

Press Statement by Mr Lee Hsien Loong Prime Minister Designate on New Appointments

1. The President has called upon Mr Lee Hsien Loong to be the next Prime Minister and to form the new government of Singapore. Mr Lee has accepted. The President's letter to Mr Lee is at Annex A. Mr Lee's reply is at Annex B. The new Cabinet list is at Annex C.

2. In addition, the Prime Minister designate intends to make the following arrangements.

MAS

Chairman – Mr Goh Chok Tong

3. Mr Lee Hsien Loong will relinquish the post of Chairman of MAS. Subject to the concurrence of the President, Mr Goh Chok Tong will be appointed Chairman of MAS in his place.

Deputy Chairman – Mr Tharman Shanmugaratnam

4. Mr Lim Hng Kiang will relinquish the post of Deputy Chairman of MAS, and will be succeeded in the post by Mr Tharman Shanmugaratnam.

DEPUTY PRIME MINISTERS

DPM and Coordinating Minister for Security and Defence –

Dr Tony Tan

5. Dr Tony Tan will be appointed Deputy Prime Minister and Co-ordinating Minister for Security and Defence to oversee the implementation of the Strategic Framework for National Security announced in Parliament on July 20. Dr Tan expects the new National Security Co-ordination Secretariat to be properly staffed and operational by 30 June 2005, after which he has requested to retire from the Cabinet as part of the political self-renewal. Mr Lee has agreed to Dr Tan's request and thanks him for helping to see through the transition and for his many years of service to the Government and the nation.

Deputy Prime Minister and Minister for Law – Prof S Jayakumar

6. Prof Jayakumar will be appointed Deputy Prime Minister and Minister for Law. He will chair a Cabinet Committee on foreign policy matters which cut across different ministries. He will also remain in charge of foreign policy issues which involve legal negotiation or international adjudication.

Mr Wong Kan Seng

7. Mr Wong Kan Seng will be appointed Deputy Prime Minister when Dr Tony Tan retires from the Cabinet.

MINISTRIES

Ministry of the Environment and Water Resources –

Assoc Prof Yaacob Ibrahim

8. The Ministry of the Environment will be renamed the Ministry of the Environment and Water Resources (MEWR), to reflect its significantly expanded role in charge of a strategic national resource. The Ministry took over responsibility for the Public Utilities Board in 2001. Besides ensuring a clean and hygienic living environment, it is now responsible for managing the complete water cycle – from sourcing, collection, purification and supply of drinking water; to treatment of used water and recycling into NEWater; as well as drainage of storm water.

9. Assoc Prof Yaacob Ibrahim will be appointed the Minister for the Environment and Water Resources. He will also continue to be in charge of Muslim affairs.

Ministry of Community Development, Youth and Sports –Dr Vivian Balakrishnan

10. The Ministry of Community Development and Sports will be renamed the Ministry of Community Development, Youth and Sports (MCYS). The name change signals the Government's commitment to engage young Singaporeans in shaping the future. The majority of Singaporeans were born after independence in 1965. They grew up in a transformed environment, and will express diverse needs and aspirations. The new MCYS will play a more active role in formulating programmes and working with other ministries to tap the energy, passion and idealism of these young Singaporeans. They will have more opportunities to contribute to society, initiate activities and projects, implement their ideas and develop into the leaders of tomorrow.

11. Dr Vivian Balakrishnan will be appointed the Acting Minister for Community Development, Youth and Sports.

Ministry of Information, Communications and the Arts

12. The acronym for the Ministry of Information, Communications and the Arts will be changed from MITA to MICA.

POLITICAL SECRETARYMr Tang Guan Seng

13. Mr Tang Guan Seng will be appointed Political Secretary to Mr Goh Chok Tong.

MAYORS

South East CDC – Mr Matthias Yao

14. Mr Matthias Yao will relinquish his appointment as Senior Minister of State in the Prime Minister's Office and be appointed Mayor of South East CDC.

15. Mr Othman Haron Eusofe will relinquish his appointment as Mayor of South East CDC. He will be appointed Minister of State in the Prime Minister's Office and be deployed to the NTUC.

South West CDC – Dr Amy Khor Lean Suan

16. Dr Amy Khor Lean Suan will be appointed Mayor of South West CDC in place of Mrs Yu-Foo Yee Shoon, who becomes Minister of State in the Ministry of Community Development, Youth and Sports.

Central Singapore CDC and North East CDC

17. Mr Heng Chee How will continue as Mayor of Central Singapore CDC, and Mr Zainul Abidin Rasheed as Mayor of North East CDC, concurrently with their appointments as Ministers of State.

North West CDC – Dr Teo Ho Pin

18. Dr Teo Ho Pin will continue as Mayor of North West CDC.

RETIREMENT

Mr Lee Yock Suan

19. Mr Lee Yock Suan, Minister in the Prime Minister's Office and Second Minister for Foreign Affairs will be retiring from the government.

20. Mr Lee Yock Suan was appointed Minister of State in the Ministry of National Development in 1981 and Minister of State in the Ministry of Finance in 1983. He has been successively Minister for Labour, Minister for Education, Minister for Trade and Industry, Second Minister for Finance, Minister for Information and the Arts and Minister for Environment, before assuming his present appointment in 2001.

21. The Prime Minister designate thanks Mr Lee Yock Suan for his services and many contributions.
