CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS CALENDAR
HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTIONS
SECOND READING

The following resolutions were laid before the house and read second time:

HJR 1 ON SECOND READING

(by Meyer, Bonnen, Button, Martinez Fischer, Bernal, et al.)

HJR 1, A joint resolution proposing a constitutional amendment to authorize the legislature to exempt from ad valorem taxation a portion of the market value of tangible personal property a person owns that is held or used for the production of income.

Amendment No. 1

Representative Virdell offered the following amendment to HJR 1:

Amend HJR 1 (house committee report) on page 1, line 9, by striking "$250,000" and substituting "$1 million".

AMENDMENT NO. 1 - REMARKS

REPRESENTATIVE VIRDELL: I appreciate what Mr. Meyer has filed here. I also feel that it needs to be higher. Business owners already pay sales tax on many things to include tooling, microwaves, vehicles, furniture, computers, equipment, et cetera. Many of you are business owners and understand what I am talking about here. To be taxed annually on items that sales tax has already been paid for is immoral and unfair, and I would like to ask that members vote yes to my amendment.

REPRESENTATIVE LITTLE: Representative Virdell, do you know how much in tax our state has overcollected from its citizens and businesses such that we have a surplus in this state?

VIRDELL: I do know we have a surplus. I don't know the number.

LITTLE: Would it sound correct if I shared with you that it was around $24 billion?

VIRDELL: That does sound correct.

LITTLE: I note that the fiscal note on this house joint resolution is $566 million. Seems like we have a lot of room left to solve this problem, do we not, Representative Virdell?

VIRDELL: I would agree with that, Representative Little.

LITTLE: You may have heard Chairman Hunter state earlier that we have a balanced budget in this state. If we have a $24 billion surplus, it doesn't sound like we have a balanced budget in our state, does it?

VIRDELL: It does not.

LITTLE: Do you own a business, Representative Virdell?

VIRDELL: I have, and my family does.

LITTLE: When you owned a business, did you pay franchise taxes?

VIRDELL: Yes.

LITTLE: Real property tax?

VIRDELL: Yes.

LITTLE: Business personal property tax?

VIRDELL: Yep.

LITTLE: Federal income tax?

VIRDELL: Yes, sir.

LITTLE: Sales tax?

VIRDELL: Yep.

LITTLE: We can afford this amendment as a state, can't we, Mr. Virdell?

VIRDELL: Yes, sir. Appreciate your questions.

LITTLE: Why don't we go ahead and move this amendment through—put more money back into the pockets of the people that are guaranteeing the "Texas Miracle." This is a good amendment, and I recommend that we all vote for it and support it.

REPRESENTATIVE LUTHER: Mr. Virdell, when you buy a car in this state, how many times do you pay taxes on it?

VIRDELL: You pay the sales tax on it, and then if you are a business owner, you're going to pay an annual property tax on the value of that vehicle also.

LUTHER: So for every year that you own that or it's part of your business, you're going to pay for it multiple times?

VIRDELL: That's correct. And same for forklifts and many other equipment—all other equipment.

LUTHER: So is that a form of double taxation?

VIRDELL: It is 100 percent double taxation.

LUTHER: Thank you, sir. I move that this amendment get passed.

REPRESENTATIVE MEYER: I am going to move to table this amendment. We are currently aligned with the senate in the amount of business tax relief we are able to provide pursuant to our budgets. The senate, if you'll take a look at their base budget, has about $500 million. This exemption costs about $560 million. And so what we're trying to do is have a comprehensive package of tax relief for Texans. And so this is the limit that we have gotten to with the senate. We're aligned with the senate. And quite frankly, if something like this were to pass—and don't get me wrong, in the future, I would love to see this get increased—then we would naturally have to take from HB 8, from the other property tax relief. It would shift from our individual residents the property tax relief we want to provide them. So for those reasons, I move to table.

Representative Meyer moved to table Amendment No. 1.

VIRDELL: Like I said, I really appreciate Representative Meyer filing this bill. I think it's a great bill. And I think that regardless of whether this amendment passes or not, we should pass this bill. But I would like to ask that y'all take a vote on this, and I hope somebody will request a record vote on this amendment.

The motion to table prevailed by (Record 65): 102 Yeas, 42 Nays, 1 Present, not voting.
