played and 48 games started. First-round defensive lineman Calijah Kancey and third-round outside linebacker Yaya Diaby combined for 59 pressures, 22 tackles for loss, 20 quarterback hits and 11.5 sacks. Diaby led all rookies in tackles for loss in 2023, with 12, and tied for first in fumble recoveries (two), in addition to leading the Buccaneers in sacks. Meanwhile, Kancey was named the NFL Defensive Rookie of the Month for November, finishing his rookie campaign tied for second among rookies in tackles for loss (10), tied for fourth in quarterback hits (12) and sixth in quarterback pressures (33). Second-round guard Cody Mauch started all 17 games for Tampa Bay in his rookie season, while sixth-round cornerback Josh Hayes led all NFL players in special teams tackles in 2023 (14).

Tampa Bay selected eight players in the 2022 NFL Draft and saw immediate contributions from the entire class, ranking seventh in the NFL with 3,689 snaps by rookies in the 2022 season. Of those 3,689 snaps, the Buccaneers saw their rookies log 1,977 of them on offense, good for the fourth-most in the NFL. Fourth-round tight end Cade Otton was Tampa Bay's most prolific rookie contributor on offense in 2022, leading all rookie tight ends with 42 receptions and ranking third among rookie tight ends with 391 receiving yards. Since entering the league in 2022, Otton ranks second among all tight ends in offensive snaps played (2,589), in addition to ranking second in his tight end class in touchdown receptions (10), third in receptions (148) and fourth in receiving yards (1,446). Tampa Bay's 2022 third-rounder, Rachaad White, leads all members of his running back class in receptions (165) and receiving touchdowns (11), while ranking second in receiving yards (1,232) and third in scrimmage yards (3,316) through three seasons. White became 1-of-9 players in NFL history with 10+ rushing touchdowns and 10+ receiving touchdowns through their first three career seasons.

In 2021, Tampa Bay selected outside linebacker Joe Tryon-Shoyinka in the first round and center Robert Hainsey in the third round, who each became primary starters in just their second NFL season (2022). The pairing combined to appear in 126 games over their first four seasons, starting a total of 80.

In 2020, the NFL conducted its first ever virtual draft, with the Buccaneers selecting a total of seven players. Five out of six players saw playing time in at least ten games, led by first and second-round picks Tristan Wirfs and Antoine Winfield Jr. Despite no offseason or preseason games, both rookies started all 16 regular season games and every playoff game they appeared in.

Wirfs and Winfield Jr. turned out to be key contributors en route to the Buccaneers second Super Bowl victory. Wirfs played every offensive snap, only allowing one sack. Winfield Jr. had similar success, starting his rookie campaign by winning NFL Defensive Rookie of the Month and finishing third on the team with 94 tackles, 3.0 sacks, two forced fumbles, and an interception. Both were named to the PFWA All-Rookie team. Since 2020, Wirfs and Winfield Jr. have been two of the NFL's most productive players at their respective positions with Wirfs earning four Pro Bowl selections and two AP first-team All-Pro nods in his four seasons and Winfield Jr. earning one Pro Bowl trip and one first-team All-Pro selection.

The 2019 NFL Draft produced a total of eight draft picks, with five players seeing starts in Todd Bowles' defense. Devin White, picked fifth overall, started all 13 games he played, recording 91 tackles, recovering four fumbles, and capping his first season with consecutive NFL Defensive Rookie of the Month honors for November and December. Cornerback Sean Murphy-Bunting, picked in the second-round, led the team with three interceptions, tying for the most among NFL rookies. Both White and Murphy-Bunting earned spots on the PWFA's All-Rookie team. Third-round pick Jamel Dean finished the season with 17 passes defensed, tying for fourth in the NFL.

In his second season, White was named a team captain and led Tampa Bay with 140 tackles – fifth-most in the NFL – while adding 9.0 sacks. White earned second-team All-Pro honors from the Associated Press and was named NFC Defensive Player of the Week twice. Both White and Murphy-Bunting were key contributors during Tampa Bay's postseason run, with White tallying 38 tackles, two interceptions and two fumble recoveries, while Murphy-Bunting recorded three interceptions in his first three career playoffs games, becoming just the fourth player to do so in the Super Bowl era. White later garnered his first Pro Bowl selection for his efforts during the 2021 season.

With the 12th overall pick in the 2018 NFL Draft, the Buccaneers selected defensive tackle Vita Vea, who helped anchor the Buccaneers' top-ranked run defense during the 2019 and 2020 seasons. The team has finished top five in rush defense in four of Vea's six seasons in Tampa Bay, helping land Vea his first Pro Bowl selection in 2021. Fourth-round pick Jordan Whitehead, chosen 117th overall, started 55-of-59 career games for Tampa Bay in his first four seasons, tallying 292 tackles and five interceptions. After two productive seasons with the New York Jets, Whitehead re-signed with the Buccaneers prior to the 2024 season as a key free agent acquisition.

Ronald Jones II – a second-round pick in the 2018 Draft – recorded 1,000 yards from scrimmage and six rushing touchdowns in nine starts in 2019 and followed that up with an even more impressive 2020. Jones rushed for 978 yards on 192 carries (5.1 avg.) with seven touchdowns. His 5.1 yards per carry established a new franchise record and ranked eighth in the NFL among qualified rushers.

Fellow 2018 second-round pick Carlton Davis III started 75 career games over six seasons for Tampa Bay, including starting all nine of the team's playoff games between 2020-23. Over his six years for the Buccaneers, Davis III ranked fifth in the NFL in passes defensed (73), adding 13 takeaways.

The 2017 NFL Draft saw Biehl, working with General Manager Jason Licht, select six players, with three stepping into starting roles as rookies. The Buccaneers' first-round pick, tight end O.J. Howard, started all 14 games he played in, tying for the team lead with six touchdown receptions – tied for the second-most among NFL rookies and the fourth-most ever by a Buccaneers rookie.

In the third round of the 2017 NFL Draft, the Buccaneers selected wide receiver Chris Godwin. Over seven seasons with Tampa Bay, Godwin has totaled 6,690 receiving yards – the second-most in team history – and 34 touchdowns, which rank tied for second in franchise history. Since becoming a full-time starter in 2019, Godwin ranks 10th in the NFL in receiving yards per game (73.9 avg.) among players with at least 50 games played during that span. The 2019 season saw him rank third in the NFL with 1,333 receiving yards and fourth in the NFL in receiving touchdowns with nine, earning Pro Bowl and second-team AP All-Pro honors. During the 2022 offseason, Godwin signed a contract extension after he led the team in receiving yards (1,103) and receptions (98) in 2021. Coming off an ACL injury at the end of the 2021 campaign, Godwin recorded 104 receptions for 1,023 yards during the 2022 season. His 104 receptions in 2022 were the second-most in a single season in franchise history. He earned his third consecutive 1,000-yard receiving season in 2023, finishing with 83 receptions for 1,024 yards.

Biehl also assisted Licht in the 2015 NFL Draft, where the team held the first overall pick which was used to select quarterback Jameis Winston, who earned Pepsi NFL Rookie of the Year and a PFWA All-Rookie Team selection, while setting nearly every rookie passing record in Buccaneers history. The 2015 draft also saw Tampa Bay select tackle Donovan Smith (34th overall), guard Ali Marpet (61st overall) and linebacker Kwon Alexander (124th overall), all of whom earned a spot on the PFWA All-Rookie Team alongside Winston. Alexander was selected to the 2017 Pro Bowl. Both Marpet and Smith signed contract extensions, with Marpet named first-team All-Pro by Pro Football Focus in 2020 in addition to being named to the PFWA All-NFC Team, before later earning a Pro Bowl selection in 2021.

Biehl came to the Buccaneers with 16 seasons of NFL experience, including 13 seasons with the San Diego Chargers (2001-13). Biehl worked as the club's assistant director of college scouting for six seasons (2008-13), after being promoted from college scout (2001-07), where he scouted the Midwest region of the country. Over that span, the Chargers had the eighth-most wins in the NFL, won five AFC West division championships and made six playoff appearances.

Prior to his time with the Chargers, Biehl spent three seasons (1998-2000) working in the Buffalo Bills' personnel department, during which time the Bills had the NFL's sixth-best record and qualified for the playoffs twice.

A native of Paxton, Illinois, Biehl attended Illinois State University, where he earned a bachelor's degree in finance and a master's in sports management.

Mike and his wife, Kim, have two children: son Nathan, and daughter Kendall.

JACQUELINE DAVIDSON
VICE PRESIDENT OF FOOTBALL RESEARCH

Jacqueline Davidson enters her sixth season with the Buccaneers and third as the Vice President of Football Research after being promoted from Senior Director of Football Research.

Davidson is responsible for supporting the front office and coaching staff in roster and strategy decisions through research and development. She also works alongside General Manager Jason Licht and Assistant General Manager Mike Greenberg on player contracts and salary cap decisions.

Over the 2025 offseason, Davidson conducted the negotiations that led to the re-signing of Chris Godwin, one of the NFL's top free agent wide receiver targets of the offseason. Godwin, who was coming off three consecutive 1,000-yard seasons entering 2024, led the NFL in Weeks 1-7 in receptions (50) and receiving first downs (33), and ranked second in receiving yards (576) and tied for third in receiving touchdowns (five) prior to suffering a season-ending injury. Davidson also secured a deal with free agent outside linebacker Haason Reddick to enhance the team's pass rush. Reddick joined Tampa Bay on the heels of four double-digit sack seasons over the prior five seasons. In addition, Davidson aided in the negotiations to sign guard Ben Bredeson, linebacker Lavonte David and punter Riley Dixon.

In 2024, Davidson led the contract negotiations that resulted in the re-signings of Pro Bowl quarterback Baker Mayfield and All-Pro safety Antoine Winfield Jr., retaining players on both sides of the ball that helped lead Tampa Bay to the 2023 NFC Divisional Round. Davidson also administered the re-signing of kicker Chase McLaughlin, who set a single-season franchise record for field goal percentage (93.5%) in his first year in Tampa Bay, earning first-team All-Pro recognition from Pro Football Focus. The Buccaneers also brought back two more of the NFL's top 2024 free agents in linebacker Lavonte David and wide receiver Mike Evans. Davidson and the Tampa Bay front office didn't stop there, as the team also sealed a deal to return a former starting safety from its Super Bowl LV championship team in Jordan Whitehead reuniting one of the league's top safety duos.

During the 2023 offseason, Davidson contributed to the re-signings of key contributors in cornerback Jamel Dean, outside linebacker Anthony Nelson, and linebacker Lavonte David. Dean, Nelson, and David ranked second, third, and fourth, respectively, in total snaps by Buccaneers defenders during the 2022 season. In addition, Dean and David were rated as the fifth- and sixth-best free agents available, respectively, heading into the 2023 offseason, per Pro Football Focus.

Davidson was instrumental in re-signing a pair of key starters in 2022 in cornerback Carlton Davis III and wide receiver Chris Godwin, in addition to retaining center Ryan Jensen. Prior to the 2022 offseason, Davidson assisted with securing an extension for Buccaneers Pro Bowl nose tackle Vita Vea leading into the team's Week 18 game.

Following Super Bowl LV, Davidson played a vital role in helping the Buccaneers bring back all 22 starters, including a total of six free agent re-signings and two contract extensions. This marked the first time in the salary cap era that a defending Super Bowl champ has returned all 22 starters.

Before joining the Buccaneers, Davidson spent 11 seasons working in football administration with the New York Jets, spending eight-plus years as the Manager, Football Administration from 2007-15 before being elevated to Director, Football Administration (2015-18).

In her role as Director, Football Administration, Davidson served as the Jets' lead negotiator of player contracts and managed the team's salary cap and player budgets. She was also tasked with adhering to the regulations of the NFL's collective-bargaining agreement and predicting future trends relating to the league's salary cap.

Davidson entered the league as a legal intern with the National Football League's Management Council in 2004, while pursuing her law degree. She also worked as a staff attorney for the United States District Court in Alabama and a judicial law clerk for Judge Virginia Emerson Hopkins prior to earning her position with the Jets in 2007.

After graduating from Davidson College in 2002 with a Bachelor of Arts degree in economics, Davidson earned a Juris Doctor from Cornell University School of Law in 2005. Born in Tuscaloosa, Alabama, she is a member of the New York State Bar Association.

SHANE SCANNELL
DIRECTOR OF PRO SCOUTING

Shane Scannell enters his 11th season with the Buccaneers and his first as Director of Player Personnel, after being promoted from director of pro scouting.

Scannell spent two seasons as director of pro scouting, following two seasons as assistant director of pro scouting and five seasons as a pro scout. He began his career with Tampa Bay in 2015 as a scouting assistant.

Following his promotion, Scannell has taken on a larger, more wide-ranging role as he becomes increasingly involved with roster management as well as college scouting, while still overseeing the pro scouting department.

Since coming to Tampa Bay, Scannell has held a key role in a player personnel department that has acquired a number of impactful free agents over the years including Shaquil Barrett, Tom Brady, Ben Bredeson, Antonio Brown, Leonard Fournette, Rob Gronkowski, Ryan Jensen, Chase McLaughlin, Jason Pierre-Paul, Haason Reddick and Ndamukong Suh. These acquisitions have helped propel Tampa Bay to five consecutive playoff appearances (2020-24), four consecutive NFC South division titles (2021-24) and a Super Bowl LV championship.

Scannell played football collegiately at Wesleyan University and graduated with a bachelor's degree in sociology. A native of Mahwah, New Jersey, he played high school football at Don Bosco. He and his wife, Haley, currently reside in Tampa.

ZACHARY BEISTLINE
DIRECTOR OF FOOTBALL RESEARCH

Zachary Beistline enters his first season with the Buccaneers as Director of Football Research.

In his role, Beistline assists Vice President of Football Research Jacqueline Davidson in supporting the front office and coaching staff in strategy decisions, with a focus on game management. Please feel free to add any more specifics here – I just got a basic outline from Jackie.

Prior to arriving in Tampa Bay, Beistline spent 12 seasons with the Jacksonville Jaguars. He began his career in Jacksonville as football operations intern (2012), before spending 10 seasons as football database analyst (2013-22) and his final two seasons as the team's director of game management.

The Shelby Township, Michigan, native earned his Bachelor's degree in kinesiology and exercise science from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill in 2012. He and his wife, Mare't, reside in Tampa with their three daughters, Everest, Lyla and Eden.

BYRON KIEFER
SENIOR PERSONNEL EXECUTIVE

Byron Kiefer enters his 21st season overall with the Buccaneers and second as a senior personnel executive.

In his role, Kiefer is responsible for coordinating and compiling evaluations of all draft-eligible players and helping to oversee the scouting staff. Prior to his promotion during the 2024 offseason, Kiefer most recently spent two seasons as assistant director of college scouting and the previous four as a senior national scout for Tampa Bay during which he scouted prospects east of the Mississippi river.

In 2024, Kiefer provided valuable insight to a draft that produced four starters in center Graham Barton, running back Bucky Irving, wide receiver Jalen McMillan and defensive back Tykee Smith. Irving earned PFWA All-Rookie honors after leading the draft class in yards from scrimmage (1,514), rushing yards (1,122), and rushing touchdowns (eight), while Irving and Barton combined to help lead the Buccaneers rise from the NFL's 32nd-ranked rush offense in 2023 to the fourth-best in 2024 (149.2 rush yards per game). Smith was the only rookie in 2024 to record multiple interceptions and multiple forced fumbles.

Over the years, Kiefer has played a key role in the scouting efforts of a number of successful draft picks for Tampa Bay, including the acquisitions of outside linebacker Yaya Diaby and defensive lineman Calijah Kancey in the 2023 NFL Draft. The duo combined for 59 pressures, 22 tackles for loss, 20 quarterback hits and 11.5 sacks during their rookie campaign. Diaby led all rookies in tackles for loss in 2023, with 12, and tied for first in fumble recoveries (two), in addition to leading the Buccaneers in sacks. Meanwhile, Kancey was named the NFL Defensive Rookie of the Month for November, finishing his rookie campaign tied for second among rookies in tackles for loss (10), tied for fourth in quarterback hits (12) and sixth in quarterback pressures (33). Previously, Kiefer contributed to the selections of three starting members of the secondary for Tampa Bay's Super Bowl LV championship team – Carlton Davis III, Jamel Dean and Jordan Whitehead. In 2017, Kiefer was a big advocate for future Pro Bowl wide receiver Chris Godwin, who has put forth four 1,000-yard seasons for Tampa Bay.

In his nine seasons working as an area scout, Kiefer handled the Southeast region of the country. Kiefer began his career with the Buccaneers as a pro personnel assistant in 2005. In this role, he assisted in daily transactions and coordinated player tryouts. He also assisted in scouting other pro leagues, including NFL Europa, CFL and AFL. He then served as the team's National Football Scouting representative, in which his focus was scouting players in the Southeast as well as working with the NFL combine, where he helped the NFL select invitees to the annual event.

Since joining the staff, Kiefer has been a part of six NFC South division championships and Super Bowl LV.

Prior to joining the Buccaneers, Kiefer worked in the University of South Florida football office during the 2003 season, assisting with football operations and recruiting. He also worked as a trade support associate at Raymond James Financial from 2003-05.

Kiefer graduated from Mercer University in 2002, where he was a letterman pitcher on the baseball team. Kiefer and his wife, Mirela, have two sons, Tyson and Nolin. They reside in St. Petersburg, Florida.

SHELTON QUARLES
SENIOR DIRECTOR OF FOOTBALL OPERATIONS

After spending 10 seasons (1997-2006) establishing himself as one of the best linebackers in Buccaneers history, Quarles joined Tampa Bay's front office. In 2025, Quarles enters his first year as senior director of football operations, a promotion he received after spending 10 years as director of football operations. Previously, Quarles spent two seasons as director of pro scouting, a title he earned after two years as coordinator of pro scouting and four years as a pro scout for Tampa Bay. In addition to the Super Bowl title he won as a player, Quarles tacked on another as a key member of the team's support staff during its Super Bowl LV championship season.

In his current role, Quarles works directly with the head coach and general manager in organizing day-to-day operations of the team, while assisting with roster management and contract negotiations, advising the pro personnel department on advance scouting and overseeing all player travel and transportation.

While operating as director of pro scouting, Quarles was in charge of handling the team's pro personnel staff and evaluating players. Working as the coordinator of pro scouting, Quarles was responsible for coordinating the advance scouting of the Buccaneers opponents as well as organizing player workouts. During his time as a pro scout, Quarles' responsibilities included the in-season scouting of Buccaneers opponents and all NFL free agents. He also participated in the scouting and evaluation of the Tampa Bay roster. In 2007, his first season in the front office, Quarles helped guide the Buccaneers to the NFC South division title. In 2010, Quarles helped the Buccaneers to a 10-6 record, finding multiple players via free agency and waivers that made significant contributions to the team.

During his 10 seasons on the field, Quarles helped lead the Buccaneers to three division titles (1999, 2002 and 2005) while also earning a world championship following the 2002 season in Super Bowl XXXVII. He also made his first Pro Bowl appearance in 2002 as a member of the top-ranked defensive unit in the NFL. Overall, Quarles was a member of a Buccaneers defense that ranked first in the NFL in total defense on two occasions (2002 and 2004) and finished the season in the Top 10 in eight of his 10 years as a player.

Quarles' decade of service left its mark on the Buccaneers' record book. His 148 career games played and 113 career starts as a Buccaneer rank seventh and 11th, respectively, in team history. He also ranks fourth in team annals with 985 career tackles, including a career-high and team-best 196 tackles in 2005, the third-highest total in a single season in team history. Quarles played all three linebacker positions during his career and is the first and one of only three players in team history to record a touchdown and a safety (also Rondé Barber and Lavonte David) during their career. In 1999, he posted a team-record 31 special teams tackles and in 2001, Quarles recorded the longest play in team history with a 98-yard interception return for a touchdown (matched in 2020 by Ronald Jones' 98-yard touchdown run). He also earned numerous awards during his playing career, including the NFL Unsung Hero Award in 2002, the Buccaneers Man of the Year Award in 2004 and the Ed Block Courage Award in 2006.

Quarles was, and remains, one of the most philanthropic figures in the Tampa Bay area. Since its inception in 2004, the Shelton Quarles' IMPACT Foundation has had the mission of benefiting at-risk children, youth and their families by providing assistance, programs and events designed to build self-esteem, provide unique life changing opportunities and help them to set and achieve their life goals. The IMPACT Foundation has raised over $500,000 and impacted the lives of over 3,000 at-risk single-parent families in the Tampa Bay Area.

Shelton Quarles' IMPACT Foundation's signature program is the Home Blitz, formerly known as Mothers' Day Miracles. At-risk single-parent families are nominated for the Home Blitz program and once selected, they receive a complete home makeover. This makeover, valued at over $40,000 for each family, includes furniture, home décor, interior design services, lawn care, supplies, food and more. Each family is sent away on an all-expense paid vacation as their home is being transformed.

Quarles and his IMPACT Foundation host several fundraising events throughout the year. Shelton Quarles' Celebrity Waiter Night gives guests a chance to have their order taken, drinks poured, dinner served and dessert delivered by Quarles and some of Tampa's well-known celebrities and sports figures. Quarles also hosts the Transitions Championship Celebrity Pro-Am, which benefits his IMPACT Foundation. For more information on Shelton Quarles' IMPACT Foundation, please visit www.sheltonquarles.org.

Quarles has also participated in many charitable endeavors through the Buccaneers organization. In the 2011 offseason, along with former Buccaneers Mike Alstott, the late Lee Roy Selmon and Doug Williams, Quarles signed autographs at a local mall to help raise funds and awareness for the earthquake victims in Haiti. Together, the group helped raise over $125,000 for the Red Cross. In 2007, he walked the runway for the "Fashion Funds the Cure" fashion show to benefit the Pediatric Cancer Foundation and that same year, Quarles traveled with three other NFL players to visit U.S. troops at military bases throughout the Persian Gulf as part of the NFL-USO program.

Upon Quarles' retirement, Florida Governor Charlie Crist named him as chairman of the Tampa Bay Area Regional Transportation Authority, a position in which he served from September 2007 to September 2009. As chairman, Quarles led a seven-county, 15-member board that had a stated goal of building a transportation master plan to tackle the significant transportation issues facing the greater Tampa Bay area. He stepped down from this responsibility in order to dedicate his full time and attention to the Buccaneers. Quarles also served on the Board of Directors for Tampa General Hospital (2009-2016) and also sits on the Celebration of Literacy Committee as an Honorary Host Committee member for Celebration of Reading. He was named the Trailblazer of Our Children's Future by the Hillsborough County Sheriff's Office and won the Tower of Achievement Award for outstanding leadership and contributions by the USF Area Community Civic Associations.

An avid golfer, in the spring of 2009, Quarles was part of the winning foursome in the Transitions Championship Pro-Am at Innisbrook.

Quarles has three children: daughter, Gabriela Nicole, and sons, Shelton Eugene Jr. and Carlos Antonio. He currently resides in Tampa.

TONY HARDIE
DIRECTOR OF COLLEGE SCOUTING

Tony Hardie enters his 15th season with the Buccaneers and his first season as director of college scouting.

Hardie has been promoted in consecutive seasons, rising from national scout (2022-23) to assistant director of college scouting (2024) and now to director. As a national scout, Hardie had been responsible for scouting the Southeast region, in addition to overseeing the Mid-Atlantic and Northeast regions.

He played a key role in Tampa Bay's highly touted 2024 NFL Draft class, which produced four starters in center Graham Barton, PFWA All-Rookie running back Bucky Irving, wide receiver Jalen McMillan and defensive back Tykee Smith.

Hardie began with the Buccaneers working as the team's combine scout covering the Southeast region for National Football Scouting, before scouting the Mountain West, Mid-Atlantic and Midwest regions of the United States.

Prior to joining the Buccaneers, Hardie worked on the football staffs at Northwestern University (2010-11) and at the University of Chicago (2007-09).

Hardie served as the director of defensive quality control and defensive quality control/player personnel assistant with the Wildcats and was the cornerback coach and video coordinator on the Chicago staff.

Hardie graduated from Notre Dame with a Bachelor of Business in finance in 2007. He, and his wife Allie, reside in Tampa.

SEAN CONLEY
ASSISTANT DIRECTOR OF PRO SCOUTING

Sean Conley enters his eighth season with the Buccaneers and his second as an assistant pro scouting director after being promoted during the 2024 offseason. Conley began his career with the Buccaneers as a scouting assistant for three seasons (2018-21) before spending three years as a pro scout (2021-24).

Conley helps with advance scouting of upcoming opponents, evaluating players from all professional leagues, organizing player workouts, and evaluating free agents and college prospects.

Before joining the Buccaneers, Conley spent four years at Northwestern as Defensive Quality Control Assistant & Recruiting Assistant.

Conley received his bachelor's degree from Illinois Wesleyan University in 2014 and was named captain of the football team his senior year. The Bolingbrook, Illinois native currently resides in Tampa with his wife Brittany and sons, Miles and Carter.

DONOVAN COTTON
ASSISTANT DIRECTOR OF PRO SCOUTING

Donovan Cotton enters his 12th season with the Buccaneers and his second as assistant pro scouting director, following nine seasons as an area scout after beginning his career in Tampa Bay as a scouting assistant in 2014.

Cotton assists in the advance scouting of upcoming opponents, evaluating players from all professional leagues, organizing player workouts, and evaluating free agents and college prospects.

From 2015-23 seasons, Cotton was responsible for scouting colleges in the Southwest portion of the country. As a scouting assistant, Cotton assisted in player evaluations, organizing and executing free agent workouts and helping in draft preparations.

Prior to joining the Buccaneers, Cotton worked as a player personnel scouting intern for the Seattle Seahawks in 2013, tracking depth charts, completing player reports and monitoring the waiver wire, among other duties. He got his start in the NFL with the Green Bay Packers in 2011, working as a training camp scouting intern.

Cotton played football collegiately at Norfolk State and graduated with a Bachelor of Business Entrepreneurship in 2011. Donovan and his wife Frankie reside in Tampa, along with their daughter Sienna and son Quincy.

SHANNON HOGUE
PRO SCOUT

Shannon Hogue enters her fifth season with the Buccaneers and her second as a pro scout. In her current role, she helps with advance scouting of upcoming opponents, evaluating players from all professional leagues, organizing player workouts, and evaluating free agents and college prospects.

Prior to being promoted during the 2024 offseason, Hogue spent two seasons as a scouting analyst (2022-24) following one season as a scouting assistant (2021). During this time, she was responsible for college and pro player evaluations, database management, as well as assisting with day-to-day operations in the personnel department.

Prior to arriving in Tampa Bay, Hogue spent four months as the director of on-campus recruiting at the University of Wyoming in 2021.

While obtaining her Master's degree in Sport Administration from the University of Louisville, Hogue served as both a football recruiting graduate assistant (2018-21) and a women's basketball graduate assistant (2019). A native of Los Angeles, Hogue earned her Bachelor's degree in Kinesiology from California State University-Fullerton. She currently resides in Tampa.

ANDY SPEYER
NATIONAL SCOUT

Andy Speyer enters his 12th season with the Buccaneers working as a national scout. In his role as national scout, Speyer is responsible for scouting college prospects west of the Mississippi River.

Speyer joined Tampa Bay after 12 seasons working with the Philadelphia Eagles' player personnel department, including 11 as a college scout, covering the Southwest, Midwest and Northeast regions at various points during that time. While with Philadelphia, Speyer was a member of an organization that won six division titles and one conference championship. Speyer got his start with the Eagles as a training camp intern in 2001 and worked as a pro personnel intern in 2002.

A native of Spring, Texas, Speyer played collegiately at Ricks College (Rexburg, Idaho), before serving a two-year LDS mission in Pocatello, Idaho. Speyer returned to Ricks for one semester before transferring to the University of Utah and earning his undergraduate degree in business management. He also earned an MBA and a master's degree in sports administration from Ohio University.

Speyer and his wife, Lynette, have two sons, Braden and Kahler, and a daughter, Hailey.

JEREMIAH BOGAN
COLLEGE SCOUT

Jeremiah Bogan enters his second season with the Buccaneers and his first as a college scout. In his current role, he is responsible for scouting the Southwest region.

Prior to being promoted this offseason, Bogan spent his first season in Tampa Bay as a scouting assistant (2024). During this time, he was responsible for college and pro player evaluations, database management, as well as assisting with day-to-day operations in the personnel department.

Prior to joining the Buccaneers, Bogan most recently spent time as the Director of Player Personnel at the University of Connecticut, following one season as a national scout for the East/West Shrine Bowl. He previously held various scouting and recruiting roles at Louisiana State University, Optimum Scouting, Liberty University, University of Pittsburgh, Georgia Tech and UNLV.

The Duncan, South Carolina native played football collegiately at both the University of North Greenville, where he earned a degree in sport management, and Limestone University, where he received his Master of Business Administration. He currently resides in Tampa.

EMMETT CLIFFORD
COLLEGE SCOUT

Emmett Clifford enters his fourth season with the Buccaneers and his second as a college scout. In his current role, he is responsible for scouting the Midwest region, following one season scouting the Northeast region.

Prior to being promoted during the 2024 offseason, Clifford spent his first two seasons in Tampa Bay as a scouting assistant (2022-24). During this time, he was responsible for college and pro player evaluations, database management, as well as assisting with day-to-day operations in the personnel department.

Prior to joining the Buccaneers, Clifford spent two seasons as an external film analyst with the Cleveland Browns (2020-22).

The Glenview, Illinois native graduated from the College of the Holy Cross where he was a four-year member of the Crusaders football program (2016-19). As a quarterback at Loyola Academy (Wilmette, Illinois), Clifford led his team to a 14-0 record and the Illinois Class 8A State Championship as a senior, earning the Chicago Catholic League Most Valuable Player award in a season in which he set school records for passing yards and passing touchdowns. He currently resides in Tampa.

KOREY FINNIE
COLLEGE SCOUT

Korey Finnie enters his fourth season with the Buccaneers and his first as a college scout following one season as the team's NFS scout. In his current role, he is responsible for scouting the Northeast region.

Prior to being promoted this offseason, Finnie's responsibilities as NFS scout included evaluating players, gathering information and building reports on behalf of National Football Scouting and the Buccaneers. Finnie spent his first two seasons in Tampa Bay as a scouting assistant (2022-24). During this time, he was responsible for college and pro player evaluations, database management, as well as assisting with day-to-day operations in the personnel department.

Prior to arriving in Tampa Bay, Finnie served as a coaching assistant at his alma mater, Tulane University, for two seasons (2020-22). He also spent two seasons as an equipment manager at Tulane from 2018-20. The New Orleans native earned his Bachelor's degree in psychology and education from Tulane in 2020. He currently resides in Tampa.

BRIAN MCLAUGHLIN
COLLEGE SCOUT

Brian McLaughlin enters his 12th season with the Buccaneers and his fourth as a college scout. Prior to becoming a college scout, he spent four seasons as an NFS/Combine Scout (2018-2021) after being elevated from scouting assistant (2016-17). McLaughlin started in Tampa Bay as a team operations assistant the prior two years (2014-15).

In his current role, he is responsible for scouting the Mid-Atlantic region, spanning colleges and universities across Kentucky, North Carolina, Ohio, South Carolina and Tennessee.

McLaughlin has been the area scout for recent Buccaneers draft picks Emeka Egbuka (2025), Graham Barton (2024) and Yaya Diaby (2023), as well as undrafted players Tyrek Funderburk, Kameron Johnson and Markees Watts.

Throughout his tenure with the Buccaneers, McLaughlin has covered colleges in the Southeast, Midwest, Mid-Atlantic and Northeast areas of the country. He has evaluated players, interviewed college sources, gathered information and built reports on each of the players in his respective areas. He also assisted with the NFL Combine, Reese's Senior Bowl, East-West Shrine Bowl and other college all-star games.

As a scouting assistant, McLaughlin was responsible for college and pro player evaluations, database management, as well as assisting with day-to-day operations in the personnel department.

A Buccaneers team operations intern during the 2012 season, McLaughlin spent the 2013 season as the Assistant Director of Football Operations and Recruiting Coordinator at Florida International University. He also served as the Player Personnel Coordinator for the Jacksonville Sharks of the Arena Football League in 2014, before returning to Tampa Bay. McLaughlin also held internships with the Indianapolis Colts (2011) and Cleveland Browns (2010).

A native of Norwalk, Ohio, McLaughlin graduated Magna Cum Laude from the University of Cincinnati with a degree in sports administration and received the program's 'Most Outstanding Student' award. He currently resides in Tampa with his wife, Tina.

CESAR RIVERA

Cesar Rivera enters his 11th season with the Buccaneers and his fourth as a college scout. In his current role, Rivera scouts and evaluates college players in the Southeast region, after spending one year scouting the Southwest region and two years scouting the Northeast area.

Rivera originally started with the Buccaneers as the team operations intern in 2015, served as the team operations assistant in 2016, and then spent time as the team operations coordinator in 2017. Following the 2017 season, Rivera moved into the scouting coordinator role, where he assisted with departmental operations, administrative duties for the general manager, and college and pro scouting duties.

Prior to joining the Buccaneers, he spent time in Arena Football League as the football operations and personnel intern with the Tampa Bay Storm, working under Buccaneers legends Derrick Brooks and Jeff Gooch.

Rivera played football at Plymouth State University (2007) and SUNY Cortland (2009). The Port Jefferson Station, New York, native received his bachelor's degree from Southern Connecticut State University in 2013 and his M.B.A. from Saint Leo University in 2015. Rivera and his partner, Courtney, reside in Tampa with their son, Lew.

ZACH SMITH
COLLEGE SCOUT

Zach Smith enters his eighth season with the Buccaneers and his second as a college scout. Previously, Smith served two seasons as the team's NFS scout, following four seasons as a scouting assistant.

In his current role, Smith is responsible for scouting the West region. Previously as the NFS scout, Smith covered colleges in the southeast region and evaluated players, gathered information and built reports on behalf of National Football Scouting and the Buccaneers. As a scouting assistant, Smith was responsible for college and pro player evaluations, database management, as well as assisting with day-to-day operations in the personnel department.

Prior to joining the Buccaneers, Smith interned with the University of Arizona, spending two seasons as a football recruiting intern before being elevated to head football recruiting and player personnel intern. Smith also held internships with the Chargers as an equipment intern and scouting intern.

A native of San Diego, California, Smith graduated from the University of Arizona with a degree in journalism and a minor in sociology. He currently resides in Tampa with his wife, Tori.

JORDAN MORROW
NFS SCOUT

Jordan Morrow enters his second season with the Buccaneers and his first as the team's NFS scout following one season as a scouting assistant. In his current role, he is responsible for evaluating players, gathering information and building reports on behalf of National Football Scouting and the Buccaneers.

Prior to being promoted this offseason, Morrow's responsibilities as a scouting assistant included college and pro player evaluations, database management, as well as assisting with day-to-day operations in the personnel department.

Before joining the Buccaneers, the Louisville, Kentucky native spent two seasons as a graduate assistant in the recruiting office at the University of Kentucky from 2022-23. He played football collegiately and graduated with a degree in sports communication with a minor in coaching from Kentucky in 2022. He currently resides in Tampa.

BOBBY SLATER
VICE PRESIDENT OF SPORTS MEDICINE AND PERFORMANCE

Bobby Slater enters his 12th season with the Buccaneers and his second as Vice President of Sports Medicine and Performance.

In his role, Slater serves as the team's head athletic trainer, in addition to overseeing all departments influencing health and wellness of players, including strength and conditioning, performance science and nutrition, to ensure best practices for player training and recovery.

Slater joined Tampa Bay in 2013 after 15 years with the Chicago Bears, finishing his time there as the team's assistant head athletic trainer/director of rehabilitation. Slater began his career with Chicago in 1999 as an assistant athletic trainer, before being promoted to director of rehabilitation in 2002. He held that position for 10 years before adding assistant head athletic trainer to his title in 2012.

Slater began his career in the NFL with the Bears as a training camp intern in 1994, serving in the same capacity with the Miami Dolphins in 1995 and again with Chicago in 1998.

Before joining the Bears full-time, Slater worked as a graduate assistant athletic trainer from 1997-99 at Mississippi State University. He was also an athletic trainer at Lee Memorial Hospital (1997) and A. Kagan Orthopedics in Ft. Myers, Florida (1995-97).

Slater received a Bachelor of Science degree from Florida Southern College and a Master of Science degree from Mississippi State. Slater and his wife, Bridget, have three daughters – Savannah, Natalee, and Brooke – and a son, Ryan.

DAVE HAMILTON
VICE PRESIDENT OF PERFORMANCE SCIENCE

Dave Hamilton enters his seventh season with the Buccaneers and his first as vice president after being promoted from director of performance science (2019-24).

Hamilton is tasked with developing a sports science program that promotes athlete health and performance through the collaboration of strength and conditioning, medical treatment and nutrition. The program is designed to build a training environment that is conducive for optimal performance and sustained success for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. He is also responsible for developing systems and processes that facilitate continued communication and dissemination of knowledge across all performance departments. Hamilton was also a member of the support staff for Tampa Bay's Super Bowl LV championship team.

Prior to his time in Tampa Bay, Hamilton worked as the assistant athletic director for applied health and performance science at Penn State University. During his stint with the Nittany Lions from 2016-19, Hamilton established and led an applied health and performance science program with the goal of optimizing the performance of Penn State's 800 collegiate athletes.

Hamilton spent three-plus years as the director of performance science for USA Field Hockey (2013-16), in which he earned the Doc Councilman Award from the United States Olympic Committee for his innovative approach to programming and training while working with both men's and women's USA Olympic teams.

As the head of strength and conditioning for Great Britain and England's women's field hockey teams from 2009-13, Hamilton won a pair of Bronze medals at the 2010 World Cup and the 2012 Olympic Games in London.

He received his bachelor's degree in sports science from DeMontfort University in England and went on to earn his master's degree in exercise science from Edith Cowen University in Australia.

Dave and his wife Kelly have four daughters, Alya, Amber, Kooper, and Kenzie.

ADAM PINKOSKI
ASSISTANT DIRECTOR OF PERFORMANCE SCIENCE

Adam Pinkoski enters his third season with the Buccaneers as the club's Assistant Director of Performance Science. In this role, Pinkoski works with Vice President of Performance Science Dave Hamilton to cultivate a sports science program that emphasizes athlete health and performance.

Pinkoski assists with athletic activity monitoring systems and analyzing the data collected on and off the field using a variety of performance technologies. He also evaluates medical trends and ongoing health and wellness data to further develop best practices within the coaching staff and performance team.

Prior to joining Tampa Bay, Pinkoski worked in the biotech sector, specializing in the development of electromyography and other physiological measurements for performance and health applications.

Pinkoski is an award-winning instructor in Exercise Sciences at the undergraduate and graduate level, specializing in cadaver anatomy and health assessment. He was the youngest recipient of the Last Lecture Award in the University of Alberta's history.

Adam holds a PhD in Epidemiology from the University of Alberta, specializing in injury prevention. He also graduated from Loughborough University receiving his Masters of Science in Musculoskeletal Sport Science and Health, and the University of Alberta with a Bachelor of Kinesiology. Adam is an active author in peer-reviewed research with publications focused on professional athletic populations, injury prevention and knowledge translation across high performance environments.

A native of Edmonton, Alberta, Pinkoski currently resides in Tampa with his wife, Jenny.

JESSICA PASTUF
DIRECTOR OF PERFORMANCE NUTRITION

Jessica Pastuf enters her sixth season with the Buccaneers and her third as the Director of Performance Nutrition.

In this role, Pastuf is responsible for educating and guiding players on how to improve their performance and recovery through optimal nutrition and fueling choices. She works with other members of the Performance Team to design strategies and implement measures dedicated to player hydration, nutrition, recovery, body composition and injury prevention. She was a member of the support staff for Tampa Bay's Super Bowl LV championship team.

Pastuf works with the club's High-Performance Chef to cultivate menus to achieve players' individual nutrition needs. As the team's Director of Nutrition, she oversees the Performance Nutrition Staff, which includes the Performance Dietitian and two Performance Nutrition interns.

Prior to joining the Buccaneers, Pastuf worked as a member of the Utah Jazz's High-Performance Nutrition team from 2019-2020. Before joining the Jazz, she was a Sports Nutrition intern with the University of Utah's athletic department.

Pastuf graduated with a Bachelor of Science in Dietetics and Clinical Nutrition Services from the University of North Carolina at Greensboro before receiving a Master of Science in Sports Nutrition from the University of Utah. In addition, Pastuf is a Board Certified Specialist in Sports dietetics (CSSD), as well as a Registered Dietician (RD).

A native of Syracuse, New York, Pastuf currently resides in Tampa.

DUKE PRESTON
VICE PRESIDENT OF PLAYER ENGAGEMENT

Duke Preston enters his 11th season with the Buccaneers and fifth as the vice president of player engagement. After joining the Buccaneers prior to the 2015 season, Preston spent his first six seasons with the organization as the director of player engagement.

As vice president of player engagement, Preston seeks to engage, transform and empower players to realize their maximum potential as men and professional football players. As such, the foundational approach of Player Engagement is to address the hearts and minds of Buccaneers players by creating authentic and impactful relationships by which the organization is able to fully supply them with tools for success. Preston leads the facilitation of programming aimed at character and leadership development, career development, financial education, continued education and mental health & wellness. He was a member of the support staff for Tampa Bay's Super Bowl LV championship team.

Preston came to Tampa Bay from the University of Notre Dame, where he worked as the football team's Director of Player Development (2014- 2015), following time spent as Director of Student-Athlete Welfare & Development (2013-2014). Prior to joining Notre Dame, Preston worked as an Area Director/Program Spokesman for the Fellowship of Christian Athletes (2010-2013).

Preston – a former offensive lineman – played collegiately at the University of Illinois, before being drafted in the fourth round (122nd overall) of the 2005 NFL Draft by the Buffalo Bills. In a five-year NFL career, Preston played in 59 games with 20 starts, spending time with the Bills, the Green Bay Packers and the Dallas Cowboys. While at Illinois, Preston earned a bachelor's degree in speech communication and began work on a master's degree in educational policy studies. Following his playing career, Preston earned a master's degree in Christian education from the Dallas Theological Seminary. Preston is also a loving husband to his wife, Kavanagh, and a dedicated father to their five children.

SPENCER DILLE
SENIOR DIRECTOR OF FOOTBALL TECHNOLOGY

Spencer Dille enters his 14th season with the Buccaneers and fourth as senior director of football technology.

Dille is responsible for the development and maintenance of all football-related software and technology. He works closely with the front office, scouting department, trainers and coaching staff in the implementation of the latest technology and football-related applications. Additionally, Dille serves as a liaison between the information technology department and football operations, helping to troubleshoot a variety of technological issues on a continual basis.

During the COVID-19 pandemic, Dille was responsible for developing the technology game plan behind the Buccaneers virtual draft. He played a key role setting up General Manager Jason Licht and Head Coach Bruce Arians' home offices to make selections for the 2020 NFL Draft.

Prior to joining the Buccaneers, he spent seven years (2004-11) with COMANCO Environmental Corporation, managing and developing their operational technology. From 2011-12, he worked with Kobie Marketing, developing their loyalty management software platform. Dille received both his Bachelors of Computer Engineering and Masters of Computer Science degrees from the University of Minnesota.

Dille resides in Tampa with his wife, Deborah, their three children, Amelia, Erik and Josephine.

BRAD BERLIN
EQUIPMENT DIRECTOR

Brad Berlin enters his 10th season with Tampa Bay, directing all of the team's equipment operations and logistics since joining the team in 2016. He was a key member of the support staff for Tampa Bay's Super Bowl LV championship team.

Berlin came to the Buccaneers after spending the prior two seasons as the Director of Equipment Operations for the University of Michigan (2014-15), overseeing equipment operations for all 31 athletic teams and directing seven full-time equipment managers.

Prior to joining the Wolverines, Berlin spent 13 years with the Washington Commanders (2001-13), serving as the head equipment manager for the team, overseeing all aspects of the equipment and locker rooms at the practice facility and FedEx Field.

Before entering the NFL, Berlin spent nine years working at the collegiate level, beginning his career as the head equipment manager with Utah State (1992-93). He worked as the head equipment manager at Colorado State (1994-98) and Missouri in the same capacity (1998-99), before becoming the assistant athletic director for equipment at Louisville (2000).

A native of Marshall, Missouri, Berlin earned a bachelor's degree in educational studies and sports management from Missouri in 1989 and later earned a master's of education degree in sports management from Missouri in 1993. He and his wife, Molly, have three children – daughters Hannah and Miranda and son Brady – and two granddaughters, Aubrey Jo and Hallie Rose.

BRETT GREENE
SENIOR VIDEO DIRECTOR

Brett Greene enters his ninth season with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, working as the team's senior video director. He was promoted from video director to senior video director during the 2025 offseason.

In his current role, Greene is responsible for overseeing the video department and maximizing the football technologies used by coaches, players and football personnel on a day-to-day basis. He is also in charge of purchasing and maintaining video and digital equipment.

From 2024-25, Greene oversaw the installation of fiber and power infrastructure to the practice fields to support in-practice video review and IP-based remote PTZ Camera operations. This upgrade supports video capture of practices through a system of seven outdoor and four indoor cameras, enhancing coverage and workflow for the video staff. Greene also collaborated with IT staff to provide full WI-FI coverage across all practice fields.

Greene helped play a key role during the NFL's first ever virtual draft. Due to the COVID-19 pandemic the Buccaneers had to recreate draft rooms outside of AdventHealth Training Center. Greene was stationed with Head Coach Bruce Arians to help troubleshoot any technical issues and make sure all three days ran smoothly.

Greene came to Tampa Bay from the University of Georgia, where he worked as the Director of Video Operations from 2011-16. With the Bulldogs, Greene oversaw all video software and equipment at the Butts-Mehre football facility, in addition to supervising the filming and editing of the team's practices and games. In 2015, Greene was part of the Georgia video department that earned the Ultimate SAVVY Award and the SAVVY Award in the College Sports Video Association Recruiting category.

Prior to his time at Georgia, Greene spent nine seasons (2002-10) in the video department of the Jacksonville Jaguars, working under head coaches Tom Coughlin and Jack Del Rio, while also working with former Buccaneers Head Coach Dirk Koetter, who served as the Jaguars' offensive coordinator from 2007-11.

A native of Jacksonville, Florida, Brett and his wife Meghan have two sons, Connor and Hudson, and a daughter, Emmie.

MATT TAYLOR
VIDEO DIRECTOR

Matt Taylor enters his ninth season with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, currently working as the team's video director, following eight seasons as assistant video director. In his current role, Taylor works with Senior Video Director Brett Greene to maximize the football technologies used by coaches, players and football personnel on a day-to-day-basis.

Taylor joined the Buccaneers after spending two seasons with XOS Digital, working as a Technical Support Representative. Prior to that, he worked in the video department of the Miami Dolphins, first as an intern (2003), before being elevated to video assistant (2005-08), assistant video director (2009-13) and interim video director (2014).

In addition to his time in Miami, Taylor has worked in the video departments of the Cologne Centurions of NFL Europe, the Chicago Bears, the Buffalo Bills and the Buffalo Destroyers of the Arena Football League.

A native of Albion, New York, Matt and his wife, Lindsay, have two sons, Wesley and Clayton and a daughter, Josie.

ACQUIRED BY BUCS:

X Selected in the third round (94th overall) of the 2019 NFL Draft by the Buccaneers.

AWARDS & ACCOLADES:

X Super Bowl LV Champion.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

X Has played in 82 games with 63 starts, totaling 306 tackles (six for loss), 52 passes defensed, eight interceptions (returned 93 yards, one touchdown), two fumble recoveries, one forced fumble and four special teams tackles.

X Started 9-of-10 postseason games, recording 49 tackles (one for loss), nine passes defensed and one forced fumble.

X Since 2019, has recorded 52 passes defensed, tied for the 22nd-most in the NFL during that span. Has five games with at least four passes defensed in that span, the most such games in the NFL.

X Tampa Bay's 2020 defense led the league in rushing yards allowed per game (80.6) and yards allowed per rush (3.60), while ranking sixth in yards allowed per play (5.12), sixth in yards allowed per game (327.1), ranking tied for second in tackles for loss (91), tied for fourth in sacks (48.0) and tied for fifth in takeaways (25).

X In 2019, tied for fourth in the NFL in passes defensed (17). Posted three separate games with at least four passes defensed, the most such games in a single season since 2000.

X Scored first career touchdown on a 32-yard interception return from Green Bay Packers QB Aaron Rodgers (10/18/20).

X Made first career start at Atlanta (11/24/19), recording a career-high five passes defensed, tied for the most in a single game in the NFL in 2019 and tied for the most by a Buccaneers player in a single game since 2007 (also Carlton Davis, 2019 at Atlanta).

X Recorded first career interception against Arizona (11/10/19).

X Made NFL debut vs. San Francisco (9/8/19).

2024 HIGHLIGHTS:

X Started at cornerback in the Week 1 victory over the Washington Commanders, playing all 59 defensive snaps. Led Tampa Bay with 26 coverage snaps and was only targeted one time, allowing zero receptions.

X Started at cornerback in the Week 2 victory at the Detroit Lions, playing all 85 defensive snaps. Logged a then-career-high-tying 10 tackles and added one pass defensed.

X In Week 3 vs. Denver, started at cornerback and played all 68 defensive snaps. He finished with a then-career-high and a Buccaneers team-high 13 tackles.

X Dean's 13 tackles in Week 3 marked the second consecutive week that he tied or reset his career best in tackles. His 23 tackles from Weeks 2-3 marked the most by a Tampa Bay cornerback across a two-game span in a single season in franchise history, surpassing the previous mark of 21 set by Rondé Barber in the 2004 season.

- Started at cornerback in the Week 4 victory over Philadelphia, playing all 57 defensive snaps and logging five tackles and two passes defensed.
- Dean's two passes defensed in Week 4 marked his 10th career game with multiple passes defensed and his first since Week 8 of the 2023 season at Buffalo.
- He was Tampa Bay's second-highest graded defensive player in the Week 4 win over Philadelphia – and the highest-graded cornerback in the NFL that week – according to Pro Football Focus, earning an 86.1 overall grade.
- Played all 87 defensive snaps in Week 5 at Atlanta, recording nine tackles and one pass defensed.
- In the Week 6 win over New Orleans, logged 10 defensive snaps and one tackle before leaving with injury.
- Was placed on Injured Reserve prior to the Week 7 matchup against the Baltimore Ravens.
- Was activated from Injured Reserve prior to Tampa Bay's Week 12 game against the New York Giants.
- In the Week 12 win over the New York Giants, played all 59 defensive snaps and finished with two tackles and his first career forced fumble.
- Played all 70 defensive snaps in the Week 13 win at Carolina, tallying five tackles.
- In the Week 14 win over Las Vegas, played all 67 defensive snaps and recorded two tackles.
- Played all 52 defensive snaps in the Week 15 win over the L.A. Chargers, logging three tackles, two passes defensed and one interception. It marked his second game in 2024 with multiple passes defensed.
- Per Next Gen Stats, Dean was targeted six times in Week 15, yielding just two receptions for seven yards to generate an opponent passer rating of 2.8.
- Dean's interception in Week 15 marked his first since Week 2 of the 2022 season, a span of 35 games.

- Played all 60 defensive snaps in Week 16 at Dallas, logging three tackles. Yielded three receptions.
- In the Week 17 win over the Carolina Panthers, played 23-of-47 defensive snaps before leaving with injury. Finished with one tackle and one pass defensed.
- Was inactive for the Week 18 victory over New Orleans.
- Started at cornerback in the Wild Card round against Washington, playing 48 defensive snaps before leaving with injury. Logged four tackles and one pass defensed.

PERSONAL/COMMUNITY:

- Attended Cocoa High School (Cocoa, Florida), where he was a two-time Florida first-team Class 4A all-state pick and was named the 2014 Brevard County player of the year and the Florida Athletic Coaches Association's District 12 MVP.
- Son of Yolanda Kimbrough and James Dean.
- Has four brothers: Derrick Jr., James Jr., Jamaine and Jayden.

TACKLE
HT: 6-5 WT: 312
NFL: 4TH YEAR
ACQ: D2B, 2022
COLLEGE: CENTRAL MICHIGAN

ACQUIRED BY BUCS:

- Selected in the second round (57th overall) of the 2022 NFL Draft by the Buccaneers.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- Has started 38-of-41 career games for the Buccaneers, including an additional four postseason contests.
- Was a pivotal member of a 2024 Buccaneers offense that established franchise records in completion percentage (71.5%), passer rating (106.8), rushing yards (2,536), yards per rush (5.3) and third-down conversion rate (50.9%).
- According to Pro Football Focus, Goedeke finished the 2024 season as the eighth-highest graded right tackle (min. 1,000 snaps). Per Next Gen Stats, his 7.7% quarterback pressure rate allowed was the sixth-best mark among right tackles (min. 500 pass block snaps).
- Started eight games at left guard as a rookie in 2022 before returning to his natural position of right tackle prior to the 2023 season.

2024 HIGHLIGHTS:

- Started at right tackle and played all 64 offensive snaps in the Week 1 victory over the Washington Commanders. Contributed to an offensive line that generated the fifth-most net yards of offense in a season opener in franchise history (392).
- Was inactive for Weeks 2-5.
- Started at right tackle in the Week 6 win over New Orleans, playing all 77 offensive snaps and contributing to an offensive line that helped produce 594 net yards of offense – the highest single-game mark in franchise history.
- Started at right tackle and played all 82 offensive snaps in Week 7 vs. Baltimore, contributing to an offensive line that helped produce 30+ points of offense for a league-leading fifth time through the first seven weeks of the season.
- Started at right tackle and played all 73 offensive snaps in Week 8 vs. Atlanta, contributing to an offensive line that helped generate over 400 net yards of offense for the third consecutive game.
- Started at right tackle and played all 55 offensive snaps in Week 9 at Kansas City. Contributed to a Tampa Bay offense that scored 24 points – the second-most given up by the Chiefs in a single game in the 2024 season at the time.
- Started at right tackle and played all 61 offensive snaps in Week 10 vs. San Francisco, contributing to an offense that rushed for over 100 yards for the sixth time in their last seven games.
- Started at right tackle in the Week 12 win at the New York Giants, playing all 65 offensive snaps and contributing to an offensive line that produced four different touchdown rushers. In doing so, Tampa Bay became the first team to accomplish such a feat since the New York Jets on Oct. 9, 2022.
- In the Week 13 win at the Carolina Panthers, started at right tackle and played all 80 offensive snaps, contributing to an offense that generated over 200 rushing yards for the second time in the 2024 season.
- Started at right tackle in the Week 14 win over Las Vegas, playing all 62 offensive snaps and contributing to an offensive line that helped generate over 400 net yards of offense for an NFL-leading seventh time in the 2024 season.

- Started at right tackle and played all 72 offensive snaps in the Week 15 victory over the Los Angeles Chargers, contributing to an offensive line that helped generate over 500 yards of offense for the second time in the 2024 season – becoming the second team to have multiple such performances in 2024.
- According to Pro Football Focus, was Tampa Bay's second-highest graded offensive player in the Week 15 win, earning an 89.3 overall offensive grade.
- In Week 16 at Dallas, started at right tackle and played all 72 offensive snaps, contributing to an offensive line that helped generate over 400 net yards of offense for a league-leading ninth time in 2024.
- Started at right tackle and played all 77 offensive snaps in the Week 17 win over the Carolina Panthers, contributing to an offensive line that helped produce 551 net yards of offense – the sixth-most in a single game in team history. The Buccaneers beat the Panthers 48-14, tying the franchise record for the most points scored in a home game.
- In the Week 18 win over the New Orleans Saints, started at right tackle and played all 67 offensive snaps, contributing to an offensive line that produced over 100 rushing yards for the eighth straight game and for the 14th time in 18 games.
- Started at right tackle in the Wild Card round against the Washington Commanders, playing all 48 offensive snaps and contributing to an offense that produced over 100 rushing yards and a passer rating of 146.5.

COLLEGE:

- Started all 24 collegiate games he played at Central Michigan over four seasons (2018-21), earning first-team All-MAC honors in his final season.
- Earned honorable mention All-America recognition from Pro Football Focus in 2021, while starting on a line that blocked for the nation's leading rusher, Lew Nichols III (1,848 total yards/142.2 yards per game), as well as a unit that ranked third in the Mid-American Conference in both total offense (443.4 ypg) and passing offense (265.4 ypg).
- Selected to play in the 2022 Senior Bowl.
- Missed the 2020 season due to injury.
- Redshirted in 2018 as he transitioned from tight end to offensive tackle.
- Prior to arriving at Central Michigan, Goedeke spent one season as a tight end at the University of Wisconsin-Stevens Point (2017), recording 12 receptions for 132 yards.

PERSONAL:

- Attended Valders High School (Valders, Wisconsin).

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- Has started 103-of-106 games between the Cleveland Browns, Carolina Panthers, Los Angeles Rams and Tampa Bay Buccaneers, completing 2,157-of-3,395 (63.5%) passes for 24,832 yards, 171 touchdowns and 90 interceptions, good for a passer rating of 91.2. Also added 311 rushing attempts for 1,201 yards and 10 rushing touchdowns, plus one reception for 17 yards.
- Has appeared in five career playoff games, completing 107-of-166 passes (64.5%) for 1,338 yards, 12 touchdowns and three interceptions, good for a passer rating of 105.9. Mayfield ranks first in NFL history in postseason passer rating (min. 150 attempts).
- Is the only quarterback in franchise history to be selected to multiple Pro Bowls.
- In 2024, for the second season in a row, Mayfield established career highs completions (407), passing yards (4,500), passing touchdowns (41) and completion percentage (71.4%). He also set a new career high in passer rating (106.8).
- Established new Buccaneers single-season franchise records in completion percentage (71.4%) and passer rating (106.8) in 2024.
- In 2024, became the fourth player in NFL history to record a season with 4,000+ passing yards, 40+ touchdowns and a 70% or higher completion rate, joining Drew Brees (2011), Joe Burrow (2024) and Aaron Rodgers (2020).
- During his first season with the Buccaneers in 2023, was voted a team captain and established then-career highs in completions (364), passing yards (4,044), passing touchdowns (28) and completion percentage (64.3%).

- Was 1-of-2 players in the NFL in 2023 to throw for 28-or-more touchdowns and 10-or-fewer interceptions.
- Became the first visiting quarterback in the history of Lambeau Field to earn a perfect 158.3 passer rating (12/17/23).
- In 2020, led the Cleveland Browns to their first playoff appearance since 2002 and their first playoff victory in 26 years.
- In 2018, led all rookies in passing yards (3,725), passing touchdowns (27), completion percentage (63.8) and passer rating (93.7).
- Set NFL rookie record with 27 passing touchdowns in 2018.
- Became the third player in NFL history to record at least 3,500 passing yards and 20-or-more touchdowns in each of their first three seasons, joining Peyton Manning (1998-2000) and Andrew Luck (2012-14).
- Owns the second-longest streak of consecutive games with a passing touchdown to begin a career, having done so in his first 17 career games. He trails only Kurt Warner (23; 1999-2000).

2024 HIGHLIGHTS:

- Was named a team captain for the 2024 season.
- Completed 24-of-30 passes (80.0%) for 289 yards and four touchdowns in the Week 1 victory over the Washington Commanders, earning a 146.4 passer rating.
- Mayfield's 146.4 passer rating was the highest in the NFL in Week 1, and it marked his fourth-highest passer rating in a game in his career. It also represented Tampa Bay's second-highest Week 1 passer rating in franchise history, trailing only Ryan Fitzpatrick's 156.2 in Week 1 of the 2018 season at New Orleans.
- Mayfield's performance in Week 1 marked his fourth career game with four-or-more touchdown passes and a passer rating of 140.0-or-higher, tied with Aaron Rodgers for the third-most such games by a player in his first seven seasons in NFL history. Only Pro Football Hall of Famers Peyton Manning (six) and Kurt Warner (five) had more.
- Mayfield's 146.4 passer rating against the Commanders in Week 1 denoted the highest single-game mark by an opposing passer with 30-or-more pass attempts in Washington's history. Only Y.A. Tittle's mark of 151.4 on Oct. 28, 1962, was higher.
- In the Week 2 victory at Detroit, Mayfield completed 12-of-19 passes for 185 yards and one passing touchdown, earning a 90.9 passer rating. He also added five carries for 34 yards (6.8 avg.) and one rushing touchdown.
- Mayfield's 34 rushing yards in Week 2 marked the fifth-most in any game of his career. He scored the decisive touchdown on an 11-yard keeper, which marked the then-longest touchdown run of his career.
- In Week 3 vs. Denver, completed 25-of-33 passes (75.8%) for 163 yards and one touchdown to earn a passer rating of 83.3. Mayfield's 75.8% completion rate was tied for his fifth-highest mark in a game in which he had recorded 30+ pass attempts.
- Through three games, Mayfield had completed 61-of-82 passes (74.4%) with six touchdowns, compared to two interceptions, for a passer rating of 110.7.

- After three weeks, Mayfield's six passing touchdowns were tied for second-most in the NFL, while his 74.4% completion rate ranked third and his 110.7 passer rating ranked fourth.

X Signed by the Buccaneers as an unrestricted free agent on March 30, 2023.

AWARDS & ACCOLADES:

X 1x AFC Special Teams Player of the Week (Week 5, 2022).

X Pro Football Focus First-Team All-Pro (2023)

X Has appeared in 81 career games between the Los Angeles Chargers, San Francisco 49ers, Indianapolis Colts, Jacksonville Jaguars, New York Jets, Cleveland Browns and Tampa Bay Buccaneers. In his career, has converted 126-of-148 (85.1%) field goal tries and 175-of-179 (97.8%) extra point attempts for a total of 553 kicking points.

X Has appeared in three career playoff games, converting 6-of-7 (85.7%) field goal tries and 7-of-7 (100%) extra points for a total of 25 kicking points.

X McLaughlin's 93.7% field goal success rate (59-of-63) as a member of the Buccaneers is the best mark in franchise history (min. 50 attempts).

X Has successfully converted 32-of-39 (82.1%) attempts from 50-or-more yards, the second-highest success rate in NFL history among players with at least 30 attempts.

X Has established a new Buccaneers single-season franchise record for field goal percentage on two occasions, most recently in 2024 when he went 30-for-32 (93.8%). Previously accomplished the feat in 2023 (93.5% – 29-of-31).

X Set a Buccaneers franchise record for consecutive regular season field goals made between 10/26/23–10/21/24 when he converted 30 straight field goals without a miss.

2024 HIGHLIGHTS:

X In the Week 1 victory over the Washington Commanders, McLaughlin went 3-for-3 on field goal tries, converting from 56, 34 and 29 yards out. He also went 4-for-4 on point after tries, combining for a total of 13 kicking points.

X McLaughlin's three made field goals in Week 1 extended his regular season consecutive field goals made streak to 21.

X McLaughlin went 2-for-2 on field goal attempts in the Week 2 win at Detroit, converting from 30 yards and 55 yards out. He also added two extra point tries for a total of eight kicking points.

X With his two field makes in Week 2, McLaughlin extended his regular season consecutive field goals made streak to 23.

X Saw action on one point after try in Week 3 vs. Denver, converting it successfully.

X In the Week 4 win over Philadelphia, successfully converted 2-of-2 field goal attempts, connecting from 21 and 52 yards out. Also went 3-of-4 on point after tries for a total of 9 kicking points.

X Went 3-for-3 on field goal attempts in Week 5 at Atlanta, converting successfully from 53, 32, and 53 yards out. Also added three extra points for a total of 12 kicking points.

- With his three made field goals in Week 5, McLaughlin set a new franchise record for consecutive field goals made at 28, surpassing Connor Barth (25).
- In Week 5, McLaughlin became the first Buccaneers kicker with two-or-more made field goals from 50+ yards in a single game since Connor Barth in 2012.
- In the Week 6 win over New Orleans, went 1-for-1 on field goals, converting from 26 yards out to extend his franchise-record consecutive field goals made streak to 29. Also added six extra points, for a total of nine kicking points in Tampa Bay's 55-27 win.
- In Week 7 vs. Baltimore, went one-for-two on field goal tries, adding two point after attempts for a total of five kicking points. By making his first field goal of the night, McLaughlin extended his franchise record for consecutive regular season field goals made to 30 before snapping it later in the game.
- In Week 8 vs. Atlanta, McLaughlin converted his only field goal try of the day, connecting from 52 yards out. He added three extra points for a total of six kicking points.
- Converted his only field goal try of the night in Week 9 at Kansas City, adding three extra point makes for a total of six kicking points.
- With his made 47-yard field goal in Week 9, McLaughlin had made 31 consecutive field goals inside of 50 yards dating back to the 2023 season.
- In Week 10 vs. San Francisco, he converted both of his field goal tries on the day, connecting from 26 and 30 yards out. He extended his streak to 35 consecutive field goals made from within 50 yards.
- Went 1-for-1 on field goal tries in the Week 12 win over the New York Giants, converting from 23 yards out. Also added three extra point makes for a total of six kicking points.
- In the Week 13 win at Carolina, converted 4-of-5 field goal tries, successfully connecting from 27, 26, 51, and 30 yards out. Also added two extra point tries for a total of 14 kicking points.
- In the Week 13 win, McLaughlin made a 50-yard game-tying field goal as time expired in the fourth quarter, and then hit a game-winning 30-yard field goal in overtime.

NFL: 2ND YEAR
ACQ: D3B, 2024

ACQUIRED BY BUCS:

- Selected by the Buccaneers as a third-round pick (92nd overall) in the 2024 NFL Draft.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- Has started 12-of-13 career games for the Buccaneers, bringing in 37 receptions for 461 yards and eight receiving touchdowns. Also added four carries for 43 rushing yards.
- Has started his lone postseason contest, totaling two receptions for 41 yards.
- Ranked second among all rookies in 2024 with 8 receiving touchdowns. His 8 TD catches were the third-most by a rookie in franchise history, trailing only Mike Evans (12 in 2014) and Mike Williams (11 in 2010).
- In 2024, McMillan brought in at least one touchdown catch in the final five games (Weeks 14-18), tied for the second-longest such streak by a rookie in NFL history (trailing only Randy Moss, 7, in 1998).
- Was 1-of-2 players to record a receiving touchdown in five-or-more straight games in 2024, joining the NFL's triple-crown winner in Cincinnati's Ja'Marr Chase.

2024 HIGHLIGHTS:

- Made his NFL debut in the Week 1 victory over Washington, playing 53-of-64 offensive snaps – the most snaps among all Tampa Bay wide receivers – and finishing with one reception for 32 yards and a touchdown.
- With his performance in Week 1, he became the sixth wide receiver in franchise history to bring in a touchdown pass in his first career game, and the first to do so on his first career reception since Trey Palmer accomplished the feat in Week 1 of the 2023 season.
- Started at wide receiver in the Week 2 victory at Detroit, playing 38-of-48 offensive snaps and hauling in one reception for 21 yards.
- Played 44-of-57 offensive snaps in Week 3 vs. Denver, bringing in one reception for six yards.
- Was inactive for the Weeks 4-5.
- Appeared in a reserve capacity in the Week 6 win over New Orleans.
- Played 49-of-82 offensive snaps in Week 7 vs. Baltimore, bringing in a then-career-high three receptions for 15 yards. Also added his first career carry for 11 yards.
- In Week 8 vs. Atlanta, played 59-of-73 offensive snaps and hauled in a then-season-high four receptions for 35 yards.
- Was inactive for Week 9 at Kansas City.
- Did not play in Week 10 vs. San Francisco.
- Started at wide receiver and played 41-of-65 offensive snaps in the Week 12 win over the New York Giants, finishing with one catch for 11 yards.
- In the Week 13 win at Carolina, started at wide receiver and played 61-of-80 offensive snaps, finishing with two receptions for 25 yards.
- Put forth a season-best effort in the Week 14 win over Las Vegas, starting at wide receiver and playing 49-of-62 offensive snaps. He finished with a career-high-tying four receptions for career highs in receiving yards (59) and receiving touchdowns (two).

- In Week 14, McMillan became the first Tampa Bay rookie with multiple receiving touchdowns in a single game since O.J. Howard did so in Week 7 of the 2017 season against Buffalo.
- Started at wide receiver and played 46-of-72 offensive snaps in the Week 15 win over the Los Angeles Chargers, establishing then-season-highs in receptions (five) and receiving yards (75), while adding a touchdown catch.
- McMillan's touchdown catch in Week 15 gave him four on the season – the most by a Buccaneers rookie since tight end O.J. Howard had six in 2017.
- In Week 16 at Dallas, played 60-of-72 offensive snaps and tied his season-high with five receptions for 57 yards and one receiving touchdown.
- His touchdown catch in Week 16 marked his third straight game with a receiving touchdown, and his fifth touchdown grab of the season.
- With his score in Week 16, McMillan became the third rookie in team history with touchdown receptions in three consecutive games, joining Mike Evans (four consecutive games in 2014) and Mike Williams (three in 2010). He also joined Marvin Harrison Jr. as the second rookie to accomplish that feat in 2024.
- In the Week 17 win over the Carolina Panthers, started at wide receiver and played 53-of-77 offensive snaps. Brought in five receptions for 51 yards and two touchdowns.
- Week 17 marked McMillan's fourth straight games with at least one score, collecting six touchdown receptions during that stretch. His four straight games with a receiving touchdown is tied for the fourth-longest streak by a rookie in NFL history.
- In Week 17, McMillan became the fifth player in 2024 to post at least four straight games with four-or-more receptions, 50+ receiving yards and a touchdown reception, joining Davante Adams, Ja'Marr Chase, Justin Jefferson and Terry McLaurin. McMillan also became the fourth rookie in NFL history to post four-such straight games, joining Tank Dell (2023 HOU), Amon-Ra St. Brown (2021 DET) and Odell Beckham Jr. (2014 NYG).
- With his performance in Week 17, McMillan became the third player (fifth time) to log six-or-more receiving touchdowns over a four-game span in the 2024 season, joining Terry McLaurin and Ja'Marr Chase (three times, some overlapping). He became the second Buccaneer to ever accomplish that feat, joining Mike Evans.
- In the Week 18 victory over New Orleans, played 59-of-67 offensive snaps and brought in five receptions for 74 yards and a receiving touchdown. It marked his fifth straight game with a receiving touchdown, tied for the second-longest streak by a rookie in NFL history, trailing only Randy Moss (seven games).
- McMillan's five straight games with a receiving touchdown was the third-longest streak in the NFL in 2024, trailing only Amon-Ra St. Brown (8 games) and Mark Andrews (6 games).
- In Week 18, McMillan was 1-of-2 players in 2024 to record seven-or-more touchdown catches over a five-game span, joining Ja'Marr Chase.
- Among all rookies in NFL history, McMillan's seven touchdown receptions were tied for the third-most across a five-game span, trailing only Randy Moss in 1998 (9) and Odell Beckham Jr. in 2014 (8).
- McMillan's seven touchdowns over his final five games of the season were tied for the most by any Buccaneer over a five-game span in club history, joining Mike Evans in 2021 and Jimmie Giles in 1985.
- McMillan's eight receiving touchdowns in 2024 were the third-most by a Buccaneers rookie in franchise history, trailing Mike Evans (12 in 2014) and Mike Williams (11 in 2010). His eight receiving touchdowns ranked second among all rookies in 2024, trailing only Brian Thomas Jr. (10).
- Started at wide receiver in the Wild Card round against Washington, playing 44-of-48 offensive snaps and finishing with two receptions for 41 yards.

COLLEGE:

- Appeared in 38 career games for the University of Washington (2020-23), bringing in 164 receptions for 2,143 yards and 17 receiving touchdowns.
- Dating back to 1996, he ranked among University of Washington program leaders in receptions (fifth), receiving yards (sixth), and receiving touchdowns (seventh) at the time that he was drafted.
- As a redshirt junior in 2023, was limited due to injury but still appeared in nine games, bringing in 45 receptions for 559 yards and five receiving touchdowns.
- McMillan led all players in the 2024 College Football Playoff National Championship game in receptions, with six, and scored the game's lone receiving touchdown.
- Enjoyed his most productive collegiate season as a redshirt sophomore in 2022, when he received All-Pac-12 honorable mention recognition after playing 13 games and posting career highs in receptions (79), receiving yards (1,098) and receiving touchdowns (nine). He led the Huskies in both receptions and receiving touchdowns.
- As a redshirt freshman in 2021, appeared in 10 games and finished with 39 receptions for 470 yards and three receiving touchdowns.
- During his true freshman campaign in 2020, he saw action in three games and brought in one reception for 16 yards.

ACQUIRED BY BUCS:

- Selected by the Buccaneers as a third-round pick (89th overall) in the 2024 NFL Draft.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- Has started 6-of-13 career games for Tampa Bay, compiling 53 tackles (four for loss), seven passes defensed, three forced fumbles, two interceptions and two quarterback hits.
- Was 1-of-5 players with three-or-more forced fumbles and two-or-more interceptions in 2024, joining Jessie Bates III, Zaire Franklin, Eric Kendricks and Fred Warner. He became the first rookie to accomplish the feat since 2018.

2024 HIGHLIGHTS:

- Made his NFL debut in the Week 1 victory over Washington, playing 40-of-59 defensive snaps and finishing with two tackles.
- Started at nickel cornerback in the Week 2 victory at Detroit – while battling the flu – and finished with seven tackles (one for loss). Also added one special teams tackle.
- Played 41-of-68 defensive snaps in Week 3 vs. Denver, logging six tackles (one for loss) and one pass defensed.
- In the Week 4 victory over Philadelphia, played 45-of-57 defensive snaps and tallied one tackle and one quarterback hit.
- Played 86-of-87 defensive snaps in Week 5 at Atlanta, totaling a team-high and a then-career-high 11 tackles, one forced fumble and one pass defensed. It marked his first career forced fumble.
- Played 42-of-70 defensive snaps in the Week 6 win over New Orleans, finishing with five tackles, two passes defensed, one forced fumble, one quarterback hit and one interception. His forced fumble resulted in a 58-yard scoop-and-score by Antoine Winfield Jr.
- In Week 6, Smith was targeted seven times, yielding just two receptions for 19 yards and a passer rating of 0.0, according to Next Gen Stats.
- Per Pro Football Focus, Smith's 89.0 overall defensive grade ranked second among all cornerbacks in Week 6. His 89.0 grade registered as Tampa Bay's highest-graded defensive player in the Week 6 win.
- Through six weeks, Smith boasted a stat line that included: 4 passes defensed, 2 tackles for loss, 2 forced fumbles, 2 QB hits, 1 interception. He became the first rookie to hit that stat line in a season since 2020, and he accomplished the feat in just six games.
- Played 14 defensive snaps in Week 7 vs. Baltimore before leaving with injury.
- Was inactive for Week 8 vs. Atlanta.
- Started in Week 9 at Kansas City, playing 72-of-85 defensive snaps and posting nine tackles, one forced fumble and one pass defensed.
- With his performance in Week 9, Smith became the third rookie since 2022 with three-or-more forced fumbles in a season and the first rookie since Atlanta's A.J. Terrell in 2020 with three-or-more forced fumbles and one-or-more interceptions in a season.
- Through 9 Weeks, Smith's three forced fumbles were tied for the third-most in the NFL and most among rookies.
- Through 9 Weeks, was one of three players in the NFL with three-or-more forced fumbles and five-or-more passes defensed, joining Atlanta's Jessie Bates III and San Francisco's Fred Warner.

ACQUIRED BY BUCS:

- Signed by Tampa Bay as a college free agent on May 12, 2023.

AWARDS & ACCOLADES:

- 1x NFC Offensive Player of the Week (Week 6, 2024)

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- Has appeared in 28 career games for Tampa Bay, carrying the ball 65 times for 331 yards (5.1 avg.) and two touchdowns. Has also added 11 receptions for 118 yards and one receiving touchdown.
- Also serves as a kick returner, logging 15 career returns for 410 yards (27.3 avg.).
- Has appeared in one career postseason game for Tampa Bay, appearing on special teams.

2024 HIGHLIGHTS:

- Appeared on special teams and in a reserve capacity on offense in the Week 1 victory over the Washington Commanders.
- Appeared on special teams in the Week 2 win at Detroit.
- Appeared on special teams and in a reserve capacity on offense in Week 3 vs. Denver, recording one carry for four yards.
- In the Week 4 win over Philadelphia, appeared on special teams and in a reserve capacity on offense, tallying one carry for three yards.
- In Week 5 at Atlanta, recorded kick returns of 53 yards and 33 yards – both surpassing his previous career long. The 53-yard return was the longest by a Tampa Bay player since Deven Thompkins on Dec. 11, 2022 at San Francisco.
- With his returns in Week 5, helped generate a team average of 36.5 yards per kickoff return – the fourth-highest mark in a game with three-or-more returns in franchise history.
- Enjoyed a breakout game in the Week 6 victory at New Orleans, earning NFC Offensive Player of the Week honors after amassing 192 scrimmage yards and two touchdowns in the form of 136 rushing yards on 14 carries (9.7 avg.) and 56 receiving yards on three receptions. Entering the game, Tucker had totaled 30 rushing yards and 23 receiving yards in his career.
- With his NFC Offensive Player of the Week honors in Week 6, Tucker became the first Tampa Bay running back since Leonard Fournette during the 2021 season (Week 12) to earn such recognition. He also joined former Tampa Bay running back Bobby Rainey as the only undrafted running backs in team history to earn player of the week recognition.
- In Week 6, Tucker became the fourth running back (sixth time) to amass 192-or-more scrimmage yards and score two-or-more touchdowns in a single game, joining Doug Martin (2012, twice), Warrick Dunn (2000, twice), and James Wilder (1984).
- Tucker led all players in Week 6 in rushing yards, rushing yards per attempt and scrimmage yards, while tying for the second-most receiving yards among running backs. Tucker was 1-of-2 players with both a receiving touchdown and a rushing touchdown in Week 6, alongside Houston Texans running back Joe Mixon.

- Tucker's 9.7 yards per carry in Week 6 was the third-highest mark in club history among players with 10+ carries in a single game.
- The 192-yard outburst from Tucker in Week 6 was the then-third-highest scrimmage yard total by any NFL player in a game in the 2024 season, trailing only Baltimore Ravens running back Derrick Henry (209 in Week 4) and Cincinnati Bengals wide receiver Ja'Marr Chase (193 in Week 5)
- Per Pro Football Focus, was Tampa Bay's highest-graded player in the Week 6 win over New Orleans, earning a 92.4 overall offensive grade. His 92.4 grade was also the highest mark among all running backs in Week 6.
- In Week 7 vs. Baltimore, played 16 offensive snaps and totaled 38 scrimmage yards by way of 29 rushing yards on five carries and one reception for nine yards.
- Appeared on special teams and in a reserve capacity on offense in Week 8 vs. Atlanta. Totaled two rushes for three yards and one reception for 12 yards.
- In Week 9 at Kansas City, logged 17 scrimmage yards across three carries for 11 yards and one reception for six yards. Also appeared on special teams.
- Appeared on special teams in Week 10 vs. San Francisco.
- In the Week 12 win over the New York Giants, carried the ball four times and scored the game's first touchdown on a one-yard rush. Added one catch for seven yards.
- Appeared on special teams in the Week 13 win at Carolina.
- In the Week 14 win over Las Vegas, appeared on special teams and played 11 offensive snaps, contributing 47 rushing yards across three carries.

- Started all 12 games as a junior (2022), rushing 206 times for 1,060 yards (5.1 avg.) and 11 touchdowns and added 36 receptions for 254 yards and two touchdowns. His 1,060 yards rushing were the 12th-highest total in program history and his 36 receptions are the third-highest single-season total by a running back in program history. First running back in school history to have over 1,000 rushing yards and 250 receiving yards in back-to-back seasons.
- Started all 12 games as a sophomore (2021), recording 246 carries for 1,496 rushing yards and 12 touchdowns, also added 20 receptions for 255 yards and two touchdowns. His 1,496 rushing yards were sixth in the nation and broke Joe Morris' 42-year-old Syracuse single-season rushing record (1,372 yards).
- Also set the school record for quickest player to rush for 1,000 yards in school history (eight games). Set the program record for most 100-yard games in a season (nine) and most consecutive 100 yards games (seven).
- Finished fourth in the nation in yards per game (124.7), fifth in the nation in all-purpose yards (145.9 yards per game), and fourth nationally in yards from scrimmage (1,751) which also ranked third in school history. Became the first player in program history to rush for 100+ yards and have over 100 yards receiving in a single game (UAlbany 9/18).

- Was named one-of-15 semifinalists for The Maxwell Award, presented annually to the nation's most outstanding college football player and was named First Team All-ACC, earning most votes out of anyone on All-ACC Team. Also ran on the Orange track and field team during the indoor season, finishing with a 6.90 second career best mark.
- Appeared in nine games with seven starts as a freshman (2020), totaling 137 carries for 626 yards and four touchdowns, also added eight receptions for 113 yards. Became starting running back four games into the season following a rash of injuries and opt outs at the position. Ran for the third-most yards in a single season by a Syracuse freshman (626), which was also the fourth-most in the FBS by a true freshman this season. His three 100+ yard games are the second-most in a single season by a Syracuse freshman ever.

- Attended Calvert Hall High School (Towson, MD).
- Played on both sides of the ball as a running back and cornerback and rushed for 1,204 yards and 14 touchdowns as a senior.
- Sprinter for the Calvert Hall indoor and outdoor track teams, winning the MIAA indoor title in the 55-meter dash two years in a row, as well as the 100-meter and 200-meter sprints as a junior.

X Has started 3-of-4 playoff contests, totaling 35 rushing attempts for 169 yards (4.8 avg.). Has also added 11 receptions for 89 yards and one receiving touchdown.

X Was 1-of-6 players with 1,500+ scrimmage yards and nine-or-more scrimmage touchdowns in 2023 (also, Breece Hall, Tyreek Hill, CeeDee Lamb, Christian McCaffrey, and Amon-Ra St. Brown).

X From the 2022-24 seasons, joined Christian McCaffrey as the only players in the NFL with 10-or-more rushing touchdowns and 10-or-more receiving touchdowns.

2024 HIGHLIGHTS:

X Started at running back in the Week 1 victory over Washington, playing 45-of-64 offensive snaps and amassing 106 yards from scrimmage across 75 receiving yards and 31 rushing yards. He recorded a then-career-high 107 yards after catch.

X Week 1 marked White's eighth game with 100+ yards from scrimmage since the start of the 2023 season.

X White and teammate Bucky Irving became the first pair of Tampa Bay running backs to each generate 75+ yards from scrimmage since Peyton Barber and Jacquizz Rodgers did so on Oct. 23, 2016 vs. San Francisco.

X In the Week 2 win at Detroit, was limited by injury but still tallied 23 scrimmage yards across 18 rushing yards and five receiving yards.

X Played 42-of-57 offensive snaps in Week 3 vs. Denver, totaling 35 yards from scrimmage in the form of 17 rushing yards across six carries and five receptions for 18 yards.

X In the Week 4 victory over Philadelphia, played 45-of-77 offensive snaps and recorded 49 rushing yards across 10 attempts, adding 35 receiving yards on two receptions.

X Played 34-of-53 offensive snaps in Week 5 at Atlanta, totaling 72 rushing yards across 10 carries (7.2 avg.), including a then-career-long 56-yard run.

X White's Week 5 performance contributed to a Buccaneers offense that generated 160 yards on the ground – its most in a single game since Nov. 13, 2022 against the Seattle Seahawks in Munich, Germany.

X Was inactive for Week 6 at New Orleans.

- In Week 7 vs. Baltimore, played 39-of-82 offensive snaps and amassed two total touchdowns and 111 yards from scrimmage in the form of 71 receiving yards and two touchdown catches across six receptions, and 40 rushing yards on 10 carries (4.0 avg.).
- Week 7 marked White's second career game with multiple touchdowns, and his second game of the season with 100+ yards from scrimmage.
- In Week 7, White surpassed Cadillac Williams (134) for the sixth-most receptions by a running back in franchise history and surpassed Gary Anderson (1,021) for the eighth-most receiving yards by a running back in franchise history. White also became the ninth running back in franchise history with 1,000+ career receiving yards for Tampa Bay.
- Started at running back and played 41-of-73 offensive snaps in Week 8 vs. Atlanta. Totaled 67 yards from scrimmage, contributing one receiving touchdown.
- White's touchdown catch in Week 8 marked the eighth of his career, to go with his seven career rushing touchdowns. White became one-of-three players to have eight-or-more receiving touchdowns and seven-or-more rushing touchdowns since he entered the league in 2022, joining San Francisco's Deebo Samuel and Christian McCaffrey.
- In Week 9 at Kansas City, contributed 35 scrimmage yards across three carries for 19 yards and three receptions for 16 yards. Added the game's first score – a rushing touchdown.
- In Week 9, White became the ninth player since 2000 to record eight-or-more receiving and rushing touchdowns through a player's first three seasons, joining Reggie Bush, Austin Ekeler, Kareem Hunt, David Johnson, Alvin Kamara, Christian McCaffrey, Deebo Samuel and Brian Westbrook.
- Played 37-of-61 offensive snaps in Week 10 vs. San Francisco, contributing 70 scrimmage yards and one touchdown in the form of 10 carries for 31 yards and a team-high six receptions for 39 yards with a touchdown catch.

- White's touchdown in Week 10 marked his fourth straight game with a score – tied for the longest-such streak of his career.
- In Week 10, White surpassed Doug Martin (1,091) for the seventh-most receiving yards by a running back in franchise history and tied Warrick Dunn and James Wilder (nine) for the second-most receiving touchdowns by a running back in franchise history.
- Played 32-of-65 offensive snaps in the Week 12 win over the New York Giants, contributing 47 scrimmage yards and one rushing touchdown. His touchdown rush in Week 12 marked his fifth straight game with a score.
- In the Week 13 win at Carolina, played 41-of-80 offensive snaps and carried the ball 11 times for 76 yards (6.9 avg.). Also added one reception for two yards.
- In Week 13, White rattled off a 38-yard run in overtime that helped set up Tampa Bay's game-winning field goal.
- Played 47-of-62 offensive snaps in the Week 14 win over Las Vegas, notching two touchdowns while amassing 109 scrimmage yards. He totaled a season-high 90 rushing yards and one rushing touchdown on a season-high 17 carries (5.3 avg.) while adding two receptions for 19 yards and one score. It marked White's third career multi-touchdown game, but the first in which he recorded a score on the ground and in the air.

- With his scores in Week 14, White joined San Francisco's Christian McCaffrey as the only players to have 10+ rushing touchdowns and 10+ receiving touchdowns since the start of the 2022 season.
- In Week 14, White surpassed Warrick Dunn and James Wilder (nine) for the second-most receiving touchdowns by a running back in franchise history, trailing only Mike Alstott (13).
- Played 37-of-72 offensive snaps in the Week 15 win over the L.A. Chargers, contributing 81 yards from scrimmage (64 rushing, 17 receiving), while averaging 4.3 yards per rush attempt and securing an 11-yard touchdown reception.
- White's touchdown catch in Week 15 was his sixth receiving touchdown and his ninth scrimmage touchdown of the season, making him 1-of-2 players with at least six receiving touchdowns and three-or-more rushing touchdowns through Week 15 (Miami Dolphins RB De'Von Achane).
- In Week 16 at Dallas, played 36-of-72 offensive snaps and tallied seven receptions for 50 yards receiving, surpassing Charles Sims (1,190) for the sixth-most receiving yards by a running back in franchise history.
- Started at running back, playing 42-of-77 offensive snaps in the Week 17 win over Carolina. Finished with 34 yards from scrimmage by way of six carries for 30 yards (5.0 avg.) and one reception for four yards.

- Appeared in a reserve capacity on offense in the Week 18 victory over New Orleans, playing 18 offensive snaps.

HISTORICAL HIGHLIGHTS

PRE-1974

TAMPA STADIUM DEDICATED (11/4/67) – Tennessee defeats the University of Tampa, 38-0 in the first contest played in the facility. The 46,700-seat stadium costs $4.1 million to build.

FIRST PRESEASON GAME (8/10/68) – Washington defeats Atlanta 16-14 before a crowd of 42,000 in first NFL action at new stadium.

EXPANSION COMMITTEE FORMED (11/68) – Suncoast Pro Football Committee is formed with the purpose of securing an NFL franchise for Tampa Bay. The group functions until 1972 when the Tampa Chamber of Commerce formally appoints the West Coast NFL Task Force headed by Tampa businessman J. Leonard Levy.

TAMPA BAY AWARDED FRANCHISE (4/24) – Tampa Bay is awarded the league's 27th franchise. As part of the award, Tampa Stadium will be enlarged to 72,000 seats.

MCCLOSKEY SELECTED AS OWNER (10/30) – Philadelphia construction executive Tom McCloskey is awarded the new Tampa Bay franchise, but soon declines ownership.

CULVERHOUSE AWARDED OWNERSHIP (12/5) – Hugh F. Culverhouse, a Jacksonville attorney and real estate investor who had previously declined ownership of the Seattle franchise due to geographic reasons, is awarded the Tampa Bay franchise.

TEAM NICKNAME ANNOUNCED (2/15) – After reviewing over 400 name possibilities, an advisory board announces the team's new nickname will be the Buccaneers.

BUCCANEERS UNVEIL LOGO AND COLORS (4/15) – The team unveils a logo designed by Tampa Tribune artist Lamar Sparkman consisting of Florida orange, white and red.

STADIUM LEASE APPROVED (4/21) – The Tampa Sports Authority unanimously approves a 30-year lease agreement with the Buccaneers for use of Tampa Stadium. Three days later, the Tampa City Council votes 6-1 to approve the lease and expansion to 72,000 seats.

STADIUM EXPANSION BEGINS (7/9) – Ground is broken for the expansion of Tampa Stadium, financed by the sale of $13 million in bonds by the Tampa Sports Authority.

MCKAY NAMED COACH (10/31) – John McKay leaves the University of Southern California where he had coached four national championship teams, signing a five-year contract to coach the Buccaneers.

BUCS PLACED IN DIVISION (11/4) – Tampa Bay is placed in the AFC West with the understanding that it will switch to the NFC Central the following season.

BUCS WIN FIRST OVERALL SELECTION (12/27) – In a drawing held prior to the Pittsburgh vs. Baltimore playoff game, Bucs owner Hugh Culverhouse is awarded the first pick in the following year's NFL college draft while Seattle receives the initial pick in the veteran allocation draft.

WARNER BUYS LARGE SHARE OF TEAM (2/15) – Cincinnati businessman Marvin L. Warner, president of Warner National Corp. and a longtime friend of Hugh Culverhouse, buys a large share of the team.

VETERAN ALLOCATION DRAFT (3/30) – The Buccaneers stock their roster by adding 39 players through the NFL's veteran allocation draft.

FIRST TRADE ANNOUNCED (4/2) – The Bucs make the first trade in franchise history, acquiring former Heisman Trophy winner QB Steve Spurrier from the San Francisco 49ers for two players and a second-round draft choice.

SELMON DRAFTED (4/8) – Tampa Bay takes Lee Roy Selmon with the first selection in the NFL college draft.

INAUGURAL SEASON BEGINS (7/31) – In the team's first-ever preseason action, the Bucs lose 26-3 at the hands of the Los Angeles Rams at the L.A. Coliseum. PK Paul Rajecki's 18-yard FG goes down as the first points in team history.

FIRST PRESEASON VICTORY (8/14) – The Buccaneers win their first preseason game, defeating the Atlanta Falcons 17-3 at the Jacksonville Gator Bowl.

REGULAR SEASON OPENER (9/12) – Tampa Bay loses its first regular season game 20-0 at Houston.

GREEN SCORES FIRST REGULAR SEASON POINTS (9/26) – In a 14-9 loss to the Buffalo Bills, K Dave Green connects on a 39-yard FG, posting the franchise's first regular season points.

FIRST REGULAR SEASON VICTORY (12/11) – The Bucs tie an NFL record with three interceptions returned for TDs and end 26 games of frustration with their first regular season victory, a 33-14 win at New Orleans. Over 8,000 fans greet the team when it returns to One Buccaneer Place.

BACK-TO-BACK WINS (12/18) – Tampa Bay wins its second game in a row and first at home, beating the St. Louis Cardinals 17-7.

DUBOSE RUNS FOR 100 YARDS (10/15) – RB Jimmy DuBose becomes the first Buc to rush for 100 yards in a game (109 yards on 24 carries) as the Bucs lose on the road to the Giants 17-14.

BUCS REACH .500 (10/22) – Tampa Bay defeats Chicago 33-19 to up its record to 4-4, but injuries ultimately cripple the team during the second half of the season.

CULVERHOUSE BUYS CONTROLLING INTEREST (1/3) – Hugh Culverhouse purchases Marvin Warner's minority interest, thereby gaining control of the team.

PEAR BECOMES FIRST PRO BOWL BUC (1/29) – DT Dave Pear becomes the first Buccaneer to play and start in the Pro Bowl.

BUCS JUMP OUT TO HOTTEST START OF SEASON (9/30) – The Buccaneers lay claim to the best record in the league by beating the Bears 17-13 at Chicago and running their record to 5-0, the best start in team history and a franchise record for consecutive victories that would not be matched until 1997.

BELL REACHES 1,000-YARD MARK (11/25) – RB Ricky Bell becomes the first rusher in team history to reach 1,000 yards after compiling 101 yards on the ground in a 23-22 loss to the Minnesota Vikings. Bell eventually finishes the season with 1,263 rushing yards.

BUCS CLINCH FIRST-EVER NFC CENTRAL TITLE (12/16) – The Bucs defeat the Kansas City Chiefs 3-0 in a torrential downpour in Tampa to win the NFC Central Division and earn the first-ever playoff berth in team history. Neil O'Donoghue drills a 19-yard field goal for the game's only points as RB Ricky Bell gains 137 yards on the ground.

SELMON NAMED NFL DEFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE YEAR (12/20) – DE Lee Roy Selmon becomes first player in team history to be named NFL Defensive Player of the Year. Selmon recorded 117 tackles, two fumble recoveries, three forced fumbles and 11 sacks during the 1979 regular season.

TAMPA BAY WINS FIRST PLAYOFF GAME (12/29) – Led by RB Ricky Bell's 142-yard, two-touchdown performance, the Bucs defeat the Philadelphia Eagles 24-17 in their first-ever playoff appearance.

BUCS FINISH ONE GAME SHORT OF THE SUPER BOWL (1/6) – The team's first playoff season comes to an end as the Bucs lose 9-0 to the Los Angeles Rams in the NFC Championship Game played in Tampa Stadium.

MCKAY GIVEN CONTRACT EXTENSION (1/7) – Head Coach John McKay is given a five-year contract extension. It is also announced that he will become the team's president upon his retirement from coaching.

SELMON BECOMES SECOND PRO BOWLER (1/29) – DE Lee Roy Selmon becomes the team's second player to see Pro Bowl action.

TAMPA BAY MAKES PRIME TIME DEBUT (9/11) – The Buccaneers avenge the previous January's NFC Championship Game defeat (9-0) with a 10-9 victory over the Los Angeles Rams in Tampa Bay's first-ever appearance on ABC's prime time football series (Thursday night game).

BUCS RUN WILD IN WIN OVER GIANTS (11/2) – Tampa Bay running backs account for a team record 244 rushing yards (later surpassed) en route to a 30-13 victory over the N.Y. Giants.

TAMPA BAY DEFEATS ATLANTA, MOVES INTO FIRST PLACE (12/6) – The Buccaneers, led by QB Doug Williams' season-best 336 passing yards, pull out a 24-23 victory over the Atlanta Falcons. The win is Tampa Bay's third in a row and places the team in sole possession of first place in the NFC Central.

BUCS CLINCH SECOND NFC TITLE IN THREE YEARS (12/20) – Tampa Bay wins an exciting showdown in Detroit, besting the Lions 20-17 and securing the NFC Central Division title. WR Kevin House reels in an 84-yard touchdown strike from QB Doug Williams and DT David Logan returns a fumble recovery 21 yards for another Buc score.

1983

BUCS REACH PLAYOFFS FOR THIRD TIME IN FOUR YEARS (1/2) – QB Doug Williams leads a fierce rally from a 17-point halftime deficit as K Bill Capece's 33-yard field goal in overtime secures the Buccaneer victory. The team wins five of its last six games, securing each victory in the final minute.

DALLAS ENDS TAMPA BAY'S PLAYOFF HOPES (1/9) – The Dallas Cowboys defeat Tampa Bay 30-17 in the first round of playoffs.

WILDER SETS SINGLE-GAME RECORDS (11/6) – RB James Wilder sets team marks for combined yards (239) and rushing yards (219) in a game, helping the Bucs break into the win column for the first time.

TAMPA HOSTS SUPER BOWL XVIII (1/22) – The Los Angeles Raiders defeat the Washington Redskins 38-9 in front of a crowd of 72,920 as Tampa hosts its first Super Bowl.

WILDER RUNS FOR 172 YARDS IN WIN OVER PACKERS (9/30) – RB James Wilder carries the ball a record 43 times for 172 yards in leading Tampa Bay to a 30-27 overtime victory over the Green Bay Packers. Wilder eventually goes on to record the best rushing season in Bucs history, compiling 1,544 yards and 13 touchdowns on an NFL record 407 carries.

MCKAY ANNOUNCES RESIGNATION (11/5) – Head Coach John McKay announces his resignation, effective at the end of the season. The announcement comes one day after a 27-24 loss at Minnesota with the Bucs owning a 4-6 record.

MCKAY'S FINAL GAME (12/16) – Tampa Bay defeats the N.Y. Jets 41-21 in John McKay's final game as a head coach. He finishes an overall 171-128-9, including a 44-88-1 mark as the Bucs' head coach.

BENNETT NAMED HEAD COACH (1/23) – Hugh Culverhouse names former Atlanta Falcons head coach Leeman Bennett as John McKay's replacement.

SELMON PLAYS IN FINAL PRO BOWL (1/27) – DE Lee Roy Selmon plays in his sixth and final Pro Bowl. A herniated disk, which eventually required surgery, is discovered in his back at the game. The injury later forces Selmon to retire after missing the entire 1985 season.

BUCS RECORD FIRST SHUTOUT SINCE '79 (11/10) – Tampa Bay defeats the St. Louis Cardinals 16-0, marking the team's first shutout since 1979 (vs. Kansas City), and snapping a nine-game losing streak.

SELMON'S JERSEY RETIRED (9/7) – In halftime ceremonies at the season-opener versus San Francisco, six-time Pro Bowler DE Lee Roy Selmon's jersey is retired. Selmon's number 63 becomes the first and only jersey in team history to be retired.

BENNETT FIRED (12/29) – Leeman Bennett is relieved of his position after compiling a 4-28 record as the Bucs' head coach.

SELMON, BELL AND MCKAY HONORED (12/8) – DE Lee Roy Selmon, RB Ricky Bell and Head Coach John McKay are inducted into the team's Krewe of Honor.

WILLIAMSON FIRED (12/27) – Richard Williamson is relieved as head coach after compiling a 4-15 record.

WYCHE NAMED HEAD COACH (1/10) – Former Cincinnati Bengals Head Coach Sam Wyche is named as Richard Williamson's replacement. Wyche becomes the fifth head coach in Tampa Bay history.

WILLIAMS INDUCTED INTO KREWE OF HONOR (9/6) – QB Doug Williams becomes the third player inducted into the team's Krewe of Honor.

COBB RECORDS FIFTH-BEST RUSHING SEASON (12/27) – The Bucs defeat the Phoenix Cardinals 7-3 as RB Reggie Cobb caps off the fifth-best rushing performance in team history (1,171 yards).

BUCS SIGN NICKERSON AS AN UNRESTRICTED FREE AGENT (3/18) – Former Pittsburgh Steelers LB Hardy Nickerson signs a three-year contract to become the Buccaneers' first free agent acquisition under the NFL's new Collective Bargaining Agreement.

NICKERSON EARNS PRO BOWL SELECTION (12/29) – After compiling a team record 214 tackles, Nickerson is voted as the NFC's starting linebacker in the Pro Bowl and later becomes only the second Buccaneer to be named AP All-Pro.

CULVERHOUSE DIES (8/25) – Hugh Culverhouse dies of lung cancer at the age of 75. The team is placed under control of a three-man trust headed by Culverhouse's law partner Steven Story, along with Jack Donlan and Fred Cone.

MCKAY NAMED GENERAL MANAGER (11/8) – Vice-President/Football Operations Rich McKay is promoted to General Manager.

RHETT RUSHES FOR 192 YARDS (12/4) – RB Errict Rhett records the second-best single-game rushing total in team history when he rambles for 192 yards on 40 carries (third-most in team annals) in a 26-21 victory over the Washington Redskins. Rhett eventually becomes the first Buc rookie to rush for over 1,000 yards (1,011).

BUCS SELL OUT SEASON FINALE (12/24) – The Buccaneers are defeated by the Packers 34-19 in front of the first sellout at Tampa Stadium in two years (11/15/92).

BUCCANEERS SOLD TO MALCOLM GLAZER (1/16) – Steven Story announces that, pending NFL approval, the Buccaneers have been sold to Palm Beach investor Malcolm Glazer for the highest price ever paid for a sports franchise.

NFL APPROVES SALE OF TEAM (3/13) – NFL owners unanimously approve Malcolm Glazer's purchase of the Buccaneers one day after the NFL Finance Committee gave its unanimous approval at the Owner's Meetings in Phoenix, AZ.

BUCS SIGN DRAFT PICKS IN RECORD FASHION (5/10) – With the signing of second-round selection S Melvin Johnson, Tampa Bay becomes the quickest team in NFL history to sign all its draft picks.

SALE OF THE TEAM IS FINALIZED (6/30) – Malcolm Glazer officially becomes the team's new owner after the sale of the team is finalized in Charlotte, NC. Bryan and Joel Glazer are named executive vice-presidents.

SELMON INDUCTED INTO HALL OF FAME (7/29) – DE Lee Roy Selmon becomes the first Buccaneer inducted into the NFL Hall of Fame. Selmon is introduced by his brother and former Buc teammate Dewey.

BUCS MOVE INTO SOLE POSSESSION OF FIRST PLACE (10/15) – K Michael Husted's 51-yard game-winning FG propels Tampa Bay past Minnesota and into sole possession of first place in the NFC Central Division. The victory marks the first time since the final day of the 1981 season that the team has been alone in first place.

GRUBER MARKS RECORD START (11/26) – LT Paul Gruber makes his 118th career start, thus surpassing DE Lee Roy Selmon's team record of 117.

RHETT SURPASSES 1,000-YARD MARK (12/3) – RB Errict Rhett goes over 1,000 yards for the second consecutive year to become only the 12th player in NFL history to accomplish the feat in his first two league seasons.

WYCHE IS FIRED (12/27) – The team announces that Sam Wyche will not return as head coach in 1996. Wyche leaves his post with a 23-41 record.

DUNGY NAMED HEAD COACH (1/22) – Minnesota Defensive Coordinator Tony Dungy is named as the Buccaneers' sixth head coach.

NICKERSON RE-SIGNS WITH TEAM (2/22) – LB Hardy Nickerson, the Buccaneers' Most Valuable Player in 1993 and '95, agrees to a four-year deal to remain with the team.

COMMUNITY INVESTMENT TAX PASSES (9/3) – Hillsborough County voters pass the Community Investment Tax by a 53-47% margin. The tax will fund the construction of a new stadium and practice facility as well as various other community projects.

DUNGY WINS FIRST GAME (10/8) – Tony Dungy earns his first victory as Buccaneer head coach with a 24-13 victory over his former team, the Minnesota Vikings.

BUCS DEFEAT CHARGERS FOR FIRST CALIFORNIA WIN SINCE '80 (11/17) – Tampa Bay edges the San Diego Chargers 25-17 to earn its first victory in California since 1980 (24-23 vs. San Francisco).

GRUBER RE-SIGNS (2/13) – LT Paul Gruber, the team's designated franchise player and cornerstone of the Buc offensive line for the past eight years, signs a three-year deal to remain in Tampa.

BUCCANEERS UNVEIL NEW LOGO AND COLORS (4/9) – The team unveils its eagerly anticipated new logo and color scheme at a noon downtown ceremony. The new logo, consisting of a red pirate flag with a skull and crossed swords, draws instant rave reviews. The team colors are Buccaneer red, pewter, black and orange.

STATE SUPREME COURT RULES IN FAVOR OF COUNTY, BUCS (5/22) – The Florida State Supreme Court refuses former Tampa Mayor Bill Poe's opposition to the stadium. In a 7-0 decision, the Court rules all aspects of the tax are constitutional.

BUCS START SEASON WITH FIVE CONSECUTIVE WINS (9/28) – The Buccaneers match the franchise record for most consecutive wins at the start of a season with five. After a 13-6 season-opening defeat of the San Francisco 49ers, the team rolls on to road victories at Detroit (9/7) and Minnesota (9/14) and home defeats of Miami (9/21) and Arizona (9/28).

MAYBERRY ATTAINS CONSECUTIVE STARTS RECORD (10/26) – C Tony Mayberry achieves one of the more remarkable achievements in team history by surpassing Dave Logan's streak of 103 consecutive games started in the team's 10/26 contest versus Minnesota.

CULPEPPER BECOMES FIRST TO BAG TRIFECTA TWICE IN SAME SEASON (11/9) – DT Brad Culpepper enters the team's sack race with a three-sack performance against Arizona (9/28) in a week-five contest, becoming just the fifth player in team history to do so. Little more than a month later, he becomes the first player in team annals to accomplish the feat twice in the same season with a trio of sacks at Atlanta.

BUCS SET SINGLE-GAME ATTENDANCE MARK (12/7) – After setting a new single-game attendance record earlier in the season on 9/21 against Miami (73,314), the Bucs eclipse that mark when 73,523 are in attendance for the team's 6-17 loss to the Green Bay Packers.

BUCS TIE FRANCHISE RECORD FOR WINS (12/21) – By virtue of their season-ending 31-15 downing of the Chicago Bears, the Bucs match the club record for most regular season victories in a season with 10, assuring themselves an NFC Wild Card berth.

FIRST PLAYOFF GAME PLAYED IN TAMPA IN 15 YEARS (12/28) – The Buccaneers defeat the Detroit Lions 20-10 in front of a sellout crowd of 73,361 in the final game played at Houlihan's Stadium. The game is marked by outstanding individual performances, including FB Mike Alstott's team playoff-record 31-yard touchdown run in which he barrels through a variety of Lions defenders.

NFL-HIGH EIGHT BUCS PLAY IN PRO BOWL (2/1) – As further recognition of the team's dramatic rise in league prominence, a team-record and NFL-most eight Buc players are selected to play in the Pro Bowl. Joining third-time selection LB Hardy Nickerson are first timers FB Mike Alstott, LB Derrick Brooks, QB Trent Dilfer, RB Warrick Dunn, S John Lynch, C Tony Mayberry and DT Warren Sapp.

DUNGY RECEIVES NEW CONTRACT (3/11) – After tying the franchise record for victories in a season with 10, Head Coach Tony Dungy is rewarded by Owner Malcolm Glazer with a new five-year contract that essentially voids out his original contract.

SAPP SIGNS EXTENSION TO BECOME TEAM'S HIGHEST-PAID PLAYER (3/18) – Pro Bowl DT Warren Sapp agrees to a six-year contract that makes him the wealthiest player in team history and one of the highest paid defensive tackles in the league.

MCKAY RECEIVES CONTRACT EXTENSION (4/30) – Owner Malcolm Glazer rewards General Manager Rich McKay with a new five-year contract extension for his efforts in assembling one of the league's most talent-rich rosters. McKay's new deal guarantees that he will be with the team through the 2002 season.

BUCS SELL OUT INAUGURAL RAYMOND JAMES STADIUM SEASON (8/2, 8/15) – For the first time in team history, the Buccaneers entire home schedule is sold out before the season begins. Though the Bucs will play seven straight road games (including pre-season) to open 1998, the entire sum of single-game tickets for the eight home games in Raymond James Stadium sells out on the first day of availability.

BUCS OPEN NEW ERA IN RAYMOND JAMES STADIUM WITH DRAMATIC VICTORY (9/20) – Raymond James Stadium, already known as 'The Crown Jewel of the NFL', officially opens as the Buccaneers take on arch-rival Chicago. TE Dave Moore's acrobatic one-handed touchdown catch sparks a 27-point rally as Tampa Bay wins its Raymond James Stadium debut, 27-15.

TAMPA BAY OUTGUNS UNDEFEATED MINNESOTA IN RAYMOND JAMES SHOOTOUT (11/1) – The Buccaneers run their Raymond James Stadium record to 4-0 with an eye-opening, 27-24 upset of the previously undefeated Minnesota Vikings. The Vikings' only regular-season loss of 1998 is powered by a Buccaneer-record 246 rushing yards, including the first dual-100-yard performance in team history by FB Mike Alstott (128 yards) and RB Warrick Dunn (115).

FIRST MONDAY NIGHT FOOTBALL VICTORY IN 16 YEARS COMES AT EXPENSE OF PACKERS (12/7) – Having ended a 15-year hiatus from ABC's Monday Night Football earlier in the year at Detroit, Tampa Bay records its first MNF victory since 1982 with a 24-22 dismissal of Green Bay. QB Trent Dilfer completes 64 and 62-yard TD passes to WR Jacquez Green and WR Reidel Anthony and the Buccaneer defense records eight sacks and a team-record eight forced fumbles.

BUCS BLANK CINCY FOR FIRST ROAD SHUTOUT (12/27) – Tampa Bay records the third shutout in team history, the first since 1985 and the first on the road with a 35-0 dismantling of Cincinnati in the season finale. FB Mike Alstott ties a team-record with three touchdown runs as the Bucs open a 28-0 lead by halftime.

FIVE BUCS MAKE REPEAT PRO BOWL VISIT (2/7) – A five-some of Bucs, the second-largest contingent in team history, represents the NFC in the Pro Bowl; all five are repeat honorees from the team's NFL-high group of eight Pro Bowlers in 1998. LB Hardy Nickerson makes his fourth visit, tying TE Jimmie Giles for the second-most in team history, and DT Warren Sapp, LB Derrick Brooks, C Tony Mayberry and FB Mike Alstott all make their second trips.

BUCS COMPLETE UNDEFEATED PRESEASON (9/3) – Rookie QB Shaun King hits rookie WR Darnell McDonald on a three-yard TD pass with seven seconds left, lifting the Bucs to a 16-13 win over host Washington. The victory caps a 4-0 preseason campaign, the franchise's first in 16 years.

SACK ATTACK SMOTHERS EAGLES (9/19) – Tampa Bay's swarming defensive line racks up nine sacks in a 19-5 win at Philadelphia. DT Warren Sapp and DE Chidi Ahanotu each collect three sacks, while DE Marcus Jones bags two and DT Brad Culpepper adds one. The nine-sack effort falls one sack short of the team record of 10, set in 1979 at Baltimore.

GRAMATICA BOOTS ATLANTA (11/21) – Rookie K Martin Gramatica kicks four FGs, including a game-winning 53-yarder with 58 seconds remaining, to rally Tampa Bay to a 19-10 win over Atlanta at Raymond James Stadium. Gramatica had earlier nailed attempts from 24, 26 and 50 yards. He became the first Buccaneer kicker to boot two 50-plus-yard FGs in one game. The last time a rookie K booted a game-winning FG of that length was San Francisco's Steve Mike-Meyer, who nailed a 54-yarder against the Rams (11/9/75).

KING SHINES IN RELIEF ROLE (11/28) – Rookie QB Shaun King replaces an injured Trent Dilfer (clavicle) and escorts Tampa Bay to a 16-3 win at Seattle. The win marks the club's first in the Kingdome. King hits WR Jacquez Green for his first career completion, then later lofts a scoring toss to TE Patrick Hape, sealing Tampa Bay's fourth consecutive victory.

RECORD CROWD LIFTS BUCS TO MONDAY NIGHT WIN (12/6) – Tampa Bay beats Minnesota 24-17 before a then-record crowd of 65,741 at Raymond James Stadium. The game marks the starting debut of rookie QB Shaun King, who throws two second-half TD passes. Tampa Bay's swarming defense forces four Viking turnovers, including a 55-yard INT return by CB Donnie Abraham on the third play of the game.

BUCS WIN SIXTH CONSECUTIVE GAME (12/12) – Tampa Bay rallies for two fourth-quarter TDs to defeat Detroit 23-16 at Raymond James Stadium. The win is the Bucs' sixth consecutive triumph, breaking the team mark of five consecutive victories (1979, 1997). In the process, Tampa Bay assumes sole possession of first place in the NFC Central Division.

BUCS SET HOME WIN MARK AGAINST PACKERS (12/26) – Tampa Bay completes its 1999 home slate with a club-record 7-1 mark after a 29-10 triumph over Green Bay. FB Mike Alstott runs for two TDs in the fourth quarter to seal the win. The Bucs' previous best home record was a 6-2 mark, set in 1984 and 1998. Tampa Bay also clinches its fifth-ever playoff appearance.

BUCS CLAIM FIRST NFC CENTRAL TITLE IN 18 YEARS (1/2) – The Bucs beat Chicago 20-6 at Soldier Field to claim their first NFC Central Division title since 1981. Tampa Bay also concludes the regular season with a franchise-record 11 wins. The Bucs rush for 143 yards and hold the potent Bears offense to two FGs. An estimated crowd of 5,000 greets the champs upon their arrival at One Buccaneer Place Sunday night.

FOUR BUCS EARN FIRST-TEAM-ALL-PRO HONORS (1/8) – Four Buccaneers – FB Mike Alstott, LB Derrick Brooks, S John Lynch and DT Warren Sapp – earn first-team All-Pro honors from the Associated Press. Tampa Bay could claim five first team AP All-Pro selections in the franchise's first 23 seasons of existence. The Bucs tied the eventual Super Bowl champion Rams for most players on the 1999 squad.

SAPP NAMED AP NFL DEFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE YEAR (1/13) – DT Warren Sapp earns NFL Defensive Player of the Year honors from the Associated Press. In a poll of 50 media members, Sapp receives 19 votes, edging out Tennessee DE Jevon Kearse. Sapp is the first Buccaneer to win the award since Hall of Famer Lee Roy Selmon won the trophy in 1979. Sapp finished the regular season with 54 tackles and a career-best 12.5 sacks.

BUCS RALLY PAST REDSKINS IN DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF (1/15) – Tampa Bay rallies from a 13-0 deficit to defeat the Washington Redskins 14-13 in an NFC divisional playoff game before a record crowd of 65,835 at Raymond James Stadium. QB Shaun King hits TE John Davis on a one-yard TD toss midway through the fourth quarter to give the Bucs their first and only lead. Tampa Bay's defense holds Washington's second-ranked offense to 157 total yards and no offensive TDs. The win propels the Bucs to their first NFC Championship Game in 20 years.

TAMPA BAY FALLS ONE WIN SHY OF SUPER BOWL (1/23) – Tampa Bay's valiant defensive effort falls short as the St. Louis Rams rally late for an 11-6 win in the NFC Championship Game at the Trans World Dome. The Bucs hold the high-powered Rams offense 22 points below their season average. St. Louis would capture Super Bowl XXXIV the following Sunday in Atlanta.

SIX BUCS HELP COACHING STAFF DEFEAT AFC IN PRO BOWL (2/6) – The NFC, led by Tony Dungy and the rest of the Buccaneers coaching staff, whips the AFC 51-31 in the highest-scoring Pro Bowl ever. Tampa Bay is represented by six players – FB Mike Alstott, LB Derrick Brooks, S John Lynch, C Tony Mayberry, LB Hardy Nickerson and DT Warren Sapp. Alstott scores three TDs and Brooks returns a QB Mark Brunell INT for a score.

BUCS INK 11-TIME PRO BOWLER MCDANIEL (3/1) – The Bucs snag another former Vikings offensive lineman, signing perennial Pro Bowl G Randall McDaniel to a three-year contract. McDaniel, who spent his previous 12 seasons in Minnesota, owns the NFL record for consecutive Pro Bowl starts with 11. He enters the 2000 season with 170 consecutive starts, second only to Tennessee's Bruce Matthews (197) among active players.

BUCS TRADE FOR JETS WR JOHNSON (4/12) – The Bucs trade their two first-round picks (13th, 27th overall) in the 1999 NFL Draft to the New York Jets for two-time Pro Bowl WR Keyshawn Johnson. Tampa Bay then signs Johnson to an eight-year contract. Johnson's 305 catches over his first four NFL seasons trail only WR Marvin Harrison (Colts, 311, 1996-98) and WR Andre Rison (Falcons, 308, 1989-92) in league annals. The fifth-year pro can also boast 31 career scoring grabs.

BUCS RECORD LARGEST MARGIN OF VICTORY IN HOME OPENER (9/10) – Tampa Bay records the largest margin of victory in team history with a 41-0 win over Chicago in its home opener at Raymond James Stadium. The Bucs defense extends their streak to 14 quarters against Chicago without allowing a touchdown, and limits the Bears to just 165 total yards, including 49 passing, while forcing four turnovers.

BUCS KNOCK OFF UNDEFEATED VIKINGS (10/29) – The Bucs offense scores on each of its first four possessions as Tampa Bay snaps a four-game skid and ends Minnesota's 7-0 start at Raymond James Stadium. Tampa Bay's 31 first-half points ties the club record for points in a half. For the first time in club history, Tampa Bay scores 40-plus points in a game twice in the same season.

SAPP SETS SINGLE-SEASON SACK RECORD (11/26) – DT Warren Sapp breaks DE Lee Roy Selmon's franchise record for sacks in a season with two – giving him 13.5 for the year – as Tampa Bay downs Buffalo 31-17 at Raymond James Stadium. The Bucs' defense notches six sacks overall to surpass the club's single-season record of 44 in 1997.

DUNN LEADS CLUB-RECORD DAY ON THE GROUND (12/3) – Tampa Bay sets a club record with 250 yards rushing, including a career-high 210 by RB Warrick Dunn, on the way to a 27-7 victory over Dallas at Raymond James Stadium. Dunn's performance marks the second-best single-game effort in Bucs' history. K Martin Gramatica adds a 25-yard FG prior to halftime, tying the franchise record for consecutive field goals made with his 16th straight.

BUCS SET FRANCHISE MARK FOR POINTS SCORED (12/10) – S Damien Robinson intercepts Miami QB Jay Fiedler at the Bucs nine-yard line with 14 seconds remaining as Tampa Bay holds on for a 16-13 victory at rainy Pro Player Stadium. With the 16 points, Tampa Bay sets a club record for points in a season with 336, eclipsing the previous mark of 335 points in 1984. In addition, K Martin Gramatica breaks his own record for points in a season.

TAMPA BAY CLINCHES SECOND STRAIGHT PLAYOFF BERTH (12/18) – RB Warrick Dunn scores his third rushing touchdown of the game with 48 seconds remaining as Tampa Bay rallies for a 38-35 win over St. Louis before a national television audience on Monday Night Football. With the win at Raymond James Stadium, the Bucs clinch their second straight playoff berth and third in the last four seasons. Head coach Tony Dungy also becomes the winningest coach in franchise history with his 45th coaching victory.

BUCS HOST THIRD SUPER BOWL (1/28) – Baltimore defeats the N.Y. Giants, 34-7 as Tampa Bay plays host to Super Bowl XXXV at Raymond James Stadium.

LEAGUE-HIGH AND TEAM-RECORD NINE BUCS PLAY IN PRO BOWL (2/4) – Tampa Bay boasts a league-high and team-record nine players in the 2001 Pro Bowl in Hawaii. The Bucs' contingent includes a club-record six starters, but the AFC posts a 38-17 victory.

BUCS GRAB BRAD JOHNSON IN FREE AGENCY (3/6) – Tampa Bay ventures into free agency and returns with the biggest name on the market in Washington Redskins QB Brad Johnson. Johnson, who ranks third all-time in completion percentage, signs a five-year contract.

RICE JOINS THREE OTHER FIRST-ROUNDERS ON DEFENSIVE LINE (3/23) – Arizona Cardinals Pro Bowl DE Simeon Rice signs a five-year contract with Tampa Bay, joining a defensive line that features three other former first-round draft picks. Rice, who established an Arizona franchise mark with 16.5 quarterback sacks in 1999, notched 51.5 career sacks with the Cardinals.

JOHN MCKAY DIES (6/10) – John McKay, the first coach in Buccaneers history, dies of kidney failure due to complications from diabetes at the age of 77. McKay coached Tampa Bay from 1976-1984, leading the team to three playoff appearances, including a trip to the 1979 NFC Championship Game.

BUCS SECOND GAME POSTPONED DUE TO TERRORIST ATTACKS (9/16) – Due to the terrorist attacks on America on September 11, the NFL postpones all of its games on September 16 and 17, including the Bucs' home contest against Philadelphia. The games are rescheduled for the first weekend in January, with the rest of the playoff schedule, including the Super Bowl, moving back one week. Due to an already-scheduled bye in Week Three, the Bucs have a bizarre, 21-day layoff between the first and second games of the season.

ALSTOTT LEADS ANOTHER HOME POUNDING OF THE VIKINGS (10/28) – Almost exactly one year after demolishing Minnesota, 41-13, in Raymond James Stadium on 10/29/00, the Bucs prove it was no fluke with a 41-14 decision over the Vikings on 10/28/01. FB Mike Alstott leads the runaway victory with 129 rushing yards, tying a team and personal record with three rushing touchdowns.

FIRST MNF ROAD VICTORY GIVES BUCS ANOTHER PRIME-TIME WIN OVER RAMS (11/26) – For the second time in two years, the Buccaneers defeat the St. Louis Rams on Monday Night Football, following up a 38-35 thriller in Tampa in 2000 with a 24-17 victory at St. Louis in 2001. The win, which stands as the first road win for the Bucs on Monday Night Football in team history, gives the Bucs a measure of revenge in the stadium that saw their run to the 1999 Super Bowl come to an end.

BUCS RECORD THIRD STRAIGHT ROAD WIN (12/2) – During yet another December surge, the Buccaneers defeat the Cincinnati Bengals, 16-13 in overtime, when S John Lynch forces and recovers a fumble at the Bengals' three-yard line early in the extra period, setting up K Martin Gramatica's game-winning field goal. Following wins at Detroit and St. Louis, the victory over Cincinnati gives Tampa Bay three consecutive road wins for the first time in franchise history.

BUCS TIE SINGLE-GAME SCORING RECORD IN CRUCIAL WIN OVER NEW ORLEANS (12/23) – In a contest that would basically eliminate the loser from playoff contention and nearly guarantee the winner a postseason spot, the Buccaneers explode for 48 points in a blowout win over New Orleans. Taking a 30-0 halftime lead, the Bucs cruise to the 48-21 win, tying the team record for points scored in a single game (also against Atlanta, 9/13/97).

DUNGY DISMISSED (1/14) – The team announces that Head Coach Tony Dungy has been relieved of his coaching duties after six seasons. Dungy posted a 54-42 record at the helm and led the Buccaneers to the playoffs in four of his six campaigns.

GRUDEN INTRODUCED (2/20) – New Head Coach Jon Gruden is introduced at a press conference at a downtown hotel after becoming the seventh head coach in franchise history. Gruden, 38, spent four seasons (1998-2001) as head coach of the Oakland Raiders.

TAMPA BAY STARTS TRAINING CAMP AT DISNEY (7/29) – The Buccaneers begin their first season under new Head Coach Jon Gruden at Disney's Wide World of Sports Complex at Walt Disney World Resort. For the first time, Tampa Bay will conduct training camp at Disney after training at the University of Tampa since 1987. The Buccaneers are the first NFL team to conduct training camp at Disney's sports complex.

GRUDEN MAKES BUCCANEERS DEBUT (9/8) – Jon Gruden, the Buccaneers seventh head coach, makes his regular season debut at Raymond James Stadium in a 26-20 overtime loss to the New Orleans Saints. Tampa Bay trails 20-10 late in the fourth quarter when they post a frantic 10-point comeback to send the game into overtime. The Bucs are forced to punt deep in their own territory on their third possession of overtime. P Tom Tupa lines up to punt, but senses pressure and is forced to pull the ball down and attempt a pass. Saints LB James Allen intercepts the pass in the end zone, giving New Orleans the victory

TAMPA BAY DEFENSE STIFLES ANOTHER ROAD OPPONENT (10/6) – For the third straight road contest, the Bucs defense does not allow a touchdown and posts an interception return for a score in a club-record fourth straight game en route to a 20-6 win over the Atlanta Falcons at the Georgia Dome. The defense ties a then season-high with four interceptions–all in the second half–and adds four sacks against the Falcons. LB Derrick Brooks becomes the first linebacker in NFL history with three interception returns for touchdowns in a single season.

RICE SETS NFL RECORD (12/1) – In a Week 13 contest at New Orleans, DE Simeon Rice sets an NFL single-season record by recording his fifth consecutive multi-sack game. His three-sack performance against the Saints highlights a five-game streak that began at Carolina on October 27, during which he totaled 11 sacks, 29 tackles, four forced fumbles and one pass defensed.

BUCCANEERS CLAIM FIRST NFC SOUTH TITLE (12/22) – Tampa Bay and New Orleans enter their Week 16 contests with the Bucs holding a one-game advantage in the NFC South. New Orleans suffers a 20-13 loss at Cincinnati on Sunday, thereby giving the first NFC South Division title to Tampa Bay before the Buccaneers take the field the following night against Pittsburgh. The division title is the fourth in Buccaneers history.

GRAMATICA LEADS BUCS TO FRANCHISE-BEST 12TH VICTORY (12/29) – Tampa Bay closes out the first regular season under Jon Gruden with its club record 12th win against the Chicago Bears in Champaign, IL. K Martin Gramatica kicks a career-high and team-record five field goals and the Bucs defense registers four interceptions in a 15-0 shutout. The win also marks the second road shutout of the season for the Buccaneers and is the first Tampa Bay victory in 22 tries when the thermometer reads below 40 degrees. With the victory, Tampa Bay finishes 6-2 on the road; the most wins away from home in franchise history, and secures the No. 2 seed in the NFC playoffs.

BROOKS NAMED NFL DEFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE YEAR (1/8) – LB Derrick Brooks, the Bucs all-time leader in tackles, garners NFL Defensive Player of the Year honors. As part of the league's top-ranked defense in 2002, Brooks led the team with 170 tackles and tied for fourth in the NFC with five interceptions. Brooks was also selected to a club-record sixth-consecutive Pro Bowl in 2002 (as was DT Warren Sapp). His four touchdowns on turnovers in 2002 tied for the second-most in a single season in NFL history. He later adds another touchdown on an interception return in Super Bowl XXXVII.

BUCS ADVANCE TO NFC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME (1/12) – Tampa Bay qualifies for the NFC Championship Game for the third time in club history by defeating San Francisco 31-6 at Raymond James Stadium in an NFC Divisional Playoff contest. Tampa Bay races to a 28-6 halftime lead, scoring touchdowns on three consecutive possessions in the first half. The Bucs force five 49er turnovers and keep San Francisco out of the end zone for the first time in 50 games (including postseason).

BUCS CLAIM NFC TITLE (1/19) – Tampa Bay clinches its first NFC crown and Super Bowl berth with a 27-10 victory over the Philadelphia Eagles in the final game at Veterans Stadium. The Bucs defense forces three Eagle turnovers en route to securing the club's first postseason road win in franshise history. CB Ronde Barber paces an outstanding defensive effort and secures the victory with a club-record 92-yard interception return for a touchdown late in the fourth quarter.

BUCS WIN SUPER BOWL XXXVII (1/26) – The Bucs defeat the Oakland Raiders, 48-21, in Super Bowl XXXVII in San Diego behind a suffocating defense, setting Super Bowl records with five interceptions and three interception returns for touchdowns. It is the first NFL Championship in club history. At the age of 39, Jon Gruden becomes the youngest head coach to win a Super Bowl. S Dexter Jackson is named the game's MVP as the Bucs' top-ranked defense stifles the Raiders and the league's number one ranked offense. Tampa Bay limits Oakland to just 62 total yards in the first half, the second-fewest in Super Bowl history, and finishes the game surrendering just 269 total yards and 11 first downs. RB Michael Pittman runs for a season-high 125 yards and WR Keenan McCardell scores two touchdowns. LB Derrick Brooks seals the victory with a late fourth quarter interception return for a touchdown and CB Dwight Smith sets a Super Bowl record by returning a pair of second-half interceptions for touchdowns.

WORLD CHAMPIONS PARADE THROUGH TAMPA (1/28) – Following their 48-21 victory over Oakland in Super Bowl XXXVII, the World Champion Tampa Bay Buccaneers parade through downtown Tampa where more than 150,000 fans line the streets and crowd office buildings to celebrate the city's first major professional sports championship.

BUCS SIGN DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR MONTE KIFFIN TO A NEW CONTRACT (1/30) – Tampa Bay signs Monte Kiffin, architect of the NFL's top-ranked defense, to a new, three-year contract. Kiffin, a head coaching candidate, is rewarded for designing the first defense since the 1985 Chicago Bears to lead the league in total defense, fewest points allowed and total interceptions. Tampa Bay's defense allowed just 196 points in 2002, the fifth-fewest in a single season in NFL history during a 16-game schedule.

SEVEN BUCS APPEAR ON PRO BOWL ROSTER (2/2) – Tampa Bay has seven players on the roster for the 2003 Pro Bowl in Hawaii; FB Mike Alstott, LB Derrick Brooks, QB Brad Johnson, S John Lynch, LB Shelton Quarles, DE Simeon Rice and DT Warren Sapp. A total of six Buccaneers, all but Sapp due to an injury, see game action in the 45-20 AFC victory.

BUCS DEFEAT THE JETS IN THE 2003 AMERICAN BOWL IN TOKYO, JAPAN (8/2) – The defending Super Bowl champion Tampa Bay Buccaneers opened the preseason with a 30-14 victory over the N.Y. Jets in the 2003 American Bowl in their first-ever international appearance at the Tokyo Dome. Tampa Bay, which played in the final game of the 2002 season in its victory over the Oakland Raiders in Super Bowl XXXVII, joined the Jets in the first game of the 2003 preseason in Tokyo, Japan. Tampa Bay also conducted a pair of practices at the Tokyo Dome in preparation for the exhibition contest.

BUCS DEFEAT EAGLES IN 2003 REGULAR SEASON OPENER (9/8) – The defending Super Bowl champion Tampa Bay Buccaneers open up the regular season with a convincing 17-0 victory over Philadelphia in the Eagles' first regular season game at Lincoln Financial Field. WR Joe Jurevicius caught a pair of second half touchdowns, including a spectacular fourth quarter scoring reception in which he deflected the ball over an Eagles defender, spun to his left and dove to haul in the improbable touchdown catch. Tampa Bay's defense limited the Eagles to just 245 total yards as Philadelphia suffered a home shutout for the first time since 1998.

BUCS POST SECOND SHUTOUT OF THE SEASON (10/26) – Tampa Bay forces three turnovers and limits Dallas to 178 total yards of offense as the Bucs post their second shutout of the season, defeating the Dallas Cowboys 16-0 at Raymond James Stadium. The shutout marks the eighth in club history, including four over the past two seasons (2002 and 2003).

BUCS RECORD-SETTING SACK STREAK ENDS AT 69 (11/16) – Tampa Bay, which had recorded at least one sack in an NFL-record 69 consecutive games, is held sackless by the Green Bay Packers. It was the first time the Bucs defense had failed to register at least one sack since October 3, 1999 at Minnesota. During that 69-game streak, the Bucs defense also became the first unit to register at least one sack and one takeaway in 50 consecutive games since 1963.

ATLANTA FALCONS NAME RICH MCKAY PRESIDENT AND GENERAL MANAGER (12/15) – The Atlanta Falcons name Rich McKay President and General Manager. McKay spent the previous 12 seasons with Tampa Bay (1992-2003), including the past nine years (1995-2003) as the club's general manager. Under McKay, the Bucs made five playoff appearances, won two division titles and captured the club's first Super Bowl championship in 27 seasons with a 48-21 victory over the Oakland Raiders in Super Bowl XXXVII.

FOUR BUCS SELECTED TO THE PRO BOWL (12/18) – Tampa Bay has four players selected to the 2004 Pro Bowl: LB Derrick Brooks, WR Keenan McCardell, DE Simeon Rice and DT Warren Sapp. Brooks and Sapp are named to the Pro Bowl for the seventh consecutive time, eclipsing Hall of Famer Lee Roy Selmon's club record of six total appearances and consecutive appearances at the annual All-Star game.

ALLEN NAMED THIRD GENERAL MANAGER IN CLUB HISTORY (1/9) – The Bucs name Bruce Allen the third general manager in club history. Allen joins Tampa Bay after spending the previous nine seasons (1995-2003) with the Oakland Raiders, helping the team to three division titles, two AFC Championship Game appearances and a berth in Super Bowl XXXVII.

BUCS NAME DOUG WILLIAMS PERSONNEL EXECUTIVE (2/12) – The Bucs reclaim one of the greatest players in club history by naming Doug Williams personnel executive for the team. Williams, who spent the last six seasons (1998-2003) as head coach of his alma mater at Grambling State University, compiled a 52-18 record and led the Tigers to three consecutive Southwestern Athletic Conference titles (2000-2002). A former first-round draft pick by Tampa Bay in the 1978 NFL Draft (17th overall), Williams led the Bucs to the first three playoff appearances in team history (1979, 1981 and 1982), including an appearance in the 1979 NFC Championship Game in just the club's fourth year of existence.

BUCS UNVEIL PLANS FOR NEW TRAINING FACILITY (3/17) – The Bucs unveil plans for their new, 136,320 square foot state-of-the-art training facility, promising a "world class facility" that will be the finest in the National Football League. The spectacular and innovative facility will be built on the Tampa Bay Center mall site across the street from Raymond James Stadium. The signature of the new facility will be its breathtaking entrance, which features the world's largest football towering nearly five stories tall. Since the team's inception in 1976, Tampa Bay has been based at One Buccaneer Place, a training facility located near the Tampa International Airport. The new facility will be ready prior to the 2006 season.

BUCS ACQUIRE WR JOEY GALLOWAY (3/19) – The Bucs acquire WR Joey Galloway from the Dallas Cowboys for WR Keyshawn Johnson.

HURRICANE CHARLEY FORCES BUCS TO RESCHEDULE PRESEASON GAME (8/14) – Because of the threat of Hurricane Charley, the Buccaneers reschedule their August 14 preseason contest against the Cincinnati Bengals for Monday, August 16. The Bucs organize a program to collect monetary donations at the contest that will be directed to appropriate Hurricane Charley relief efforts.

DERRICK BROOKS AND THE BUCS COLLABORATE TO HELP HURRICANE IVAN VICTIMS (9/18) – Derrick Brooks Charities and the Tampa Bay Buccaneers organize a program to collect monetary donations prior to the game between Tampa Bay and Seattle at Raymond James Stadium on September 19. In addition, Derrick Brooks Charities donates $1000 for each tackle Derrick makes against the Seahawks. All funds collected are directed to appropriate Hurricane Ivan relief efforts in Brooks' hometown of Pensacola, Florida.

BROWN RECORDS 100TH CAREER TOUCHDOWN RECEPTION AGAINST FORMER TEAM (9/26) – In a rematch of Super Bowl XXXVII, Buccaneers WR Tim Brown returns to Oakland to haul in his 100th career touchdown reception, becoming just the fourth player in NFL history to accomplish the feat, with a 16-yard score in the fourth quarter.

BUCS EARN LARGEST MARGIN OF VICTORY SINCE 2000 SEASON (11/21) – Tampa Bay defeats the San Francisco 49ers 35-3 at Raymond James Stadium to post its largest margin of victory since the 2000 season. The Bucs defense limits the 49ers to 26 total yards and two first downs in the first half and finishes the contest surrendering just 197 total yards, while forcing five sacks and two turnovers. The offense is equally impressive, racking up 352 yards as RB Michael Pittman rushes for 106 yards on 21 carries with two touchdowns.

CLAYTON SETS BUCS ROOKIE RECEIVING RECORD (11/28) – Bucs rookie WR Michael Clayton hauls in eight receptions for 77 yards in the Week 11 contest at Carolina to move into first place all-time in team history for most receiving yards by a rookie in a season. Through 11 contests in 2004, Clayton posts 60 receptions for 828 yards, surpassing WR Lawrence Dawsey's 818 yards as a rookie in 1991.

RICE RECORDS 100TH CAREER SACK AS BUCS POST NINTH SHUTOUT IN FRANCHISE HISTORY (12/5) – Tampa Bay records the ninth shutout in franchise history with a 27-0 victory over the Atlanta Falcons at Raymond James Stadium. Buccaneers DE Simeon Rice records the 100th and 101st sacks of his career, becoming just the 22nd player in league history and only the second active player to reach the 100-sack plateau. The Buccaneers defense records five sacks and forces five turnovers, intercepting QB Michael Vick twice and forcing two fumbles by the Falcons signal caller.

TWO BUCS EARN PRO BOWL HONORS (12/22) – The NFL announces that two Buccaneers, LB Derrick Brooks and CB Ronde Barber, have been selected to the 2005 AFC-NFC Pro Bowl. Brooks, who was selected for the eighth time to the Pro Bowl, becomes the franchise's all-time leader in Pro Bowl appearances, breaking a tie with former teammate DT Warren Sapp. Brooks' eight consecutive Pro Bowl appearances (1997-04) also establish a new team record. Barber is named to his second career Pro Bowl after making his first appearance in 2001.

BUCS CLAYTON SETS ROOKIE TOUCHDOWN RECORD (12/26) – Bucs rookie WR Michael Clayton catches a career-high two touchdowns against the Carolina Panthers at Raymond James Stadium, moving him into first place for most touchdown receptions by a rookie in franchise history. His six touchdown receptions on the season surpass the previous rookie record of five touchdown catches by WR Kevin House in 1980.

BUCS SELECT CARNELL "CADILLAC" WILLIAMS WITH FIFTH PICK IN NFL DRAFT (4/23) – The Buccaneers draft Auburn RB Carnell "Cadillac" Williams with their first selection (fifth overall) in the 2005 NFL Draft. The selection of Williams marks the fourth time in team history that Tampa Bay has drafted a running back in the first round and the first time since 1997 (Warrick Dunn – 12th overall).

WILLIAMS SETS NFL RECORD FOR MOST RUSHING YARDS IN FIRST THREE GAMES (9/25) – In his first three games, Bucs rookie RB Carnell "Cadillac" Williams totals an NFL-record 434 rushing yards, becoming the first running back to begin his career with three consecutive 100-yard performances. Following his record-breaking performance, Williams' shoes and gloves are displayed at the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

BARBER MATCHES OWN CLUB RECORD WITH THREE INTERCEPTIONS (12/4) – CB Ronde Barber records a career-high tying three interceptions against the New Orleans Saints in Baton Rouge, LA to tie his own club record. His previous three interception performance also came against the Saints in 2001. Barber goes on to finish the season with five picks to lead the Buccaneers and tie for seventh in the NFC.

BARBER BECOMES MEMBER OF EXCLUSIVE 20/20 CLUB (12/11) – CB Ronde Barber records the 20th sack of his career at Carolina to join the 20 sack/20 interception club. He becomes the first cornerback in NFL history and just the seventh player all time to accomplish the feat.

THREE BUCS NAMED TO PRO BOWL (12/21) – The NFL announces that three Buccaneers, CB Ronde Barber, P Josh Bidwell and LB Derrick Brooks, have been selected to the 2006 AFC-NFC Pro Bowl. It marks Brooks' ninth consecutive selection to the all-star game, a team record for total and most consecutive appearances. Barber will make his third career appearance and second consecutive while Bidwell will play in his first career Pro Bowl.

BUCCANEERS NOTCH 100TH OVERALL WIN UNDER GLAZER LEADERSHIP (12/24) – In one of the most thrilling games in team history, the Buccaneers notch their 100th overall win since being purchased by Malcolm Glazer on January 16, 1995. The contest, against the division rival Atlanta Falcons, features four separate occasions in which the score is tied and five lead changes. The epic battle is prolonged when Bucs running back Cadillac Williams scores from six yards out on a fourth down run with 31 seconds remaining in regulation that forces overtime. In the extra period, the Buccaneers block a potential game-winning Atlanta field goal before successfully connecting on a 41-yard attempt of their own with only 54 seconds remaining in overtime. The milestone win emphasizes a reversal of fortunes for the Buccaneers, who prior to being purchased by Mr. Glazer, won just 87 games in 19 seasons.

BUCS CLAIM SECOND NFC SOUTH CROWN IN FOUR YEARS (1/1) – Tampa Bay defeats the New Orleans Saints 27-13 in the final game of the regular season to earn its second NFC South division title in four seasons. Tampa Bay and the rival Carolina Panthers finish the regular season with identical 11-5 records, but the Buccaneers claim the NFC South by virtue of a better divisional record. The division title is the fifth in Buccaneers history.

GALLOWAY SETS NEW FRANCHISE MARK FOR TOUCHDOWN RECEPTIONS (1/1) – WR Joey Galloway records two touchdown receptions in the season finale against the New Orleans Saints, giving him 10 on the season to establish a new franchise record. Galloway's 10 touchdown receptions best the previous high of nine, held by WR Kevin House (1981), WR Bruce Hill (1988) and WR Mark Carrier (1989).

WILLIAMS SETS BUCS ROOKIE RECORD FOR RUSHING YARDS IN A SEASON (1/1) – RB Carnell "Cadillac" Williams finishes the season with 1,178 rushing yards to set a Buccaneers rookie record. His impressive rookie performance includes a team-record six 100-yard rushing games and three of the top 10 single-game rushing performances in team history.

BUCCANEERS DEFENSE FINISHES THE SEASON AS THE TOP-RANKED UNIT IN THE NFL (1/1) – Tampa Bay's defense finishes the season ranked No. 1 in total defense for the third time (1979, 2002 and 2005) in team history. The 2005 season also marks the ninth consecutive year (1997-2005) the Buccaneers ranked in the Top 10 in total defense, the longest active streak in the league and tied for the second-longest streak since 1970.

WILLIAMS NAMED NFL ROOKIE OF THE YEAR (2/2) – RB Carnell "Cadillac" Williams beats out LB Shawne Merriman of the San Diego Chargers, LB Lofa Tatupu of the Seattle Seahawks, LB Odell Thurman of the Cincinnati Bengals and LB Demarcus Ware of the Dallas Cowboys for Diet Pepsi Rookie of the Year honors. Williams is selected by fans on NFL.com with more than one million votes cast during the regular season and playoffs for NFL Rookie of the Week and Rookie of the Year honors.

BROOKS NAMED 2006 PRO BOWL PLAYER OF THE GAME (2/12) – Making his ninth consecutive Pro Bowl appearance, LB Derrick Brooks earns Player of the Game honors after returning an interception 59 yards for a touchdown to catapult the NFC to a 23-17 victory over the AFC in the 2006 Pro Bowl.

BUCCANEERS PLAYERS AND COACHES BEGIN WORK AT NEW HEADQUARTERS (8/21) – Arriving immediately after the conclusion of training camp in Central Florida, Buccaneers players and coaches move into the team's new 136,320-square-foot headquarters. Unmatched in grandeur by any other professional sports headquarters, the new base of operations spans more than 33 acres and provides the team with unparalleled resources of the highest quality. Some of those include a 7,900-square-foot weight room, technically advanced meeting rooms, three practice fields, a grand auditorium, high-tech coaches' studios with instant access to game film, a video-editing suite and a state-of-the-art training and rehabilitation area.

BARBER RETURNS TWO INTERCEPTIONS FOR TOUCHDOWNS IN SAME GAME (10/22) – Facing a Philadelphia Eagles team he had tormented in the past, CB Ronde Barber propels the Tampa Bay Buccaneers to a 23-21 victory by twice picking off QB Donovan McNabb, returning each interception for a touchdown. Barber's two TD returns mark the first time in franchise history that a player accomplishes such a feat in a regular season game. His two scores also make Barber the first player in team history to score two defensive touchdowns of any kind in a regular season game.

BRYANT KICKS HIS WAY INTO RECORD BOOKS (10/22) – With the Buccaneers trailing the Philadelphia Eagles 21-20 with only four seconds remaining in the game, K Matt Bryant produces a last-second miracle, kicking a 62-yard field goal to give the Bucs a 23-21 victory. Bryant's kick is the second-longest walk-off field goal in NFL history and the third-longest overall field goal in league annals. The previous long for the Buccaneers franchise was 57 yards by Michael Husted (12/19/93).

BROOKS MOVES INTO FIRST PLACE IN TEAM HISTORY FOR GAMES PLAYED (11/5) – In front of a home crowd and against the New Orleans Saints, perennial Pro Bowl LB Derrick Brooks plays in his 184th career game, moving into first place in Buccaneers' history for games played. The veteran defender shows no signs of slowing down as he finishes the contest with a team-leading and season-high 15 tackles, including two for a loss. Brooks finishes the season with 192 consecutive games played and 176 straight starts to lead all active Bucs players in both categories. He also ranks first in team history with 189 total starts.

ROOKIE QB GRADKOWSKI MAKES HISTORY WITH INTERCEPTION-FREE STREAK (11/5) – After a game against the New Orleans Saints in which he completes 18 of 31 passes for 185 yards and two touchdowns, Tampa Bay Buccaneers rookie QB Bruce Gradkowski runs his mark of pass attempts to 186 with only one interception. That number stands as a record for most attempts in NFL history by a quarterback before throwing a second interception. A week prior, against the New York Giants, Gradkowski became just the third quarterback in league history to throw only one interception in his first 150 pass attempts.

BARBER MOVES INTO TIE FOR MOST INTERCEPTIONS IN TEAM HISTORY (11/13) – With his third interception of the season, this time against Carolina Panthers QB Jake Delhomme, CB Ronde Barber notches his 31st career interception. That total places him in a tie for most interceptions by a Buccaneers player in team history with CB Donnie Abraham, who played for Tampa Bay from 1996-2001. Barber's historic pick comes in front of a Monday Night Football audience with 1:09 remaining in the second quarter of the contest.

BUCCANEERS PLAY IN THANKSGIVING GAME FOR FIRST TIME IN FRANCHISE HISTORY (11/23) – For the first time in Tampa Bay's 31-year history, the Buccaneers participate in one of the NFL's nationally televised Thanksgiving Day games, squaring off against the Dallas Cowboys. The contest is the third game in an 11-day stretch for the Buccaneers, marking only the fourth time since 1978 that a team has played three games in 11 days, with two of the contests on the road.

BUCCANEERS WELCOME BACK PAST PLAYERS FOR TEAM'S FIRST ALUMNI WEEKEND (12/8) – Approximately 120 former players representing a little over three decades of Buccaneers football are honored when the franchise holds its first Alumni Weekend. During the three-day celebration, former Bucs players who have given the franchise at least one full season of service watch practice, tour the team's new facility, participate in a golf event and attend a dinner party and gala at Raymond James Stadium. The weekend's activities culminate in a halftime tribute during a game against Atlanta in which the players take the field and are recognized by Buccaneers fans.

THREE BUCS NAMED TO PRO BOWL (12/19) – For the third consecutive season and fourth overall, CB Ronde Barber earns Pro Bowl honors after leading the Buccaneers with three interceptions and 20 passes defensed to go along with his 108 tackles. Barber is later joined by Bucs TE/LS Dave Moore, who is selected as a "need player" by the NFC, and LB Derrick Brooks, who initially was chosen as first alternate at the outside linebacker position. For Moore, the selection represents the first of his career and first for a Bucs tight end since Jimmie Giles was selected in 1985. Moore is the first Buccaneers player to be chosen to the Pro Bowl as a long-snapper and just the third special teams performer to earn the invitation. Brooks is added to the NFC's roster when Chicago LB Lance Briggs pulls out of the game. His selection marks his 10th consecutive and 10th overall Pro Bowl selection – both team records.

GLAZER FAMILY REACHES 100TH REGULAR SEASON WIN (12/24) – A 22-7 victory over the Cleveland Browns in the penultimate game of the season marks the 100th regular season victory for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers since it was purchased by Malcolm Glazer on January 16, 1995. Under the ownership of Mr. Glazer and his family, the club has posted a .521 winning percentage and captured its first Super Bowl championship. Prior to the Glazer family's ownership, the Buccaneers won just 87 games in 19 seasons, posting a .300 winning percentage.

GALLOWAY REACHES 1,000 YARDS FOR SECOND STRAIGHT SEASON (12/31) – For only the second time in Tampa Bay's 31-year history, a Buccaneers receiver gains at least 1,000 receiving yards in two straight seasons when Joey Galloway reaches that mark against the Seattle Seahawks. Galloway finishes the season with a team-high 1,057 yards after logging 1,287 yards in 2005, also a club-high. Prior to Galloway's two consecutive 1,000-yard seasons, only Keyshawn Johnson achieved that feat, posting 1,266 yards in 2001 and 1,088 yards the following year.

BUCS UNVEIL THE LARGEST FLYING NON-US FLAG IN THE NATION (9/6) – The Buccaneers raise their new team flag, which measures over 4,000 square feet, at One Buccaneer Place following the afternoon practice. Buccaneers players and staff watch the flag ascend the 147.5-ft. pole on the west side of the team's headquarters as the team readies for its season-opening game in Seattle. At 80'x50' the flag is the largest flying non-US flag in the nation.

GALLOWAY SURPASSES 10,000 RECEIVING YARDS (10/21) – With his 46-yard receiving performance at Detroit, WR Joey Galloway surpasses 10,000 career receiving yards. He becomes the eighth active player and just the 28th player in NFL history to reach the 10,000-yard plateau.

GARCIA SETS CONSECUTIVE COMPLETIONS RECORD (10/21) – Facing his former team, QB Jeff Garcia completes a single-game team-record 18 consecutive completions against the Detroit Lions. Garcia has one of his best outings of the season, completing 37-of-45 passes for 316 yards and two touchdowns against the Lions.

GARCIA'S CONSECUTIVE ATTEMPTS WITHOUT AN INTERCEPTION STREAK ENDS AT 197 (10/28) – QB Jeff Garcia begins his career as a Buccaneer by attempting 197 consecutive passes without throwing an interception, besting the previous team record by Brad Johnson, who went 187 consecutive attempts without a pick from 2001-2002. Dating back to the 2006 season, Garcia went 217 attempts without an interception in the regular season, the sixth-longest streak since 2001.

BARBER BECOMES BUCCANEERS ALL-TIME INTERCEPTION LEADER (11/25) – CB Ronde Barber intercepts his 32nd career pass to move into first place on the team's career interception list. Barber's record-setting pick comes off QB Jason Campbell late in the fourth quarter to help Tampa Bay preserve a 19-13 victory over the Washington Redskins.

CARTER RECORDS 100TH CAREER SACK (11/25) – In his first season with the Buccaneers, DE Kevin Carter posts the 100th sack of his career, dropping QB Jason Campbell in a win against the Redskins. Carter becomes the 24th player in NFL history to reach the 100-sack plateau.

BUCS EARN THIRD NFC SOUTH TITLE IN SIX SEASONS (12/16) – Tampa Bay defeats the Atlanta Falcons 37-3 in Week 15 to earn its third NFC South division title in six seasons. Tampa Bay moves to 5-0 in its division for the first time since 1979 while clinching the sixth division title in team history and fourth since the Glazer family took over in 1995.

BUCS POST FIRST-EVER KICKOFF RETURN FOR A TOUCHDOWN (12/16) – It took 1,865 kickoff returns, but WR Micheal Spurlock records the first kickoff return for a touchdown in team history on his 90-yard return against the Atlanta Falcons. He is one of 140 players to have returned a kickoff for the Buccaneers. The historic return helps propel the Buccaneers to the NFC South division title.

GRAHAM SETS TEAM RECORD WITH SCORE IN SIXTH CONSECUTIVE GAME (12/16) – RB Earnest Graham, who began the year as a backup running back, scores a touchdown in his sixth consecutive game to set a new team record for most consecutive games with a touchdown. Graham's touchdown is his team-leading 10th of the year as he finishes the game against Atlanta with 22 carries for 79 yards and one touchdown.

GALLOWAY POSTS THIRD CONSECUTIVE 1,000-YARD SEASON (12/23) – With a 29-yard reception in the second quarter at San Francisco, WR Joey Galloway becomes the first player in team history to record three consecutive and three overall 1,000-yard receiving seasons while also marking the first time in his 13-year career Galloway accomplished the feat. It goes down as the sixth 1,000-yard campaign of his career.

BROOKS BECOMES TEAM'S ALL-TIME LEADER IN PLAYOFF APPEARANCES, STARTS (1/6) – With his start in the NFC Wild Card matchup against the New York Giants, LB Derrick Brooks becomes the Bucs all-time leader in playoff games played (11) and started (11). Brooks, who already holds the franchise record for most career regular season games and starts, surpasses former teammates FB Mike Alstott and LB Shelton Quarles, who each played in 10 career postseason contests.

ALSTOTT ANNOUNCES RETIREMENT (1/24) – Arguably the most popular player in team history, FB Mike Alstott retires after a 12-year career. A second-round selection (35th overall) in the 1996 draft, Alstott ends his career as the club record holder in touchdowns (71), rushing touchdowns (58) and Pro Bowl appearances by an offensive player (six). His 432 points ranks third in Buccaneer history and he is the only non-kicker in club annals to surpass the 400-point plateau. During his career, Alstott amassed 1,359 rushing attempts for 5,088 yards (both second in team history) and caught 305 passes (third in team history) for 2,284 yards. Alstott played in 158 career regular season games as a Buccaneer, seventh-most in team history, with 137 starts, fifth-most in team history, and 10 playoff games (tied for second in team history) with seven starts, including starting at fullback in the Buccaneers' 48-21 victory over the Oakland Raiders in Super Bowl XXXVII.

GARCIA EARNS PRO BOWL SELECTION (1/24) – QB Jeff Garcia is added to the NFC squad for the 2008 AFC-NFC Pro Bowl, becoming the lone selection in the annual all-star event for the Buccaneers. Garcia, the NFC's first alternate at quarterback, replaces Green Bay Packers QB Brett Favre. His appearance is the fourth of his career and first as a Buccaneer. It marks just the third time in Buccaneers history that a quarterback has been named to the Pro Bowl, joining Trent Dilfer (1997) and Brad Johnson (2002). Garcia finished the season as the NFL's seventh-rated passer (94.6) and ranked second in the league with a team-record 1.2 interception percentage.

BUCS SELECT AQIB TALIB IN NFL DRAFT (4/26) – The Buccaneers select Kansas CB Aqib Talib with their first selection (20th overall) in the 2008 NFL Draft. Talib becomes the highest cornerback ever selected by Tampa Bay and just the second defensive back the Buccaneers have ever drafted in the first round.

ROOKIE SMITH SETS TEAM RETURN RECORD (11/2) – Buccaneers rookie RB/KR Clifton Smith sets a franchise record for the most return yards by an individual in a single game. Smith racks up 259 total return yards at Kansas City, including a 97-yard kickoff return for a touchdown. He becomes only the second player in team history to return a kickoff for a touchdown and the only player in team history to return a kickoff and punt for a touchdown as a Buccaneer.

GRUDEN BECOMES BUCCANEERS ALL-TIME WINNINGEST COACH (11/2) – With the Buccaneers 30-27 overtime victory at Kansas City, Jon Gruden becomes the all-time winningest coach in Buccaneers history. The victory is his 57th career win as Buccaneers head coach, surpassing Tony Dungy for the most wins ever in franchise history.

FOUR BUCCANEERS EARN PRO BOWL HONORS (12/16) – LB Derrick Brooks and rookie RB/KR Clifton Smith are selected to the NFL's annual all-star game in Hawaii. It marks Brooks' 11th selection, tops in team history and tied for second in NFL history for most Pro Bowl selections by a linebacker. Despite serving on the Buccaneers practice squad until Week 8 of the season, the undrafted Smith becomes the first kick returner in franchise history to be selected to the Pro Bowl and just the second rookie in team history, joining RB Warrick Dunn in 1997. In addition, Smith is only the third undrafted rookie free agent since 1970 to make the Pro Bowl. Named first alternates, CB Ronde Barber and G Davin Joseph, are later added to the Pro Bowl roster to round out the Buccaneers selections. It marks Barber's fifth career selection, moving him into a tie for fifth place in team history. Joseph's selection is the first of his career and marks the first time a Buccaneers offensive lineman is selected since 2000.

ANTONIO BRYANT NAMED COMEBACK PLAYER OF THE YEAR (1/15) – In his first season with the Buccaneers, WR Antonio Bryant is named the 2008 Comeback Player of the Year by The Sporting News. Bryant finishes the season setting career highs and leading the team with 83 receptions for 1,248 yards and seven touchdowns.

BUCCANEERS DISMISS GRUDEN, ALLEN (1/16) – The Buccaneers dismiss head coach Jon Gruden and general manager Bruce Allen. Gruden coached the Buccaneers for seven seasons, compiling a 57-55 record during the regular season and 3-2 in the playoffs. Gruden led the Buccaneers to a victory in Super Bowl XXXVII and three NFC South Division titles. He leaves as the Buccaneers all-time winningest coach.

MORRIS AND DOMINIK INTRODUCED AS HEAD COACH AND GENERAL MANAGER (1/17) – The Buccaneers announce Raheem Morris as head coach and Mark Dominik as general manager in a press conference at One Buccaneer Place. Morris, who spent six of the previous seven seasons as a defensive assistant with the Buccaneers, is the youngest head coach in the NFL at the time of his hiring and the eighth head coach in team history. Dominik is the fourth general manager in club history after spending the previous 14 seasons in the Buccaneers personnel department in various capacities.

QB JOSH FREEMAN DRAFTED IN THE FIRST ROUND (4/25) – The Buccaneers select Kansas State QB Josh Freeman with their first selection (17th overall) in the 2009 NFL Draft. Freeman becomes the highest quarterback selected by Tampa Bay in the first round since Trent Dilfer was drafted sixth overall in the 1994 NFL Draft.

TALIB TIES FRANCHISE RECORD WITH THREE INTERCEPTIONS (10/4) – CB Aqib Talib picks off QB Jason Campbell three times at Washington to tie CB Ronde Barber's club record, which he accomplished twice. Talib finishes the season with five interceptions to tie for the team lead and establish a career high.

BUCS PARTICIPATE IN NFL INTERNATIONAL SERIES (10/25) – In just their second international appearance, and first during the regular season, Tampa Bay falls to the New England Patriots by a score of 35-7 as part of the NFL's International Series in London. A raucous crowd of 84,254, the largest to watch the Bucs all season, fill historic Wembley Stadium to take in the game.

BUCCANEERS WEAR THROWBACK UNIFORMS, SELMON ENTERS RING OF HONOR (11/8) – For the first time, Tampa Bay wears its 1976 Florida orange throwback uniforms in a comeback victory over the Packers. At halftime, Buccaneers legend and Pro Football Hall of Fame DE Lee Roy Selmon becomes the first inductee into the team's Ring of Honor as the organization also recognizes the Buccaneers 1979 playoff team, with several members of the team in attendance.

MORRIS, FREEMAN EARN FIRST VICTORY IN COMEBACK WIN OVER GREEN BAY (11/8) – Making his first career start, QB Josh Freeman rallies the Buccaneers from an 11-point, fourth-quarter deficit against the Packers to give Head Coach Raheem Morris his first career victory. Freeman becomes the second youngest quarterback to win his first career start since 1970. Defensively, Tampa Bay records six sacks and three interceptions in a game for the first time since 1990.

WINSLOW SETS NEW SINGLE-SEASON CATCH MARK BY A TIGHT END (12/20) – TE Kellen Winslow records six receptions for 93 yards in a comeback win at Seattle to surpass TE Jackie Harris for most receptions in a single season by a tight end in team history. Harris registered 62 receptions in 1995 before Winslow established the new record, finishing the 2009 season with 77 catches.

BUCS SHOCK SAINTS IN NEW ORLEANS (12/27) – Trailing 17-0 in the second quarter at New Orleans, Tampa Bay scores 20 unanswered points against the eventual Super Bowl champions to win in overtime on K Connor Barth's 47-yard field goal. The 17-point comeback ties for the second-largest comeback in team history and it also marks the first time in NFL history that a team that was 10 or more games below .500 defeated a team that was 10 or more games above .500. The defense limits New Orleans to 17 points, tied for the fewest by the Saints in a single game on the season.

WINSLOW SURPASSES GILES FOR MOST RECEIVING YARDS BY A TIGHT END (12/27) – With his team-high 76 receiving yards at New Orleans, TE Kellen Winslow moves past TE Jimmie Giles (786 in 1981) for the most receiving yards for a tight end in a single season in team history. Winslow finishes the season with 884 receiving yards.

FREEMAN ESTABLISHES NEW ROOKIE RECORD FOR SINGLE SEASON PASSING YARDS (12/27) – Rookie QB Josh Freeman throws for 271 yards in the comeback win against the Saints, moving him past QB Bruce Gradkowski (1,661 passing yards in 2006) for most passing yards in a single season by a rookie in team history. Freeman goes on to throw for 1,855 yards on the season.

FREEMAN SETS ROOKIE MARK FOR TOUCHDOWN PASSES IN A SEASON (1/3) – QB Josh Freeman throws his 10th touchdown pass of the season in the season finale against Atlanta to establish a new rookie record for most touchdown passes in a single season, surpassing QB Bruce Gradkowski, who had nine touchdown passes in 2006.

BARBER STARTS IN RECORD 172ND CONSECUTIVE GAME (10/17) – CB Ronde Barber makes his 172nd consecutive start against New Orleans, surpassing Hall of Fame CB Dick LeBeau for the most consecutive starts by a cornerback in NFL history.

BARBER RECORDS 40TH CAREER INTERCEPTION (11/21) – CB Ronde Barber picks off QB Troy Smith for his 40th career interception in a shutout victory at San Francisco to become the first player in NFL history to record 25+ sacks and 40+ interceptions in their career. Barber's 40 career interceptions are also tops in franchise history.

BUCCANEERS POST SHUTOUT IN SAN FRANCISCO (11/21) – Tampa Bay defeats the 49ers 21-0 to become the first team to shut out the 49ers in San Francisco since 1977. It also marks the Buccaneers' first shutout since December 5, 2004 against the Atlanta Falcons.

MCKAY ENTERS RING OF HONOR (12/5) – At halftime against the Atlanta Falcons, John McKay became the second inductee into the team's Ring of Honor. McKay was the first head coach in Buccaneers history and coached the team for nine seasons, including three playoff berths and an appearance in the 1979 NFC Championship Game.

FREEMAN THROWS FIVE TOUCHDOWN PASSES (12/26) – In a 38-15 win against Seattle, QB Josh Freeman throws a career-high five touchdowns with no interceptions to become the youngest quarterback (22) to accomplish the feat since Dan Marino (22) on September 2, 1984.

BLOUNT SURPASSES 1,000-YARDS RUSHING (1/2) – RB LeGarrette Blount rushes for 66 yards in the season finale to finish his rookie campaign with 1,007 rushing yards, becoming just the second undrafted rookie running back in NFL history to finish with over 1,000 yards in a single season, despite just starting in seven games on the season. He also becomes just the third rookie running back in team history to finish with over 1,000 rushing yards in a single season.

FREEMAN RANKS IN THE TOP 10 ALL TIME IN TD/INT RATIO (1/2) – QB Josh Freeman finishes the season with a 25/6 touchdown-interception ratio to rank as the ninth-best ratio in NFL history among quarterbacks with at least 20 touchdown passes in a season. He also becomes just the second quarterback in NFL history under the age of 23 to throw six-or-fewer interceptions in a season with 200+ attempts (Dan Marino – 1983).

BLOUNT AND WILLIAMS LEAD ALL ROOKIES IN RUSHING AND RECEIVING (1/2) – Tampa Bay becomes the first team in NFL history to have two different players, RB LeGarrette Blount and WR Mike Williams, lead all rookies in rushing and receiving yards since 1968 (Cincinnati). Blount's 1,007 rushing yards and Williams' 964 receiving yards also lead the Buccaneers on the season.

WILLIAMS SETS NEW TEAM RECORD FOR TOUCHDOWN RECEPTIONS (1/2) – With his 18-yard touchdown reception in the season finale, rookie WR Mike Williams finishes the season with 11 receiving touchdowns to set a new franchise record for most receiving touchdowns in a season. His 11 touchdown receptions also lead all NFL rookies.

BUCS FINISH WITH 10 WINS, DESPITE STARTING 10 ROOKIES (1/2) – With a 10-6 final record, the Buccaneers become the first team since the merger (1970) to start 10+ different rookies in a single season and finish with a winning record.

10 WINS MARKS BEST SINGLE-SEASON TURNAROUND (1/2) – The Buccaneers' 10th win in the season finale against New Orleans, preceded by a 3-13 season in 2009, represents the best single-season turnaround in team history with a seven-game improvement. It also marks the biggest turnaround in the NFL in 2010.

BUCS MATCH FRANCHISE-BEST ROAD RECORD (1/2) – The Buccaneers finish the 2010 season with a 6-2 road record, matching the franchise's all-time best road record established during the Buccaneers championship season in 2002.

PENN ADDED TO PRO BOWL ROSTER (1/24) – T Donald Penn is added to the NFC squad for the 2011 AFC-NFC Pro Bowl, becoming the lone selection for the Buccaneers in the annual all-star event. Penn, the NFC's second alternate at tackle, replaces Green Bay Packers T Chad Clifton. His appearance is the first of his career and it marks the first time in Buccaneers history that an offensive tackle has been named to the Pro Bowl.

FREEMAN'S STREAK SNAPPED (9/25) – Against Atlanta, QB Josh Freeman fails to throw a touchdown pass for the first time in 15 contests. His 15 consecutive games with a touchdown pass set a new team mark.

BARTH TIES NFL RECORD (12/4) – Against Carolina, K Connor Barth became just the third player in NFL history to make four or more field goals of 40 or more yards in one half (50, 47, 46, 44). The four field goals also tied a Buccaneers record for most in a half.

GILES ENTERS RING OF HONOR (12/4) – At halftime against the Carolina Panthers, Jimmie Giles entered the Buccaneers Ring of Honor, becoming the third selection and first on offense. Giles earned honorable mention All-Pro honors from Sports Illustrated (1979) and the Associate Press (1985), while earning four Pro Bowl appearances – the second-most by an offensive player in team history.

JOSEPH SELECTED TO SECOND PRO BOWL (12/27) – G Davin Joseph was selected to play for the NFC squad in the 2012 AFC-NFC Pro Bowl. It was the second time in Joseph's six seasons, all with the Buccaneers, that he was honored.

BARBER PLAYS MOST GAMES IN FRANCHISE HISTORY (1/1) – CB Ronde Barber plays in his 225th career game, all with the Buccaneers, surpassing former LB Derrick Brooks (224) for the most in team history.

BARTH COMPLETES MOST ACCURATE SEASON IN TEAM HISTORY (1/1) – K Connor Barth converts 26-of-28 field goals on the season, for a franchise-record 92.9 percent. That rate ranked second in the NFL. In addition, Barth was successful on all 23 of his PATs.

KOENEN MAKES MAJOR IMPACT IN FIRST YEAR (1/1) – After signing with the Buccaneers as an unrestricted free agent, P Michael Koenen compiled arguably the best punting season in franchise history. Koenen set the club record for net average (40.3) by 2.5 yards over the previous mark, while his 45.1-gross average was the second-highest total in club annals. Koenen also set team single-game record for highest gross average (52.2, min. 4) in his first contest as Buccaneer on September 11, against Detroit.

FOSTER LEADS ALL NFL ROOKIES IN TACKLES (1/1) – LB Mason Foster leads all NFL rookies in tackles. His 126 stops also led the team and were the second-most in franchise history for a rookie. Foster, who started the final 15 games at middle linebacker, also recorded four tackles for loss, two sacks, one interception, one forced fumble and one fumble recovery.

MORRIS DISMISSED (1/2) – The Buccaneers announce the dismissal of head coach Raheem Morris. Morris coached the team for three seasons, tallying a 17-31 record.

SCHIANO HIRED AS HEAD COACH (1/26) – The Buccaneers announce former Rutgers head coach Greg Schiano as the ninth coach in franchise history. In 12 years at Rutgers, Schiano compiled a 68-67 record, leading the team to six bowl game appearances.

BARBER MAKES 200TH CONSECUTIVE START (9/9) – CB Ronde Barber made his 200th consecutive start at cornerback in the season opener against the Carolina Panthers, extending his streak for the most consecutive games started by a cornerback.

BARBER SCORES AGAIN (10/14) – DB Ronde Barber returned an interception 78 yards in a 38-10 win over the Kansas City Chiefs, the 45th interception of his career and the eighth he has returned for a score. He has 14 career return touchdowns (eight from interceptions, four from fumble recoveries, one from punt return, one from punt block), the fourth-most return touchdowns in NFL history.

GRUBER ENTERS RING OF HONOR (12/4) – At halftime against the Kansas City Chiefs, Paul Gruber was inducted into the Buccaneers Ring of Honor. Gruber earned numerous awards during his 12-year career with the Buccaneers, including several All-Pro selections and distinction as a Pro Bowl alternate in 1997.

BARBER SETS BUCCANEERS RECORD FOR GAMES STARTED (10/21) – DB Ronde Barber recorded his 222nd career start against New Orleans, passing former Buccaneers LB Derrick Brooks (221 starts from 1995-08) for the most starts in team history.

JACKSON SETS FRANCHISE RECORD FOR RECEIVING YARDS (10/21) – WR Vincent Jackson set a team record and career-high with 216 receiving yards, including a career long 95-yard reception.

MARTIN'S RECORD-BREAKING DAY (11/4) – RB Doug Martin had the best game a Buccaneers running back has ever had in a 42-32 victory at Oakland, recording 251 rushing yards on only 25 carries (10.1 avg.) and four rushing touchdowns. His 251 rushing yards were the tenth-most in NFL history, and he became only the second player in league history to record 250+ rushing yards and four touchdowns in the same game.

BUCCANEERS BREAK SINGLE-SEASON TEAM SCORING, TOUCHDOWN RECORDS (1/3) – The 2020 Buccaneers surpassed the 2019 team (458 points) for the most points scored in a single season in team history as they finished with a record-setting 492 points scored in 2020. The Buccaneers also surpassed the 2019 team (54 touchdowns) for the most touchdowns scored in a single season in team history, finishing with a record-setting 59 touchdowns in 2020.

TAMPA BAY ADVANCES TO NFC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME (1/17) – Tampa Bay qualified for the NFC Championship Game for the fourth time in club history by defeating the division-rival New Orleans Saints, 30-20 at the Mercedes-Benz Superdome. Tampa Bay trailed 20-13 with 2:23 remaining in the third quarter before scoring 17 unanswered points to secure the win.

BUCCANEERS CLAIM NFC TITLE (1/24) – Tampa Bay earned its second NFC crown and Super Bowl berth with a 31-26 win over the Green Bay Packers at Lambeau Field. The win marked Tampa Bay's ninth-straight road win dating back to the regular season – the longest road winning streak in franchise history. The Buccaneers were the first No. 5 seed in NFL history to defeat a No. 1 seed in a conference championship game.

TAMPA BAY WINS SUPER BOWL LV, BECOMES FIRST TEAM IN NFL HISTORY TO WIN AT HOME STADIUM (2/7) – The Buccaneers defeated the Kansas City Chiefs, 31-9, in Super Bowl LV at Raymond James Stadium in Tampa, becoming the first team in league history to win the Super Bowl on its home field. The Chiefs, who led the NFL with 415.8 yards of offense per game and who ranked sixth in the NFL in scoring (29.6 points per game) during the regular season, were held to just nine points by Tampa Bay's defense – tied for the 10th-fewest points allowed in Super Bowl history. The win marked the eighth consecutive win for the Buccaneers dating back to the regular season, securing the longest winning streak in team history. It was also the seventh consecutive game in which Tampa Bay scored 30-or-more points to finish the season. Quarterback Tom Brady won Super Bowl MVP honors, securing his fifth Super Bowl MVP award – the most in NFL history.

WORLD CHAMPIONS PARADE THROUGH TAMPA (2/10) – Following their 31-9 victory over Kansas City in Super Bowl LIV, the World Champion Tampa Bay Buccaneers paraded down the Hillsborough River in the franchise's first ever boat parade to celebrate the organization's second Super Bowl title.

TAMPA BAY RETURNS ALL 22 STARTERS FROM SUPER BOWL TEAM (4/5) – In an unprecedented effort by the front office, the Buccaneers were able to return all 22 starters from the Super Bowl LV championship team, becoming the first to do so in the salary cap era. Tampa Bay was the first team since the 1979 Pittsburgh Steelers to return all of its Week 1 starters from a Super Bowl season and the first team since the 1977 Raiders to return all 22 starters from the Super Bowl gameday roster.

BUCCANEERS RECEIVE SUPER BOWL LV CHAMPIONSHIP RINGS (7/22) – Buccaneers players, coaches and staff received their Super Bowl LV Championship rings, featuring first-of-its kind twist off top that revealed a hand-engraved, three-dimensional replica of Raymond James Stadium, in honor of the team becoming the first to win a Super Bowl in its home stadium.

JOHN LYNCH INDUCTED INTO HALL OF FAME (8/8) – Former Buccaneers safety John Lynch is inducted into the Hall of Fame, joining LB Derrick Brooks, HC Tony Dungy, DT Warren Sapp and DE Lee Roy Selmon as the only Buccaneers in the NFL Hall of Fame. Lynch earned five Pro Bowl selections and two Associated Press first-team All-Pro honors in his 11 seasons with the Buccaneers. He was a vital part of the Buccaneers secondary that brought the organization its first Super Bowl title following the 2002 season.

TOM BRADY SURPASSES DREW BREES FOR THE NFL'S ALL-TIME PASSING YARDS RECORD (10/3) – Against his former team, the New England Patriots, quarterback Tom Brady surpassed Drew Brees (80,358) for the most passing yards in NFL history. In the process, Brady also joined Brees, Brett Favre and Peyton Manning as the only quarterbacks in league history to defeat all 32 NFL teams.

BUCCANEERS DEFENSE HOLDS PATRIOTS TO FRANCHISE RECORD -1 RUSHING YARDS (10/3) – Tampa Bay set a new single-game record for fewest rushing yards allowed, shutting down New England for -1 rushing yards.

TOM BRADY CAPTURES NFL RECORDS FOR MOST CAREER GAMES WITH THREE-OR-MORE OR FOUR-OR-MORE PASSING TOUCHDOWNS (10/31) – Tom Brady threw four touchdown passes at New Orleans, settiing a new NFL record with his 38th career game with four-or-more passing touchdowns. In the same game, he also passed Drew Brees for the most games with three-or-more passing touchdowns.

MIKE EVANS BREAKS MIKE ALSTOTT'S CAREER FRANCHISE TOUCHDOWN RECORD (11/22) – Mike Evans recorded the 72nd touchdown of his Buccaneers career, surpassing Mike Alsott for the most in team history.

CHRIS GODWIN SECURES SINGLE-GAME FRANCHISE RECEPTION RECORD (12/5) – Wide receiver Chris Godwin hauled in 15 catches at Indianapolis, setting a new single-game reception record for Tampa Bay.

BUCCANEERS GRANTED ACCESS TO GERMANY AS INTERNATIONAL HOME MARKETING AREA (12/15) – The Buccaneers were one of 18 teams granted marketing rights to a new international market, paving the way for Tampa bay to begin marketing, parternship, fan events and other marketing activities in Germany. Additionally, this initiative revealed the news that the Buccaneers would soon play their first ever game in Germany at a date to be announced later.

FRANCHISE-RECORD TYING NINE BUCCANEERS NAMED TO 2022 PRO BOWL ROSTER (12/22) – The Buccaneers had nine players named to the 2022 Pro Bowl, tying the 2000 Buccaneers for the most selections in franchise history. Quarterback Tom Brady earned his NFL-record 15th Pro Bowl selection, wide receiver Mike Evans received his fourth career selection and outside linebacker Shaquil Barrett garnered his second career selection, while center Ryan Jensen, guard Ali Marpet, nose tackle Vita Vea, linebacker Devin White, safety Antoine Winfield Jr. and tackle Tristan Wirfs each were named to the first Pro Bowl of their respective careers.

BUCCANEERS CAPTURE SEVENTH NFC SOUTH DIVISION TITLE (12/26) – Tampa Bay defeated the Carolina Panthers 32-6 to claim its seventh division title in franchise history.

TAMPA BAY EARNS 13TH REGULAR SEASON VICTORY TO SET NEW FRANCHISE RECORD (1/9) – Tampa Bay defeated the Carolina Panthers 41-17 to claim its 13th win of the 2021 regular season, surpassing the 2002 Buccaneers for the most wins in a single season in team history, while also setting a team record for the highest win percentage in a season (.765).

MIKE EVANS SETS NEW SINGLE SEASON TOUCHDOWN RECORD, JOINS ELITE GROUP (1/9) – Wide receiver Mike Evans made six receptions for 89 yards and two touchdowns in the final week of the 2021 regular season, setting a new franchise single-season record for touchdown receptions (14). He also extended his NFL record for consecutive 1,000-yard receiving seasons to begin a career to eight and became one of just four players in NFL history with 9,000+ receiving yards and 75+ receiving touchdowns through eight seasons, joining Pro Football Hall of Famers Marvin Harrison, Randy Moss and Jerry Rice.

TOM BRADY BREAKS MULTIPLE RECORDS IN 2021 SEASON FINALE (1/9) – Tom Brady set new single-season franchise records for passing yards (5,316) and passing touchdowns (43), while also joining Drew Brees (2008) and Peyton Manning (2013) as the only players in NFL history to lead the league in passing yards, touchdowns, completions and attempts in the same season.

TRISTAN WIRFS BECOMES FIRST BUCCANEERS OFFENSIVE LINEMAN TO EARN FIRST-TEAM AP ALL-PRO HONORS (1/14) – In just his second NFL season, tackle Tristan Wirfs became the first offensive lineman in team history to earn first team AP All-Pro honors, and the first Tampa Bay player at any position with a first-team designation since 2015.

MIKE EVANS BECOMES FRANCHISE LEADER FOR POSTSEASON RECEPTIONS, RECEIVING YARDS AND RECEIVING TOUCHDOWNS (1/23) – Wide receiver Mike Evans recorded 100-or-more yards in each of Tampa Bay's two playoff games following the 2021 season on his way to becoming the franchise's all-time career playoff leader for receptions (28), receiving yards (440) and receiving touchdowns (four). Evans already held the team records for receptions, receiving yards and receiving touchdowns during the regular season.

LEONARD FOURNETTE BECOMES FRANCHISE LEADER FOR POSTSEASON SCRIMMAGE YARDS (1/23) – Running back Leonard Fournette surpassed Mike Alstott (502) for the franchise's all-time career playoff scrimmage yards record, accumulating 555 scrimmage yards through his first two postseason runs in Tampa Bay.

TODD BOWLES TAKES OVER AS BUCCANEERS HEAD COACH (3/30) – In light of Super Bowl-winning head coach Bruce Arians making the decision to transition into a front office role for Tampa Bay, the Buccaneers named Todd Bowles the franchise's 13th head coach. Bowles previously served as the team's defensive coordinator from 2019-21, transforming the Buccaneers defense into one of the league's most productive and opportunistic defenses in the NFL.

MIKE EVANS BECOMES FRANCHISE LEADER FOR SCRIMMAGE YARDS (10/2) – Wide receiver Mike Evans surpassed James Wilder (9,449) for the most scrimmage yards in franchise history. In his first nine seasons, Evans became Tampa Bay's all-time leader in receptions, receiving yards, receiving touchdowns, scrimmage yards and scrimmage touchdowns.

BUCCANEERS PLAY IN NFL'S FIRST EVER GAME IN GERMANY (11/13) – The Tampa Bay Buccaneers defeated the Seattle Seahawks 21-16 at Allianz Arena – the home of FC Bayern Munich in Munich, Germany as part of the NFL's International Series. The game marked the NFL's first ever contest in Germany.

RONDE BARBER INDUCTED INTO HALL OF FAME (8/5) – Former Buccaneers defensive back Rondé Barber is inducted into the Hall of Fame, joining LB Derrick Brooks, HC Tony Dungy, S John Lynch, DT Warren Sapp and DE Lee Roy Selmon as the only Buccaneers in the NFL Hall of Fame. Barber earned five Pro Bowl selections and three Associated Press first-team All-Pro honors in his 16 seasons with the Buccaneers. He was a vital part of the Buccaneers secondary that brought the organization its first Super Bowl title following the 2002 season. As of his induction, Barber owns franchise records for games played (241), games started (232), interceptions (47), total touchdowns by a defensive player (14) and defensive touchdowns (12). He also stands as the only player in league history with 45-or-more career interceptions and 25-or-more career sacks.

MIKE EVANS RECORDS 1,000 RECEIVING YARDS FOR THE 10TH-CONSECUTIVE SEASON, MARKING THE SECOND-LONGEST STREAK IN NFL HISTORY (12/3) – Mike Evans hauled in seven receptions for 162 yards and a touchdown vs. the Carolina Panthers to go over the 1,000-yard receiving mark on the season and extend his own NFL record of consecutive 1,000-yard receiving seasons to begin a career. His 10 consecutive seasons with 1,000+ receiving yards trail only Pro Football Hall of Famer Jerry Rice's streak of 11-straight-such seasons.

TAMPA BAY BUCCANEERS WIN THIRD CONSECUTIVE NFC SOUTH TITLE (1/7) – The Buccaneers shut out the Carolina Panthers 3-0 to secure the team's third consecutive division title and fourth consecutive playoff berth. Tampa Bay was the only NFC team to clinch a playoff spot each year from 2020-23.

ANTOINE WINFIELD JR. NAMED AP FIRST-TEAM ALL-PRO (1/12) – In an unprecedented campaign, Winfield Jr. became the lone player since data became available in 1999 with 100+ tackles, three-or-more interceptions, three-or-more forced fumbles, three-or-more fumble recoveries and 3.0+ sacks. He held a share of the league lead in both forced fumbles and fumble recoveries on his way to being the league's highest graded safety by Pro Football Focus.

BAKER MAYFIELD NAMED PFWA MOST IMPROVED PLAYER HIS FIRST SEASON WITH THE BUCCANEERS (1/26) – Mayfield put forth a 2023 season in which he established career highs in completions (364), passing yards (4,044), passing touchdowns (28) and completion percentage (64.3%), while being 1-of-2 NFL players with 28+ passing touchdowns and 10-or-fewer interceptions. He became just the second Tampa Bay player to throw for 4,000+ yards, 25+ touchdowns and 10-or-fewer interceptions in a single season alongside Tom Brady.

MIKE EVANS, BAKER MAYFIELD AND TRISTAN WIRFS EARN SELECTIONS TO 2024 PRO BOWL GAMES (1/30) – It marked the fifth career Pro Bowl honor for Evans, the first for Mayfield and the third for Wirfs in just his fourth NFL season.

BUCCANEERS ANNOUNCE RETURN OF ORIGINAL 1976 UNIFORM TO COMMEMORATE TEAM'S 50TH SEASON (7/15) – The Tampa Bay Buccaneers unveiled the return of the team's original 1976 jersey, a revival of the iconic design worn by the franchise in its inaugural season. 2025 marks the first time in nearly five decades the Buccaneers have taken the field in their complete original 1976 uniform.

ED BLOCK COURAGE AWARD

Each year, the Ed Block Courage Award is given to a player on each NFL team who best exemplifies commitment to the principles of sportsmanship and courage. The recipient symbolizes professionalism, dedication and performance as a community role model. This national award is named after the former Baltimore Colts' trainer who was a tireless worker for victims of abuse, violence, neglect and families in crisis.

BUCCANEERS PLAYOFF HISTORY

TAMPA BAY 24, PHILADELPHIA 17
TAMPA STADIUM (71,402)

TAMPA – The first foray into the postseason was a successful one for the Tampa Bay franchise, which reached the playoffs in just its fourth year of existence. After winning the NFC Central with a 10-6 record, the Buccaneers faced Philadelphia in the Divisional Playoff round after the Eagles had downed Chicago a week earlier. Tampa Bay used a stingy defense (227 yards allowed) and the relentless running of Ricky Bell to prevail 24-17 in front of a home crowd of 71,402. The Buccaneers opened the game with a methodical 18-play, 80-yard march that drained over nine minutes off the clock. On his way to a 142-yard rushing performance, Bell ran on exactly half of the drive's plays, gaining 37 yards on nine totes, including a four-yard scoring burst around right end. Neither team advanced significantly on its next possession, but Philadelphia moved into field goal range early in the second quarter. After a successful fake field goal run was nullified by a delay-of-game penalty on the Eagles, K Tony Franklin came up short on a 52-yard attempt. Taking over at its own 35, Tampa Bay saw a 25-yard run by Bell called back due to holding but immediately compensated with a 34-yard pass from QB Doug Williams to WR Larry Mucker. Williams later fired a 26-yard pass to WR Isaac Hagins and an apparent TD toss to TE Jimmie Giles, but Giles was ruled to not have possession and the Bucs settled for a 40-yard field goal. Before the intermission, Tampa Bay was able to extend its lead to 17 thanks to a big play by the defense. NT Randy Crowder's fumble recovery at the Eagles' four-yard line just two plays after Tampa Bay's field goal set up a second Buccaneer touchdown, though it took four plays to cover that short distance. After an incomplete pass and two Bell runs for three yards, Buccaneer Head Coach John McKay elected to send Bell through the line one more time on fourth down and the third-year back followed a block by left tackle Darryl Carlton to reach paydirt. Philadelphia did manage to get on the board before halftime when LB Jerry Robinson intercepted a Williams pass at the Buccaneers' 48 and returned it 37 yards to the 11. Two plays later, Jaworski hooked up with WR Charles Smith in the end zone to cut the Buc lead to 17-7. Philly then opened the third quarter with a 45-yard field goal drive aided by WR Harold Carmichael's tackle-breaking 39-yard reception and concluded by Franklin's 42-yard kick. The Bucs and Eagles then traded two more punts each to run out the period. On its second possession of the fourth quarter, Tampa Bay got what proved to be the decisive points when Williams hit Giles on a three-yard scoring pass that capped a 57-yard drive. Bell provided the key play of the march with a 26-yard run around left tackle on third-and-two from the Philadelphia 49. Philadelphia answered on its next possession with a gritty 80-yard drive, twice keeping possession on fourth-down completions by QB Ron Jaworski. After a 13-yarder to Smith on fourth-and-11 from the 50-yard line, Jaworski then found Carmichael for a 37-yard TD. Following an unsuccessful onside-kick attempt, Philadelphia forced a Buccaneer three-and-out and went on one last drive in the final two minutes. Jaworski's fourth-down incompletion from the Buc 45 effectively ended the game.

1979 NFC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

JANUARY 6, 1980
TAMPA STADIUM (72,033)

TAMPA – In the first NFC Championship Game to be decided without either team scoring a touchdown, host Tampa Bay fell 9-0 to the Los Angeles Rams. In a reversal of the elements that brought the Buccaneers victory one week before in the franchise's first playoff game, Tampa Bay was held to 177 net yards of offense and surrendered to a pounding Rams running game that racked up 216 yards on 53 carries. Three Buccaneer passers were limited to just five completions in 27 attempts and Tampa Bay did not penetrate L.A territory until midway through the third quarter. Neither team scored in the first quarter, though Los Angeles threatened twice. On its second drive of the game, L.A. advanced to the Buccaneer 18 thanks to two runs and one reception by RB Cullen Bryant for a combined 30 yards. However, fellow RB Wendell Tyler then fumbled on first-and-10 at the 18, with Buccaneer LB Richard Wood recovering. After a Tampa Bay punt, the Rams embarked on another drive deep into Buc territory, mostly on alternating runs by Bryant and Tyler. Tyler got the call on third-and-goal from the one on the final play of the first period but was stopped short by Buc DE Wally Chambers. On the first play of the second quarter, K Frank Corral opened the scoring with a 19-yard field goal. A combined five punts later, Los Angeles took over at its own 38 with just under six minutes to play in the half. Using five of those minutes, Los Angeles advanced 58 yards on 10 plays, the largest chunk coming on a drive-opening 22-yard completion from QB Vince Ferragamo to TE Charle Young. When Buc LB Dewey Selmon stopped Young for a four-yard gain on third-and-five from the Bucs' eight, the Rams were forced into another field goal try, this one a successful 21-yarder. In the final minute of the first half, Tampa Bay drove nearly to midfield but Williams was intercepted in L.A. territory by LB Jim Youngblood. The Rams took a 6-0 lead into halftime after controlling the ball for almost 21 of the game's first 30 minutes. Neither team scored in the third quarter, though the Rams' Corral tried a 37-yard field goal that sailed wide left. The Los Angeles drive had stalled when S Cedric Brown tracked Tyler down in the backfield for a five-yard loss from the Bucs' 15. After a pair of punts, Tampa Bay made its first move into the Los Angeles half of the field when RB Jerry Eckwood threw a 42-yard option pass to WR Larry Mucker and Mucker was pulled down at the 24. However, QB Mike Rae, seeing his first playoff action in place of starter Doug Williams, threw incomplete passes on third and fourth down. Still trailing by just six points, the Buccaneers stiffened defensively on the ensuing possession. Wood stopped Tyler for two-yards on third-and-three then dropped him for a one-yard loss on fourth-and-one at the Bucs' 27-yard line. After the Bucs were forced to punt again, Los Angeles made the game's final dent on the scoreboard, driving 45 yards on eight plays to set up Corral's third short three-pointer, a 23-yarder. A 13-yard run by Tyler and a 12-yarder by Bryant keyed the march. WR Isaac Hagins returned the ensuing kickoff to Tampa Bay's 35-yard line then hauled in a 25-yard pass from Rae, but Rae's fourth-down throw to Mucker fell incomplete in the end zone.

TEXAS STADIUM (64,848)

DALLAS – The Buccaneers won a thrilling showdown with Detroit in the last week of the regular season to capture the NFC Central crown but, for the second time in a row, failed to score in the resulting playoff game. Dallas ran for 212 yards and four touchdowns on 46 carries and held Tampa Bay to 222 net yards of offense in a 38-0 whitewash. Buccaneer QB Doug Williams was also sacked four times and intercepted four times as Dallas scored 28 second-half points. The first quarter, however, was scoreless as Tampa Bay repelled several Cowboy scoring chances. After an unsuccessful opening drive for the Bucs, Dallas reached Tampa Bay's 40-yard line but stalled when LBs Cecil Johnson and Andy Hawkins broke up a near completion from QB Danny White to TE Doug Cosbie on third-and-nine. Williams was intercepted by CB Dennis Thurman in Buccaneer territory a few plays later, but the Buc defense tipped away two passes and stopped RB Tony Dorsett for a four-yard loss to force a quick punt. Thurman promptly intercepted another Williams offering three plays later, giving Dallas possession at the Bucs' 47. A two-yard fourth-down run by FB Ron Springs and two third-down completions by White preserved a drive that bled into the second quarter and eventually ended in White's nine-yard scoring pass to WR Tony Hill. The Bucs appeared to be responding on their next possession when a 20-yard pass from Williams to RB James Owens sparked a drive that reached Dallas' 21. However, Tampa Bay was penalized 28 yards on second-and-six when Williams was flagged for intentional grounding while trying to avoid a strong rush from DE Ed 'Too Tall' Jones. The drive ended in a punt one play later. Dallas added a 21-yard field goal drive after a short Buccaneer punt, giving the Cowboys a 10-0 halftime advantage. That lead was quickly extended after the intermission when Dallas put together a quick 80-yard touchdown drive to open the third period. Dorsett scrambled for consecutive gains of 25 and 26 yards on short passes and RB James Jones ran six yards off right guard for the score. S Michael Downs picked off a Williams pass later in the third quarter and returned it 21 yards to Tampa Bay's 33, setting up a Dorsett five-yard TD run. On the Bucs' next play, Williams was hit by DT John Dutton, leading to an interception by Ed Jones. James Jones converted that turnover into a five-yard touchdown run after Dorsett had zipped for 21 yards on first down. On a drive beginning in the final seconds of the third quarter, Tampa Bay made its deepest thrust into Dallas territory on the strength of a 75-yard reception by TE Jimmie Giles. Giles was pulled down at the Dallas five, but a sack and a three-yard loss by RB Jerry Eckwood led to a fourth-and-goal from the nine. Under pressure from LB Anthony Dickerson, Williams missed Giles in the end zone. Dallas scored its final touchdown on the ensuing possession, driving 90 yards in nine-and-a-half minutes before RB Timmy Newsome punched it in from one-yard out. The Bucs' last drive included a 23-yard Williams-to-Giles hookup but ended on a failed fake punt attempt.

1982 NFC FIRST ROUND PLAYOFF GAME

TEXAS STADIUM (65,042)

DALLAS – For the second straight season, Tampa Bay's playoff road began and ended in Dallas, where they had hoped to avenge a 38-0 drubbing from the 1981 post-season. Though Tampa Bay actually led 17-16 entering the final quarter, Dallas once again moved on at the Bucs' expense, scoring twice in the fourth quarter to earn a 30-17 win. The Buccaneers were outgained in total net yards by a wide 456-218 margin and had possession of the ball for less than 20 minutes of the game, but stayed close with three takeaways, five sacks and a pair of long touchdowns. Dallas cracked the scoreboard first with a 33-yard Rafael Septien field goal in the first quarter set up by Dextor Clinkscales interception at midfield. After a Buccaneer punt, Septien hit another field goal from identical distance, this one keyed by a 26-yard pass from QB Danny White to WR Butch Johnson that had a 14-yard personal foul tacked onto the end of it. Tampa Bay took its first lead of the game in the second quarter thanks to a big play on defense. With Dallas driving well into Buccaneer territory, White fumbled on third-and-six and Tampa Bay LB Hugh Green recovered the loose ball and ran 60 yards for the only defensive touchdown in Buccaneer playoff history. Dallas promptly moved back into the Bucs' half of the field on its next possession as White again hooked up with Johnson for 23 yards and found WR Tony Hill open for a 14-yard gain. The Buccaneer defense came up with another big play, however, as S Mark Cotney redirected another White aerial and returned it 50 yards to the Dallas 27. RB James Wilder added an 11 yard run from there, but the Bucs were forced to kick a 32-yard field goal when CB Ron Fellows broke up a pass intended for WR Gerald Carter in the end zone. Dallas regained the lead before halftime by putting together a 10-play, 75-yard drive culminating in White's six-yard TD pass to RB Ron Springs. Key plays on that drive included a 21-yard catch by WR Drew Pearson and a 13-yarder by TE Doug Cosbie. The third quarter was dominated by a pair of long drives. Dallas opened the period with an 84-yard march on 17 plays that ended in Septien's 19-yard field goal. The Cowboys converted four third downs on the drive but missed the fifth when DE Lee Roy Selmon stopped RB Tony Dorsett for no gain at the one. After interceptions by Dallas' Dennis Thurman and Tampa Bay's Neal Colzie, the Bucs countered with an 80-yard touchdown drive on six plays. WR Gordon Jones got more than half of that on third-and-eight from mid-field when he caught a 49-yard scoring pass, giving Tampa Bay a 17-16 lead. The Bucs then quickly got the ball back to start the fourth quarter thanks to two sacks of White, one by Selmon, but S Monty Hunter then turned in the game's pivotal play, intercepting a Williams throw intended for WR Kevin House and returning it 19 yards for a go-ahead score. Dallas added an 81-yard drive later in the period, scoring a clinching touchdown on White's 10-yard pass to RB Timmy Newsome. Tampa Bay's offense then stalled and Dallas converted two first downs to run out the final two minutes.

1997 NFC WILD CARD PLAYOFF GAME

HOULIHAN'S STADIUM (73,361)

TAMPA – In the team's first playoff game in Tampa Bay since the 1979 season, the Buccaneers dominated Detroit early, rushing to a 20-0 third quarter lead before holding on for the 20-10 Wild Card victory. Lions RB Barry Sanders, who came into the game in possession of a 14-game streak of 100-yard rushing efforts and just the third 2,000-yard season in league history, was contained spectacularly by a swarming Buc defense, gaining just 65 yards and notching no carry longer than 15 yards. After two failed first-quarter drives for each team, the Bucs made the initial strike with a 40-yard field goal drive keyed by QB Trent Dilfer's scrambling, 23-yard completion to WR Karl Williams on third-and-one. Detroit's next drive stalled, too, but the Lions almost regained possession when Williams muffed the resulting punt. However, the ball bounced through several Detroit hands and out of bounds at the Tampa Bay 11, instead setting up the longest drive in Buccaneer playoff history. Fueled by a pair of first-round rookies–RB Warrick Dunn gained 29 yards on seven runs and catches and WR Reidel Anthony caught passes of 10 and 20 yards–the Bucs marched down to a third-and-seven at the Detroit nine-yard line. From there, Dilfer fired a laser over the middle to WR Horace Copeland in the back of the end zone. Detroit's next attempt to climb back into the game was quickly turned back when CB Anthony Parker intercepted a Scott Mitchell pass at the Lions' 39 and returned it to the 20. Three plays later, PK Michael Husted nailed his second three-pointer, this one from a Buccaneer playoff-record 42 yards out. Detroit moved into Buccaneer territory on its next possession but was stonewalled at the 45 when a fourth-and-one pass attempt fell incomplete under heavy pressure from LB Rufus Porter. The Bucs struck first again in the second half when, after a Detroit punt, Dilfer marched his squad 53 yards for a touchdown. FB Mike Alstott began the drive with a seven-yard run then finished it with a 31-yard pinballing burst up the middle that turned into the longest carry in Buc playoff history and Tampa Bay's final touchdown. Detroit's next drive lasted 11 plays as Sanders finally got untracked for consecutive runs of 11 and 15 yards, but another fourth-down pass attempt, this one from the Buccaneers' eight-yard line, fell incomplete under significant pressure from the defensive line. The Lions did manage a field goal before the third period ended, then tacked on a touchdown with their first drive of the final quarter, marching 82 yards behind back-up QB Frank Reich. On the ensuing kickoff, a Buccaneer penalty forced Tampa Bay to start at its own five-yard line and the team quickly found itself in a third-and-five situation from the 10. Any developing thoughts of a Detroit comeback were promptly denied, however, when Dilfer hit WR Robb Thomas on a crossing pattern that turned into a 52-yard gain.

1997 NFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF GAME

GREEN BAY 21, TAMPA BAY 7
LAMBEAU FIELD (60,327)

GREEN BAY – The Buccaneers trailed by just six points, 13-7, entering the final period but couldn't pull off the upset in Lambeau Field in a Divisional Playoff game as the Packers held on to a 21-7 win. Tampa Bay had the first scoring opportunity of the game in the opening quarter when a 51-yard drive positioned them at the Green Bay 25. However, DT Bob Kuberski blocked PK Michael Husted's 43-yard field goal attempt and the Packers took over at their own 33. That preceded a 67-yard, seven-play touchdown drive for the Pack that began with a 17-yard Brett Favre-to-TE Mark Chmura pass and ended similarly with a three-yard Favre-Chmura TD hookup. The Bucs' ensuing drive was much like the previous one, covering 50 yards and reaching the Packers' 25-yard line, thanks in large part to a 17-yard pass from QB Trent Dilfer to WR Horace Copeland on third-and-nine. This time, a potential 43-yard field goal was eschewed in favor of a fake attempt, but TE John Davis was stopped for no gain after taking a shovel pass from holder Steve Walsh. The tide seemed to turn again in the Bucs' favor two plays later when DT Warren Sapp stripped RB Dorsey Levens of the ball while making the tackle and recovered the fumble to give Tampa Bay possession at the Packers' 30. Unfortunately for the visitors, Green Bay's defense held strong, forcing another ill-fated field goal attempt, this one wasted by a botched snap. Sapp, who applied constant pressure in the Green Bay backfield all day, recording three sacks, nearly got the ball back for Tampa Bay when he got to Favre and stripped the ball again on third down, but the Packers recovered and punted away. In the half's final two minutes, Green Bay added to its lead with a pair of field goals, the second one set up by CB Tyrone Williams' interception of a Dilfer pass that went through WR Robb Thomas' hands. The Packers opened the second half with a strong drive into Buccaneer territory, but S John Lynch and CB Donnie Abraham combined to turn them away when Lynch hit Favre as he was passing and Abraham made a diving interception of the resulting errant pass. The Bucs then embarked on a 94-yard drive, the longest ever in Buccaneer playoff history, to score a touchdown and pull within six. On third-and-11 from their own five-yard line, the Bucs got out of trouble when Dilfer hit a streaking Reidel Anthony on the sideline for a 52-yard gain. Dilfer then found TE Dave Moore for a 28-yard gain over the middle, setting up FB Mike Alstott's six-yard TD run around left end. Packer RB Dorsey Levens matched that score near the beginning of the fourth quarter with a two-yard touchdown run, finishing off a drive that had been kept alive when WR Derrick Mayes' bobbled reception on third-and-18 fell into the crook of Mayes' leg for a 22-yard gain. Favre ran the ball in himself on the two-point conversion. The Bucs' next two drives ended in failed fourth downs, including a march set up by Abraham's second interception of the day.

RAYMOND JAMES STADIUM (65,835)

TAMPA – The Bucs rallied from a 13-point deficit to stun the Redskins 14-13 before a delirious gathering of 65,835 at Raymond James Stadium. The win propelled the Bucs into the NFC Championship Game for the first time in two decades. Washington ushered the league's second-ranked offense into Tampa, but left with 157 total yards and no offensive TDs. After a scoreless first quarter, the Redskins struck first. Brett Conway booted a 28-yard FG, giving Washington a 3-0 lead that carried into the locker room. The Redskins then stretched their lead before many fans had returned to their seats. RB Brian Mitchell returned the second-half kickoff 100 yards for a TD. The return set an NFL postseason record and handed Washington a 10-0 lead. CB Darrell Green later picked off Shaun King, setting up Conway for a 48-yard FG. Washington led 13-0 and the natives were growing restless. But S John Lynch intercepted Redskins QB Brad Johnson late in the third quarter, igniting a fire under the Bucs' offense. King marched Tampa Bay to the Redskins 2, where FB Mike Alstott scored on a highlight-reel rumble, cutting Washington's lead to 13-7. Two series later, DE Steve White knocked the ball out of Johnson's hands. DT Warren Sapp recovered at the Redskins 32, setting up an acrobatic one-yard TD toss from King to TE John Davis. The Redskins got one more crack, but Dan Turk's errant snap on a 52-yard FG attempt with 1:17 left punched Tampa Bay's ticket to St. Louis.

1999 NFC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

ST. LOUIS 11, TAMPA BAY 6
TRANS WORLD DOME (66,496)

ST. LOUIS – Tampa Bay held the high-powered Rams in check for nearly 60 minutes, but a late TD pass enabled St. Louis to escape with an 11-6 win before 66,496 at Trans World Dome. The win propelled the Rams to their second-ever Super Bowl berth. The Bucs jumped on the board quickly. DE Steve White intercepted NFL MVP Kurt Warner on the first play of the game, setting up the Tampa Bay offense at the St. Louis 20. Martin Gramatica booted a 25-yard FG, giving the Bucs a 3-0 lead. The Rams bounced right back, marching 74 yards on 16 plays before settling for a 24-yard FG by Jeff Wilkins. St. Louis grabbed its first lead thanks to a Bucs miscue. C Tony Mayberry snapped the ball over QB Shaun King's head and King knocked the ball out of the end zone for a safety. Wilkins missed a 44-yard FG after the ensuing free kick. The Bucs marched to the Rams 41 late in the second quarter, but CB Todd Lyght picked off King to preserve the 5-3 lead at the half. Tampa Bay reclaimed the lead at the outset of the third quarter when Gramatica nailed a 23-yarder. The Rams tried to counter but LB Hardy Nickerson intercepted Warner at the Bucs 2. On the Rams' next possession, CB Brian Kelly picked off Warner. But the turnover tide turned with eight minutes left. Rams CB Dre Bly intercepted King and returned it to midfield. Six plays later, Warner finally struck gold, lofting a 30-yard TD strike to WR Ricky Proehl. The two-point attempt failed. Tampa Bay drove to the Rams 35 but stalled with 34 seconds left.

VETERANS STADIUM (65,813)

PHILADELPHIA – Tampa Bay remained winless on the road in the postseason (0-5) as Philadelphia dominated the Bucs in a 21-3 victory at Veterans Stadium. The Bucs struck first on a 29-yard field goal by K Martin Gramatica early in the second quarter, but the Eagles defense proved stingy for the rest of the contest. Tampa Bay mustered 199 total yards, including just 50 on the ground, and was held to 3-of-13 on third down conversions. The Philadelphia offense, led by QB Donovan McNabb, scored all the points it would need on two drives late in the first half. McNabb kept the ball on a quarterback draw for a five-yard score with 3:21 left following a fumble by Bucs QB Shaun King. King was sacked by Philadelphia DE Hugh Douglas, putting the Eagles in great field position at the Tampa Bay 15-yard line. McNabb then extended the lead to 14-3 with a five-yard scoring strike to WR Na Brown with 12 seconds remaining before intermission. After a scoreless third quarter, the Eagles put the game out of reach on McNabb's second touchdown pass of the day, a two-yarder to TE Jeff Thomason early in the final period. McNabb completed passes to 10 different players on 24-of-33 attempts for 161 yards, and also rushed for 32 yards on eight carries. Eagles RB Chris Warren aided the ground attack, gaining 82 yards on 21 carries. Bucs QB Shaun King passed for 171 yards, including six completions to WR Keyshawn Johnson for 106 yards. But the rushing game was shut down, with FB Mike Alstott totaling 42 yards and RB Warrick Dunn gaining just one yard on eight carries.

VETERANS STADIUM (65,847)

PHILADELPHIA – Philadelphia controlled the running game and took advantage of four Bucs' turnovers as it ended Tampa Bay's season for the second consecutive year in a 31-9 victory at Veterans Stadium in an NFC Wild Card contest. The Bucs remained winless on the road in the postseason (0-6) and were handed a first round playoff loss for the second straight year in what would prove to be Tony Dungy's final game as head coach. FS Dexter Jackson intercepted Eagles QB Donovan McNabb on the opening series, leading to a 36-yard field goal by K Martin Gramatica. The Eagles pulled even on a David Akers FG and TE Chad Lewis gave Philadelphia the lead for good on a 16-yard TD reception from McNabb. Gramatica cut the lead to 10-6 with his second three-pointer, but McNabb found RB Duce Staley for a 23-yard TD pass in the final minute of the first half for a 17-6 lead. Gramatica again closed the gap with a 27-yard FG on the final play of the half, drawing the Bucs to within 17-9 at the break. But the Eagles dominated the second half, adding a 25-yard TD scamper by RB Correll Buckhalter and a 59-yard interception return for a touchdown by S Damon Moore in the closing minutes. Tampa Bay mustered just 258 yards of total offense, including 63 on the ground. QB Brad Johnson threw four interceptions and the Bucs converted on only 5-of-12 third down attempts. McNabb, who passed for 194 yards, added

57 yards rushing.

TAMPA BAY 31, SAN FRANCISCO 6
RAYMOND JAMES STADIUM (65,599)

TAMPA – Tampa Bay advanced to the NFC Championship Game for the third time in club history (also 1979 and 1999) behind a suffocating defense and pair of touchdown passes by QB Brad Johnson as the Buccaneers defeated San Francisco at Raymond James Stadium. Tampa Bay jumped out to a 28-6 halftime lead, reaching the end zone on three consecutive possessions in the first half. FB Mike Alstott opened the scoring with a two-yard run and added his second scoring run with less than one minute remaining in the first half. Sandwiched in between Alstott's two scores were scoring strikes to WR Joe Jurevicius from 20 yards and TE Rickey Dudley's 12-yard score in the second quarter. Johnson, who returned to the starting lineup after missing the last two regular season games with a right lower back contusion, completed 15-of-31 passes for 196 yards with two touchdowns and one interception. Tampa Bay's top-ranked defense forced five turnovers, including three interceptions of 49ers QB Jeff Garcia. San Francisco, which entered the game averaging 22.9 points per contest in the regular season and put up 39 points in its Wild Card win over the New York Giants, were limited to just two first half field goals and 228 total yards. The Bucs' defense did not allow the 49ers to score a touchdown for the first time in 50 games (counting postseason). LB Derrick Brooks, the 2002 NFL Defensive Player of the Year, posted seven tackles, one INT and a sack to pace the Bucs' defense. Tampa Bay's secondary limited WR Terrell Owens to just four catches for 35 yards as CB Ronde Barber recorded an interception and CB Dwight Smith added an interception and a fumble recovery on special teams.

TAMPA BAY 27, EAGLES 10
VETERANS STADIUM (66,713)

PHILADELPHIA – Tampa Bay advanced to its first Super Bowl appearance in club history with a 27-10 victory over the Philadelphia Eagles in the final game at Veterans Stadium. The Buccaneers, under first-year head coach Jon Gruden, forced three Eagles turnovers en route to securing Tampa Bay's first road win in postseason history. CB Ronde Barber paced an outstanding defensive effort with a club-record 92-yard INT return for a TD, four passes defensed, three tackles, one sack and a forced fumble. Tampa Bay built a 17-10 halftime lead behind QB Brad Johnson, who completed 20-of-33 passes for 259 yards with one TD and one INT. On the game's opening kickoff, Philadelphia KR Brian Mitchell raced 70 yards to set up RB Duce Staley's 20-yard run for a 7-0 lead. The Buccaneers responded when K Martin Gramatica drilled a club postseason-record 48-yard field goal to cut the deficit to 7-3. Late in the first quarter, Brad Johnson connected with WR Joe Jurevicius for a 71-yard completion—the second-longest in team post-season history—to set up FB Mike Alstott's one-yard TD run for a 10-7 lead. K David Akers tied the contest with a 30-yard FG, but Brad Johnson connected on a nine-yard TD to WR Keyshawn Johnson for the go-ahead score. The Bucs' defense stifled the Eagles' offensive attack in the second half and allowed just 30 yards and two first downs in the third quarter. Tampa Bay added 10 more points as Gramatica hit a 27-yard FG in the third quarter and Barber punctuated the win with the first-ever interception return in club playoff history late in the fourth quarter.

SUPER BOWL XXXVII

QUALCOMM STADIUM (67,603)

SAN DIEGO – Tampa Bay, behind a suffocating defense, set Super Bowl records with five interceptions, including a Super Bowl record-setting three for touchdowns, as the Buccaneers defeated the Oakland Raiders 48-21 to capture Super Bowl XXXVII at Qualcomm Stadium for the first NFL championship in team history. Jon Gruden became the youngest head coach at the time (age 39) to win a Super Bowl as the Buccaneers' top-ranked defense stifled the Raiders No. 1 ranked offense. S Dexter Jackson earned Most Valuable Player honors for his two first-half interceptions and CB Dwight Smith returned a pair of second-half interceptions from 44 and 50 yards for TDs. LB Derrick Brooks added a 44-yard INT return for a score. The Buccaneers' defense held the Raiders to 269 total yards, 19 rushing yards and 11 total first downs. Tampa Bay's defensive line added five sacks, including two courtesy of DE Simeon Rice. Raiders QB Rich Gannon, the league's Most Valuable Player, completed 24-of-44 passes for 272 yards with two TDs and a Super Bowl record five INTs. Gannon, who threw just 10 INTs in 618 passing attempts during the regular season, finished with a 48.9 passer rating as Tampa Bay held Oakland to 62 total yards in the first half, the second-fewest in Super Bowl history. Oakland took a 3-0 lead on its initial possession with a 40-yard field goal by K Sebastian Janikowski. But that lead was short-lived as the Buccaneers built a 20-3 halftime advantage on a pair of K Martin Gramatica field goals and a two-yard TD run by FB Mike Alstott and a five-yard TD reception by WR Keenan McCardell. The Buccaneers scored a pair of touchdowns in the third quarter on McCardell's eight-yard scoring pass from QB Brad Johnson, who completed 18-of-34 passes for 215 yards with two TDs and one INT, and Smith's 44-yard INT return for a 34-3 advantage. RB Michael Pittman posted a season-high 29 carries for 124 yards. Oakland found the end zone for the first time late in the third quarter and added two more TDs, the last by All-Pro WR Jerry Rice from 48 yards out to cut the lead to 34-21. But the Buccaneers clinched their first championship in 27 seasons with two defensive scores in the final 1:18, courtesy of Brooks, the NFL's Defensive Player of the Year, and Smith's score with just two seconds remaining.

2005 NFC WILD CARD GAME

WASHINGTON 17, TAMPA BAY 10
RAYMOND JAMES STADIUM (65,514)

TAMPA – Despite surrendering just 120 yards of total offense to the visiting Washington Redskins, Tampa Bay suffered its first playoff defeat at Raymond James Stadium in the NFC Wild Card contest. The 120 yards were the fewest yards gained by a winning team in a game in NFL playoff history. Redskins QB Mark Brunell was limited to seven completions on 15 attempts for 41 yards and one interception while the Washington rushing attack averaged only 3.1 yards per carry on 31 attempts. Tampa Bay fell behind 14-0 in the first quarter following two Tampa Bay miscues. Redskins LB LaVar Arrington picked off a tipped QB Chris Simms pass deep in Buccaneers territory on their second possession, setting up a RB Clinton Portis six-yard touchdown run. On the ensuing possession, RB Carnell "Cadillac" Williams fumbled and Redskins S Sean Taylor returned it 51 yards for a touchdown. The two teams traded field goals in the second quarter as Washington went to the locker room with a 17-3 lead at halftime. Tampa Bay got back within seven at 17-10 on its first possession of the second half, driving 51 yards in seven plays as Simms capped it off with a two-yard touchdown run for what turned out to be the final scoring of the day. Following a CB Brian Kelly interception in Washington territory with just under four minutes remaining, the Buccaneers had a chance to tie the game but Simms' 35-yard pass into the end zone to WR Edell Shepherd was ruled incomplete. Tampa Bay regained possession near midfield with 1:05 left in the contest, but Simms was intercepted following another tipped ball on the first play of the drive.

N.Y. GIANTS 24, TAMPA BAY 14
RAYMOND JAMES STADIUM (65,621)

TAMPA – Playing host to the New York Giants in an NFC Wild Card matchup, the Buccaneers 2007 season came to an end as the Giants advanced with a 24-14 victory. Tampa Bay started fast, taking a 7-0 lead in the first quarter on a RB Earnest Graham one-yard touchdown run as the Buccaneers gained 78 first-quarter yards compared to the Giants minus-two yards. New York evened the score with 10:02 left in the first half as QB Eli Manning found RB Brandon Jacobs on a five-yard scoring pass. The Giants took the lead on their next possession as Jacobs scored on an eight-yard run, giving New York a 14-7 lead at halftime. Following a Buccaneers fumble on the opening kickoff of the second half, the Giants tacked on a 25-yard field goal for a 17-7 lead. Tampa Bay drove into Giants territory on its next possession, but QB Jeff Garcia was intercepted in the end zone. Following a Buccaneers punt that pinned the Giants at their own eight-yard line, New York drove 92 yards in 15 plays to take a 24-7 lead with 8:03 left in the game on a Manning to WR Amani Toomer four-yard touchdown pass. Tampa Bay pulled within 10 on the ensuing drive as Garcia connected with TE Alex Smith for a six-yard score with 3:25 left in the contest. The Buccaneers forced a punt on the Giants next possession and advanced near midfield, but Garcia was intercepted just after the two-minute warning to end the Buccaneers comeback attempt. LB Derrick Brooks played in his 11th postseason game, becoming the all-time leader in postseason games played in franchise history.

2020 NFC WILD CARD GAME

FEDEXFIELD (NO ATTENDANCE)

LANDOVER, MD. – In Tampa Bay's most prolific postseason offensive performance to date, the Buccaneers defeated the Washington Football Team, 31-23, while setting franchise postseason records for both single-game net yards (507), and single-game net passing yards (365). Pro Bowl wide receiver Mike Evans racked up 119 yards receiving on six receptions to help the Buccaneers advance to the NFC Divisional Round. Quarterback Tom Brady threw a pair of touchdown passes in the opening half – finding Antonio Brown and Chris Godwin – to give the Buccaneers an 18-7 lead going into the break. Washington quarterback Taylor Heinicke, who was starting just the second game of his NFL career, found both his rhythm and the end zone in the second half, scoring on a 8-yard touchdown run late in the third quarter to bring the score to 18-16 in favor of the Buccaneers. Tampa Bay responded by scoring the next 11 points via a Ryan Succop 38-yard field goal and a three-yard touchdown run from Leonard Fournette to push the lead up to 28-16. Washington came back with a long touchdown drive of its own – finished off by an 11-yard touchdown pass from Heinicke to Steven Sims Jr. – to once again make it a one-possesion game with 4:20 remaining in the contest. Succop hit his fourth field goal of the game with 2:49 remaining to give Tampa Bay a 31-23 lead that it wouldn't surrender. Succop's four made field goals in the game marked the most in a single game in Buccaneers' playoff history. Meanwhile, Fournette's 132 scrimmage yards at Washington stand as the third-most by a Tampa Bay player in a playoff game.

2020 NFC DIVISIONAL GAME

TAMPA BAY 30, NEW ORLEANS 20
MERCEDES-BENZ SUPERDOME (3,750)

NEW ORLEANS – The Tampa Bay Buccaneers came out on top in their first ever postseason meeting with the division-rival New Orleans Saints, prevailing by a 30-20 score. Turnovers proved to be the difference as the Buccaneers defense picked off Saints quarterback Drew Brees three times and recovered a Jared Cook fumble, while Tampa Bay's offense put forth a turnover-free performance, giving the Buccaneers a 4-0 advantage in the turnover battle. Saints wide receiver and return specialist Deonte Harris returned the game's first punt 54 yards to set up kicker Will Lutz for his first of two first-quarter field goals that gave New Orleans an early 6-0 lead. Tampa Bay responded with 10-straight points on a Ryan Succop field goal followed by a three-yard touchdown pass from Tom Brady to Mike Evans. The Saints' lone possesion between the Buccaneers' back-to-back scores was halted by an interception from cornerback Sean Murphy-Bunting, who returned it 36 yards to the Saints' 3-yard line, setting Tampa Bay up with great field position leading into Evans' touchdown catch. Trailing for the first time, New Orleans pulled out a trick play with a direct snap to running back Alvin Kamara, who handed it off to Emmanuel Sanders on a reverse. Sanders then pitched it back to quarterback Jameis Winston, who began the play lined up on the outside prior to throwing a 56-yard touchdown strike to Tre'Quan Smith, re-gaining the lead for New Orleans. A 37-yard field goal from Succop knotted the score at 13 going into halftime. Smith hauled in a 16-yard touchdown pass from Drew Brees to begin the second half, but Tampa would score the game's final 17 points, aided by three second-half takeaways, to leave New Orleans with a win. Buccaneers running back Leonard Fournette accumulated 107 scrimmage yards in the contest, including a 6-yard touchdown reception in the third quarter. Meanwhile, Brady finished with 199 passing yards and three total touchdowns, with zero interceptions.

TAMPA BAY 31, GREEN BAY 26
LAMBEAU FIELD (7,772)

TAMPA – On the shoulders of a combined five-sack day by edge rushers Shaquil Barrett and Jason Pierre-Paul, the Tampa Bay Buccaneers won the franchise's second NFC Championship, defeating the Green Bay Packers, 31-26. Tampa Bay executed a nine-play, 66-yard drive to begin the game – capped off by a 15-yard touchdown pass from Tom Brady to Mike Evans – scoring the only points in the first quarter. The Packers got to work quickly to open the second quarter as Aaron Rodgers found Marquez Valdes-Scantling for a 50-yard touchdown strike to briefly tie the game before Tampa Bay responded with a 20-yard touchdown run from Leonard Fournette. Then with just 28 second remaining in the opening half, the Packers – trailing 14-10 – had the ball with a chance to climb within a point or potentially take the lead, however a timely, game-changing interception from Sean Murphy-Bunting gave the Buccaneers the ball back with enough time for Brady to deliver a 39-yard touchdown pass to Scotty Miller with just one second remaining, giving Tampa Bay a 21-10 edge at halftime. The momentum carried over into the second half for Tampa Bay as Jordan Whitehead got things going with a forced fumble that was scooped up by Devin White, leading to another Buccaneers touchdown – an eight-yard reception by Cameron Brate – extending the lead to 28-10 with 13:54 remaining in the third quarter. From that point on, Green Bay outscored Tampa Bay 17-3, but the Buccaneers were able to overcome interceptions on three consecutive drives and hold on to win by a 31-26 score. Chris Godwin's fifth reception of the game sealed the win for Tampa Bay and lifted the Buccaneers to the organization's second Super Bowl appearance. Godwin's 110 receiving yards in the game marked the second-most in a playoff game in franchise history. Barrett's 3.0 sacks tied for the most in a postseason game in team history, while Pierre-Paul's two sacks tied for the third-most in a single playoff game. As a team, the Buccaneers 5.0 sacks at Green Bay tied for the most in team postseason history.

SUPER BOWL LV

TAMPA BAY 31, KANSAS CITY 9
FEBRUARY 7, 2021

TAMPA – In a dominating performance at Raymond James Stadium, the Tampa Bay Buccaneers defeated the Kansas City Chiefs, 31-9, to claim the Lombardi Trophy, becoming the first team in NFL history to win a Super Bowl in its home stadium. The Tampa Bay defense became just the fifth in Super Bowl history not to allow a touchdown. Trailing 3-0 in the first quarter, Tom Brady found Rob Gronkowski for an 8-yard touchdown pass to give Tampa Bay a lead which it would never surrender. The Buccaneers were stopped on the goal line on their next posession, but followed it up with three consecutive touchdown drives. Gronkowski hauled in a 17-yard pass from Brady to score his second touchdown of the game, putting his name next to Jerry Rice as the only players in NFL history with two-or-more touchdown receptions in multiple Super Bowls. With 1:01 remaining in the opening half, the Buccaneers took advantage of a penalty-aided drive that resulted resulted in a 1-yard touchdown reception for Antonio Brown with just six seconds before halftime, giving Tampa Bay a 21-6 advantage at the break. The Chiefs were able to get a field goal on their first drive of the second half, but that would mark the final points of the ballgame for Kansas City. The Buccaneers immediately responded with a Leonard Fournette 27-yard touchdown run followed by a 52-yard Ryan Succop field goal to push the lead to 31-9. The second half continued to be dominated by the Buccaneers defense, which consistently put pressure on Chiefs quarterback Patrick Mahomes. Tampa Bay's defense recorded a pair of second-half interceptions - one from Devin White and one from Antoine Winfield Jr. Winfield became just the seventh rookie in NFL history with an interception in the Super Bowl. Collectively, the Buccaneers defense racked up nine quarterback hits in the game, which were tied for the fourth-most in a Super Bowl since QB hits became regularly tracked in 2006. Shaquil Barrett had four quarterback hits alone, tying for the second-most by an individual player in that span. Brady won Super Bowl MVP honors for the fifth time in his career, throwing for 201 yards and three touchdowns to earn a 125.8 passer rating. He moved to 7-3 in his career in Super Bowls – the most wins ever by any player in league history. The Super Bowl victory was the eighth consecutive win for the Buccaneers dating back to the regular season, the longest winning streak in team history.

RAYMOND JAMES STADIUM (65,077)

TAMPA – The Tampa Bay Buccaneers kicked off their 2021-22 NFL Playoffs with a dominating performance on both sides of the ball vs. the Philadelphia Eagles in the Super Wild Card Round, racing out to a 31-0 lead through three quarters. In the absence of the team's two primary running backs Leonard Fournette and Ronald Jones II, it was fellow running backs Giovani Bernard and Ke'Shawn Vaughn finding the endzone in the opening quarter to give Tampa Bay a 14-0 advantage. Meanwhile, the Buccaneers defense delivered a first-half shutout to take a 17-0 lead into halftime after safety Mike Edwards intercepted a pass in the endzone with 43 seconds remaining to preserve the lead heading into the break. In the second half, Tampa Bay picked up right where it left off, capitalizing on a pair of third quarter turnovers and turning them into 14 points on the other end. The first was a muffed punt by the Eagles that led to a 2-yard touchdown pass from Tom Brady to Rob Gronkowski. On the very next Eagles' possession, quarterback Jalen Hurts was picked off by Buccaneers outside linebacker Shaquil Barrett, which led to another Tom Brady touchdown — a 36-yard pass to Mike Evans. Evans led the team with a single-game franchise playoff record nine receptions for 117 yards and a touchdown. Philadelphia scored the game's final 15 points in the fourth quarter, but came up short as Tampa Bay advanced to the NFC Divisional Round. It marked the fifth consecutive playoff win for Tampa Bay, the team's longest in franchise history. Tampa Bay became one of just three teams in NFL history to have five consecutive playoff games scoring 30-or-more points joining the New Orleans Saints (1/16/10-1/14/12) and Kansas City Chiefs (1/12/19-2/2/20). The 16-point winning margin marked the fifth-largest in team history, while Tom Brady's 115.2 passer rating in the game ranked as the second-best mark in a postseason game in franchise history.

2021 NFC DIVISIONAL ROUND

LOS ANGELES 30, TAMPA BAY 27
RAYMOND JAMES STADIUM (65,597)

TAMPA – The Buccaneers mounted a thrilling 24-point comeback effort to knot the score at 27 with just 42 seconds remaining in regulation, but ultimately Tampa Bay fell 30-27 to the Los Angeles Rams in the 2021 NFC Divisional Round. The Rams leaned on their stars to open up a 20-3 lead at halftime and a 27-3 lead late in the third quarter as quarterback Matthew Stafford threw a pair of first-half touchdown passes, including a 70-yard completion to wide receiver Cooper Kupp, before later running it in for a third touchdown in the third quarter. Kupp led all players with 102 first-half receiving yards and 183 total for the game. Late in the third quarter, Tampa Bay began to find itself, scoring on a 31-yard field goal from Ryan Succop and a 1-yard touchdown run by Leonard Fournette to cut the deficit to 27-13 heading into the final frame. Three second half fumble recoveries allowed the Buccaneers to continue to climb back into the game and the four total fumble recoveries by Tampa Bay set a new single-game franchise playoff record. With 3:20 remaining in the game, wide receiver Mike Evans beat Rams All-Pro cornerback Jalen Ramsey down the sideline and hauled in a 55-yard touchdown strike from quarterback Tom Brady to bring the Buccaneers back into a one-possession ballgame. On the second Rams play following the Evans touchdown, defensive lineman Ndamukong Suh forced the ball loose from Los Angeles running back Cam Akers, and the fumble was scooped up by linebacker Lavonte David to give Tampa Bay a chance to tie with 2:25 remaining in the game. The Buccaneers took full advantage, finishing off a seven-play, 30-yard drive with a 9-yard Fournette touchdown run with 42 seconds left on the clock. However, the Stafford-Kupp duo struck again, connecting for two completions totaling 64 yards to put Los Angeles in field goal range. Rams kicker Matt Gay connected on a game-winning 30-yard field goal which ended the Tampa Bay Buccaneers 2021-22 season. Mike Evans' 119 receiving yards in the game tied his own franchise single-game playoff record.

2022 NFC WILD CARD GAME

RAYMOND JAMES STADIUM (69,145)

TAMPA – The Tampa Bay Buccaneers 2022 season came to an end after falling to the Dallas Cowboys 31-14 in the Super Wild Card Round, but not before marking the second instance in franchise history in which the team made the playoffs in three consecutive seasons, joining 1999-2002 when Tampa Bay earned four straight playoff berths. The Buccaneers fell into a 24-0 deficit that they were unable to overcome despite putting forth the second-most total yards of offense (386) and second-most net passing yards (334) in franchise playoff history. In his NFL record 48th career playoff game, quarterback Tom Brady threw for 351 yards and two touchdowns. At the time of his retirement following the 2022 NFL season, Brady finished his career as the NFL's all-time leader in playoff wins (35), playoff passing yards (13,400) and playoff touchdown passes (88). He also finished his career as Tampa Bay's all-time leader in playoff wins by a quarterback (five), playoff passing yards (2,012) and playoff passing touchdowns (15). Three different Tampa Bay receivers finished with 70-or-more yards in the game: Chris Godwin (10-85), Julio Jones (7-74, TD) and Mike Evans (6-74). Godwin finished the 2022 season with 114 receptions including playoffs, surpassing Keyshawn Johnson (109 in 2001) for the most in a single season in team history. Franchise cornerstone Lavonte David led the defense with a career playoff-high 14 tackles. Since StatsPass data is available (1994), David's 14 tackles were tied for the second-most by a Buccaneers player in a playoff game in franchise history. In a comeback attempt, Tampa Bay got inside Dallas' 35-yard line on each of their final four drives of the game, scoring a pair of touchdowns from Julio Jones and Cameron Brate.

2023 NFC WILD CARD ROUND

RAYMOND JAMES STADIUM (63,397)

TAMPA – After winning six of their final seven games to finish the regular season and clinch both a playoff berth and Tampa Bay's third consecutive NFC South division title, the Buccaneers used that momentum to put forth a dominant performance on both sides of the ball in a 32-9 win over the Philadelphia Eagles in the 2023 NFC Wild Card game. It marked the first career playoff win for Head Coach Todd Bowles. In his first playoff game as a member of the Buccaneers, quarterback Baker Mayfield threw for 337 yards and three touchdowns, with no interceptions, earning a playoff career-best 119.8 passer rating and becoming the first player in franchise history to throw for 300+ yards with three-or-more passing touchdowns in a postseason contest. His three touchdowns passes tied for the most in Tampa Bay's team playoff history. All three of Mayfield's touchdown passes came on passes of 20+ yards. Rookie Trey Palmer and veteran David Moore hauled in 56-yard and 44-yard touchdown receptions, respectively, establishing the longest and third-longest postseason touchdown catches in team history. The touchdowns marked the first for both Palmer and Moore in their playoff careers. Tight end Cade Otton also set a new record for the most receptions by a tight end in a playoff game, finishing with a career-best eight catches for 89 yards. The defense held strong all game long, shutting out the Eagles in three of the four quarters. Tampa Bay's +23 margin of victory on the night marked the clubs' third-largest point differential in a postseason game. Tampa Bay held Philadelphia to 0-for-9 on third down conversion attempts, marking the fourth time in NFL postseason history that a team has held an opponent to a third-down conversion percentage of zero. Tampa Bay outgained Philadelphia 426-276 (+150), posting the largest yardage differential in a playoff game in club history. The Eagles collected a season-low 13 first downs and were held to a season-low 42 rushing yards. It marked the second-fewest rushing yards Tampa Bay has allowed in a playoff game in franchise history, trailing only Super Bowl XXVII when they limited the Oakland Raiders to 19 rushing yards.Additionally, Tampa Bay forced a safety, the first postseason safety in club history.

DETROIT 31, TAMPA BAY 23
FORD FIELD (66,201)

TAMPA – The Tampa Bay Buccaneers went toe-to-toe with the Detroit Lions in the 2023 NFC Divisional Round. The two teams exchanged scores throughout the first three quarters, leading to a 17-17 score heading into the fourth quarter. However, Detroit struck twice with a pair of touchdowns to open the final frame and it proved to much to overcome as the Buccaneers eventually fell by a 31-23 score. As an offense, Tampa Bay recorded 408 net yards, the third-most in franchise history, in addition to finishing with the second-highest yards per play average (6.8) and highest rush average (5.9) for a single postseason game in team history. Mike Evans established a new single-game franchise playoff record with 147 receiving yards on eight receptions, which included a 16-yard touchdown catch in the fourth to cut the deficit to one score. For the second time in as many playoff games, Mayfield threw for 300+ yards and three touchdowns, and maintained a 106.5 career postseason passer rating with Tampa Bay for his career through the 2023 season, which then stood as the highest in franchise history. Lavonte David put forth a standout performance defensively, finishing with 13 tackles (two for loss), one quarterback hit and 1.0 sack. With his performance, David improved his total to 71 career postseason tackles – the second-most in club postseason history. His 2.0 career postseason sacks are tied for seventh-most in club postseason history, while his six career postseason tackles for loss are tied for second-most in franchise history. Despite the loss, 2023 marked the fourth consecutive playoff trip for Tampa Bay, tying for the longest-such streak in franchise history.

2024 NFC WILD CARD ROUND

RAYMOND JAMES STADIUM (64,614)

TAMPA – Making their fifth consecutive playoff appearance, the Buccaneers' 2024 season ended in the NFC Wild Card round with a 23-20 loss to the Washington Commanders. Tampa Bay held a 17-13 lead late in the third quarter but a turnover in the fourth quarter deep in Bucs territory gave Washington a short field, which they converted into a touchdown to take a 20-17 lead. The Bucs answered with a game-tying field goal, but Washington used the final 4:41 to drive down the field and hit the winning field goal as time expired. Quarterback Baker Mayfield was efficient, completing 15-of-18 (83.3%) passes for 185 yards and two touchdowns to earn a 146.5 passer rating, the highest passer rating in a postseason contest in franchise history. Rookie running back Bucky Irving recorded 12 carries for 77 rushing yards (4.5 avg) and a touchdown catch, establishing a new single-game high for rushing yards by a rookie in franchise playoff history. Wide receiver Mike Evans brought in a team-leading seven receptions for 92 yards and one receiving touchdown, his sixth career postseason touchdown, tying for the second-most touchdowns in franchise playoff history through the conclusion of the 2024 season. Linebacker Lavonte David finished with a team-high-tying eight tackles and 1.0 sack. His sack increased his career postseason total to 3.0 – the fifth-most in franchise history. Following his performance, David ranked second in franchise history in postseason tackles (79), trailing only Derrick Brooks (93). Tight end Cade Otton brought in two catches for 32 yards, bringing his total playoff receiving yards to 244, establishing a new record for a tight end in franchise history.

TAMPA BAY BUCCANEERS SUPER BOWL XXXVII RING

The fourteen-karat yellow gold ring incorporates the Vince Lombardi Super Bowl Trophy, an original Tiffany design featuring a football in kicking position, which the company has produced for every Super Bowl since its inception in 1967. In the ring's depiction, the trophy base is set with three rectangular modified brilliant diamonds, the football is studded with a marquis diamond, and 50 sparkling round diamonds set in white gold surround the trophy. The ring's bezel reads 'Tampa Bay Buccaneers World Champions.'

Details of Super Bowl XXXVII and the Buccaneers are commemorated on the sides of the ring. On one side, the cities of the contending teams (Tampa Bay and Oakland) appear, along with the final game score (48–21), date and place of Super Bowl XXXVII (January 26, 2003, in San Diego, Calif.), and the Super Bowl and NFL shield logos. The ring's other side displays the player's name engraved on a banner and captures the team's undaunted spirit with flag logo, palm trees, and a sea-going pirate ship reminiscent of the Buccaneers' own ship that is a fan favorite at home games.

The ring reflects the close collaboration between Tiffany and the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in capturing the rich symbolism of the Super Bowl, the winning team, and the NFL. The awarding of the Super Bowl rings to the victorious Buccaneers followed the presentation of the Vince Lombardi trophy presented to the team on Super Bowl Sunday.

In addition to creating the Vince Lombardi trophy, Tiffany also creates the Pete Rozelle trophy presented to the Most Valuable Player of the Super Bowl game. Named for the late NFL Commissioner whose distinguished career spanned nearly 30 years, the trophy, a shooting star design handcrafted of sterling silver with vermeil, was first awarded in 1991 at Super Bowl XXV. The Pete Rozelle trophy was awarded to Tampa Bay's Dexter Jackson.

TAMPA BAY BUCCANEERS SUPER BOWL LV RING

The Buccaneers' Super Bowl LV rings tell the story of the team's unforgettable 2020 season by incorporating the most relevant accomplishments into the design details. Containing 15 carats of white diamonds and 14 karat yellow and white gold, the top of the ring features 319 diamonds. On the top are two Lombardi Trophies – representing the franchise's two Super Bowl Championships – and the team's signature flag logo, carved from a red stone. The 319 diamonds represent the 31-9 final score in Tampa Bay's Super Bowl LV victory.

The ring's signature feature is the innovative twist-off top, the first for any Super Bowl ring. On the bottom of the removal top, laser-etched in gold, is the word "HISTORIC" alongside a description of the team's accomplishment as the first to win the Super Bowl on its home field.

When removed, the top reveals the handcrafted replica of Raymond James Stadium. On the gold field is a single diamond, placed by the tunnel where Buccaneers players entered during Super Bowl LV. Around the top of the stadium on each of the four sides are displays of the four game scores from Tampa Bay's postseason run – victories against the Washington Football Team, New Orleans Saints, Green Bay Packers and Kansas City Chiefs.

SIDELINES

LEE ROY SELMON

Upon establishing the Ring of Honor in 2009, there was no question as to who the Buccaneers would choose to recognize with the inaugural induction. Lee Roy Selmon, referred to by some as the original Buccaneer, served as the franchise's cornerstone for nearly a decade, earning numerous accolades on the field and becoming one of the Bay area's most beloved figures off of it. On November 9, 2009, Selmon's name and number were added as permanent fixtures on the wall at Raymond James Stadium, as the man known for being Tampa Bay's shining bright spot in during its difficult fledgling years was recognized with the team's highest distinction.

Selmon joined the Buccaneers as a first-round draft choice – and the team's first-ever draft selection – in 1976 out of Oklahoma. While with the Sooners, Selmon was a member of eight All-America teams and won both the Outland and Lombardi trophies during his senior season. But as decorated as his collegiate career may have been, Selmon was an even greater professional player, easily the most outstanding to date in team history. The Buccaneers' all-time career sack leader (78.5), he anchored a ferocious defense which led the team to its first-ever NFC Central Division Championship in 1979.

Lee Roy Selmon became the first Buccaneers player ever inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

Selmon managed to establish numerous team records despite having his career prematurely shortened due to a herniated disk suffered at the end of the 1984 season. At the time of his retirement, his lengthy list of Buccaneer records included: career sacks (78.5), sacks in a season (13) and career forced fumbles (28.5). In addition, he was named NFL Defensive Player of the Year in 1979 and NFC Defensive Lineman of the Year by the NFL Players Association four times (1979-80, 1982-83). His number 63 became the first and only jersey retired by the Buccaneers on September 7, 1986

Selmon's on-the-field contributions were equaled only by his incredible generosity off the field. He was a perennial contender for the NFL Man of the Year and the Byron "Whizzer" White Award for humanitarian service. Following his retirement, Selmon remained highly visible, occupying a seat on the board of the Tampa Sports Authority and taking on responsibility of building the University of South Florida's football program. Selmon served as Associate Athletic Director at USF from August of 1994 until being named Athletic Director in June 2001. He held that spot until 2004 and was entrusted with the primary task of procuring funds for the University's successful efforts to form a football team.

In a heartbreaking turn for the entire Bay area, Selmon passed away on September 4, 2011, surrounded by family and friends, two days after suffering a stroke at the age of 56.

Selmon was born in Eufaula, Oklahoma and was the youngest of nine children, including his brother, Dewey, who played for the Buccaneers from 1976-80, and Lucious, who coached for the Jacksonville Jaguars. Selmon is survived by his wife, Claybra, and the couple's three children: Brandy, Lee Roy, Jr. and Christopher.

JOHN McKAY

John McKay, known for his unprecedented success on the football field and his wit off of it, died on Sunday, June 10, 2001, at the age of 77, from kidney failure due to complications from diabetes. With his passing, the Buccaneers family lost the man who led the franchise from its very beginning.

On December 5, 2010 during halftime of the Buccaneers' game against the Atlanta Falcons, McKay became the second inductee into the team's Ring of Honor. McKay spent more than 25 years overall as a head coach on the collegiate and professional level. The legendary coach compiled an overall head coaching record of 171-128-9 (.572). In 25 seasons as a head coach, McKay's teams won a college conference or professional division championship 11 times and advanced to postseason play on 12 occasions.

McKay was named the first head coach in Buccaneers history on October 31, 1975. He coached the Buccaneers for nine seasons (1976-84) and compiled a 44-88-1 record. In just the franchise's fourth season (1979), he led Tampa Bay to an NFC Central Division championship, a playoff win over Philadelphia and the club's first appearance in the NFC Championship Game. McKay also coached the first Hall of Famer in Buccaneers history, DE Lee Roy Selmon, the team's first overall draft pick in 1976.

In just the franchise's fourth season (1979), McKay led Tampa Bay to an NFC Central Division championship, a playoff win over Philadelphia and the club's first appearance in the NFC Championship Game.

He guided the Buccaneers to consecutive playoff appearances in 1981 and 1982. McKay then led Tampa Bay to its second NFC Central Division championship in 1981. He was a part of the franchise's inaugural win, a 33-14 victory over New Orleans on December 11, 1977. He later served as Team President during the '85 season.

Prior to joining Tampa Bay, McKay coached at the University of Southern California for 16 seasons, from 1960-75. He led the Trojans to four national championships and a 127-40-8 record (.760). McKay coached 40 first-team All-Americans during his 16 years.

In only his third season as head coach at USC in 1962, McKay guided the Trojans to his first national crown. He followed by capturing national championships in the 1967, 1972 and 1974 seasons. His four national titles ranks tied with Notre Dame's Frank Leahy for second all-time, trailing only Alabama's Paul "Bear" Bryant's six championships. In addition, his resume at USC includes three undefeated seasons, nine conference championships, eight Rose Bowl appearances (including five victories), 14 consecutive winning campaigns and two National Coach of the Year honors (1962 and 1972). He also tutored two Heisman Trophy winners in Mike Garrett (1965) and O.J. Simpson (1968). During his last four seasons at USC (1972-75), he also served as the school's athletic director.

McKay served as an assistant at USC in 1959 before being named the Trojans' head coach in 1960. He was also an assistant coach at Oregon from 1950-1959. McKay played one season as a defensive back at Purdue before transferring to Oregon, where he lettered for three seasons and earned All-American honorable mention and All-Coast first-team honors. Prior to attending college, he served in the Army Air Corps in World War II. McKay was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1988 and into the Rose Bowl Hall of Fame in 1991. He was also a member of the 1994 inaugural class of USC's Athletic Hall of Fame.

McKay was born in Everettsville, West Virginia. He attended Shinnston High School (WV), where he was an all-state running back and a star guard in basketball.

He and his wife, the late Corky (formerly Nancy Jean Hunter), had four children: John, Rich, Michele, and Terri. Rich now serves as President of the Atlanta Falcons after nine seasons (1995-03) as Tampa Bay's General Manager. John served as General Manager of the 2001 XFL Champion Los Angeles Xtreme and also played wide receiver for USC from 1972-74 and for Tampa Bay from 1976-78.

JIMMIE GILES

The third inductee into the Buccaneers' Ring of Honor and first offensive addition, Jimmie Giles was instated on December 4, 2011, during halftime of the Buccaneers' game against the Carolina Panthers.

Acquired from Houston in a trade prior to the 1978 NFL Draft, Giles quickly emerged as a standout player, earning honorable mention All-Pro by Sports Illustrated in 1979 and by the Associated Press in 1985, while earning various All-NFC honors from 1979-82. Following the 1980 season, he also became the first offensive Pro Bowl player in franchise history. He remained the only offensive player to represent the team at the league's annual all-star game following the 1981 and 1982 seasons, until running back James Wilder joined him in 1984. Giles then made his fourth Pro Bowl trip in 1985, and, to that point in team history, only DE Lee Roy Selmon had been to the Pro Bowl more frequently.

Giles' four Pro Bowl selections remain the second-highest total among offensive players in franchise annals, trailing only the six trips made by fullback Mike Alstott between 1997 and 2002. Giles is still the only Buccaneer tight end to be selected to the game.

Giles became the first-ever offensive Buccaneer to be selected to a Pro Bowl, as he went on to earn four total trips in his career

A naturally-gifted athlete who was selected by the Los Angeles Dodgers in the 12th round of the 1976 MLB draft, Giles possessed a combination of size and speed that was unusual at his position in the '70s and '80s. Though he stood 6-3 and weighed close to 250 pounds, Giles was known for stretching the field, as evidenced by his impressive career average of 15.4 yards per reception. In 1980, Giles not only led all NFL tight ends with 602 yards on 33 catches, but he was one of the league's best downfield threats, period. Among all players with at least 25 receptions, that season, Giles led the league with 18.2 yards per grab.

Giles' other noteworthy career trend was his nose for the end zone. Along with a franchise mark of 34 touchdown receptions during his time in Buccaneers orange, the gregarious tight end also owns the team record for most touchdowns of any kind in a single game, racking up four scoring catches in a 1985 shootout against the Miami Dolphins. The resulting 24 points Giles recorded in that contest is also a Buccaneer single-game record.

After a nine-year career with the Buccaneers (1978-86), Giles still ranks eighth in receptions (279), third in receiving yards (4,300) and first in receiving touchdowns (34) all-time in franchise history, as well as ranking first in each respective category among tight ends. Giles additionally continues to ranks highly among single-season leaders by a tight end in team history, with two of the top five seasons in receiving yards and receptions, and three of the top five seasons in touchdown receptions, including the top mark of eight in 1985.

PAUL GRUBER

In June 2012, the Buccaneers announced the name of the man who would be the fourth member of the team's Ring of Honor: Paul Gruber.

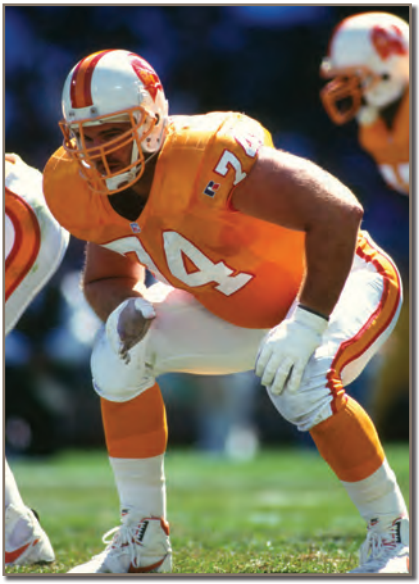
Gruber joined Hall of Fame DE Lee Roy Selmon, Head Coach John McKay and TE Jimmie Giles in receiving the highest honor the franchise can bestow, as he was inducted during Tampa Bay's Week 6 matchup against the Kansas City Chiefs.

Gruber was a fixture at left tackle for the Buccaneers, spending his entire 12-year career with the team and starting in all of the 183 games that he played.

Gruber is one of the most decorated players in team history, having been named a two-time team MVP (Tampa Sports Club, 1992; local media, 1994), the team's Ed Block Courage Award winner (1995), first-team All-Pro (USA Today, 1996), two-time second-team All-Pro (College and Pro Football Newsweekly, 1990; Associated Press, 1992), two-time All-NFC selection (United Press International, 1989; Football News, 1990) and a Pro Bowl alternate in 1997.

Born in the small town of Prairie du Sac, Wisconsin, Gruber was recruited to the University of Wisconsin as a tight end. Then-head coach, Ron McBride, convinced Gruber to transition to the offensive line after the latter first was placed on the defensive line. His coach's suggestion proved to be the right one, as Gruber's talent for the offensive line led to him being selected by the Buccaneers in the first round (4th overall) of the 1988 NFL Draft.

Gruber opened his NFL career with a remarkable string of 4,850 consecutive snaps (1988-92). He also played the entire 1989 campaign without a single holding penalty, and was instrumental in helping the 1999 Buccaneers win a division title, which was the team's first in 18 years.



Although a broken leg in the 1999 regular-season finale prevented him from playing with his teammates in that playoff game he had helped earn, Gruber's maturity and leadership remained unmatched.

His reputation both on the team and with the local media was one of a quiet, hardworking leader. He became a dependable force to be reckoned with on the field, and a calming presence in the locker room, even during some of Tampa Bay's down seasons.

Today, Gruber resides in Colorado with his wife, Brenda, and the couple's three children: Blake, Chase, and Ashlyn.

WARREN SAPP

2013 marked a momentous year for Warren Sapp, one of the greatest players in Buccaneers history.

On February 2, he was selected as a first-ballot inductee into the Pro Football Hall of Fame. Three months later, on May 2, Tampa Bay announced that not only would Sapp be the club's 2012 Ring of Honor pick, but that the team would also officially retire his iconic No. 99 jersey.

Warren Sapp was selected as a first-ballot Hall of Famer in 2013, joining Lee Roy Selmon and becoming the second Buccaneers representative to achieve that honor.

Sapp was drafted by the Buccaneers in the first round (12th overall) of the 1995 NFL Draft. He played nine years with Tampa Bay, appearing in 140 games and starting 130, while also starting each of his nine postseason contests. He continued his playing career playing four seasons with the Oakland Raiders, and retired having played 198 career games with 188 starts, recording career totals of 695 tackles, 96.5 sacks, four interceptions with one touchdown, 26 passes defensed, 20 forced fumbles and 12 fumble recoveries.

An integral cog in one of the league's top defenses of the late 1990s and early 2000s, Sapp helped lead the 2002 Buccaneers to a world championship in Super Bowl XXXVII. He earned numerous other accolades, including seven Pro Bowl nods, four first-team All-Pro nominations, two second-team All-Pro nominations, NFL Defensive Player of the Year honors, and was twice named to the NFL All-Decade Team.

Sapp's 96.5 sacks stands as the second-most by an interior lineman in league history and he is often credited for having helped revolutionize the defensive tackle position. He set Tampa Bay's single-season record with his 16.5 sacks in 2000, the third-highest total ever recorded by a defensive tackle. In each of his last seven seasons with the Buccaneers, the team's defense ranked in the league's Top 10.

Prior to drafting Sapp, the Buccaneers had suffered through 12 consecutive losing seasons. By his third year, Tampa Bay was appearing in the postseason and, over the next seven years, the team never had a losing record, made the playoffs six times and won Super Bowl XXXVII.

Sapp's career was headlined by his incredible passion, overwhelming talent and legendary personality. He led the Tampa Bay defense with intense devotion and leadership, and his fervor was evident to everyone who watched him play.

Sapp played three seasons at the University of Miami, foregoing his senior season to enter the NFL Draft. As a Hurricane, he recorded 176 tackles, 19.5 sacks, five passes defensed, four forced fumbles and four fumble recoveries. He won the Lombardi Trophy for the nation's top lineman/linebacker and was a finalist for the Outland Trophy for the nation's top interior lineman.

DERRICK BROOKS

Derrick Brooks, a first-ballot Class of 2014 selection to the Pro Football Hall of Fame, joined the Buccaneers Ring of Honor in 2014.

Drafted as a first-round pick (28th overall) in the 1995 NFL Draft, Brooks entered the league alongside Warren Sapp, the first-rounder the Buccaneers had selected 12th overall. The two players would both go on to dominate at their respective positions, combining their prowess to turn the Tampa 2 into one of the most dominant defenses in NFL history.

Brooks spent 14 seasons with Tampa Bay, redefining the linebacker position on his way to becoming one of the most decorated Buccaneers of all time, and one of the most respected players across the NFL.

He played in 224 games with 221 starts, both marks standing as second-most in team history, and recorded a franchise-record 2,198 tackles, along with 25 interceptions, 13.5 sacks, 135 passes defensed, 25 forced fumbles, and four fumble recoveries. Brooks' seven defensive touchdowns rank second in team history, behind only defensive back Rondé Barber, and he is the only non-defensive back to crack the Top 5 in the team's career interception list.

Brooks proved to be exceptional both on and off the field, earning some of the NFL's most revered awards for his play and his volunteerism.

Brooks earned accolade after accolade during his playing years, being selected as an All-Pro by the Associated Press nine times and totaling franchise-best 11 Pro Bowl berths. In 2002, he was named AP Defensive Player of the Year.

He is also responsible for one of the standout plays in Buccaneer history: a 44-yard interception returned for a touchdown that sealed Tampa Bay's 48-21 victory in Super Bowl XXXVII.

However, beyond Brooks' impact on the field, he was – and continues to be – a difference maker in the Bay Area community. Among his many philanthropic honors, Brooks was co-recipient of the 2000 Walter Payton/NFL Man of the Year and received both the 2003 Bart Starr Award and the 2004 Byron "Whizzer" White Award, some of the most revered honors in the league.

Always a strong proponent of education, Brooks dedicated himself both during his career and following his retirement to filling the needs of students, which began with his The Brooks Bunch program, which served as a cornerstone of his community involved and led the way for the formation of Derrick Brooks Charities, Inc.

Brooks also helped found the Brooks-DeBartolo Collegiate High School; a Hillsborough County sponsored charter high school that currently enrolls over 400 students and serves as the only traditional charter high school in the Bay Area.

A standout player at Florida State University, Brooks was a four-year letterwinner and first-team All-American and All-Atlantic Coast Conference selection. His career statistics include 274 tackles, five interceptions, 8.5 sacks, 13 passes defensed, four forced fumbles and three fumble recoveries.

In addition to his selection to the Ring of Honor, Brooks was also inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 2014, the third Buccaneers player to be enshrined in Canton.

MIKE ALSTOTT

Mike Alstott was selected as one of two inductees into the Buccaneers Ring of Honor in 2015, along with former quarterback Doug Williams.

Alstott came to Tampa Bay as a second-round selection (35th overall) out of Purdue in the 1996 NFL Draft and quickly rose to acclaim as one of the league's most powerful, punishing rushers, running with a hard-nosed style that earned him the nickname 'A-Train.'

A six-time Pro Bowl selection - a franchise record for an offensive player - and four-time Associated Press All-Pro honoree, Alstott is the Buccaneers' all-time leader in touchdowns (71) and rushing touchdowns (58). He ranks second in franchise annals with 5,088 rushing yards, second in yards from scrimmage (7,372), fourth in receptions (305), and seventh in games played (158).

Alsott's bruising running style and not-to-be-denied goal-line carries made him a legend in the Bay Area and throughout the league.

In eight of his 11 seasons, Alstott led or tied the team lead in rushing touchdowns, recording a career-best 10 in 2001 and twice rushing for three touchdowns in a single game (vs. Minnesota, 10/28/2001; at Cincinnati, 12/27/1998). He recorded seven 100-yard rushing games during his career.

In addition to the accolades he earned during the regular season, Alstott also holds a decorated place in Buccaneers postseason lore. He was a member of six playoff teams and played in 10 postseason contests, both tied for second-most in franchise history behind only Derrick Brooks, and the most ever by an offensive player.

Alstott was part of five Buccaneer playoff victories, tied for a franchise best, while his 341 rushing yards are also the most in club history. Alstott's seven postseason touchdowns, all rushing, are five more than any other player in team history. Four of those scores came en route to the Super Bowl XXXVII title in San Diego following the 2002 season. Alstott also ranks third in postseason receptions (21) and fourth in postseason receiving yards (161).

During his career, Alstott was an active community supporter and his dedication to civic duty only increased since his retirement. During the 2007 offseason, Alstott and his wife Nicole formed the Mike Alstott Family Foundation, with the goal of assisting and uplifting the minds, hearts and spirits of families and children on their way to realizing their full potential through various events, assistance programs and celebrations.

Since the formation of his foundation, Alstott and his family have been involved in organizing and helping carry out numerous outreach events, including frequent programs with All-Children's Hospital; partnering with Big Brothers and Big Sisters; raising funds for the Angelus House, a home for children with disabilities; and special events catered to serving the area's foster children

DOUG WILLIAMS

Doug Williams was selected as one of two inductees into the Ring of Honor in 2015, along with former fullback Mike Alstott.

Williams joined the Buccaneers as the team's first-round draft choice (17th overall) in the 1978 NFL Draft out of Grambling State and was immediately saddled with the hopes of a struggling franchise searching for a long-term solution at the quarterback position.

Taking over the reins of a team that had won two games combined in its first two NFL seasons, Williams' rookie year led to 10 starts and four wins. He would then start every game over the next four seasons and, in his sophomore season, he engineered one of the most unforeseen success stories of the era when he led the Buccaneers to the 1979 NFC Central Division crown and a berth in the NFC Championship Game.

Williams also took the Buccaneers to a division title in 1981 and led his team to a record above .500 in three of his final four seasons (1979, 1981-82) as Tampa Bay's quarterback. In comparison, from 1976-96, without Williams under center, the franchise did not register another winning season.

Leading Tampa Bay to its first three playoff appearances - including all the way to the NFC Championship Game in 1979 - Williams made an indelible mark on the Buccaneers franchise.

In that four-year stretch from 1979-82, Williams started all of the team's 57 regular season games and three playoff contests. Among his peers during that span, Williams ranked seventh in passing yards (11,369), 10th in touchdown passes (66), and seventh in lowest interception rate (3.8 percent). He also topped all quarterbacks during that period with 856 rushing yards and tied for the most rushing touchdowns with 12.

Williams later played in the USFL (1984-85) before joining the Washington Redskins in 1987, where he won Super Bowl XXII Most Valuable Player honors after leading them to a victory over Denver. The Buccaneers would not reach the playoffs again for a decade and a half, until after the team had been purchased by Malcolm Glazer.

Following his playing career, Williams entered the coaching profession and went on to serve two stints as head coach of his college alma mater (1998-2003, 2011-13), winning four conference championships.

Williams has also served as a personnel executive in NFL front offices, first with the Buccaneers from 2004-10 and currently with the Redskins after being hired in 2014.

Williams is also a member of the Washington Redskins Ring of Fame and was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2001. As a collegiate player at Grambling, Williams posted a 36-7 record as the starting quarterback and finished fourth in the voting for the Heisman Trophy in 1977.

JOHN LYNCH

As one of the most feared safeties of his generation and one of the most impactful figures in Buccaneers history, it was only a matter of time before John Lynch was enshrined in the team's Ring of Honor. Indeed, the elite defender was granted the honor in 2016, and wasformally inducted in a halftime ceremony on November 3, 2016 as Tampa Bay faces the Atlanta Falcons on Thursday Night Football.

Lynch came to the Buccaneers as third-round selection (82nd overall) in the 1993 NFL Draft and, upon arriving in Tampa Bay, he joined a team in the midst of some mighty struggles. Despite four consecutive losing seasons to start his career, Lynch, along with teammates and fellow Ring of Honor members Derrick Brooks and Warren Sapp, helped form the foundation that would turn the franchise around.

Lynch dedicated himself to his craft, and his hard work paid off. The defensive back played 15 seasons in the NFL, starting 191 of 224 games for Tampa Bay (1993-2003) and the Denver Broncos (2004-07). He finished his career with 1,277 tackles, 100 passes defensed, 26 interceptions, 16 forced fumbles, 13.0 sacks and eight fumble recoveries. He also started all 1 postseason contests in which he appeared, tallying 71 tackles, 12 passes defensed and two interceptions.

A captain on the Buccaneers' Super Bowl Championship team in 2002, Lynch's name is still prominent in the team's record book. He ranks fifth in games played (164), sixth in games started (132), fifth in tackles (973) and sixth in interceptions (23). He was selected to five Pro Bowls as a Buccaneer and four as a Bronco, and his nine total appearances in the all-star game are tied for second-most in league history amongst career safeties.

Renowned for his hard-hitting style and fearless demeanor, Lynch set the standard for the safety play in Tampa Bay.

Beyond simply his raw numbers, Lynch was consistently recognized as one of the most cerebral players on the field at any given time. Monte Kiffin nicknamed Lynch "The Closer," after noting the defensive back's penchant for late-game heroics – including an interception that sparked a comeback in the 1999 NFC Divisional Playoff Game against Washington and the pick that sealed Tampa Bay's 38-35 win over St. Louis in a 2000 Monday Night Football contest.

In fact, of his 26 career interceptions, 14 were secured in the fourth quarter and 11 of the 14 came when his team was either up or down by seven points or less. Lynch's talent for securing takeaways at such crucial moments ensured that 21 of his 26 picks helped his team win games.

Lynch made an impact off the field as well. He and his wife Linda formed the John Lynch Foundation in 2000, with a mission to develop quality young leaders through its community initiatives, including the Star of the Month, Lynch Family Legacy Scholarships, Salute the Stars and Lynch's Holiday Party. During his career, Lynch received numerous accolades for his work outside the game, being named a three-time Buccaneers Man of the Year, earning the Byron "Whizzer" White Award in 2006 and the Bart Starr award in 2005, being selected by teammates as the Ed Block Courage Award recipient in 2001 and twice finishing as a finalist for the Walter Payton Man of the Year award, along with numerous other achievements.

Lynch currently serves as the general manager of the San Francisco 49ers, helping guide the team to an NFC Championship in 2019 and 2023. He was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 2021.

MALCOLM GLAZER

Malcolm Glazer, who passed away on May 28, 2014, at the age of 85, purchased the team in 1995 for a then-record $192 million and immediately began one of the most impressive organizational transformations in professional sports. Two years after Glazer's purchase, the Buccaneers broke a 16-year postseason drought in 1997 and would go on to make the playoffs three of the next four seasons.

Determined to turn his team into a Super Bowl champion, Glazer made a bold move that changed the course of the franchise prior to the 2002 season. In a transaction that sent shockwaves throughout the NFL, he hired Jon Gruden away from the Oakland Raiders in exchange for two first-round draft picks, two second-round draft picks and $8 million in cash. Less than 12 months later, in January 2003, he delivered the fans of Tampa Bay their first major professional world championship with a resounding victory over the Raiders in Super Bowl XXXVII. During his tenure as owner and president from 1995-2013, the Buccaneers earned seven playoff berths, played in two NFC Championship Games and won their first Super Bowl.

With his first Super Bowl in hand, Glazer set his sights on continued success and that drive led to another significant improvement. On March 17, 2004, the Buccaneers unveiled plans for their new, 136,200 square-foot state-of-the-art training center. The new facility, considered the largest free-standing training structure of its kind in professional sports at the time, opened to rave reviews in August of 2006, following training camp.

Known among his league peers for years as a pioneering thinker, Glazer infused his team and employees with the determination and dedication to be the best in the NFL and that still rings true today. Glazer's commitment to building a championship organization provided the foundation for continued success, on and off the field.

Glazer also left an equally deep and lasting impact as an advocate for the Tampa Bay community. In 1999, he established the Glazer Family Foundation, which has donated millions and reached out to countless thousands in need. He also was a driving force in the negotiations that secured Super Bowls XXXV and XLIII for Tampa. In 2010, Glazer added to his community-driven legacy with the opening of the Glazer Children's Museum in downtown Tampa.

In May 2009, the Glazer family was honored with the prestigious Gonzmart Family Ambassador of the Year Award, as part of the 26th annual National Tourism Week, presented by Tampa Bay & Company. The Ambassador Award was presented to the Glazer Family in recognition of their efforts to help the tourism industry in the Bay area, as well as their impact on the community overall.

JON GRUDEN

Gruden, who served as the team's head coach from 2002-08, guided the Buccaneers to a 12-4 record in his first season, including a first-place finish in the NFC South en route to delivering a Super Bowl victory.

After taking over the Buccaneers, Gruden turned over more than half the roster with new players. Twenty-seven members of the Super Bowl XXXVII team, including five starters on offense, were not on the roster for the team's final game of the previous season. Tampa Bay's 12 regular season wins during that 2002 campaign stand as the most in a single season in franchise history. During his seven years in Tampa Bay, Gruden amassed 57 wins – the most in franchise history — while his teams made it to the postseason three times (2002, 2005 and 2007). In 2007, he led the Buccaneers to their third NFC South title in six years, becoming the only coach in team history with three division titles.

At the time of his Super Bowl XXXVII victory over his former team, Gruden was the youngest head coach in NFL history to win a Super Bowl. He was also the first non-rookie head coach to lead his team to a Super Bowl win in his first season with that team.

At the time of his Super Bowl XXXVII victory over his former team, Gruden was the youngest head coach in NFL history to win a Super Bowl.

Following Tampa Bay's Super Bowl victory in January, 2003, Gruden, along with quarterback Brad Johnson, was the first non-player ever invited by Disney to star in their popular post-Super Bowl "What's Next" commercial. His off-the-field popularity continued to grow, marked the success of his 2003 book "Do You Love Football?! Winning with Heart, Passion, and Not Much Sleep." Gruden was the recipient of the 2002 Coach of the Year honor at the ESPY awards and was recognized as Professional Coach of the Year at the 37th Victor Awards in 2003.

Prior to his arrival in Tampa, Gruden steered the Raiders to a 38-26 regular season mark in his four seasons (1998-2001) with the club, including postseason appearances in 2000 and 2001. He led Oakland to division titles in each of his final two seasons (2000-01). He also held various coaching and assistant positions with the Philadelphia Eagles, Green Bay Packers, University of Pittsburgh, San Francisco 49ers, University of Pacific, Southeast Missouri State and University of Tennessee after his 1985 graduation from the University of Dayton where he served as the quarterback of the football team and earned a degree in communications.

After his career with the Buccaneers, Gruden moved into the broadcast booth in 2009 as ESPN's game analyst on Monday Night Football where he has served for the past eight seasons. His father, Jim, served as a professional football regional scout, running backs coach and director of player personnel for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. His brother, Jay, is currently the head coach of the Washington Redskins. He and his wife, Cindy, continue living in Tampa and remain involved in a variety of Tampa-based charitable causes.

TONY DUNGY

Dungy, a 2016 Pro Football Hall of Fame enshrinee, amassed a 54-42 regular season record as head coach of the Buccaneers, posting a franchise-best .563 winning percentage and four playoff appearances.

In 1996, the Glazer Family provided Dungy his first head coaching opportunity on any level after spending the previous 15 seasons as an NFL assistant. In his first season leading the team, Dungy's even-tempered approach and strong leadership guided the team to a 6-10 season which included five wins in the team's last seven games. It would prove to be the only losing campaign in his six seasons as head coach.

By the end of his second season, the transformation was clearly underway as Dungy led Tampa Bay to its first winning record since 1982, earning a playoff berth and delivering Tampa Bay's first playoff victory in 18 years. Prior to the 1997 turnaround, the Buccaneers had lost double-digit games in 13 of the previous 14 seasons. In contrast, Tampa Bay earned four postseason berths in a five-year span under Dungy from 1997-2001, one of only two NFL teams to accomplish that feat, and never posted a season record below .500. The four playoff appearances in Dungy's six seasons (1996-2001) tied for the third-most in the NFL during that span.

Tampa Bay earned four postseason berths in a five-year span under Dungy from 1997-2001, one of the only two NFL teams to accomplish that feat, and never posted a season below .500.

When Dungy brought his defensive expertise to Tampa Bay, he inherited the league's 27th-ranked defense. In his first season, the Buccaneers improved to No. 11 overall. In each of the next five seasons, that unit ranked in the top 10 in the NFL in total defense and points allowed.

Collectively, over Dungy's six-year tenure, the Buccaneers led the NFL on a per game basis in points allowed (17.0), total net yards allowed (286.7) and passing yards allowed (184.1), while allowing the fewest yards per passing attempt (6.14).Dungy's legacy extends beyond statistics and records. Two of his stalwart defensive players, Derrick Brooks and Warren Sapp, became fellow Hall of Fame inductees, while perennial Pro Bowlers John Lynch (2018 finalist), Ronde Barber (2018 semifinalist) and Simeon Rice (2018 semifinalist) remain on the ballot.

Among Dungy's assistant coaches during his Tampa Bay tenure were future NFL head coaches Jim Caldwell, Herman Edwards, Rod Marinelli, Lovie Smith and Mike Tomlin. On February 4, 2007, while head coach of the Indianapolis Colts, Dungy faced off against Smith's Chicago Bears as the two became the first African-American coaches to reach the Super Bowl. Dungy emerged victorious. Two years later, Tomlin followed in his footsteps when he led the Steelers to a Super Bowl XLII victory.

Beyond the football field, Dungy's impact can be felt by the work he does through the Dungy Family Foundation. Based in Tampa, the charity assists organizations in all the NFL cities where Dungy played or coached – Pittsburgh, Minneapolis, Tampa and Indianapolis – by providing opportunities to those in need through educational, emotional and/or financial support. He also serves as the NFL spokesman for All Pro Dad and is active in Big Brothers Big Sisters and Prison Crusade Ministry, among other philanthropic endeavors.

Since retiring from coaching, Dungy has served as a studio analyst for NBC's Football Night in America and Sunday Night Football since 2009. He has authored numerous books that have earned the distinction of New York Times Best Sellers.

Dungy and his wife, Lauren, are the parents of 10 children and still reside in Tampa.

RONDE BARBER

Barber entered the National Football League as the Tampa Bay Buccaneers' third-round selection (66th overall) in the 1997 NFL Draft, and, over the course of his career, developed into one of the most decorated players in franchise history. He played in 241 games with 232 starts for Tampa Bay – both club records – while also recording a streak of 215 consecutive starts, tied for sixth-longest in NFL history. His 200 consecutive starts at cornerback is the most for that position in league history, and his 240 consecutive games played ranks second among defensive players since 1970.

During his career, Barber racked up 1,428 tackles – second in franchise history, behind only linebacker Derrick Brooks – 28.0 sacks, 47 interceptions, eight interception return touchdowns, 243 passes defensed, 15 forced fumbles, 11 fumble recoveries, and six additional touchdowns on fumble returns and blocked/deflected punts. In 2001, Barber led the NFL in interceptions, picking off 10 passes, a Buccaneers single-season record.

Barber is the only player in the history of the NFL to have 25 or more sacks and 40 or more interceptions.

Barber also played in 10 playoff games with nine starts, recording 50 tackles, one sack, two interceptions, one interception return touchdown, 11 passes defensed and one fumble recovery. He made one of the most memorable plays in Buccaneers history with his 92-yard interception returned for a touchdown against the Philadelphia Eagles in the 2002 NFC Championship Game, sending the Buccaneers to the team's first-ever Super Bowl appearance and an eventual victory in Super Bowl XXXVII.

Barber is the only player in the history of the NFL to have 25 or more sacks and 40 or more interceptions. His 28.0 sacks are second-most all-time among defensive backs, and the most all-time by a cornerback. He tops the Buccaneers' record book with his nine interceptions returned for touchdowns (including postseason), and his 14 total regular-season return touchdowns put him fourth in NFL history.

Barber's on-the-field numbers earned him a myriad of accolades throughout the years, including five Pro Bowl selections, five AP All-Pro team appointments, and nine Player of the Week awards. Barber was also named to the NFL's 2000s All-Decade Team.

Known for his leadership as much as his play, Barber was selected as a team captain for nine consecutive seasons (2004-12), named Buccaneers Man of the Year in 2006 and voted the team's Ed Block Courage Award winner in 2011. Barber reached the pinnacle after being inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 2023.

MONTE KIFFIN

Kiffin ranks as the longest-tenured coach in Buccaneers franchise history, having spent 13 seasons with the organization from 1996-2008 under head coaches and fellow Ring of Honor members Tony Dungy (1996-2001) and Jon Gruden (2002-08).

Buccaneers Owner/Co-Chairman Bryan Glazer said: "Monte Kiffin's contributions to building and sustaining one of the most dominant defenses in NFL history were crucial to our franchise's most successful era. Monte worked closely with Tony Dungy and Jon Gruden using his signature defense that became the team's identity and was a key part of winning the Super Bowl. He was an outstanding coach, teacher and leader who consistently got the best out of his players and we eagerly anticipate welcoming him into our Ring of Honor this upcoming season."

Kiffin joined Dungy's coaching staff as defensive coordinator in 1996 and immediately began the process of overhauling the Buccaneers' defense. Kiffin's unit improved from 27th overall the year prior to his arrival to 11th following that first season.

During Kiffin's 13 seasons leading Tampa Bay's defense, the unit ranked in the top 10 in yards allowed 11 times and in points allowed 12 times.

Working alongside Dungy, he helped create and implement the 'Tampa 2' defensive scheme that eventually propelled the Buccaneers to their victory in Super Bowl XXXVII. During Kiffin's 13 seasons leading Tampa Bay's defense, the unit ranked in the top 10 in yards allowed 11 times and in points allowed 12 times. During that same 13-year span, the defense led the league in points allowed per game (17.5), ranked second in takeaways (293) and yards allowed per game (286.8), third in interceptions (249) and 10th in total sacks (503).

Kiffin's units are among the most accomplished in team history. In 1999, the Buccaneers' defense, led by eventual AP Defensive Player of the Year Warren Sapp, held opponents to a franchise record low of only 228 first downs on the way to an appearance in the NFC Championship Game. In 2000, Tampa Bay's 55 sacks established another team record.

In 2002, Kiffin was named the Assistant Coach of the Year by both Football Digest and the Pro Football Writers Association after his defensive unit became the first since the 1985 Chicago Bears to lead the league in points allowed (196), yards allowed per game (252.8) and interceptions (31). The 196 points allowed remains the fewest in a single season in team history and the fifth-fewest allowed in a 16-game season in NFL history.

Under Kiffin's leadership, eight different Buccaneers defensive players made a combined 36 Pro Bowl appearances, while six also earned All-Pro team recognition. In addition to Sapp, Derrick Brooks also earned AP Defensive Player of the Year, following the 2002 season.

BRUCE ARIANS

In March of 2022, Arians concluded a 46-year coaching career, including his last nine leading NFL franchises. With the Buccaneers from 2019-2021, Arians amassed a 31-18 (.633) regular season record and a 5-1 (.833) postseason record, including a victory in Super Bowl LV following the 2020 season. In 2021, he directed Tampa Bay to its first NFC South division title since 2007 and victory in the Wild Card Round. The Buccaneers' 36 combined regular season and postseason victories over the last three seasons are the fourth-most in the NFL.

Buccaneers Owner/Co-Chairman Joel Glazer said: "When Bruce arrived in Tampa Bay three years ago, he spoke about establishing a winning culture and adding another Super Bowl championship for our community. He delivered on both of those promises, and our family is deeply appreciative for all that he has accomplished during his time as our head coach. As impressive as his coaching accomplishments have been, his legacy will live on through the doors of opportunity that he has opened for minority coaches and women in football. We support Bruce's decision to transition from the sidelines and look forward to continuing to lean on his vast football knowledge and experience well into the future. On behalf of all Buccaneers fans, I would like to thank Bruce for all that he has done for this franchise and our community."

Arians is Tampa Bay's all time leader in regular season and postseason win percentage.

Arians is a two-time Associated Press NFL Coach of the Year, winning the award following the 2012 season with the Indianapolis Colts and the 2014 season with the Arizona Cardinals. Including his 9-3 record as interim head coach of Indianapolis in 2012, Arians' .635 winning percentage (89-51-1) ranks eighth among coaches who have coached at least 100 games in the Super Bowl era.

Arians is Tampa Bay's all-time leader in regular season and postseason winning percentage, while his .619 regular season winning percentage as head coach of the Arizona Cardinals is the best in that franchise's history. He joins Bill Parcells, Andy Reid and Marty Schottenheimer as the only coaches during the Super Bowl era to hold that distinction for two organizations.

Buccaneers General Manager Jason Licht said: "I consider Bruce a dear friend and loved working side-by-side with him in a head coach-general manager capacity," Licht said. "I am really proud of what we have been able to accomplish. Bruce established a culture here that set the foundation for a Super Bowl championship. In my opinion, he is a Hall of Fame coach, so it is difficult for our football team to lose that type of leader. However, I am excited to have him continuing his contributions to our franchise in his new capacity."

During Arians' tenure, Tampa Bay led the NFL in points scored (29.8 per game), passing yards (300.0 per game), passing touchdowns (118), completions (1,284), and passing first downs (755), ranked third in total yards (396.2 per game), fourth in first downs (22.9 per game), and seventh in sacks allowed (92).

SIMEON RICE

Rice – one of the most prolific pass rushers in NFL history, and a key figure in the team's Super Bowl XXXVII championship run – will become the 16th inductee into the Buccaneers Ring of Honor at Raymond James Stadium in 2025. Rice becomes the fifth defensive player, and eighth overall member, from Tampa Bay's 2002 Super Bowl-winning team to receive this distinction, joining fellow legends Rondé Barber, Derrick Brooks, John Lynch, and Warren Sapp.

Buccaneers Owner/Co-Chairman Bryan Glazer said: "During his Hall of Fame-worthy 12-year career, Simeon Rice established himself as one of the most dominant pass rushers in NFL history and is immensely deserving of his place as the 16th member in the Buccaneers Ring of Honor. Simeon arrived in Tampa prior to the 2001 season and immediately elevated our defense into one of the greatest of all-time. He left an indelible mark on our franchise, and we look forward to honoring and celebrating his great career this upcoming season."

Rice led the Buccaneers in sacks in each of his first five seasons with the club.

In six seasons with the Buccaneers (2001–2006), Rice started all 87 games he played and totaled 69.5 sacks, the third-most in team history behind Pro Football Hall of Famers Lee Roy Selmon and Warren Sapp. He led the Buccaneers in sacks in each of his first five seasons with the club, joining Selmon (1976–81) and Gerald McCoy (2013–17) as the only Buccaneers to do so in at least five straight years. To date, Rice owns five of the top ten sack-producing seasons in franchise history, including three of the top five.

Over an eight-season stretch from 1998 to 2005, Rice amassed a league-best 101.5 sacks, outpacing Pro Football Hall of Fame contemporaries such as Michael Strahan and Jason Taylor. From 2001 to 2005, Rice recorded at least 11.0 sacks in each season, becoming one of only five players in NFL history at the time to post double-digit sacks in five consecutive years for the same team. His eight career seasons with 10.0 or more sacks are tied for the seventh-most in league history, ranking just behind a group of Pro Football Hall of Famers in Bruce Smith, Reggie White, Julius Peppers, Kevin Greene, John Randle, and Claude Humphrey.

A cornerstone of Tampa Bay's Super Bowl XXXVII championship team, Rice joined an already formidable defense in 2001 and elevated it to new heights during the team's historic 2002 campaign.

That season, he led the team with 15.5 sacks in the regular season and added a team-high 4.0 more in the postseason – including 2.0 sacks of league MVP Rich Gannon in the Buccaneers' dominant 48–21 victory over the Oakland Raiders in the Super Bowl.

Originally selected as the No. 3 overall pick in the 1996 NFL Draft by the Arizona Cardinals, Rice concluded his career having started 161-of-174 games played between the Cardinals (1996-2000), Buccaneers (2001-06), Denver Broncos (2007) and Indianapolis Colts (2007). He finished with 122.0 career sacks, ranking among the top 20 in league history at the time of his retirement. Rice also added 472 career tackles, 59 passes defensed, 34 forced fumbles, eight fumble recoveries and five interceptions. In seven career postseason contests – all starts – he tallied 23 tackles, 7.0 sacks, three forced fumbles, two passes defensed, and one fumble recovery.

A three-time Pro Bowler, Rice was also a first-team All-Pro and two-time second-team All-Pro selection. He was named the 1996 Associated Press Defensive Rookie of the Year after posting 12.5 sacks – tied for the second-most by a rookie in NFL history at the time, trailing only Pro Football Hall of Famer Reggie White.

An instantly-recognizable Tampa Bay landmark, Raymond James Stadium includes some of the most unique stadium features in the world. It is a blend of modern design, classic appointments, state-of-the-art technology and historic influences that creates one of the most exciting and enjoyable game atmospheres in the NFL.

The stadium, which opened to rave reviews for the 1998 season, just underwent a multi-phase renovation. The first stage of this project was completed in 2014 and encompassed a complete redesign of the main level concession locations. The second phase was completed for the Buccaneers' 2016 season and was highlighted by the installation of new, state-of-the-art HD video boards in each end zone and four HD tower video displays in each corner of the lower bowl, giving the stadium a total video display area in excess of 30,000 square feet – at the time, the third-largest in the NFL. Also included was a new, comprehensive sound system and concessions upgrades, in addition to the renovation of all luxury suites. The third phase of renovations, which was completed in time for the team's 2017 season, included a completely redesigned West Stadium Club, a new, 10,000 square-foot team retail store, expansion of the highly successful Hall of Fame Club, and an expansive new home team locker room. The most recent phase of renovations included a complete renovation of the East Stadium Club along with the opening of a new premium sports bar and restaurant named Bar 76 in the East Club atrium entrance.

Some of the stadium's most recognizable features include:

BUCCANEER COVE

Located in the north end zone of the stadium, Buccaneer Cove encompasses 20,000 square feet and runs the entire length of the end zone concourse. The Cove features a weathered, two-story fishing village facade from which a wide variety of stadium concessions, ranging from standard fare to more authentic Tampa items, are offered. Scattered throughout the area are a variety of beach hut kiosks offering additional concessions.

The centerpiece of Buccaneer Cove is the 103-foot long Pirate Ship, an authentic replica of an early 1800s vessel and arguably one of the most recognizable stadium features in the world.

The most menacing aspect of the Pirate Ship is its massive 9'x7' skull and crossed swords facing the playing field, which features huge, glowing red eyes and a mouth that breathes smoke. Additionally, eight cannons celebrate player introductions, trips inside the red zone and Buccaneers touchdowns by releasing thundering cannon fire and smoke. It is manned by a 30-plus person crew which is responsible for Pirate Ship pyrotechnics, launching t-shirts and tossing out beads to fans throughout the game.

The Ship's dock serves as an entertainment area from which patrons enjoy one of the most unique views in the National Football League. Adding to the festive atmosphere is a larger-than-life interactive talking parrot that sits perched at the Ship's stern.

All areas of Buccaneer Cove and the Ship's facilities are ADA disabled ramp accessible so that all fans can benefit from this unique setting. With a full menu of food and beverages, plentiful facilities and an excellent view of the action on the field, Buccanee Cove is as animated as the 19th-century pirate village after which it is modeled.

Massive enough to be a striking image from any spot in the stadium, the majestic Pirate Ship looms out over the crowd in the north end zone.

· Ship Length	103'
· Ship Weight	43 tons
· Ship Height	78'
· Bow Detail	9'x7'
· Ship Width	32'
· Swords	16' each

The Pirate Ship was constructed over a two-month period using, among others, the following materials:

- 5.5 tons of concrete
- 14 tons of steel
- 700 yards of sails
- 1 mile of rigging
- 300 feet of rope
- 60 gallons of paint
- 64,000 linear feet of wood trim

ADVENTHEALTH TRAINING CENTER

The Buccaneers make their home at AdventHealth Training Center, a training facility and team operations center that opened in 2006 and is located mere blocks from Raymond James Stadium.

The 136,320-square-foot complex is complete with every amenity and advancement necessary to operate on the highest level, and is a combination of function, style and space. No effort was spared in its creation, from the towering steel-and-glass football entrance to the meticulously kept practice fields.

AHTC, as it is commonly called, houses both all team, coaching and front office areas, as well as the team's business operations center.

Below is a closer look at some of the headquarters' features that players utilize on a daily basis.

LOCKER ROOM

The locker room at AdventHealth Training Center covers 6,600 square feet and is an open design that gives a spacious feel. The lockers are four feet across and oak paneled, with drawers, shelves and hooks for storage of all equipment, though some players keep their areas more organized than others! The locker room also includes a large shower and restroom area, complete with a steam room and sauna.

INDOOR FACILITY

In addition to the main facility, the new state-of-the-art indoor practice facility was completed prior to the 2017 season. The 100,000-square-foot facility features a full-sized FieldTurf playing surface, has an indoor clearance of 96 feet and seating for up to 3,500 guests.

The space is used frequently for walkthroughs, practices, select training camp viewing sessions and several other major events hosted at AdventHealth Training Center over the course of the year. The facility provides players and coaching staff members with the luxury of escaping Florida's extremely hot and humid conditions and avoid missed practices due to inclement weather.

ADVENTHEALTH TRAINING CENTER

TRAINING ROOM

The Buccaneers' training room, under the direction of Head Athletic Trainer Bobby Slater, offers a complete center to cater to the health and well-being of the team.

The training room includes a main space filled with taping tables and related equipment, an expansive rehab area, and a large physician's room, allowing the club's attending physician the ability to see a player privately.

Furthermore, players who need aquatic rehab can do it on site in the popular hydro room, which contains three large tubs: one for cold soaks, one for hot soaks and one for aquatic rehab. The rehab pool is deep enough to submerge a player chest deep and it is equipped with underwater rails and a floor that rolls like a treadmill, giving injured players the best chance to fully recover.

WEIGHT ROOM

The weight room at AHTC is contained in its own separate building, covering 9,353 square feet of space and connected to the east end of the main building by a stylized breezeway.

There are 60-70 different types of machines and countless free weights. The large racks along the front row are big enough for players to work back-to-back, which means there is never a wait for weightlifting. And the machines are specific enough to bend to the need of any player on the team.

The weight room is outfitted with an impressive sound system and the wall that faces the practice fields is made up of six large garage-style doors that can be rolled up to let in the outside air during the nicer portions of the year as well as the hot summer months to prepare for the game in the Florida heat. There is a strong air-conditioning system for the Tampa summers, of course, but, even so, the room's many windows keep the room bright and inviting.

TEAM AUDITORIUM AND POSITION ROOMS

Each day, players and coaches take part in a team meeting, where the head coach addresses the entire group. This takes place in the spacious team auditorium, which is comprised of a large stage surrounded by stadium-style seating, each large chair complete with a desktop to allow players to take notes. From the stage, coaches can roll game or practice film on a large projection screen to discuss with the team highlights or areas that need improvement. The rich wood paneling behind the stage features a giant carved Buccaneers logo.

When it comes time to go over details position-by-position, coaches and players can break out into their own individual position meeting rooms.

Each meeting room looks like a plush, state-of-the-art classroom, with the expected desks and whiteboards, but also a command station for the coaches, with a video and computer system that allows the coaching staff or players to access a vast array of video cutups from practice sessions, Buccaneers games or opponent games. This system includes every game played in the NFL over the last five years, cut up by play so that the data can be assembled in any way the coach wishes. Want to see what the Carolina Panthers have done on every third-and-seven over the last four years? Just a few well-informed keystrokes and you have your digital highlight reel.

The same is true of practice, thanks to the swift work of Video Director Brett Greene's crew. Every practice is shot by several 8K Solutions cameras located around the practice field. During and immediately after each workout, that footage is entered into the system and broken down by play. A coach can walk in off the field, head to his office on the second floor and immediately begin sorting out the footage he wants. Within minutes, he can use it as a teaching tool with his players.

AdventHealth Training Center consists, of course, of more than just these highlighted features. It goes beyond to a high-tech and expertly maintained practice field system, a well-stocked scouting area and a comfortable media studio for press conferences and workroom for local press.

What is AHTC's best feature? That's different for virtually every player, coach and staff member who works within its walls, but suffice to say that there are many, many correct answers.

SUPER BOWLS IN TAMPA

SUPER BOWL LV

In a dominating performance at Raymond James Stadium, the Tampa Bay Buccaneers defeated the Kansas City Chiefs, 31-9, to claim the Lombardi Trophy, becoming the first team in NFL history to win a Super Bowl in its home stadium. The Tampa Bay defense became just the fifth in Super Bowl history not to allow a touchdown. Trailing 3-0 in the first quarter, Tom Brady found Rob Gronkowski for an 8-yard touchdown pass to give Tampa Bay a lead which it would never surrender. The Buccaneers were stopped on the goal line on their next posession, but followed it up with three consecutive touchdown drives. Gronkowski hauled in a 17-yard pass from Brady to score his second touchdown of the game, putting his name next to Jerry Rice as the only players in NFL history with two-or-more touchdown receptions in multiple Super Bowls.

With 1:01 remaining in the opening half, the Buccaneers took advantage of a penalty-aided drive that resulted resulted in a 1-yard touchdown reception for Antonio Brown with just six seconds before halftime, giving Tampa Bay a 21-6 advantage at the break. The Chiefs were able to get a field goal on their first drive of the second half, but that would mark the final points of the ballgame for Kansas City. The Buccaneers immediately responded with a Leonard Fournette 27-yard touchdown run followed by a 52-yard Ryan Succop field goal to push the lead to 31-9. The second half continued to be dominated by the Buccaneers defense, which consistently put pressure on put pressure on Chiefs quarterback Patrick Mahomes.

Tampa Bay's defense recorded a pair of second-half interceptions - one from Devin White and one from Antoine Winfield Jr. Winfield became just the seventh rookie in NFL history with an interception in the Super Bowl. Collectively, the Buccaneers defense racked up nine quarterback hits in the game, which were tied for the fourth-most in a Super Bowl since QB hits became regularly tracked in 2006. Shaquil Barrett had four quarterback hits alone, tying for the second-most by an individual player in that span. Brady won Super Bowl MVP honors for the fifth time in his career, throwing for 201 yards and three touchdowns to earn a 125.8 passer rating. He moved to 7-3 in his career in Super Bowls – the most wins ever by any player in league history. The Super Bowl victory was the eighth consecutive win for the Buccaneers dating back to the regular season, the longest winning streak in team history.

SUPER BOWL XLIII

On February 1, 2009, the Pittsburgh Steelers defeated the Arizona Cardinals 27-23 in dramatic fashion before 70,774 at Raymond James Stadium securing sole possession of the record for most Super Bowl wins with six.

Pittsburgh outgained Arizona 158 to 102 yards in the first half of Super Bowl XLIII, jumping to a 17-7 lead at halftime, aided by LB James Harrison's Super Bowl record 100-yard interception return for a touchdown, the longest scoring play in Super Bowl history. Harrison, the 2008 Defensive Player of the year, totaled four tackles, one pass defensed, two quarterback hurries and one interception. Trailing 20-7 at the start of the fourth quarter, Arizona scored 16 unanswered points, including WR Larry Fitzgerald's 64-yard touchdown reception to take a 23-20 lead with 2:37 remaining in the game. The Steelers marched 78 yards to score on WR Santonio Holmes' six-yard game-winning touchdown catch with 35 seconds left. Holmes finished the game with nine receptions for 131 yards and one touchdown, including four receptions for 71 yards on the final drive, earning him Super Bowl MVP honors. Steelers QB Ben Roethlisberger recorded 256 yards passing on 21-of-30 attempts including one interception and the game-winning touchdown pass. The Cardinals were led by QB Kurt Warner, who completed 31-of-43 pass attempts for 377 yards, three touchdowns and one interception. Warner connected with WR Anquan Boldin for a team-high eight receptions for 84 yards, while Fitzgerald led the team with 127 yards receiving on seven receptions, including two touchdowns.

Approximately 98.7 million people watched Super Bowl XLIII, making it then the most watched Super Bowl ever.

SUPER BOWL XXXV

On January 28, 2001, the Baltimore Ravens defeated the New York Giants 34-7 before 71,921 at Raymond James Stadium. The Ravens' suffocating defense allowed the Giants just 152 total yards and did not permit an offensive touchdown en route to winning Baltimore its first championship in team history.

LB Ray Lewis, named the 2001 Defensive Player of the Year, totaled three tackles, two assists and four passes defensed against the Giants, while being named the Most Valuable Player of Super Bowl XXXV.

Former Buccaneer QB Trent Dilfer led the Ravens to their first score with a 38-yard touchdown pass to WR Brandon Stokley to give the Ravens a 7-0 first quarter lead. Dilfer later set up a K Matt Stover 47-yard field goal with 1:48 left in the first half with a 36-yard pass to WR Qadry Ismail.

RB Tiki Barber, twin brother of current Buccaneers CB Ronde Barber, gave the Giants their farthest drive into Ravens' territory with a 27-yard run to Baltimore's 29-yard line. However, CB Chris McAlister intercepted QB Kerry Collins' pass on the next play to end the drive. CB Duane Starks intercepted Collins later in the third quarter and returned the ball 49 yards for a touchdown and a 17-0 lead. S Kim Herring and LB Jamie Sharper also recorded interceptions in the game.

WR Ron Dixon returned the ensuing kickoff 97 yards for a touchdown and cut the Giants' deficit to 10. But WR Jermaine Lewis then matched Dixon's kickoff return as he cut across the field and raced 84 yards for a 24-7 lead with 3:13 left in the third quarter. The three touchdowns in 36 seconds were a Super Bowl record.

RB Jamal Lewis, who finished with 27 carries for 102 yards, scored on a three-yard touchdown run midway through the fourth quarter and gave Baltimore a 31-7 lead. Stover finished off the scoring for the Ravens with a 34-yard field goal midway through the fourth quarter.

SUPER BOWL XXV

On January 27, 1991, Buffalo K Scott Norwood missed a 47-yard FG attempt with four seconds left in Super Bowl XXV, enabling the New York Giants to escape with a 20-19 win over the Bills before 78,813 at Tampa Stadium.

The thrilling contest took place during the height of the United States' military presence in the Persian Gulf. The entire crowd waved American flags during Whitney Houston's emotional rendition of the National Anthem.

The Giants countered Buffalo's run-and-shoot attack with a suffocating ball-control offense. New York owned the ball for a Super Bowl-record 40:33. The Bills had the ball for just eight minutes in the second half.

After the two teams traded field goals, Bills RB Don Smith burrowed in from one yard out to give Buffalo a 10-3 lead. The Bills extended that lead to 12-3 when DE Bruce Smith sacked Giants QB Jeff Hostetler in the end zone. But Hostetler fired back, finding WR Stephen Baker in the end zone to close the gap to 12-10 just before the half.

The Giants then opened the third quarter with an epic march to the end zone, consuming a Super Bowl-record 9:29 on a 14-play, 73-yard march. RB Ottis Anderson capped the drive with a one-yard TD run, giving New York a 17-12 lead. Buffalo recaptured the lead when RB Thurman Thomas rushed 31 yards for a score on the opening play of the fourth quarter. K Matt Bahr then booted a 21-yard FG with 7:20 left to push the Giants ahead 20-19.

Buffalo mustered one last stand as QB Jim Kelly escorted the Bills to the Giants 30. But Norwood missed his 47-yarder wide right, giving New York its second Super Bowl crown. Anderson earned MVP honors after rushing for 102 yards on 21 carries. Thomas totaled 190 yards from scrimmage in a losing effort.

SUPER BOWL XVIII

On January 22, 1984, the Los Angeles Raiders defeated Washington 38-9 before 72,920 at Tampa Stadium in Super Bowl XVIII. The Raiders posted the then-largest margin of victory in a Super Bowl en route to capturing their third Vince Lombardi Trophy.

RB Marcus Allen rushed for a Super Bowl-record 191 yards on just 20 carries, including a record 74-yard scoring jaunt at the end of the third quarter that cemented Most Valuable Player honors.

Los Angeles jumped out to a 7-0 lead when Derrick Jensen recovered a blocked punt in the end zone. The Raiders increased their lead to 14-3 when QB Jim Plunkett fired a 12-yard scoring strike to WR Cliff Branch. After K Mark Moseley booted a 24-yard FG to cut the lead to 14-3, Washington took an unnecessary gamble that proved to be disastrous. QB Joe Theismann attempted to throw a screen pass deep in Redskins territory, but LB Jack Squirek picked it off at the Washington 5 and waltzed into the end zone with seven seconds left in the half.

The Redskins cut the lead to 21-9 on a one-yard TD run by RB John Riggins early in the third quarter. But Allen took over from there, scoring twice before the quarter ended to ice the victory. The win ran Raiders head coach Tom Flores' postseason record to 8-1. The 38 points scored by Los Angeles were the most in the first 18 Super Bowls, surpassing Green Bay's 35 points in Super Bowl I.

RAYMOND JAMES: THE STORY BEHIND THE STADIUM NAME

Raymond James Stadium is not named for a public figure or local sports legend, but rather for a thriving financial services firm headquartered across Tampa Bay in St. Petersburg – Raymond James Financial. Raymond James has held the naming rights since the stadium's 1998 opening and is the official wealth management provider for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

Traded on the New York Stock Exchange (RJF), Raymond James Financial, Inc. is a leading diversified financial services company providing private client group, capital markets, asset management, banking and other services to individuals, corporations and municipalities.

To this day, people interacting with Raymond James for the first time assume that there was a founding father named Ray James somewhere in the firm's past. However, the firm's name comes from the 1962 merger of two financial services companies, one run by Robert A. James and the other by Edward Raymond. Raymond James was incorporated as Robert A. James Investments in 1962. In 1964, Raymond and Associates merged into Robert A. James Investments – and the firm of Raymond James & Associates was formed.

In an era when most financial firms focused solely on buying and selling stocks or mutual funds, Robert A. James pioneered the concept of financial planning for each individual. The firm has been dedicated to meeting the diverse financial needs of its clients ever since.

The same integrity Bob James demonstrated back in 1964 is what the firm continues to strive for today. Raymond James financial advisors base their investment recommendations not on hot stocks or market fads, but on a complete and holistic understanding of each client's needs and goals. This planning-focused approach fosters well-informed decisions and dedication to client service, hallmarks of Raymond James since its inception.

CARING FOR OUR COMMUNITIES

"Giving back to the communities in which we live and work" is a phrase that has been part of the Raymond James mission from the beginning, and it's that commitment to putting others first – from clients to neighbors – that has been an integral part of the firm's culture- since its founding.

Now, more than six decades later, Raymond James and its associates are proud to continue the legacy – started by Raymond James founder Bob James, continued by his son and long-time Chair and CEO Tom James, and carried out by current Chair, Paul Reilly and CEO, Paul Shoukry – by investing time, money and talents into the communities they serve. It's so much more than tradition – it's part of who they are.

Together, Raymond James and the Buccaneers team up to build, strengthen and grow our communities. One way we do this is through the Kicking for Kids program.

KICKING FOR KIDS

This season marks the 23rd year of combining the Tampa Bay Buccaneers' on-field success with a commitment to helping children across the Tampa Bay area through Kicking for Kids.

For every field goal completed during a regular or postseason game, Raymond James contributes $2,500 to designated Tampa Bay-area children's hospitals.

Since the Raymond James Kicking for Kids program began in 2000, it has raised more than $619,000 for local children's hospitals.

SUPPORTING THE COMMUNITIES WHERE WE LIVE AND WORK

Raymond James gives back to the communities where we live and work by investing in and volunteering with organizations focused on health and human services, education and financial empowerment, and culture and the arts.

READY FOR SCHOOL

In 2025, we launched Ready for School with the mission to invest time, resources and expertise into helping students achieve their unique goals inside the classroom, outside the classroom and beyond. Inside the Classroom, our goals include increasing the number of students who are independent readers by the third grade and increasing the number of kids who are proficient in algebra by the ninth grade. Outside the Classroom, we support organizations with success in before- and after-school programs, mentorship, summer learning and extracurricular initiatives which help to engage children outside of school hours. Beyond the Classroom focuses on preparing students for success by providing access to their basic needs, including nutrition, clothing and mental health support with safe spaces and critical resources.

Our current partners include:

Inside the Classroom: 3DE Schools by Junior Achievement of Tampa Bay, LiFT Academy, Pinellas Education Foundation, Sing Out and READ and Teach for America Tampa Bay

Outside the Classroom: Boys & Girls Clubs of the Suncoast, Friends of the Children and the Tampa Metropolitan Area YMCA

Beyond the Classroom: Hero to a Child, St. Pete Free Clinic and Starting Right, Now

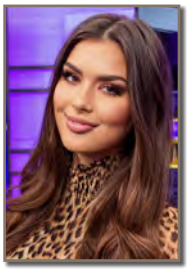
BUCCANEERS PRESEASON TELEVISION

CHRIS MYERS

RONDÉ BARBER



AILEEN HNATIUK

WFLA

WFLA, News Channel 8 is Your Official Bucs Station and serves as the Tampa Bay Buccaneers' home for preseason football. In 2025, News Channel 8 will produce and broadcast all three of Tampa Bay's preseason games. Week 1 is at home against the Tennessee Titans, Week 2 is on the road versus the Pittsburgh Steelers, and Week 3 the Buccaneers return home to face the Buffalo Bills. In addition, News Channel 8 sports anchors Aileen Hnatiuk and Kenny Morales will host "Bucs All Access," a half-hour program that will air Saturday nights after Saturday Night Live on WFLA (1:00am) and on the CW Tampa Bay (check your local listing) during the NFL season.

Emmy-Award winning broadcaster Chris Myers will enter his 23rd season in the preseason broadcast booth for Tampa Bay as the play-by-play man. A versatile member of FOX Sports programming, Myers has handled play-by-play and sideline duties for the NFL on FOX, as well as serving as host of FOX's NASCAR pre-race show and as a sideline reporter during the Major League Baseball postseason. He also hosts his own national radio show called The Drive on FOX Sports Radio, and recently hosted the Chris Myers Interview on FOX Sports Net.

During an 11-year tenure with ESPN, Myers was involved with several programs, including hosting Up Close, anchoring SportsCenter and reporting on Baseball Tonight. Myers also worked as host of ESPN's NFL Matchup. While at ESPN, Myers won his first Emmy for Top Sports Feature. Myers was born in Florida and began his career at age 16 in Miami, when he hosted his own football radio show called The Chris Myers Football Scoreboard.

Joining Myers as analyst is Buccaneers legend and Hall of Famer Rondé Barber, who will provide Bucs fans with astute analysis gleaned from a storied, 16-year NFL career with Tampa Bay. One of the most respected players in team history, Barber retired following the 2012 season and soon after signed with FOX Sports. 2025 marks Barber's 13th-year in the broadcast booth.

Barber, a five-time Pro Bowler, five-time AP All-Pro selection, and 2023 Hall of Fame inductee, entered the league as a third-round (66th overall) pick by the Buccaneers in the 1997 NFL Draft. He holds numerous team and league records, including a streak of 200 consecutive starts at cornerback, the most for that position in NFL history. Barber was a key component of the Tampa Bay defense that ruled the league in the late 1990s and early 2000s, helping bring the Bay Area a world championship in Super Bowl XXXVII.

Aileen Hnatiuk, who serves as a sports anchor and reporter for News Channel 8, will serve as the sideline analyst for the broadcasts. She is a Weeki Wachee native who graduated from Bishop McLaughlin Catholic High School and went on to graduate from East Carolina University. Prior to her work with WFLA, Hnatiuk worked as the sports anchor and reporter at WVLA/WGMB in Baton Rouge, LA, where she covered LSU and served as beat reporter for the New Orleans Saints.

BUCCANEERS RADIO NETWORK

GENE DECKERHOFF

DAVE MOORE

T.J. RIVES

iHeart Media's 98ROCK 97.9 FM will serve as the flagship station for the Buccaneers Radio Network. 98ROCK 97.9 FM will broadcast all Buccaneers games in stereo with a 100,000-watt signal that blankets the Tampa Bay area.

Handling the play-by-play duties for the 36th straight season is Gene Deckerhoff. Deckerhoff's 36 years of service with the Buccaneers currently ranks as the fifth-longest in the NFL. Considered one of the nation's premier play-by-play announcers, Deckerhoff also served as the voice of Florida State University football and basketball from 1979-2021.

Deckerhoff is the former play-by-play man for the USFL's Tampa Bay Bandits and also served as the sports director for WCTV-TV in Tallahassee. Deckerhoff is a 16-time recipient of the Florida Sportscaster of the Year award, as well as the winner of the 2013 National Football Foundation Chris Schenkel Award

Dave Moore, former Tampa Bay Buccaneers tight end, enters his 18th season as color analyst with the Buccaneers Radio Network.

Moore spent 13 of his 15 seasons in the NFL with the Buccaneers. The seventh-round draft pick (191st overall) started his first season with the Dolphins in 1992 before joining the Buccaneers. Following a stint in Buffalo during the 2002 campaign, Moore returned to the Bay area and finished his NFL career with 207 receptions for 2,028 receiving yards and 28 touchdowns. He also made a Pro Bowl appearance in 2006.

T.J. Rives begins his 20th season as Tampa Bay's sideline reporter. Rives is a radio and television veteran of the Tampa Bay area and nationally for the last 30 years. He graduated with a degree in broadcasting from the former Memphis State University.

Buccaneers fans across the state can tune into Tampa Bay games thanks to the Buccaneers Radio Network. Deckerhoff's descriptions of the action — including pre-game, halftime and post-game -- are simulcast on radio stations throughout the state.

CARLOS BOHORQUEZ

SANTIAGO GRAMATICA

As an extension of the Buccaneers Radio Network, WTMP 96.1 will serve as a Spanish audio alternative for all Buccaneers games, and for the second year, the broadcast simulcasted all preseason matchups with WFLA.

Buccaneers Legend Martín Gramática – the team's franchise record-holder for both points scored and field goals made – has given fans detailed insight for Buccaneers games as the color analyst since 2018. Prior to joining the radio network, Gramática played nine season as an NFL kicker, six of which were with Tampa. The Buccaneers recently nominated him for the NFL's 2023 Salute to Service Award for his impact with Veterans and housing initiatives. A mission curated by his family's foundation, The Gramática Family Foundation.

Similar to his brother, Santiago Gramática, was regarded as one of one of the premier kickers in the country, playing four seasons locally at the University of South Florida from 2001-04. Gramática was a finalist for the Lou Groza Award, an award honoring the top placekickers in the U.S., and finished his career as the third-highest scorer in school history. He is entering his fifth season as the sideline reporter for the Buccaneers.

Carlos Bohorquez, born and raised in Venezuela, serves as WTMP's play-by-play announcer. Throughout his career, Bohorquez has overseen the creation of many firsts and most recently assisted WFLA with Todo Tampa Bay, a local Hispanic lifestyle show. In addition to calling Buccaneers games, he became the first Spanish play-by-play for The University of Central Florida football in 2021. He has since been recognized as a "Community Media Person" by the Latin Chamber of Commerce.

BUCCANEERS.COM AND MOBILE APP

THE TAMPA BAY BUCCANEERS' DIGITAL HOME

Since its launch in 1999, Buccaneers.com has emerged as the definitive source for information, entertainment, video, photography, game coverage and locker-room access regarding the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. Now in conjunction with the app, the Buccaneers digital platforms continue to be on the cutting-edge of sports coverage and are dedicated to providing visitors with the sort of exclusive access that can't be gleaned from any other source.

The website and mobile app also provides fans and members of the media with coverage of all team press conferences following games, on the day after games and during special announcements. Many of these press conferences are streamed live on the site.

A special media section of Buccaneers.com includes dozens of items to help print, radio, television and Internet sources perform their jobs and keep football fans in the know.

2025 CHEERLEADERS & STUNT TEAM

Since 1976, the Tampa Bay Buccaneers Cheerleaders have served as ambassadors for one of the most distinguished franchises in the NFL, captivating Tampa Bay's avid fans, performing to worldwide acclaim, and cheering on the team to two Super Bowl titles.

The 27 athletes that comprise the dynamic squad are chosen from hundreds of candidates each year. On top of being talented performers, Buccaneers Cheerleaders represent a variety of professional fields including education, healthcare, real estate, dance, public policy and more. They are committed to supporting the Buccaneers on game days at Raymond James Stadium, as well as at community events and corporate appearances throughout the year.

In addition to their work in the West Central Florida region, the Tampa Bay Buccaneers Cheerleaders serve as ambassadors for the organization all over the United States and beyond, traveling to locations in Asia, Europe, and Australia to entertain and connect with the best fans in the NFL.

New this season, the Tampa Bay Buccaneers Cheerleaders proudly introduced a Stunt Team, featuring both co-ed and all-girl stunt groups, to elevate the game day experience with high-flying skills, elite partner stunting, and jaw-dropping athleticism. This exciting addition brings an electrifying new energy to the sidelines and showcases the team's continued evolution as a model of premier entertainment team in the NFL.

ANNA PARRISH

CHEERLEADING & MASCOT MANAGER

Anna Parrish enters her fifth season directing the Tampa Bay Buccaneers Cheerleaders as the team's Cheerleading & Mascot Manager. Parrish spent four seasons cheering with the Buccaneers, serving as a team captain in 2020. She has represented the organization in the Tampa Bay community, on a national stage and as a participant in the 2019 NFL International Series in London, along with military appreciation events abroad.

Parrish also has professional dance experience working with Rob Base, ZZ Top, Flo-Rida and New Kidz on the Block. Prior to joining the Buccaneers, Parrish danced for Universal Studios Orlando Resort and Busch Gardens.

Parrish previously enjoyed an active career in the fitness industry, opening and operating boutique fitness facilities, where she also served as an experienced instructor.
